Counsel for Petitioner

Pursuant to Rule 39, petitioner General Grant Wilson respectfully moves for leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this case. In support of his motion, through his undersigned counsel, a member of the bar of this Court, Mr. Wilson states as follows:

1. In this case, Mr. Wilson seeks review of the decision of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals and underlying rulings, upholding his criminal judgment and sentence in Milwaukee County Circuit Court Case No. 1993CF931541, because that judgment and sentence are inconsistent with federal constitutional requirements.

2. On October 31, 2018, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals docketed an order filed by the Wisconsin State Public Defender's Office appointing the undersigned attorney as appellate counsel for Mr. Wilson (attached). This appointment of counsel was pursuant to Wis. Stat. Chapter 977 and § 809.30.

3. I represented Mr. Wilson in the Wisconsin Court of Appeals and the Wisconsin Supreme Court, pro bono, as appointed counsel; previously, Anne Berleman Kearney had been appointed counsel and similarly represented Mr. Wilson, pro bono.

4. In the Court of Appeals, I was appointed as counsel for Mr. Wilson because of his poverty. That fact has not since changed. Mr. Wilson has been incarcerated since 1993.

5. Because of poverty, Mr. Wilson cannot properly prepay the docketing fees in the United States Supreme Court in order to file his petition for writ of certiorari.

WHEREFORE, petitioner General Grant Wilson respectfully requests that this motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this case be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Anne Berleman Kearney

Office of the State Public Defender - Notice to Clients - File Retention Policy

When an attorney represents an individual, s/he makes and keeps a file of the documents and work done on the case. Attorneys on staff with the Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) create and maintain such files for each case. This notice applies only to cases handled by staff attorneys of the Office of the State Public Defender. If your case has been assigned to a private attorney, please consult that attorney about his or her file retention policy.

Upon the conclusion of the representation in this case, the SPD will, upon your request, deliver the original file or any portion requested, to you, along with any of your original documents or other property that the SPD has in its possession.

If you do not request your file, the SPD will retain it for a period of at least five years after the matter is closed. At any point during this period, you may request delivery of the file. If you do not request the file before the end of the five-year period, the SPD may, in its discretion, destroy the file and its contents without further notice to you.
