Scott S. Harris,
clerk of the Supreme Court of United States

Gwendolyn Thorpe V One main financial case No:21-6867

Dear Mr. Harris,

I would like to petition for a rehearing;

The rule 10, 12.3, 15.3, 15.5, 29, 15.6, 16.1, and 15 that I'm presenting is that the grounds are limited to intervening circumstances of substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial grounds not previously presented, and that the petition for rehearing is presented in good faith and not for delay. I received the court decision for denial letter on 3-24-2022.

when I was sent the guide for prospective indigent petitioner for a writ of certiorari it advised to read carefully the considerations governing review on certiorari set forth in rule 10. Accordingly pursuant to rule 12.3 that a petition for a writ of certiorari in the above-entitled case was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States on December 4, 2021 and placed on the docket January 14, 2021. Accordingly pursuant to rule 15.3 the counsel for respondent due date for a brief in opposition was Monday February 14, 2022. accordingly pursuant to rule 15.5 the clerk will distribute the petition to the court for its consideration upon receiving if no waiver or brief in opposition is filed, upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing. Accordingly pursuant to rule 29 the brief in opposition shall be served, I wasn't served, the only thing I received was the court's denial letter on 3-24-2022. accordingly pursuant to rule 15.6 I didn't get to reply brief addressed to new point raised in the brief in opposition. Accordingly pursuant to rule 16.1 after considering the documents distributed under rule 15 the court will enter an appropriate order, the order may be a summary disposition on the merits, so therefor the petition should be granted, and the clerk received all documents to qualify for any relief.

Sincerely your
