CASE NO. 21-7009

CRISTIAN M. LOGA-NEGRU,
Petitioner,

v.

STATE OF WISCONSIN,
Respondent.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

The Petitioner, Cristian M. Loga-Negru, respectfully asks the Court pursuant to Rule 44.6 for a rehearing of the petition for a Writ of Certiorari to which a judgment was issued on March 28, 2022. The following grounds are tendered to support this request:

1. The Petitioner experienced loss of property since the beginning of his preparation for submitting the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari, and the only meaningful post-deprivation remedy was the purchase of the six volumes of the Wisconsin Statutes and Annotations, edition 2019-2020.

2. The purchase receipt was already submitted to the Court, along with an explanation of the intervening circumstances represented by the updates of the substantial laws applicable to the issue presented in the Petitioner's Petition and attached supplements. The Official limitation on the legal material an inmate can keep affects the understanding of his case and controls the progress of his knowledge.

3. As an example, the Constitutional Joint Resolution from 2019-2020, related to Section 9m of the Wisconsin Constitution, amended on April 2020, may have impacted or changed retroactively the value of the prosecutor's charging decision, and as a consequence, the meaning of the petitioner's argument related to this issue.

4. The legislative intent of strengthening the victims role in the criminal process, and their rights to speedy resolutions, could also change their involvement during the plea bargaining and thereby the amount of disclosures afforded to the accused.

Based on the foregoing, the Petitioner respectfully submits that his petition for rehearing is reasonably justified.

Dated this 15TH day of May, 2022.

Respectfully Submitted,

Cristian M. Loga-Negru,
pro-se.

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY, VALIDITY, AND SUFFICIENCY

---

Through this Certificate of Interest, the self-represented Petitioner, Cristian M. Loga-Negru, certifies that the following information is in compliance with any of the Supreme Court Rules 44.6, 33, 34, and 29.2:

1. A real and genuine interest exists in a reconsideration of the above-entitled case, and the cause within.

2. The grounds in support of the requested reconsideration are limited to the intervening circumstances represented by the deprivation of property and interferences resulting therefrom.

3. The periodic updates of the law and the shifts in the dynamics of legislative intent always have a substantial and controlling effect on the charging decisions and policies employed by prosecutors to represent their communities.

4. The corrected form of the petition is hereby timely submitted after the Clerk's letter arrival on May 13, 2022.

5. The Petition for Rehearing states briefly and distinctly a substantial ground for review not previously presented.

6. The Petition for Rehearing is presented in good faith and not for delay.

7. This certificate bear the authentic signature of the Petitioner in the above-entitled case, as an unre-presented party.

Respectfully submitted, this 15TH day of May, 2022.
