SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Lee Holland, pro se -- Petitioner

VS.

United States -- Respondent

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF "IN FORMA PAUPERIS"

In the event the Court does not "honor this seventy-nine-year-old, (almost), one-hundred and ninety percent, disabled navy-veteran's Motion for Reconsideration," he would, respectfully request "door, number-two;" whereas, he submits forty-bound-copies, plus, one loose "Petition of Certiorari," in addition to his three-hundred-dollars.

Respectfully Submitted,

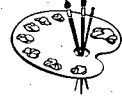

Lee Holland, pro se

No. 21-7205

Supreme Court of the United States
Office of the Clerk
Washington, DC 20543-0001

Dear Sirs/Madam:

Thank you for your recent correspondence. I appreciate your "hard-work;" your service within the Nation's Supreme Court; your attention to detail, and, specifically, to my efforts "in correcting what I perceive as a personal injustice."

I am submitting "an additional four-hundred, and fifty-dollars, for my Motion for Reconsideration of forma pauperis." Hopefully, the Court will view my "pro se status" in a favorable light, and save me my "badly needed funds" to spend on other "needed-necessities."

Thank you, again, for your attention; and, any other assistance that you may offer will very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

Lee Holland, pro se
