

Supreme Court of United States

Samuel Lee Gore
Petitioner

vs

Gus J. Skropas, et al
Respondents

No. 21-7264
2nd Amended Motion for Reconsideration
En Banc

To Supreme Court of United States En Banc

The petition for Writ of Certiorari before the Supreme Court is based on the Bill of Rights of the Constitution of the United States. Not a letter, word, or sentence has been taken out of context to alter the meaning of the United States Constitution's 5th and 14th amendments. Thus far, judges have intentionally neglected to answer the Constitutional question presented them: "Was I, Samuel Lee Gore, given a grand jury hearing?" Their neglect is a dereliction of duty/Oath, and dereliction of duty/Oath is at the least a misdemeanor.

This is the Supreme Court's opportunity to correct this Constitutional violation, or become a party to it.

Judicial power is vested in the Supreme Court; therefore, it is the Supreme Court's duty to correct the inferior Courts when error has been made.

I, the Petitioner, understands it is not the responsibility of the Supreme Court to change a verdict. The Supreme Court is responsible for ensuring the law of the Constitution of the United States is followed. The inferior Courts are responsible for remedy.

The Constitution of United States article III Section 1 states, "The judicial powers of the United States shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish.

The Judges both of the supreme and inferior Courts shall hold their offices during good behavior..."

Article II, Section 4 states, "The President, Vice-President, and all civic officers of the United States shall be removed from office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, other high crimes and misdemeanors."

The Judges who sit at the supreme and inferior Courts of the United States take an Oath to support, defend, bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of the United States; and to faithfully discharge the duties upon which they are about to enter. Taking of Oath is legal acceptance of office.

The Petitioner's request is simple, rule according to the law of the Constitution of the United States.

Answer the grand jury Constitutional question at the core of this Petition.

I, Samuel Lee Gore, Petitioner, is unschooled in law making this depends on Haines v. Kerner 404 U.S. 519 to have his Writ of Certiorari and Petition heard by the very Court which established this precedence. I thank the Supreme Court for their time.

I, the Petitioner have presented the Writ of Certiorari, Motion for Reconsideration in good faith and request the Supreme Court to return the same good faith. The Petitioner has nothing to gain by delay.

The grounds of the Writ of Certiorari, Motion for Reconsideration are well documented with the Constitution of United States, and decisions/actions of inferior Courts being self-certifying.

I, Samuel Lee Gore, Petitioner, certify and declare that the foregoing statements herein are factual,
true, and correct to my personal knowledge
under the penalty of perjury laws of the United States
