PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Frank Brown #01980921

pro se,

Torres Unit

125 Private Rd. 4303

Hondo, TX. 78861

PETITIONER'S MOTION TO EXTEND THE TIME TO FILE A PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI FOR 30 DAYS

on 7-22-21 petitioner's request for certificate of Appealability was denied.

petitioner wishes to file a writ of certiorari appealing the said judgement in the above listed proceeding.

petitioner request this court to extend the deadline for 30 days to file a petition for writ of certiorari making petitioner's deadline to file a petition for writ of certiorari 01-20-2022.

petitioner will present to the court the following that good cause exist to grant the extension:

- There are several complex legal issues that petitioner needs to research in order to be able to litigate his claims in his petition for writ of certiorari
- Petitioner is only allowed 10 hours a week in the prison law library, which some times petitioner is getting less than 10 hours a week due to the restriction(s) that COVID-19 has placed on the institution (social distancing) admitting less access to the law library at one time thereby reducing the amount of time that petitioner is having access to the law library.
- petitioner has 4 active cases in the courts see Brown v. Lumpkin, 4:20-cv-03108 united states District court for the Southern District, Houston Division see Brown v. Lumpkin, 4:20-cv-02117 United States District Court For the Southern District, Houston Division.

See Brown v. Lumpkin, 4:21-cv-00055 United States District Court For the Southern District, Houston Division.

See Brown v. Lumpkin, 13795 CV in the the county court at law of walker county, TEXAS.

For the reason(s) emphasized above petitioner has presented that good cause exist to grant petitioner's motion to extend the time to file a petition for writ of certiorari for 30 days making petitioner's ~~deadline~~ deadline to file a petition for writ of certiorari up to and including January 20, 2022.
