PETITION For A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Pursuant to Rule 44.2
James Ray Davis respectfully petition for rehearing of the Court May 23th 2022, order denying certiorari in this case No. 21-7417

GROUND FOR Rehearing

I James R. Davis draw the Court's attention to the failures on the part of either the district Court or the Eighth Circuit to remand the case to allow for additional translation of documents pertaining directly to the central factual and legal issue, most notably the decision of an appellate court vacating the convictions of the defendants in a companion case to this one, and transcripts of the trial in that Davis case. This substantial and significant ground was raised in the courts below, but was not previously presented in this Court due solely to space limitations in the Petition for a Writ of certiorari. Petitioners submit that this information complements the previously filed Petition and highlights the need to address the question of whether U.S. law enforcement should be able to circumvent the Constitution by relying on a joint investigation involving foreign law enforcement, my right was violated

Conclusion

Base on the grounds stated above, which were not previously presented to the Court, rehearing of the denial of a Petition for a  ~~writ~~ Writ of Certiorari should be granted.
