Re: Power Home Solar, LLC v. James Rickenbaugh, et al., No. 21-747
On Petition for Writ of Certiorari from the Supreme Court of North Carolina
Second Motion to Extend Time to File Brief

Dear Sir/Madam,

Our law firm represents James and Mary Rickenbaugh, Individually and on Behalf of Others Similarly Situated ("Respondents"), in the matter captioned above. Pursuant to Rule 30.4 of the Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States ("Rules") and the Supreme Court's February 2020 Memorandum Concerning the Deadlines for Cert Stage Pleadings and the Scheduling of Cases for Conference, this letter moves to extend the time to file a brief in opposition by 90 days, through and including June 13, 2022. Opposing counsel has consented to the extension.

Counsel for Respondents received the Clerk's letter, dated January 11, 2022, requesting that we file a response to the petition for certiorari filed in this matter. The Clerk's letter requested a response on or before February 10, 2022. On February 3, 2022, our firm requested a 30-day extension to March 14, 2022, which the Court granted on February 9, 2022.

Since our law firm submitted the earlier request, the parties to this case have reached a settlement agreement in principle, and anticipate this matter will eventually be dismissed. However, the parties continue to finalize details regarding the agreement. Presently, it appears unlikely that the parties will be able to finalize the terms of their agreement and dismiss this matter before the March 14, 2022 deadline.

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

In light of these circumstances, Respondents respectfully request a 90-day extension to file their response. Pursuant to Rule 30.1 of the Rules, because that 90-day extension would fall on Sunday, June 12, 2022, Respondents respectfully request an extension to the following Monday, June 13, 2022.

As noted above, our firm has contacted opposing counsel, who have consented to the extension.

The undersigned has this day served opposing counsel via U.S. Mail and Electronic Mail:
