

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

ALAN L. GALLAGHER,

No. 21-7534

Petitioner,

Vs

CAPELLA EDUCATION COMPANY et al.,

Motion for Reconsideration

Respondents,

Based upon Justice (to be done) and its appearance (to be seen—supervision of lower courts), motion for reconsideration is hereby made.

The 9th Circuit cancelled oral argument and refused (on the record) to read written oral argument.

Neither the District nor 9th Circuit read the dissertation (in the record), required to assess arguments.

Capella and other universities disclaim contracts against themselves but are allowed to enforce them against students. "Sauce for the goose...."

District and 9th Circuit agree there are exceptions to educational immunity where exist allegations of arbitrary, irrational, capricious, or retaliatory behavior, herein alleged, which should survive motion to dismiss where they must be taken as true.

This should result in jury trial.

8-1 May

All Mentors/Committee members praised/recommended the Dissertation (published on Amazon/Kindle), self-evidently of graduate quality. Rejection is thus irrational.

Respectfully submitted this 6th day of May 2022,
