TRIAL COURT/ID: Lancaster County District Court CI21-1774

The following filing: Mot. of Appellee for Summary Affirmance
Filed on 11/08/21
Filed by appellee State of Nebraska

Has been reviewed by the court and the following order entered:

Appellees' motion for summary affirmance granted. See Neb. Ct. R. App. P. § 2-107(B)(2). Where the court has jurisdiction of the parties and the subject matter, its judgment is not subject to collateral attack. See Sanders v. Frakes, 295 Neb. 374, 888 N.W.2d 514 (2016). Thus, a writ of habeas corpus will not lie to discharge a person from a sentence of penal servitude where the court imposing the sentence had jurisdiction of the offense and the person of the defendant, and the sentence was within the power of the court to impose. Id. A writ of habeas corpus may not be used as a substitute for an appeal. Id. The regularity of the proceedings leading up to the sentence in a criminal case cannot be inquired into on an application for writ of habeas corpus, for that matter is available only in a direct proceeding. Id.

This ~~motion~~ has been rejected by the United States Supreme Court, more than 80 years ago & remains controlling precedent law to this day.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF DOUGLAS COUNTY, NEBRASKA

STATE OF NEBRASKA,

Plaintiff,

Vs.

BRANDON J. WEATHERS,

Defendant.

CASE NO. CR 14-3300

SENTENCING ORDER

This matter came on for sentencing the 17th day of February, 2016. Defendant was present in Court self-represented with legal advisors, Rob Marcuzzo and Natalie Andrews. Appearing for and representing the State of Nebraska was Deputy County Attorney Brenda Beadle. On December 11, 2015 the Defendant was found guilty by jury on Ct. I: Sexual Assault on a Child First Degree, a Class IB Felony and Ct. II: Sexual Assault on a Child First Degree, a Class IB Felony.

The Defendant was informed of conviction for this crime and he stated no reason why sentence should not be passed against him. The Defendant was given his right of allocution and the Court could find no legal reason why sentence should not be passed against him. Thereupon, it is the judgment and sentence of the Court that Defendant be imprisoned in an institution under the jurisdiction of the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services for a period of 50 - 80 years, each count, to run consecutively, no part of which shall be in solitary confinement, and judgment is rendered against the Defendant for the costs of prosecution. Commitment ordered accordingly. Credit for time served of 461 days shall be given against the sentence imposed.

It is further ordered that pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. §29-4106 (Reissue 2008), as amended by L.B. 190, 2010 Nebraska Laws, the Defendant shall submit to a DNA test and shall pay to the Nebraska Department of Correctional Services twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Such amount may be taken by the Department of Correctional Services from funds held by the Defendant in the trust account maintained by the Department of Correctional Services on behalf of the Defendant, until the full amount in the order has been remitted.

Notification of Registration Responsibilities Under Nebraska Sex Offender Registration Act were read to the Defendant in open Court. Defendant refused to sign. Defendant acknowledged he understood his obligations under the Act.

Bond released and exonerated. Mittimus signed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 17th day of February, 2016.

Exhibit #1

III. Ineffective assistance of appellate counsel

Defendant had separate appointed counsel, not the standby counsel, for his direct appeal. Defendant makes several allegations of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel. When analyzing a claim of ineffective assistance of appellate counsel, the Court must determine whether appellate counsel failed to bring a claim on appeal that actually prejudiced the defendant. State v. Timmons, 282 Neb. 787, 805 N.W.2d 704 (2011). In doing so, the court begins by assessing the strength of the claim appellate counsel purportedly failed to raise. State v. Jim, 278 Neb. 238, 245, 786 N.W.2d 464 (2009). Counsel's failure to raise an issue on appeal could be ineffective assistance only if there is a reasonable probability that inclusion of the issue would have changed the result of the appeal. Id.; see also State v. Golka, 281 Neb. 360, 378, 796 N.W.2d 198 (2011); State v. McLeod, 274 Neb. 566, 741 N.W.2d 664 (2007). The Nebraska Supreme Court has further explained that a reasonable probability "is a probability sufficient to undermine confidence in the outcome." State v. Poe, 284 Neb. 750, 822 N.W.2d 831 (2012).

The majority of Defendant's ineffective assistance of appellate counsel claims are based on failing to set forth arguments relating to ineffective assistance of trial counsel, however as noted above, those arguments would be unsuccessful based on Gunter. Appellate counsel was also not ineffective for failing to allege Defendant did not voluntarily waive his right to counsel, as the record supports Defendant waived this right knowing the consequences of the decision (BOE 70:16-18). Any remaining claims relating to ineffective assistance of appellate counsel are denied without an evidentiary hearing, because Defendant's motion fails to articulate any issues that would have "changed the result of the appeal."
