MOLLY C. DWYER, CLERK
U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

STEPHEN HARMON,

No. 21-71356

Applicant,

v.

ORDER

EARL HOUSER,

Respondent.

Before: SILVERMAN, MILLER, and BUMATAY, Circuit Judges.

The application for authorization to file a second or successive 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas petition in the district court, as supplemented, is denied. The applicant has not made a prima facie showing under 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(2) that:

(A) the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable; or

(B)(i) the factual predicate for the claim could not have been discovered previously through the exercise of due diligence; and (ii) the facts underlying the claim, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that, but for constitutional error, no reasonable factfinder would have found the applicant guilty of the underlying offense.

Any pending motions are denied as moot.

No further filings will be entertained in this case.

DENIED.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF ALASKA
SPECIAL ORDER OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE
ORDER NO. 8130

On March 11, 2020, Governor Dunleavy issued a Public Health Disaster Emergency due to the potential spread of the novel coronavirus disease. On March 13, President Trump declared that the novel coronavirus outbreak constitutes a national emergency. On March 13, Governor Dunleavy issued a mandate closing all public schools statewide until March 30.

These emergency declarations may affect the availability of court staff, attorneys, and jurors to begin new jury trials. The Second and Third Judicial Districts have already cancelled new jury trials for the coming week. On March 19, the Alaska Supreme Court is scheduled to consider an emergency order relaxing court rules in response to this potential outbreak. In the meantime, these circumstances provide good cause under Alaska Criminal Rule 45(d)(7) to postpone impending trials.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the court system will stop beginning new jury trials statewide for the week of March 16-20 and thereafter pending further order.

UNITED STATE DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF ALASKA

District Court No. _____

"MOTION FOR FED. RULES OF CIV. PROC. R. 60(b)(4)(5)(6)
ON ORDERS AND PROCEEDINGS THAT THE COURT "LACKED SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION" ON THE PROCEEDINGS AND PERSON RESULTING IN ORDERS ARE VOID AND FOR DENIAL OF DUE PROCESS AND SPEEDY
TRIAL (resentencing and sentencing)"
Violations

Comes now Petitioner Stephen Harmon Prose, and Motions this Court pursuant to FED. Rules of Civ. Proc. Rule 60(4)(5)(6) on the following ORDERS from the Alaska Supreme Court that

Issue/Claim(s):

#1.) The Alaska Supreme Court (issued--March 15, 2020) in (Special) Order #8130 (see attached as ORDER #3 Appealing/Petitioning) that issued this ORDER "Suspending/and/postponing "ALL" Jury Trials (including the sentencing and resentencing Trials) in "ALL" Judicial Court system in violation of Alaska Constitution Art. IV § 15 Rule Making Power that "specifically does not authorize "any" Supreme Court Judge to "Change" any Court Rules. this Constitutional mandate reads ... "the Supreme Court shall make (not change) and promulgate rules governing the Admin. of "ALL" courts. It shall make (not change) and promulgate rules governing practice and procedure in civil & criminal cases in "ALL" court. These rules may be changed by the legislature by a two-thirds vote of the members in each house."

1 this ORDER #8130 took away "ALL" subject Matter Jurisdiction in
2 "ALL" Courts in Alaska (Trial , Appeal, Supreme) and thus Harmon
3 was denied acces to "any" Court that could and did have any
4 Subject Matter Jurisdiction authority to hear and or determine
5 any proceeding Harmon may and did file into.

6 Harmon had filed a Civ.Rule 60(b)(4)(5) Void Judgement Motion
7 into the Trial Court on Feb.28,2020 (16-days prior to the Supreme
8 Court looseing/takeing away the Trial Court Subject Matter Juris-
9 diction dening Speedy Trial (resentencing) and due process rights
10 Harmon. This filing was asking the Trial Court to have judgement
11 of (35(a)Motion to correct Illegal sentence on Case No. 4FA-13-
12 2849CI be voided and corrected unconstitutional/presumptive
13 sentence.

14 The Trial Court denied this Motion for Rule 60(b)(4)(5) with-
15 out determining the merits of the Claim/issues.

16 Harmon files Appeal into the Court of Appeals on Case No. of 17 A-13760 and the Appeals Court "also" now issues ORDER of Standing
18 ORDER #12 in violation of Alaska Const.Art.IV§15 Rule making
19 power by changeing Court Rules to now allow the State to have
20 not to comply with timelimits and granting very lengthy extension
21 of time inviolation of Court rules on Books reuirement without
22 any justification/authorization lawfully to change court Rules.

23 Harmon ask the Court reverse these unconstitutional ORDERS as
24 Court did not have jrurisdiction on the matter and Court of Appa-
25 Appeals denies this Notice that Court lack jurisdiciton and Harmon
26 files an Appeal into the Supreme Court on these Two denied ORDER.

APPENDIX --- Letter "B" (pg.7 of 29)

1 the Supreme Court Case No. of S-18130 and Harmon "files" a Motion
2 into the Suprme Court asking the Court to Take Notice it has no
3 Subject Matter Jurisdiction based on the Issueing and promulgating
4 of Special ORDER #8130 (see attachment #3) and the Supreme Court
5 Denies to Take Notice thru a "single "Judge Order (see attachment
6 #1 ORDER appealin/Petitioning herein) and thus Harmon files Motions
7 the Full Court (reconsider) and Take Notice of Loss/Lack of Subject
8 Matter Jurisdiction and the Full Court of Supreme Court ignored
9 and denied to Take Notice or rule why it will not/did not and or 10 why continue on with the considering the Appeal as if it had/has 11 lawful Subject Matter Jurisdiciton when in fact it does not and
12 is a clear showing the Supreme Court Knowingly and willfully denyin
13 Harmon lawful and timely and meaningful proceedings and denial
14 of due process and speedy trial rights (resentencing) and denial
15 of liberty interest by maintaing Harmon held unlawfully/unconsti-
16 tutionally and without any lawful recourse in the Alaska Court
17 systems or currently can provide in any Court (Trial Court/Appeal
18 Court/Supreme Court) because of take away of Subject Matter Juris-
19 diction thru ORDER #8130 of Supreme Court.

20 Psy Harmon filed this "Notice asking the Court to Take Notice of 21 Lack of Subject Matter" thru/authorization of (O'link v O'link 632
22 P.2d 225 (Ak.S.Ct.) ..."Subject matter jurisdiction issues may be raised
23 at any time during the litigation and the Court
24 must be raised "by" the court itself if parties
25 fail to do so..."

26 and citing of Rodriquez v Rodriquez 908 P.2d 1007

..."a court that does not have subject matter jurisdiction is without power to decide the case. this issue cannot be waived
...it is a buse of discretion to deny the parties amendment
(notice)..."

And in The Trial Court

The Trial Court failed to apply the 4 prong test to determine if or not Harmons Claims/Issues had or had not been ever "determined by any Court litigated by any court in/pursuant to:

Strong v Williams 435 P.3d 872 (AK.S.Ct.)

Court was required to apply and determine if met of:

- (2) the issue precluded from litigation is identical to the issue decided in the first action.
- (3) the issue was resolved in the first action "by" a final judgement "on" the "merits"
- (4) the determination of the issue "was determined to be essential "in" the final judgement.."

This showing was never addressed in the Trial Court and was again shown in the Appeal in the Appeal Court under Point #3 currently before the Appeals Court on Case No. A-13760 that the Appeals Court "does Not" either have any Subject Matter Jurisdiction to hear or determine this Appeal.

RELIEF is Due pursuant to:

- 1.)... "Rule 60(b) was designed to permit desirable legal objective that case might be decided on their merits..."

American Trucking Ass'ns v Frisco Transp.co. 358 U.S 133, 79 S.Ct. 170 3L.Ed.2d 172, 1958 U.S.LEXIS 1778 (1958)

- 2.) ... "Procedural Due-Process, scope of protection United States v Mierzanika (F.Supp.573)

- 3.) ... CAUTION: In order to proceed in federal court, you must first exhaust your state court remedies as to each ground on which you request action by the federal court. You are cautioned that there is a one-year limitations period in which to file a habeas petition in federal court, and that a petition brought under § 2254 will be dismissed if not brought within that period, unless there are "extraordinary circumstances" beyond your control that made it impossible to file your petition on time. The one year limitations period is tolled (suspended) during any state court post-conviction proceedings.^{1/} If you file a petition in federal court before you have fully exhausted your claim(s) in state court, the federal petition will not toll the statute of limitations.

^{1/} 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d)(1): A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of—

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

(C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

(2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

11. If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, explain why the one-year statute of limitations does not bar your petition. (1.) GROUND S FOR RELIEF

For your information, the following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in habeas corpus proceedings. (You may also have grounds that are not listed here.) Do not check any of these listed grounds. If you select any of these grounds for relief, you must allege facts. The petition will be returned to you if you merely check specific grounds.

- a. Conviction obtained by plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced or not made voluntarily with an understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.
- b. Conviction obtained by use of coerced confession.
- c. Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unconstitutional search and seizure.
- d. Conviction obtained by use of evidence gained pursuant to an unlawful arrest.
- e. Conviction obtained by a violation of the privilege against self-incrimination.
- f. Conviction obtained by the unconstitutional failure of the prosecution to disclose to the defendant evidence favorable to the defendant.
- g. Conviction obtained by a violation of the protection against double jeopardy.
- h. Conviction obtained by action of a grand or petit jury which was unconstitutionally selected and impaneled.
- i. Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
- j. Denial of right of appeal

State each ground for which you claim that the state court conviction and/or sentence is unconstitutional. Summarize briefly and concisely the facts supporting each ground. If you claim more than three grounds, make copies of blank pages 5 - 6, and attach those pages stating additional grounds and facts that support those grounds. You must raise in this petition all grounds for relief that relate to this conviction. Any grounds not raised in this petition will likely be barred from being litigated in a future action.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE
ORDER NO. 8130

On March 11, 2020, Governor Dunleavy issued a Public Health Disaster Emergency due to the potential spread of the novel coronavirus disease. On March 13, President Trump declared that the novel coronavirus outbreak constitutes a national emergency. On March 13, Governor Dunleavy issued a mandate closing all public schools statewide until March 30.

These emergency declarations may affect the availability of court staff, attorneys, and jurors to begin new jury trials. The Second and Third Judicial Districts have already cancelled new jury trials for the coming week. On March 19, the Alaska Supreme Court is scheduled to consider an emergency order relaxing court rules in response to this potential outbreak. In the meantime, these circumstances provide good cause under Alaska Criminal Rule 45(d)(7) to postpone impending trials.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the court system will stop beginning new jury trials statewide for the week of March 16-20 and thereafter pending further order.
