Re: Russomanno v. Dan Dugan, et al.
Case No. 21-787

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am counsel of record for Respondents in the above-mentioned matter. Pursuant to Rule 30.4, Respondents respectfully request a 30-day extension of the deadline for filing their brief in opposition to Petitioner's Petition for a Writ of Certiorari from December 29, 2021 to January 28, 2022.

The basis for the request is the press of other matters, most of which was on my calendar long before I received the petition for certiorari in this case. I have had other significant obligations, which have included two full-day mediations, numerous full-day depositions, an appellate brief in the Third Circuit, and I had also planned to be out of the office from December 20, 2021 through January 3, 2022.

An extension will allow us to meet these obligations while preparing a response that adequately addresses the points raised in the petition. Therefore, Respondents respectfully request a 30-day extension until January 28, 2022, so that I can adequately prepare an opposition to the petition for a writ of certiorari and meet my other responsibilities.

I am not currently a member of the Bar of this Court, but my application is currently pending. I further acknowledge that the brief in opposition must be filed by a Bar member. Pro se petitioner has not consented to this request.

Sincerely,

Christie Pazdzierski
