PETITION FOR THE WRIT OF CERTIORARI
TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE SECOND CIRCUIT OF NEW YORK
PRO SE CIVIL CASE #21-1940

MOTION TO LEAVE TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

HEREBY, I, Kristine Arutyunyan, a pro se petitioner motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis with the Supreme Court of the United States for Writ of Certiorari to the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit of New York to petition the civil case “Kristine Arutyunyan v. Federal Bureau of Investigation of the State of New York”. I have very strong, unarguable, undeniable reasons for requesting to grant the motion to leave to proceed in forma pauperis; which are the following: I, a pro se petitioner, cannot pay any amount of the docket fee of $300, since I do not have means to earn any money because of my legal status in the U.S. and cannot have an official paid job; any attempt of “self-employment” as to find a job that would agree to hire me with my legal situation was not successful; as well as being in the midst of battling with courts of New York to settle this pro se civil lawsuit with consideration and acceptance of wrongdoing by the Federal Bureau of Investigation of State of New York; the emotional, financial and physical damages caused to me, because of false identity and image spread around me and about me, and years of struggles to meet my financial needs so I could maintain a human life with human desires, dreams and life plans; I focused all my attention to making the both courts of New York meet the legal grounds for considering this particular pro se civil lawsuit as is.

Therefore, with this motion to leave to proceed in forma pauperis I claim that occurred situation around my identity left me in a situation that I can hardly be able to pay for the copies of the required documents to be sent to Washington DC. from Los Angeles, California, where I moved to on September 8th, 2018 from New York for a temporary residency, because of the occurred situation and unbearable amount of mental, emotional humiliation I received from public in New York. I tried to make things work for me in California and start anew while battling with the courts, but it is unfortunate to admit that those attempts were cut short as well, and I had to depend on few true humans around me, who did the impossible for me to be able to meet my daily needs and focus to proceed with getting a justice with my pro se civil lawsuit.

Hereby, taking into consideration the occurred situation and my status in the United States, I am not able to work and get any financial income to pay docket fee, especially that I have to take care of financial expenses of preparing the petition with all requirements mentioned in the Rules of the Court and send it to the Supreme Court of the United States in Washington DC by mail.

And as a positive result and acceptance of the emotional, physical and financial damages caused to me, social mistreatment and misbalance of life I was forced to lead, I seek to be granted ten million American dollars in money ($10.000.000 in American dollars in money) to use it towards my comeback and breakthrough for the years of sought, but cut short life events, life opportunities and ideas that were intentionally put on hold or taken away at all from me.

Motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis previously was granted by the Eastern District Court of New York by the Order of the District Judge Ann M. Donnelly from October 18th, 2017; and by the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit of New York Order from March 26th, 2018.

Upon financial reimbursement I am willing to pay off all the fees for both courts – Eastern District Court of New York and Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit of New York, as well as all required by the Supreme Court filing fees for granting petition to this particular pro se civil lawsuit without paying a docket fee.
