Re: Jim Carmack v. Mark Janny, No. 21-844

Dear Mr. Harris:

Our firm, with co-counsel, represents respondent Mark Janny in the above matter. After a 30-day extension of time had been granted, the petition for writ of certiorari was filed on December 3 and was placed on the docket today. I write, pursuant to Rules 15.3 and 30.4, to move for a 30-day extension of time to file a brief in opposition. Counsel for petitioner has authorized us to represent that petitioner consents to the requested extension.

The brief in opposition is currently due on or before January 6, 2022. Counsel responsible for the preparation of the brief have pre-planned family vacations and other time off scheduled during the latter half of December. In addition to these personal matters, the press of other business makes the requested extension of time necessary.

Accordingly, respondent moves for a 30-day extension of time, to and including February 7, 2022, to file his brief in opposition to the petition. I have served a copy of this motion on counsel for petitioner by email and first-class mail.

Thank you for your time and attention to the foregoing.

Sincerely,

/s/Charles B. Wayne

Charles B. Wayne
