

United States Supreme Court

Jon C. Stoune,
Movant,

v
United States of America,
Respondant.

Motion/Application to Extend the Time to File a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari

Comes now the Movant/Applicant (Movant), Jon C Stoune, Pro Se, who motions/applies for this Court to extend his time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari..

The Eleventh Circuit's final order denying the Movant's motion for a Certificate of Appealability (COA) was dated Aug. 3rd, 2021. (See Appendix A) The Movant then sought to have the matter of a COA resolved by requesting the Hon. Justice Thomas review the COA material and direct the circuit to issue a COA. (See Appendix B) On Sep 20th the Courts Clerk responded with a letter directing a full petition for writ of certiorari must be submitted. (See Appendix C) As it is Oct. 7th, 2021 and the Movant's dead line is Nov. 3rd, 2021 he asks for an extension until Jan. 3 2022 due to the prisons COVID-19 lockdown status and holidays he is only afforded six hours maximum in the law library between now and the Nov. 3rd 2021 dead line, which is a woefully inadequate amount of time.

As the Movant is a layman of the law and unskilled in its practice he hopes the Court will construe this Motion/

Application liberally. (Haines v Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972))

With all due respect,

Jon C. Stoune #63042-018
FCI Coleman Medium Unit B
POB 1032
Coleman, FL 33521-1032