

E.S.

Supreme Court of The United States
Office of the Clerk
Washington D.C.

EUGENE STAFFINE,
Petitioner,

- v.s -

CASE No. : 21A370

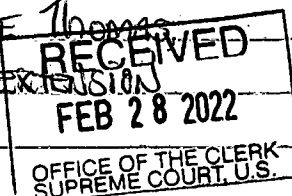

MARK S. INCH, Sec'y, Fla. Dept. CORRS,
Respondent,

PETITION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
AND CHANGE OF ADDRESS

COMES NOW PETITIONER, EUGENE STAFFINE, PRO SE IN PROPER PERSON, MOVES THIS HONORABLE COURT FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME AND ALLOW THE RECORD TO REFLECT PETITIONER'S NEW CURRENT ADDRESS, WHEREAS, PETITIONER STATES THE FOLLOWING IN SUPPORT HEREIN :

① AS OF THE FILING OF THIS APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME, PETITIONER WAS HOUSED AT JEFFERSON C.I., BUT WAS RECENTLY TRANSFERRED TO MARION C.I., IN THE MIDDLE OF PREPARATION TO FILE A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS WITH THIS HONORABLE COURT.

② Today Feb 17, 2022, the petitioner received legal mail of this Court's order in which Justice Thomas on Jan 27, 2022, granted petitioner's request for extension

OF TIME UNTIL MARCH 7, 2022. This Court's order was just recently forwarded to petitioner today Feb 17, 2022, from JEFFERSON C.I.

③ Petitioner now informs this Honorable Court as of his recent transfer to MARION C.I., which was early mid-morning, he never had a chance to obtain his legal papers from the JEFFERSON C.I.'s law clerk who was preparing said writ of certiorari.

④ Petitioner now request 40 days more of an extension of time to obtain his legal papers from his prior institutional law clerk at JEFFERSON C.I., so he can obtain legal help from his current institution "MARION C.I." law clerk in preparations for the timely filing of said writ with this Court.

⑤ Said institutional transfer was no fault of petitioner, and the granting of another extension of time would not prejudice the respondent. Petitioner also request the record to reflect his new change of address as stated below.

Whereas, Petitioner pray that this Honorable Court grant his Motion for extension of time and any relief it deems just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,

This 17 day of Feb, 2022.
