RE: Moore v. Harper, No. 21A455 (U.S.)

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel of record for the Applicants in the above-captioned matter. Earlier today, Applicants filed an Emergency Application for Stay Pending Petition for Writ of Certiorari. Upon further review of the Application, it has come to my attention that on page i, the application mistakenly lists the North Carolina State Board of Elections as an Applicant before this Court and a defendant-appellee in the first of the two cases consolidated in the court below. The North Carolina State Board of Elections is not an applicant in this Court and should instead have been listed as a defendant-appellee in the first consolidated case below. Damon Circosta should also have been listed as a defendant-appellee in the first consolidated case. The North Carolina State Board of Elections was correctly listed, on page iii of the Application, as an other party, but along with the other parties in the paragraph at the top of that page, it should have been listed as a defendant-appellee in the second consolidated case below.

Very truly yours,

s/David H. Thompson
