PELICAN BAY STATE PRISON, CALIFORNIA

U.S. NINTH CIRCUIT CASE No. 20-17142
U.S. DIST. COURT CASE No. C17-2036 WHA (PR)

The Ninth Circuit of the Court of United States Appeal denied Petitioner's "Motion For COA" on January 14, 2022. The copy of the Order is attached with this Motion. The current due to file Petitioner's Application for COA in this Court is April 15, 2020.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 13 (5), Petitioner requests a one-time 60 days extension to file Petitioner's Application for COA in this Court to and including June 14, 2022.

Petitioner declares the following facts and reasons in support of this Motion

1. The Pelican Bay State Prison of California has been locked down on and off to prevent COVID Pandemic since the late of year 2020. Since January of this year, the D-Yard where I housed has been in quarantine. Because of it, the Law Library in D-Yard has been closed, it only provides paging service through internal mail system. The request of legal file/materials and copy service take 5 to 10 business days. It significantly slows down Petitioner's legal preparation work.
2. Petitioner suffers chronic illness of diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, and prostatitis by taking medicine to control them.
3. Petitioner has mental weakness and mental illness history. Since this Pandemic and lockdown, Petitioner suffers anxiety and short-breath symptoms. And petitioner is under the mental health watch.
4. English is Petitioner's 2nd language. Petitioner has language barrier and difficulty especially in law matters.

For the facts and reasons stated above, Petitioner respectfully requests a one-time extension of 60 days till June 14, 2022, to file Petitioner's Application For COA in this Court.

Petitioner, JING HUA WU, declares that the foregoing are true and correct under the penalty of perjury by the Law of United States.
