

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, DC 20543-0001

Terron Gerhard Dizzley Petitioner-Appellant	v. Warden Stephen Kenneth Nelson Appellee
Motion For Extension Of Time To File Writ Of Certiorari	No. 21-6326

Petitioner moves before this Honorable Court requesting an extension of time to file writ of certiorari in the above matter. This is the third motion filed. The order denying Petitioner's Petition For Rehearing and Rehearing En Banc, was filed on December 14, 2021.

Petitioner filed a timely request for extension of time on February 27, 2022 and explained to this Court that his institution had been on quarantine for Covid-19 for three months since December of 2021. Because of this the mailroom was shut down for about 3 weeks, and the law library was not open for months. Petitioner contends that he was also sick with Covid-19 himself.

Petitioner also contends that all of officers that worked in the mailroom was fired during this time and arrested for bringing drugs and contraband in the institution. Because of this, Petitioner has not been receiving legal mail.

Petitioner has filed motions to the District Court to get his entire case file so that he could properly appeal this case, to no avail. Petitioner, because of these issues, had concerns whether his mail was being sent out, therefore, he called his Mother, who is Power of Attorney over his legal affairs, on the tablet phone we have in our cells, and on March 7, 2022 I had her draft another timely "Motion For Extension of Time" to make sure the Courts received it.

Petitioner contends that his mother had to go online where the district court electronically filed his case and pay hundreds of dollars to print his case out because the district would not provide him with his case filed. However, the district court improperly filed Petitioner's case by only copying every other page.

Petitioner's mother got the district court to e-mail the corrected copies and has mailed them to him twice

Since February 2022 by driving to Columbia to Dutch Fork post office that delivers BRCI mail, and the post office assured Petitioner's mother that it's always delivered the same day according to what time you mail it, it will be received the next day. Petitioner has still not received his case file sent from his mother yet.

The institution is intentionally not giving Petitioner his mail. Petitioner has also filed complaints with the institution's grievance system. See Kiask # 22-02547721

; 22-02496218; 22-02496218.

Enclosed is also a copy of the debt form which proves that I filed the first "Motion For Extension of Time" on February 27, 2022 with the Order attached denying rehearing.

Despite these circumstances, the record shows that I have been diligently notifying this Court that I have been diligently pursuing my appeal, and the events that occurred are ongoing and are of ^{no} fault on my own. I have still not received the case file for this case sent by my mother, and paid for. My mother is helping me look into why I am not receiving mail.

Please allow me 60 days or time this Court deems is sufficient under these circumstances.

My case is a false imprisonment case, and the S.C.D.C. has no legal nor jurisdictional authority to hold me in prison. Under such circumstances,

According^{to} U.S. Supreme Court law, my writ then becomes a writ of right Ex parte Lange, 85 U.S. 163 (1873), and when interest of justice is at stake, strict application of Supreme Court's rules is unfair, U.S. v. Ohio Power Co., 353 U.S. 98 (1957).

Petitioner contends that he has never had a direct appeal and his PCR was the result of fraud, by illegal representation, therefore, this case requires extensive litigation and requires me to have my case file.

Please grant this motion, I provided proof of two timely request and the proper documents. Please allow me time to appeal my illegal imprisonment.

Date: March 24, 2022

Respectfully Submitted,
