RESPONDENT

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE WRIT OF CERTIORI

Here comes Petitioner, Robert Carlos Del cid, in the above styled cause number, requesting a 90 day extension to file his Writ of Certiori. In compliance with Rule 13.5 the lower court's opinion from the 5th Circuit is attached to this motion. In compliance with the same Rule Petitioner asserts that he is a pro se applicant with limited access to the law library and has no previous training in drafting legal documents. Furthermore, due to the re-emerging Covid protocol's in prison, the Law Library is operating at a minimal capacity allowing only half of the amount of inmates it once allowed to have law library session further limiting access to case law and other legal research. In addition to this limited access, the memorial Unit is short staffed, therefore the law library officer must frequently shut down the law library to tend other duty posts. For these reasons, Petitioner asserts that it is justifiable to request a 90 day extension.

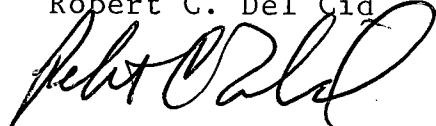

Petitioner prays that this honorable court construe this motion liberally because he is not trained in the draftmanship of legal documents. Haines v. Kerner, 92 S.Ct. 594 (1972). Petitioner prays that this court grant this request for a 90 day extension.
