Dear Sir and/or Madam:

Appellant/Plaintiff, Brad Faver, files Request for Extension of Time for Appellant/Plaintiff to his Petition for Writ of Certiorari and, in support thereof, the states:

Between April 15, 2022 and May 16, 2022, Mario B. Williams, Counsel for Mr. Faver tested positive for Covid, and due to side effects and underlying medical conditions, was out for over four (4) weeks. Additionally, Dallas S. LePierre, counsel for Plaintiff, was seen in the emergency department for cardiovascular concerns and was taken off work for a week.

In addition to the medical issues that occurred, numerous depositions had to be rescheduled to occur over the next 3 weeks due to discovery deadlines.

Appellant/Plaintiff respectfully requests an additional 30 days to file the Petition for Writ of Certiorari extending the deadline from May 30, 2022 to June 30, 2022 and adjusting all other deadlines accordingly.
