

FINKELSTEIN & KRINSK LLP

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

501 WEST BROADWAY

SUITE 1260

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA 92101

TELEPHONE (619) 238-1333

FACSIMILE (619) 238-5425

August 8, 2022

Supreme Court of the United States
1 First Street, NE
Washington, DC 20543

Via Electronic Mail Only

Re: Coinbase, Inc. v. Abraham Bielski; Coinbase, Inc. v. David Suski, et al., No. 22-105
Coinbase, Inc. v. David Suski, et al., Application No. 22A92
Respondents' Non-Opposition to Applicant Coinbase, Inc.'s Application for Stay
Pending Disposition of Petition for a Writ of Certiorari

To the Honorable Justice Elena Kagan, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit:

Dear Justice Kagan,

I am counsel for Respondents David Suski, Jaimee Martin, Jonas Calsbeek and Thomas Maher (hereinafter, Suski Respondents), writing in response to Applicant Coinbase, Inc.'s Application for Stay Pending Disposition of Petition for a Writ of Certiorari. The Suski Respondents wish to respectfully inform the Court that they do not oppose Coinbase, Inc.'s currently pending Joint Petition for Writ of Certiorari, Application for Stay Pending Disposition of the Joint Petition, or Conditional Motion to Expedite Consideration of the Joint Petition.

The Suski Respondents oppose Coinbase, Inc.'s positions regarding how this Court should ultimately answer the question presented by Coinbase, Inc.'s Joint Petition. The Suski Respondents do not, however, oppose Coinbase, Inc.'s requested disposition of the Joint Petition, Application for Stay, or Motion to Expedite.

I am currently in the process of being admitted to the bar of this Court as soon as possible, with my admission application materials having been delivered to the Court this morning, at approximately 10:00 a.m. EST. I have been informed by the Court's admissions office that my earliest possible admission date will be August 22, 2022, and that it may take up to 24 to 48 hours thereafter for me to become registered for electronic filing in this Court. For these reasons, my clients and I respectfully request that if the Court ultimately orders any merits briefing in this case, that the Court allow the Suski Respondents to file their merits brief on or after August 24, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "D. Harris", written over a horizontal line.

David J. Harris, Jr. (admission pending)

FINKELSTEIN & KRINSK LLP
501 West Broadway, Suite 1260
San Diego, California 92101
(619) 238-1333
djh@classactionlaw.com

*Counsel for Respondents David Suski, Jaimee
Martin, Jonas Calsbeek, and Thomas Maher*