PETITION FOR REHEARING

Petitioner Christine Sawicky respectfully petitions for rehearing of this Court’s October 2nd, 2023 order denying her petition for writ of certiorari. In accordance with Sup. Ct. Rule 44.1 Petitioner submits this petition in good faith and not for delay.

REASONS FOR GRANTING REHEARING

Sup. Ct. Rule 44.2 authorizes a petition for rehearing based on “intervening circumstances of a substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial grounds not previously presented.” Petitioner’s petition for writ of certiorari explained why this Court’s review was warranted in the first instance—namely, the existence of a clear circuit split on the important question whether bribery/kickbacks of a judge pierce the veil of judicial immunity. Three to four months after the petition for writ of certiorari was docketed Petitioner received the financial disclosures for the SCOTUS Justices and her lower court judges in this case. Those financial disclosures constitute an “intervening circumstance of a substantial effect” because it provides an additional and independent justification for this Court’s review. Petitioner’s RICO Complaint and petition embodies the sole purpose of the judiciary which grants every American the right to honest services and equal protection under the laws in accordance with the U.S. Const. Amend. XIV. As alleged in Petitioner’s RICO Complaint “Defendants executed multiple schemes to deprive SAWICKY of the ‘intangible right of honest services” which constitutes a criminal violation of the mail fraud/wire fraud statute and provides SAWICKY with a basis to prosecute corrupt public officials. Sawicky’s entire copyright case was a façade. Petitioner’s RICO case is also a façade. Federal judges have a fiduciary duty to act only for the benefit of the public. A federal judge violates federal statute 18 U.S.C. § 1346 when a public official is paid in some way for a particular decision or action, and failure to disclose a conflict of interest, resulting in personal gain. A majority of the judges in this case thus far violate that very statute according to the financial disclosures received by Petitioner on 8/16/2023 and 9/8/2023. 7 of the 9 current SCOTUS Justices own stock in either BlackRock or Vanguard giving the appearance of impropriety (Ex.A, Reh.App.1a-37a.) Petitioner’s district court judge owns stock in Verizon. (Ex.B, Reh.App.38a) All three appellate judges own stock in Vanguard. (Ex.B, Reh.App.39a-45a.) Petitioner’s RICO case involves AMC Networks, AOL, and Verizon. Exhibits showing the link between AOL, AMC Networks, Verizon, and Gibson Dunn were already mentioned in the petition for writ of certiorari. BlackRock and Vanguard are the top investors for AMC Networks which represents at least 15.4% ownership of the company by BlackRock alone. In addition, Verizon’s largest shareholder is Vanguard with 8.3% ownership and BlackRock is the second largest shareholder owning 7.9% of their common stock. Verizon’s CEO, Hans Vestberg, is on the board of directors for BlackRock. Likewise, this evidence violates the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment, U.S. Const. Amend V.

Rehearing should be granted.

I. Rehearing Should Be Granted Based on the Overriding Importance of the Questions Presented.

Start with the petition's breathtaking importance, given that the public's trust in the judiciary is at an all-time low. How could the lower court orders claim that bribery/kickbacks to a judge does not pierce the veil of judicial immunity? Well, petitioner now understands. There is a group of people conspiring to defraud the American people via the court system. There is a club and the American people are not in it. Petitioner shares the American people's concerns as she utilizes the proper avenues to address these issues but has been met with hostility of the SCOTUS clerk's office, delay tactics and flat out stonewalling by the financial disclosures office/SCOTUS clerk's office, non-returned calls, alteration of documents that are docketed, and so much more. The intensity of resistance to address clear violations of the constitution is troubling. The public and petitioner's concerns have been vindicated. The importance to rebuild integrity in this court and to regain public trust cannot be described in words.

Rehearing should be granted.

II. Rehearing Should Be Granted as the Lower Court Judges and 7 of the 9 SCOTUS Justices Held a Personal Financial Interest in the Denial of This Petition for Writ of Certiorari Displaying Intervening Circumstances of a Substantial Effect and Substantial Grounds Not Previously Presented.

This Petition for Rehearing is filed in accordance with Sup. Ct. Rule 44.2 as these financial disclosures present intervening circumstances of substantial effect and substantial grounds not previously presented. Pending before this court was the Petition for Writ of Certiorari filed by Christine Sawicky challenging the lower court's decision of February 22, 2023. That decision directly contradicts California's own 18 U.S.C. § 1961(c) California Judiciary Bribery Statute, Cal. Penal Code §§ 92 and 93. Petitioner's four lower court judges, Judge R. Gary Klausner, Judge Eric D. Miller, Judge Sandra S. Ikuta, and Judge Barry G. Silverman, were all in agreement that "Accordingly, judicial immunity applies even in the face of allegations of conspiracy or bribery, because 'to foreclose immunity upon [such] allegations . . . serves to defeat these policies.'"

It is no secret that the integrity of the judicial system is in question due to a few bad apples. This circumstance unfairly tarnishes the reputation of those Justices and federal judges in compliance with the Judicial Code of ethics. Every day there seems to be more damaging publicity targeting the integrity of the SCOTUS Justices. Petitioner filed a motion to recuse in this Court on June 8th, 2023 addressing her concerns related to those topics. Petitioner had no comprehension of the layers to which her research and financial disclosure requests would reveal.

Petitioner attempted to address her concerns in a motion for request to transfer judicial assignment which was delivered to this court on 8/29/2023 and signed for by W. Lee @ 2:14 pm. Petitioner called the SCOTUS clerk's office at least 4 times before Emily Walker (petitioner's case analyst) called her back and said the motion would not be docketed because "this court is not like the lower courts . . . you can't just file any type of motion." She said that it was "in my file" and that she would be happy to send it back to me. Who made Emily Walker a Justice of this Court? Rule 21(c) clearly states that "Any other motion to the court shall be prepared as required by Sup. Ct. Rule 33.2." There is not a list of "types of motions you can file." Petitioner attempted again to have the SCOTUS Justices and now also the lower court judges' financial disclosures docketed in a Supplemental Brief that was delivered to this Court on September 21st, 2023 @ 10:22 am signed for by W. Lee under tracking # 772480443809. That brief was mailed back to Petitioner with stamped received dates of September 22nd, 2023 and September 25th, 2023 under the guise of "Petitioner did not follow Rule 15.8." Of course Petitioner followed Rule 15.8 as p. 3 of the Supplemental Brief explained that specific Rule and how it applied to this case. Petitioner left a message with Danny Bickell on 10/3/2023 asking who stamped the received dates for the Supplemental Brief as they were fudged. That call of course was not returned. How does this Court work? Rules for thee but not for me? Throw attitude at Petitioner because she has the audacity to expect to be treated equally under the laws of this country as an American citizen? Refuse to docket anything that shows constitutional violations by the judges and project on Petitioner what they are actually doing? Dates can be altered for opposing counsel? Dates can be fudged by the SCOTUS clerk's office to slow down the Supplemental Brief so it did not get distributed for conference? Nothing has been filed by this Court since June 21st, 2023 on Petitioner's behalf and this case was sent to conference without irrefutable evidence that this case has been a sham from the beginning. This isn't a court house . . . this is a board game of Monopoly handing get out of jail free passes. In Monopoly there are two "Get Out of Jail Free Cards" . . . one in the deck of Chance cards and one in the deck of Community Chest cards. If you are in the club of this Court you are lucky enough to possibly pick up one of the two cards on your legal journey around the board, and your stay in the slammer could be very short indeed. But what if another player (this Court) has one of the cards? You can try to negotiate to buy it off them via bribery/kickbacks. If this Court is amendable, it could save you a few bucks on paying the bribery fee. This Court has been reduced to a game of chance and a childhood board game. It is a disgrace. This Court is delaying the inevitable . . . a necessary shake up to make this Court and the lower courts constitutionally sound. Petitioner respectfully requests that this court pulls the 3 letters of correspondence "out of her file" and docket them. Petitioner has no idea where the motion to request a transfer of judicial assignment is . . . her Supplemental Brief was sent back to her . . . so this petition for Rehearing (intervening circumstances that have a substantial effect on this case) discusses the following:

On 6/3/23 and 7/20/23 BlackRock searched Petitioner's LinkedIn. Petitioner currently has essentially nothing listed on her LinkedIn and is a resident in Annandale, MN which holds a population of approximately 3000 people. Petitioner did not even know who or what BlackRock was until this case. Petitioner does not have a background in finance nor has any of her career endeavors included banking. Why would the largest bank in the world search Petitioner? Twice? Well because the CEO of Verizon is on their Board of Directors while they own a portion of AMC Networks and Verizon. BlackRock and Vanguard also own part of google, FOX, CBS, and Comcast which is why the details of this RICO case have been scrubbed from the entire internet and no media has covered it. Petitioner's lawsuit has revealed corruption beyond comprehension. Vanguard is the other largest shareholder in Verizon and AMC Networks. Petitioner is at a loss for words. All crimes that Respondents and numerous others have committed are directly related to the most powerful banks in the world and CEOs pulling their purse strings forcing individual after individual to obstruct justice. Not excluding America's own Financial Disclosures office. The Financial Disclosures Office was successful in obstructing justice by delaying the disclosures for Respondents ANDERSON, WATFORD, and REAL until after this case was dismissed in the district court. That office was using the same tactics to intentionally delay the disclosures for R Gary Klausner, Eric D. Miller, Molly Dwyer, and several more (judges and other employees of from the lower courts in this case.) Frustrated with those delays, petitioner elevated her concerns to the Chair of the Financial Disclosures committee (Judge David L. Bunning) as petitioner now viewed this as an urgent matter and constitutional crisis. Petitioner filing a copyright case in the Central District of CA led to this?

The discovery of corruption and racketeering that makes Watergate look like a misdemeanor?

Upon the arrival of the SCOTUS Justice's financial disclosures (on approximately 8/16/2023), Petitioner spent at least two days reviewing them which left her in disbelief. 7 of the 9 Justices currently own or have owned stock in either BlackRock and/or Vanguard. The most powerful people in the world (some unknown and some known) are conspiring to defraud the United States citizens . . . or is it just another Monday in the American Judicial System? As stated supra, BlackRock and Vanguard own the majority of shares in both Verizon and AMC Networks. The CEO of Verizon is on the board of Directors for BlackRock. The SCOTUS Justices that have owned or currently own stock in BlackRock include the following: Sonia Sotomayor, John G. Roberts, and Amy C. Barrett. The SCOTUS Justices that have owned or currently own stock in Vanguard include the following: Samuel A. Alito, Clarence Thomas, John G. Roberts, Elena Kagan, Neil Gorsuch, and Amy C. Barrett (Ex.A Reh.App.1a-37a.) On 2/14/2020 John G. Roberts sold his stock in Verizon which came less than a month after the Petition for Rehearing in this Court was denied in Petitioner's related case Christine Sawicky v. AMC Networks, Inc. on 1/13/2020. (Ex.A Reh.App.16a-17a.) He cashed out. On 5/26/2021, the CEO of Verizon was elected to the BlackRock board and John G. Roberts followed that on 11/9/2021 by purchasing $250,000-$500,000 of BlackRock stock (Ex.A, Reh.App.14a-15a.) 7 out of the 9 justices held a financial interest in the denial of this petition and Petitioner's prior petition for Christine Sawicky v. AMC Networks, Inc. The SCOTUS Justice's ownership in stock have a substantial effect on the outcome of this case and are substantial grounds not previously presented.

On 9/8/2023 Petitioner received the lower court judge's financial disclosures after having to contact the chair of the financial disclosures committee (David L. Bunning) 3 times as they attempted to delay the inevitable. All four of them had a personal financial interest in getting rid of Petitioner's case in the lower courts. R Gary Klausner owns stock in Verizon. Of course he does. Petitioner's appellate panel for this case all own stock in Vanguard. Of course they do. Everyone that has been a judge in this case has a personal financial interest in the disposition of it in its entirety displaying substantial grounds not previously presented. That is why they all claim that bribery of a judge does not pierce the veil of judicial immunity. Petitioner's RICO Complaint alleged

This case is about the diabolical and illegal racketeering efforts by some of the United State's most powerful men, women, and their representatives—here to corruptly use the Central District of CA/9th Cir. Court of Appeals/SCOTUS judicial system via bribery/kickbacks or extortion—with knowledge that others were similarly conspiring. (See United States v. Shenberg, 89 F.3d 1461, 1471 (11th Cir. 1996)

The illegal financial racket that Petitioner penned in her RICO Complaint was implemented in the same matter for this RICO case. It's like déjà vu and a repeated nightmare that Petitioner cannot awake from. Americans should be concerned is an understatement. This is a constitutional crisis.

In addition, the Maryland State Police whom protect the Washington D.C. District have also searched Petitioner on LinkedIn. Petitioner has no law enforcement background, nor has she ever been to Maryland. What is going on? Altering waiver forms in the SCOTUS for this case and then refusing to docket the letters of correspondence addressing that . . . suppressing over 200 damaging exhibits . . . reserved fictitious case law that really says bribery of a judge is covered by judicial immunity? Refusing to docket anything on Petitioner's behalf that displays the financial interest that the judges have in the disposition of this case? This case leaves a stain on the DOJ, the Financial Disclosures Office, SCOTUS/Federal/Circuit Judges, BlackRock, Vanguard, LAPD Northeast, Verizon, AMC Networks, various attorneys and their firms. Who is left to reside over this case without the appearance of impropriety and bias? Also, if this Court asked the Solicitor General for an honest assessment of this case and whether it really merits this Court's attention . . . that also displayed bias as Elizabeth Prelogar is representing the Judicial Respondents knowing that bribery of a judge is the main question presented? Petitioners' hands are tied. She looks to this court to resolve this constitutional crisis.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, and those stated in the petition for writ of certiorari, the Court should grant rehearing.

Respectfully submitted,

Christine Sawicky
