Re: Hugh Martin, et al. v. Sandoval County, New Mexico, et al., No. S-1-SC-39724

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Rule 30.4, I write on behalf of Respondent, the Pueblo of Cochiti, in the above-captioned matter. The petition for a writ of certiorari was served on May 15, 2023 and docketed on May 22, 2023. The Pueblo of Cochiti's response is due June 21, 2023.

Respondents respectfully request a 30-day extension, which per Rule 30.1, would extend the deadline for a brief in opposition to July 21, 2023. The extension is requested to enable the counsel to fully analyze and respond to the petition and to confer with the Pueblo and counsel for Sandoval County regarding that response.

Thank you for your attention to this request.

Sincerely,

C. BRYANT ROGERS

Re: Hugh Martin, et al. v. Sandoval County, New Mexico, et al., No. 22-1133

Dear Mr. Harris:

Enclosed please find a letter sent June 7, 2023, seeking a 30-day extension of time to file a brief in opposition in re the cert petition filed in the above-styled and numbered case.

We realized today that we had referenced the State Supreme Court case number rather than the number for the case as filed in this court.

I am hereby resubmitting that request for a 30-day extension of time as set out in the enclosed copy of our letter of June 7, 2023.

We apologize for any confusion our original letter requesting this extension may have caused.

Sincerely,

C. BRYANT ROGERS
Counsel for Pueblo of Cochiti
