

In the Supreme Court of the United States

RELENTLESS, INC., ET AL.,

Petitioners,

v.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, ET AL.,

Respondents.

ON WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE
UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST CIRCUIT

MOTION FOR LEAVE TO DISPENSE WITH PREPARATION OF JOINT APPENDIX

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 26.8, Petitioners move for leave to dispense with the requirement of a joint appendix in this case. Respondents agree that a joint appendix is not necessary.

This case presents the purely legal question whether the Court should overrule Chevron or at least clarify that statutory silence concerning controversial powers expressly but narrowly granted elsewhere in the statute does not constitute an ambiguity requiring deference to the agency. The opinions of the lower courts, as well as the relevant portions of the underlying statute involved here, are reproduced in the appendix to the petition for a writ of certiorari. The parties agree that no other portion of the record merits special attention that warrants the preparation and expense of a joint appendix, and that preparation of a joint appendix would not materially assist the Court in its consideration of the case.
