KAYATTA, Circuit Judge. This case presents several issues of first impression. It arises out of the years-long effort to put Puerto Rico on the path to financial recovery by restructuring the Commonwealth’s sovereign debt under Title III of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA). In January, the court charged with overseeing the Title III proceedings confirmed a plan of adjustment for the debts of the Commonwealth and two of its instrumentalities (“the Plan of Adjustment” or “the Plan”). The appellants – various organizations that represent some public school teachers and educators participating in the Commonwealth’s pension system (collectively, “the Teachers’ Associations”) – object to the manner in which the Plan treats their claims to current and future pension payments. In a nutshell, the Plan rejects the right of public school teachers to accrue further retirement pension benefits under the Commonwealth's existing defined benefit plan, and makes them eligible instead to receive benefits under a defined contribution plan that is materially less favorable for most participants.

After the Title III court approved the Plan of Adjustment over the objections of the Teachers' Associations, the associations appealed that order, sought a stay pending appeal by the Title III court, see Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8007(a)(1)(A), and then, after that stay was denied, moved in this court on March 3 for such a stay, see Fed. R. App. P. Rule 8(a)(2)(A)(ii). By order dated March 11, 2022, we denied that request for a stay, and the Plan became effective on March 15.¹ We now consider the merits of the Teachers' Associations' appeal from the Title III court's order confirming the Plan. For the following reasons, we affirm.

I.

By 2017 the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico had accumulated approximately $55 billion in unfunded pension liabilities. That is to say, the Commonwealth's government had promised its public servants $55 billion that it neither had nor could reasonably expect to have when those bills became due. The Commonwealth also had outstanding approximately $30.5 billion in government-backed bonds without the wherewithal to make the payments due under the bonds. These excessive liabilities left the island of over three million people in a serious fiscal crisis, threatening the Commonwealth's economic stability and contributing to an accelerated out-migration of residents and businesses. See 48 U.S.C. § 2194(m)(1)-(3). Congress reacted to Puerto Rico's fiscal emergency by passing the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act, 48 U.S.C. § 2101 et seq., known as PROMESA. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 916 F.3d 98, 103 (1st Cir. 2019).

In enacting PROMESA, Congress found that “[a] comprehensive approach to fiscal, management, and structural problems and adjustments . . . is necessary, involving independent oversight and a Federal statutory authority for the Government of Puerto Rico to restructure debts in a fair and orderly process.” 48 U.S.C. § 2194(m)(4). To develop and implement this comprehensive approach, Congress created the Financial Oversight and Management Board (the “Board”), see id. § 2121(b)(1), “to assist the Government of Puerto Rico in reforming its fiscal governance and support the implementation of potential debt restructuring,” id. § 2194(n)(3).

Among the numerous responsibilities assigned to the Board was the development of fiscal plans for the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities to “provide a method to achieve fiscal responsibility and access to the capital markets.” Id. § 2141(b)(1). Toward that end, PROMESA established the Board as a creature of the territorial government, see id. § 2121(c), and empowered the Board, even absent agreement from the Governor and the Legislature, to develop, review, approve, and certify fiscal plans that would in turn dictate the bounds of any annual budgets adopted by the Commonwealth, see id. §§ 2141(c)-(e), 2142(c)(1).

PROMESA also created in Title III a modified version of the municipal bankruptcy code for territories and their instrumentalities. Id. § 2161 et seq. Title III authorized the Board to place the Commonwealth and its instrumentalities into bankruptcy proceedings and to develop a plan of adjustment for restructuring the Commonwealth’s debts to wind down the bankruptcy in a manner that would “reform[] . . . fiscal governance,” id. § 2194(n)(3). See id. § 2175.

Beginning in 2017, the Board initiated proceedings under Title III to restructure the debts of the Commonwealth and a number of its instrumentalities. After several years of labor – involving extensive mediation and negotiations with numerous stakeholders – the Board presented the Plan of Adjustment (the Eighth Amended version) for the Commonwealth and two of its instrumentalities. Pursuant to section 1123(a)(1) and (3) of the Bankruptcy Code, as incorporated into Title III, 48 U.S.C. § 2161, the Plan designated classes of claims and specified a treatment for any class of claims that was impaired by the Plan. Among the claims treated under the Plan were those held by the Commonwealth’s public pensioners.

The Plan elicited objections from several stakeholders, including the Teachers' Associations. Of particular concern to the Teachers' Associations is the Plan's treatment of the terms of the publicly funded pensions provided through the Commonwealth's Teachers Retirement System, in which many of the associations' members participate.

Prior to 2013, the Teachers Retirement System provided for all participants a defined benefit pension plan, which promised a specified monthly benefit amount upon retirement based on, among other things, age and years of service, and included cost-of-living adjustments. See 2004 P.R. Act 91 § 40; see also 2007 P.R. Act 35. That pension arrangement proved to be unsustainable for the Commonwealth's finances. And the attempt to fund the pension plan and other current expenses with debt proved ruinous for the fiscal well-being of the Commonwealth.

In 2013, the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly enacted Act 160-2013 ("Act 160") which sought to end the defined benefit program by freezing accruals under the existing plan and transferring active and future members to a defined contribution plan, which would be funded by employee and employer contributions. See 2013 P.R. Act 160, art. 5. The Puerto Rico Supreme Court ultimately overturned Act 160, but only as to teachers who were hired before the law went into effect in August 2014. See Asociación de Maestros de P.R. v. Sistema de Retiro para Maestros de P.R., 190 P.R. Dec. 854, 2014 TSPR 58 (2014). The net result was that teachers hired before August 2014 remained on the defined benefit plan while teachers hired after August 2014 were enrolled in the defined contribution plan.

Under the Plan, participants in the Teachers Retirement System who have already accrued rights to payments are still entitled to receive 100% of those benefits. See Plan §§ 55.3(a), 55.6(a), 55.9(a). However, the Plan freezes future accruals under the defined benefit plan held by teachers hired prior to August 2014 and eliminates for all teachers certain cost-of-living adjustments going forward. See id.; see also id. Ex. F-1. The Teachers' Associations objected to the Plan insofar as it proposed to change the manner in which pension benefits would be determined under the Plan from March 15, 2022, onward.

The Title III court heard and overruled these objections, entering an order confirming the Plan, see In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 636 B.R. 1 (D.P.R. 2022), along with findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting that order, see In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., No. 17-BK-3283, 2022 WL 504226 (D.P.R. Jan. 18, 2022). This appeal followed.²

II.

We review the Title III court's legal conclusions de novo and factual findings for clear error. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 9 F.4th 1, 10 (1st Cir. 2021); cf. In re SW Bos. Hotel Venture, LLC, 748 F.3d

² We thank the parties for their expedited briefing and argument on these complex issues in an exigent posture.

393, 402 (1st Cir. 2014). And we review the Title III court’s application of the law to the facts for abuse of discretion. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 7 F.4th 31, 36 (1st Cir. 2021).

III.

Under PROMESA, the Title III court shall confirm a plan of adjustment so long as certain requirements are met, including that:

the debtor is not prohibited by law from taking any action necessary to carry out the plan; . . . any legislative, regulatory, or electoral approval necessary under applicable law in order to carry out any provision of the plan has been obtained, or such provision is expressly conditioned on such approval; . . . [and] the plan is feasible.

48 U.S.C. § 2174(b).

The Teachers’ Associations put forward three reasons why the Plan of Adjustment cannot be confirmed and must be set aside. First, they challenge the Plan’s provision and the Title III court’s finding that portions of several Commonwealth statutes providing for the continued payment of pension benefits under the pre-March 15 regime are rendered ineffective, either as rejected executory contracts or as preempted by PROMESA. Second, they argue that the Plan lacks the requisite enabling legislation to implement its proposed changes to the Teachers Retirement System. Third, the associations assert that the Plan requires and has not obtained effective legislative authorization for the issuance of the new debt instruments called for by the Plan. We consider each of these arguments in turn.

A.

The Teachers' Associations' lead argument trains on the fact that the Commonwealth's legislature has not revoked the statutes establishing the continued accrual of defined pension benefits with cost-of-living adjustments just as they were paid prior to March 15.³ The Plan of Adjustment deems those laws preempted to the extent they conflict with PROMESA. See Plan §§ 55.3(b), 55.6(b), 55.9(c); see also id. Ex. K-1 § III. And the Title III court's findings of fact and conclusions of law explain that the relevant statutes conflict with PROMESA "to the extent they are inconsistent with the discharge of claims and treatment provided for pension benefits and payments by the Plan . . . and would undermine the restructuring contemplated by the Plan." In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 2022 WL 504226, at *39; see also id. at *37.

The associations agree that pension obligations are contractual in nature and may be rejected under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Cf. Bayrón Toro v. Serra, 119 P.R. Dec. 605, 19 P.R. Offic. Trans. 646, 663 (1987) (recognizing that "[Commonwealth] pension plans are obligations in the nature of contracts”). And the record is clear that the Plan rejects any obligation owed to individual workers for accrual of future benefits under the existing regime. See Plan § 55.9(b) (“To effectuate the freeze of the contractual rights of Active [Teachers Retirement System] Participants to accrue pension benefits under Puerto Rico law . . . the contractual obligations of the Commonwealth to accrue such benefits, including, without limitation, pursuant to the [Teachers Retirement System laws], shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.”). The Teachers’ Associations nevertheless contend that the Commonwealth laws calling for such pension payments remain extant unless preempted by PROMESA, and they explain that there is no basis for preempting those laws because PROMESA’s text is silent as to the Commonwealth’s pension obligations.

The Teachers’ Associations, however, do not explain why the Plan’s rejection of the Commonwealth’s forward-going obligation to provide certain pension benefits does not render unenforceable the statutes that give rise to that obligation. This is not a case in which the debtor is a private party and seeks to override a law. Rather, this is a case in which the debtor is the Commonwealth and seeks to reject its own commitment which, while effected by statute, is by Puerto Rico law deemed to be a contractual commitment as between the Commonwealth and its covered employers. See Bayrón Toro, 19 P.R. Offic. Trans. at 663.⁴

In any event, the Board need not ride on rejection alone. Its quiver contains more pointedly the concept of preemption. PROMESA includes an express preemption provision, which provides that: “The provisions of this chapter shall prevail over any general or specific provisions of territory law, State law, or regulation that is inconsistent with this chapter.” 48 U.S.C. § 2103. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 916 F.3d at 104 (explaining that “PROMESA’s provisions preempt any inconsistent ‘general or specific provisions of territory law’” (quoting 48 U.S.C. § 2103)). While this provision need not necessarily mean that every Commonwealth law inconsistent with the Plan is also inconsistent with PROMESA, the Plan’s treatment of the Teachers Retirement System participants’ claims makes clear that the portions of existing laws that enshrine defined-benefit-plan accruals and cost-of-living adjustments are preempted.

To see why this is so, we break down the Plan’s proposed treatment of the pensioners’ claims into its component parts. We begin with the claims in question. Participants in the Teachers Retirement System possess claims to further payments under the existing retirement regime. Having determined that it must adjust these claims, the Plan's treatment of the claims is to reject some set of promised future obligations – i.e., further accrual of defined benefit plans and cost-of-living adjustments – and to transfer participants in defined benefit plans to defined contribution plans. This treatment would not be possible if the same participants also remain eligible to receive duplicative and additional benefit payments under the Commonwealth statutes as they currently exist.

⁴ To the extent the Teachers’ Associations claim that there could not be rejection due to the absence of notice and a hearing, the rejection language was in the Plan of Adjustment, and the Title III court permitted objections and held multiple hearings on those objections throughout the process. Indeed, the Teachers’ Associations have regularly made use of those procedures.

So, which gives way, the Plan's proposed treatment or the Commonwealth's laws? Congress provided the answer by incorporating section 1123(a)(3) and (5) of the Bankruptcy Code into PROMESA. See 48 U.S.C. § 2161(a). Those provisions provide that a plan of adjustment under Title III will "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired by the plan" and "provide adequate means for the plan's implementation" "[n]otwithstanding any otherwise applicable nonbankruptcy law." 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(3), (5). Preemption under section 1123(a) is, of course, "not unbounded"; the "purpose of Congress is the ultimate touchstone." In re Irving Tanning Co., 496 B.R. 644, 663 (Bankr. App. 1st Cir. 2013) (quoting In re Fed.-Mogul Glob. Inc., 684 F.3d 355, 365 (3d Cir. 2012)). Here, we need not dwell any longer on the appropriate limits of section 1123(a) preemption in the context of Title III, for Title III was designed by Congress with the clear purpose of facilitating the adjustment of the Commonwealth's debt obligations. PROMESA therefore preempts Commonwealth law insofar as that law purports to dictate (contrary to the Plan) the adjustment of the Commonwealth’s financial obligations to participants in its pension plans.⁵

This conclusion makes particular sense in the broader context of PROMESA. We have previously noted the “sui generis nature of PROMESA.” Peaje Invs. LLC v. García-Padilla, 845 F.3d 505, 513 (1st Cir. 2017). The Teachers’ Associations say that “Congress enacted [PROMESA] with the purpose of restructuring the island’s outstanding debt.” This is true, but incomplete. Congress also enacted PROMESA because it found that “[a] comprehensive approach to fiscal, management, and structural problems and adjustments . . . is necessary.” 48 U.S.C. § 2194(m)(4). And in creating the Board as a part of the Commonwealth government, Congress sought “to provide a method for a covered territory to achieve fiscal responsibility and access to the capital markets.” 48 U.S.C. § 2121(a).

Toward these ends, Congress gave the Board a controlling role in creating a fiscal plan for the Commonwealth, see 48 U.S.C. § 2141(c)-(e); required that Commonwealth budgets align with the fiscal plan, see id. §§ 2104(6), 2142(c)-(e); and provided for the Board to retain an oversight role for at least four years after a successful restructuring, see id. § 2149. In short, Congress was plainly intent on not just reducing the island's debt, but also improving its government's fiscal practices going forward.

Given this context, it would make little sense for the Board to have no ability to restrict accruals under the very pension payment regime that helped create the crisis in the first place. Indeed, the Commonwealth's 2021 fiscal plan makes clear that "[o]nly with pension reform can the Government help restore both fiscal balance and the promise for current and future retirees to safeguard their assets and their future pensions." Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 2021 Fiscal Plan for Puerto Rico 274 (Apr. 23, 2021). The Title III court echoed this sentiment when it found that the contemplated elimination of defined-benefit-plan accruals and cost-of-living adjustments was critical to the viability of the Plan, noting that the estimated impact of retaining such benefits would amount to $5.6 billion over thirty years. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 2022 WL 504226, at *52. In light of these uncontested findings, the Title III court concluded – and we agree – that "[a]bsent preemption," the Commonwealth statutes establishing these obligations "would undermine the restructuring contemplated by the Plan." Id. at *37.

Apart from express preemption, the Teachers' Associations' arguments would also fail as a matter of conflict preemption. Cf. 48 U.S.C. § 2103 (preempting Commonwealth law "inconsistent with" PROMESA). We have explained that "federal law preempts state laws that 'stand[] as an obstacle to the accomplishment and execution of the full purposes and objectives of Congress.’” Franklin Cal. Tax-Free Tr. v. Puerto Rico, 805 F.3d 322, 343 (1st Cir. 2015) (quoting Pac. Gas & Elec. Co. v. State Energy Res. Conservation & Dev. Comm’n, 461 U.S. 190, 204 (1983)). For the reasons discussed already, compliance with the Commonwealth’s laws mandating future defined-benefit-plan accruals and cost-of-living adjustments would plainly “frustrate the purposes of the federal scheme” set out in PROMESA. SPGGC, LLC v. Ayotte, 488 F.3d 525, 531 (1st Cir. 2007).

The Teachers’ Associations try to recharacterize the preemptive effect of the Plan under PROMESA by contending that the Plan’s treatment of their members’ claims effectively constitutes the enactment of new Commonwealth law. But their argument misapprehends what the Plan does. The pension laws previously in effect established obligations of the Commonwealth that the Commonwealth treats as equivalent to contractual commitments. The Plan of Adjustment simply replaces those commitments. Although the Teachers’ Associations insist that this replacement constitutes a de jure amendment of the current laws, this is not so. Rather, the Plan rejects pre-Plan obligations going forward, adopts substitute obligations as part of the Plan, and preempts Commonwealth laws only “to the extent [they are] inconsistent with the treatment” of the pensioners’ claims under the Plan. Plan § 55.9; see also id. §§ 55.3, 55.6. In short, the Plan does not amend or replace any law but instead treats pensioners’ claims through a combination of rejection, assumption of new obligations as creatures of the Plan, and preemption of only inconsistent components of Commonwealth laws. And that preemption, as we have already explained, is authorized by section 1123(a) as construed in the context of PROMESA.

The Teachers' Associations, primarily in reply, also complain that the precise nature of the effect on Commonwealth pension laws is "confusing." We agree that in an ideal world the Plan and the Title III court's order might have included a copy of the relevant pension laws with all preemptive effects highlighted in redline or by annotation. But on the whole, the main thrust of the Plan's resulting treatment is reasonably clear. As the Board explains in its brief, and the Teachers' Associations do not dispute, the Plan "ensur[es] full payment of any defined benefits accrued up to the Plan's effective date, . . . enroll[s] affected teachers in the Commonwealth's tax-deferred defined contribution plan, and . . . enroll[s] certain teachers in the federal Social Security system with mandatory contributions to be made by the Commonwealth." As to the details of the Plan's administration, we find no abuse of discretion in the Title III court's approval of a more general test that preempts portions of laws "inconsistent" with the treatments specified by the Plan but leaves the details of what constitutes inconsistency to be determined if and as concrete issues arise. This conclusion draws reinforcement from the fact that even the Teachers' Associations, in objecting to the Plan in the Title III court, pointed to no matters of implementation or administration that could not be handled under the approach taken in the Plan.

B.

The Teachers' Associations next contend that the Plan lacks essential enabling legislation, as required by PROMESA, to change the Commonwealth's retirement laws. Here, the associations rely on language from PROMESA section 314(b)(5), which conditions confirmation of the Plan on obtaining "any legislative, regulatory, or electoral approval necessary under applicable law in order to carry out any provision of the plan." 48 U.S.C. § 2174(b)(5). Thus, the associations argue, before the Plan can require any modification to the Commonwealth's retirement systems, the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly must first enact those reforms.

However, section 314(b)(5) only requires any "approval necessary under applicable law" and does not by its plain terms require enabling legislation for every component of the Plan. Indeed, the Teachers' Associations point us to no law that requires any legislative approval before discharging the obligations in question.

Finally, the Plan's adjustment of pension obligations is authorized by enabling legislation, namely section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a) (requiring, among other things, that a plan of adjustment "specify the treatment of any class of claims or interests that is impaired under the plan" and "provide adequate means for the plan's implementation"); see also id. § 1123(b)(2) (explaining that a plan of adjustment may provide for the rejection of the executory contracts of the debtor).

Accordingly, we conclude that the lack of specific Commonwealth legislation permitting the Plan to modify the Commonwealth's obligations to public school teachers does not bar the Plan's confirmation.

C.

The Teachers' Associations' final contention is that the Plan is not confirmable because a Commonwealth law, Act 53-2021 ("Act 53"), prevents the issuance of new securities through the Plan. In the negotiations leading up to the Plan, a set of bondholders entitled to receive new securities under the Plan secured the Board's agreement that the Commonwealth would obtain affirmative legislation authorizing the issuance of the new securities that would replace (in smaller amounts) certain pre-petition debt. Act 53 was enacted by the Puerto Rico Legislative Assembly to do precisely that. But it also contained a caveat conditioning its effectiveness on a change to the manner in which the then-current, Seventh Amended version of the proposed plan of adjustment treated pension benefits.

The Seventh Amended version of the plan of adjustment contained three sets of provisions that are relevant here. The first two did not lower the amount owed to any participant as of the plan's effective date; rather they proposed eliminating any additional accrual of rights in the defined benefit plan and any future cost-of-living adjustments that would otherwise increase benefits due. By contrast, the third provision, called the Monthly Benefit Modification, cut already accrued benefits for some participants by reducing by up to 8.5% pension payments in excess of $1,500 per month.

All parties agree that Act 53 plainly conditioned the approval of the new instruments on the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification. The law said so expressly in article 104: “The Legislative Assembly authorizes the issuance of the [new securities] subject to the [Board] filing an amended Plan for confirmation by the Title III Court that eliminates the Monthly Benefit Modification.” And, it repeated this sentiment in article 605: “The effectiveness of this Law is conditioned to the [Board] filing an amended Plan for confirmation by the Title III Court that eliminates the Monthly Benefit Modification. . . .”

The parties’ disagreement concerns, instead, whether Act 53 should also be read as conditioning approval of the new securities on the elimination of the provisions in the plan of adjustment that bar further accruals under the defined benefit plans and eliminate cost-of-living adjustments. Act 53 mentions neither provision by name. However, three passages voice a legislative purpose to avoid “cuts” to public pensions. First, in its Statement of Motives, Act 53 explains that a policy aim of the law is “zero cuts to pensions of current retirees and current accrued benefits of active public employees.” Second, article 603 states that “[i]t is the express and unequivocal will of [the] Legislative Assembly that [the relevant authorizations] are not enforced, if the suspensive condition to avoid any cut of pensions . . . are left without effect.” And finally, article 605 of the law specifies that “[t]he continued effect of this act is contingent upon [z]ero cuts to pensions.”

The Teachers’ Associations urge that we should read these references to “zero cuts” as specifying an additional condition in Act 53 – namely that the plan of adjustment must be modified to remove the freeze to defined-benefit-plan accruals and restore the cost-of-living adjustments before the necessary securities can be issued. For two reasons, we do not read Act 53 in this manner.

First, it is not at all evident that the freeze to further accruals or cost-of-living eliminations are “cuts” in the same sense that the Monthly Benefit Modification plainly is. Those two provisions preclude further increases to pension benefits rather than reduce already accrued benefits. Of course, a plan participant who hopes to secure a larger benefit in the future will regard any loss of the chance to earn such an increase as a “cut” if not to benefits, at least to the value of future plan participation. And these measures undoubtedly reduce the benefit amount that a participant would have expected to gain under existing retirement laws. So, a broad reading of “cuts” as covering a lost opportunity for an increase might be tenable in some contexts.

Here, though, the context points otherwise. Act 53 was enacted against the backdrop of negotiations over the Seventh Amended version of the plan of adjustment. It specifically named the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification – the provision that reduced already accrued benefits – as an aim. Were we to read the reference to “zero cuts” to also include the accrual freeze and the elimination of cost-of-living adjustments, it would render the law’s reference to the Monthly Benefit Modification largely superfluous. Cf. Akebia Therapeutics, Inc. v. Azar, 976 F.3d 86, 94 (1st Cir. 2020) (“Whenever feasible, courts ought to interpret statutory language in ways that avoid rendering specific words or phrases superfluous.”). Moreover, Article 104 of the law describes its policy as “protect[ing] the accrued pensions of [the Commonwealth’s] public servants.” (Emphasis added). Seen in this light, the most natural reading of the references to “zero cuts” in Act 53 is to emphasize that – with the Monthly Benefit Modification eliminated – there will be no reduction at all in any already accrued benefits.

Second, if the Legislative Assembly had intended to adopt a broader definition of a cut or reduction to pension benefits that would have encompassed the two other changes prominently called for by the Plan, it could have quite easily said so. As the Title III court found, the financial implications of the accrual freeze and cost-of-living adjustment provisions are more substantial than are the financial implications of the Monthly Benefit Modification. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 2022 WL 504226, at *52. We think it very unlikely that a legislature intending to refer to all three would only mention by name the seemingly least significant.

Accordingly, we conclude that Act 53 conditioned the issuances of new bonds on the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification. And given that the Teachers' Associations concede that the Plan of Adjustment as approved by the Title III court eliminated that reduction, the Teachers' Associations' argument that a lack of authorization to issue the new bonds rendered the Plan of Adjustment unconfirmable fails.⁶

IV.

None of the foregoing should be read as overlooking the fact that any substantial reduction in hoped for future pension benefits may create great distress and economic harm for affected pensioners, or that public school teachers provide critical government services for the Commonwealth's residents. It is presumably for these reasons that the Plan treats pension plan participants in substantial respects more favorably than many other persons affected by the Plan.⁷ In the end

⁶ The Teachers' Associations' final contention that the Plan of Adjustment cannot be confirmed because it is not feasible relies on the success of its other arguments. Because the associations have not convinced us on any of those points, we see no reason to disturb the Title III court's conclusion that the Plan is feasible.

though, teachers, like many others, were given unfunded promises. Congress left it to the Board, subject to review by the Title III court, to adjust those unfunded promises so that the Commonwealth would have a chance to reset its financial footing and, in so doing, ultimately benefit all of the island's residents. Accordingly, with respect to the specific challenges lodged by the Teachers' Associations, we affirm the Title III court's order confirming the Plan of Adjustment.

unsecured claims against the Commonwealth will receive only a pro-rated share of recovery capped, generally, at 40%).

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW IN CONNECTION WITH CONFIRMATION OF THE MODIFIED EIGHTH AMENDED TITLE III JOINT PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO, THE EMPLOYEES RETIREMENT SYSTEM OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO, AND THE PUERTO RICO PUBLIC BUILDINGS AUTHORITY

LAURA TAYLOR SWAIN, United States District Judge

The motion of the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico (the “Oversight Board”) for confirmation of a proposed Plan of Adjustment for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority is now before the Court pursuant to Title III of the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (“PROMESA”).² The Court has jurisdiction of this matter pursuant to section 306(a) of PROMESA. This Court hereby makes its findings of fact and conclusions of law, pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7052 and 9014 and section 310 of PROMESA, with respect to the confirmation motion.

Introduction

In 2017, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Commonwealth”), through the Oversight Board, initiated unprecedented proceedings pursuant to PROMESA to restructure the debts of the Commonwealth and certain of its instrumentalities and to find a path forward for Puerto Rico, its citizens, and other stakeholders. (See May 22, 2017, Hr’g Tr. 6:9-8:12.) During the pendency of the Title III cases, Puerto Rico has endured the disastrous effects of hurricanes, earthquakes, and the COVID-19 pandemic. These events have not only made day to day life far more challenging for the residents of Puerto Rico, but they have exacerbated the financial difficulties of the Commonwealth and made the already complex circumstances more challenging for those involved in the resolution of these Title III cases. Nonetheless, the ² PROMESA is codified at 48 U.S.C. § 2101 et seq. References to “PROMESA” section numbers in the remainder of this FFCL (defined below) are to the uncodified version of the legislation, unless otherwise indicated.

Oversight Board, representatives of many creditor constituencies, including retirees, the government of Puerto Rico and other parties-in-interest have persevered, with the help and guidance of an extraordinary team of skilled judicial mediators (the “Mediation Team”), in working toward a resolution intended to allow the Commonwealth and two of its instrumentalities to exit these PROMESA Title III cases.

Prior Restructurings under PROMESA

On November 7, 2018, this Court approved a qualifying modification for the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico (“GDB”), which restructured approximately $4.5 billion of claims against GDB (Docket Entry No. 270 in Case No. 18-1561.) On February 4, 2019, this Court confirmed the Third Amended Title III Plan of Adjustment of Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation, dated January 9, 2019 (Docket Entry Nos. 5047 and 5048 in Case No. 17-3283,³ as amended by Docket Entry Nos. 5053 and 5055 on February 5, 2019), for the Puerto Rico Sales Tax Financing Corporation (“COFINA”) and approved the settlement between the Commonwealth and COFINA (Docket Entry No. 5045). The settlement divides rights to a significant flow of tax revenues between the two debtors that were involved in complex litigation regarding the ownership of such tax revenues. The resolution of the GDB and COFINA disputes marked important first steps towards Puerto Rico's financial recovery, economic stability, and prosperity.

Proposed Plan of Adjustment for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico,
the Employees Retirement System and the Public Buildings Authority

The Debtors have now brought before the Court for confirmation the Modified Eighth Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., dated January 14, 2022 (Docket Entry No. 19784) (as modified pursuant to any revisions made at or subsequent to the Confirmation Hearing, including the Plan Supplement, and as may be modified pursuant to section 313 of PROMESA, the “Plan”).⁴ The Plan⁵ required extraordinary work over the course of several years to negotiate the terms of various plan support agreements and resolve disputes arising throughout the pendency of these Title III Cases. The Mediation Team has served a critical role in facilitating navigation of complicated negotiations between parties-in-interest that have spanned several years and involved complex issues. In response to requests of this Court, the Mediation Team has filed certifications of the good faith participation of parties in confidential negotiations at key points during these cases. (See, e.g., Docket Entry Nos. 17314 and 18885.) The motion to confirm the Plan before this Court constitutes a crucial step in the effort to achieve the economic recovery of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and its instrumentalities.

⁴ Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Plan.

The Plan has broad but not universal support. Objections by creditors, and the case put forward by the Debtors, are discussed in detail in the findings of fact and conclusion of law that follow (the “Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law” or “FFCL”). In addition to formal filings by parties, the Court has received thousands of letters and email communications from citizens and others who live in Puerto Rico and are concerned about Puerto Rico’s future and their own. Within the past few months in particular, government workers and retirees have written with passion and sadness about their anxieties concerning their ability to support their families and live in a dignified way in retirement. Many have also protested that the past government borrowings and the disposition of borrowed funds were improper and that ordinary citizens should not have to bear the economic consequences of alleged past wrongs; many such communications demanded that the Court order a full audit of the past borrowings and dispositions before considering any proposed plan of adjustment. Many of the writers express frustration with the economic measures developed by the Oversight Board and also, sadly, express lack of confidence in elected leaders' willingness and ability to manage responsibly the resources that will be available to the government following the confirmation of a plan of adjustment. They are understandably concerned about the provision of services that residents consider essential. Pride in and concern for the University of Puerto Rico were prominent features of many of the communications.

In evaluating whether the proposed plan of adjustment should be confirmed, the Court considered the legal and evidentiary submissions of the parties in interest, and the larger context of pain and hope in which Puerto Rico moves forward. The Court's authority is significant but is exercised within boundaries set by the Constitution and laws of the United States. In this connection, Congress has conferred powers on the Oversight Board to develop fiscal plans and budgets in collaboration with the elected government, and has given the Oversight Board the sole power to formulate and propose plans of adjustment. The Court must determine whether the proposed plan of adjustment meets the requirements of the laws passed by Congress and, where objections based on the Constitution of the United States have been raised, the requirements of the Constitution. It is not for the Court to determine whether particular policies, asset allocations, or settlements of disputed issues are optimal; the Court determines whether the proposed Plan meets the legal requirements for confirmation of a plan of adjustment. This process is largely forward-looking. The applicable legal standards do not require an audit of the creation and disposition of past borrowings.

For the reasons explained in the following Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Court finds that, with the incorporation of certain specified revisions, the Plan proposed by the Oversight Board meets the confirmation requirements of PROMESA and does not violate the Constitution. The Court has also determined that PROMESA itself does not violate the Constitution. In moving forward following confirmation, the Court urges the people of Puerto Rico to use their resources and voices well, and urges those who govern and those who oversee Puerto Rico to listen to those voices, to make wise choices and explain them well, and to lead Puerto Rico to a better, brighter, and more vibrant future of growth and economic stability.⁶

The Motion and Submissions Considered

Before the Court is the Plan filed by the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (the “Commonwealth”), the Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico (“ERS”), and the Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority (“PBA”), and together with the Commonwealth and ERS, the “Debtors”), by

⁶ While the legal standards governing the confirmation determination did not require the Court to consider an audit of the creation and disposition of past borrowings, confirmation of the Plan does not foreclose further investigation, whether through regulatory, law enforcement, or civil litigation channels, into the origins of Puerto Rico’s debt crisis and the application of the proceeds of the pre-PROMESA borrowings.

Responses were filed by the following parties: (i) International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America and Service Employees International Union (Docket Entry No. 19586); (ii) PFZ Properties, Inc. (Docket Entry No. 19597); (iii) Peter Hein (Docket Entry Nos. 19599 and 19616), (iv) Cooperativa de Ahorro y Crédito Vegabajeña (Docket Entry No. 19600); (v) Suiza Dairy Corp. (Docket Entry No. 19603); (vi) Federación de Maestros de Puerto Rico, Inc., Grupo Magisterial Educadores(as) por la Democracia, Unidad, Cambio, Militancia y Organización Sindical, Inc., and Unión Nacional de Educadores y Trabajadores de la Educación, Inc. Ojo de Agua Development, Inc. (Docket Entry No. 19610); (x) Demetrio Amador Inc. (Docket Entry No. 19611); and (xi) Maruz Real Estate Corp. (Docket Entry No. 19612).

The Court heard argument and statements by members of the public, and received evidence, in connection with confirmation of the Plan at a hearing held on November 8, 9, 10, 12, 15, 17, 22, and 23, 2021 (the “Confirmation Hearing”).¹³ The Court has carefully considered the Plan, as well as the supporting and opposing submissions, and the witness testimony and voluminous briefing and written evidence submitted by the parties. The Court has also reviewed and carefully considered hundreds of letters and email messages submitted by members of the public and listened carefully to the oral remarks made on the record at the Confirmation Hearing by members of the public.

On January 10, 2022, the Court entered its Order Regarding Plan Modifications Necessary to the Entry of an Order Confirming Plan of Adjustment for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al. (Docket Entry No. 19721) (the “January Order”). In response, the Oversight Board filed the Plan. In response to the Plan and associated filings, PFZ Properties, Inc. filed the

¹³ Following the Confirmation Hearing, the Court also considered and reserved decision on approval of the Qualifying Modification Pursuant to PROMESA Title VI for the Puerto Rico Infrastructure Financing Authority (Docket Entry No. 1 Ex. A in Case No. 21-1492) and Qualifying Modification Pursuant to PROMESA Title VI for the Puerto Rico Convention Center District Authority (Docket Entry No. 1 Ex. A in Case No. 21-1493.)

Response to Informative Motion at Docket 19787
(Docket Entry No. 19804).

For the following reasons, the Plan is hereby confirmed, and any remaining objections are overruled except to the extent expressly stated herein. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that a particular objection or issue is not specifically addressed in these Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it has been considered thoroughly and is overruled. The overruled objections, and the Oversight Board's positions as to the proper scope of preemption and the proper treatment of Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims, are preserved for appeal.

The Court turns now to its analysis and decision on the motion for confirmation of the plan of adjustment that the Oversight Board has proposed for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Employees Retirement System and the Public Buildings Authority, and the reasons for that decision.

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

1. Findings and Conclusions. What follows constitutes the Court's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7052 and 9014 and section 310 of PROMESA. To the extent any of the findings of fact contained herein constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the conclusions of law contained herein constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such. Any headings or sub-headings used herein are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law set forth herein or the Plan.

2. Jurisdiction. This Court has exclusive jurisdiction over the Title III Cases pursuant to PROMESA section 306(a). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to PROMESA section 307(a). Pursuant to section 306(b) of PROMESA, upon commencement of the Title III Cases, the Title III Court exercised, and continues to exercise, exclusive jurisdiction over all property of the Debtors, wherever located. To the extent necessary, pursuant to PROMESA section 305, the Oversight Board has granted consent to, and the Plan provides for, this Court's exercise of jurisdiction over the property and revenues of the Debtors as necessary to approve and authorize the implementation of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and the Plan.

3. Judicial Notice. The Court takes judicial notice of the dockets of the Title III Cases, the appellate court dockets of any and all appeals taken from any order entered or opinion issued by the Court in the Title III Cases, and the following litigation and adversary proceedings, each as defined in the Plan, including all pleadings and other documents filed, all orders entered, and all evidence and arguments made, proffered, or adduced at hearings related thereto: (a) the Ambac Action, (b) the Appointments Related Litigation, (c) the Clawback Actions, (d) the ERS Litigation, (e) the ERS Recovery Actions, (f) the ERS Takings Action, (g) the

FGIC Action, (h) the Gracia Gracia CW Action, (i) the Gracia Gracia Federal Action, (j) the Lift Stay Motions, (k) the Med Center Litigation, (l) the Med DC Action, (m) the National Action, (n) the PBA Litigation, (o) the PRIFA BANs Litigation, (p) the SCC Action, (q) the Uniformity Litigation, (r) the Invalidity Actions, (s) the Lien Challenge Actions, (t) the Debt Related Objections, and (u) the Avoidance Actions listed in Exhibits A and B to the Plan.

4. Burden of Proof. The Debtors have the burden of proving satisfaction of the requirements of section 314 of PROMESA and, to the extent applicable to consideration of confirmation of the Plan, Rule 9019 of the Bankruptcy Rules, by a preponderance of the evidence. As explained below, the Plan, which has been amended to incorporate the Debtors' Full-Payment Proposal (defined below) for Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims to the extent they are Allowed Claims for just compensation, meets the applicable requirements of section 314 of PROMESA and, to the extent applicable to consideration of confirmation of the Plan, Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

General Background

I. The Oversight Board and Title III Cases

5. For more than a decade, Puerto Rico has faced an unprecedented fiscal and economic crisis. Actions taken in the past caused Puerto Rico to lose access to capital markets and precipitated the collapse of Puerto Rico's public finance system. (See PROMESA

§ 405(m).) These actions accelerated the contraction of Puerto Rico’s economy and increased the out-migration of its residents. (See Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶¶ 20-22.)¹⁴ The situation has been further exacerbated by the devastation caused to Puerto Rico by Hurricanes Irma and Maria in 2017, the earthquakes that occurred in early 2020, and the COVID-19 pandemic. (Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 20, 22-23.)

6. On June 30, 2016, the United States enacted PROMESA, and the Oversight Board was established pursuant to section 101(b) of PROMESA. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 7.) Pursuant to section 4 of PROMESA and

¹⁴ Consistent with the investigative authority granted to the Oversight Board by section 104 of PROMESA, the Oversight Board commissioned a report on the origins of the Commonwealth’s financial crisis. The report was prepared by Kobre & Kim LLP, and it was published on the Oversight Board’s website on August 20, 2018. (See Docket Entry No. 3774.) Many residents of Puerto Rico, political leaders, and investors have called for specific auditing of the bond issues and the application of the proceeds of certain bond issues and/or prosecution of individuals or entities that may have misapplied bond proceeds. Such inquiries could be helpful to Puerto Rico as it grapples with its past and moves toward the future. The Court understands, however, that in the context of these Title III restructuring proceedings the Oversight Board, in its capacity as the Debtors’ representative, has focused on the identification of resources that can be marshaled for application to outstanding debts, and on reaching agreements to reduce outstanding debts without extensive further litigation. Those are reasonable and prudent decisions, and remedial measures that are not inconsistent with the Plan can be pursued by appropriate authorities. As noted above (see supra n.5), confirmation of the Plan does not preclude further investigations or law enforcement activity with respect to conduct in connection with the past issuance of debt and application of debt proceeds.

Article VI of the Constitution of the United States, the provisions of PROMESA prevail over any inconsistent general or specific provisions of territory law, State law, or regulation. See PROMESA § 4.

7. On August 31, 2016, President Obama appointed the Oversight Board's original seven voting members. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 8.) The Oversight Board currently has its full complement of seven members. (Id.)

8. The Oversight Board designated ERS and PBA as "covered instrumentalities" pursuant to PROMESA Section 101(d). (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 15.) The Commonwealth is a "covered territory" pursuant to PROMESA Sections 5(8) and 101(b)(1).

9. On May 3, 2017, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification pursuant to PROMESA Sections 104(j) and 206, and filed a voluntary petition for relief for the Commonwealth pursuant to PROMESA Section 304(a), thereby commencing the Commonwealth Title III Case. (See Docket Entry No. 1.)

10. On May 21, 2017, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification pursuant to PROMESA Sections 104(j) and 206, and filed a voluntary petition for relief for ERS pursuant to PROMESA Section 304(a), thereby commencing the ERS Title III Case. (Docket Entry No. 1 in Case No. 17-3566.)

11. On June 15, 2017, the U.S. Trustee appointed the Creditors' Committee in the Commonwealth Title

III Case (Docket Entry No. 338) and, on August 25, 2017, the U.S. Trustee amended that appointment to provide that the Creditors' Committee would also serve in the ERS Title III Case (Docket Entry No. 1171). On June 15, 2017, the U.S. Trustee appointed the Retiree Committee in the Commonwealth Title III Case. (Docket Entry No. 340.)

12. On June 23, 2017, the Court entered an order appointing the Mediation Team, led by Chief Bankruptcy Judge Barbara Houser. (Docket Entry No. 430.)

13. On June 29, 2017, the Court entered an order providing for the joint administration of the Commonwealth Title III Case and the ERS Title III Case, for procedural purposes only. (Docket Entry No. 156 in Case No. 17-3566.)

14. On September 27, 2019, the Oversight Board issued a restructuring certification, pursuant to PROMESA Sections 104(j) and 206, and filed a voluntary petition for relief for PBA pursuant to PROMESA Section 304(a), thereby commencing the PBA Title III Case. (Docket Entry No. 1 in Case No. 19-5523.)

15. On October 9, 2019, the Court entered an order providing for the joint administration of the PBA Title III Case with the existing Title III Cases. (Docket Entry No. 13 in Case No. 19-5523.)

II. The Plan Support Agreements, Plan, and Disclosure Statement

16. The Oversight Board, either directly or through its advisors, engaged in extensive mediation sessions under the guidance and direction of the Mediation Team, and negotiated directly with various constituencies, in an effort to build support for the restructuring of, among other indebtedness, the Commonwealth, ERS, and PBA's debt. Those negotiations culminated in certain agreements with various stakeholders in furtherance of the successful implementation of the Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 29; Skeel Decl. ¶ 17; Zelin Decl. ¶ 13; Debtors Exs. 16-19, 23.)

17. On May 31, 2019, the Oversight Board entered into a plan support agreement (the "2019 PSA") with certain holders of approximately $3 billion of GO Bond Claims and PBA Bond Claims regarding the framework of a plan of adjustment to resolve (i) disputes regarding the validity and related rights of the GO Bonds and PBA Bonds, and (ii) disputes between the Commonwealth and PBA regarding the characterization of certain purported leases, the amount of any administrative rent that may be owed by the Commonwealth for the use of PBA facilities following the commencement of the Commonwealth Title III Case, and the ownership of certain PBA facilities. Following entry into the 2019 PSA, the Oversight Board, under the guidance of the Mediation Team, continued to negotiate with its creditors to generate further consensus among the parties, including, but not limited to, other holders and insurers of GO Bonds and PBA Bonds.

(Jaresko Decl. ¶ 30; Skeel Decl. ¶ 18; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 14-15.)

18. On June 7, 2019, the Oversight Board (i) reached an agreement with the Retiree Committee regarding, among other things, the treatment of accrued ERS, JRS, and TRS benefits pursuant to the Plan, and (ii) entered into the AFSCME Plan Support Agreement regarding, among other things, the return of contributions of all public employees to ERS under the System 2000 plan, and modifications to a collective bargaining agreement and AFSCME's consent to the treatment of ERS benefits pursuant to the Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 31; Santambrogio Decl. ¶ 12; Skeel Decl. ¶ 19; Debtors Ex. 21.) The AFSCME Plan Support Agreement provides for AFSCME's support for modified terms of collective bargaining agreements, along with its consent to the restructuring of the Commonwealth's pension obligations, pursuant to the Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 31; Santambrogio Decl. ¶ 12; Debtors Ex. 21.)

19. On September 27, 2019, the Debtors filed the Original Plan (as defined below), containing the material terms outlined in the 2019 PSA. The Oversight Board thereafter continued to negotiate with various stakeholders to generate further support for a plan of adjustment. On February 9, 2020, the Oversight Board and certain holders of GO Bonds and PBA Bonds holding over $8 billion in Claims (and, inclusive of Claims held by parties who executed joinders thereto, over $10 billion), terminated the 2019 PSA, and disclosed they had reached a global settlement in principle outlined in a plan support agreement (the "2020 PSA").

(Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 18, 33; Skeel Decl. ¶ 21; Zelin Decl. ¶ 16.) On February 28, 2020, in furtherance of the 2020 PSA, the Oversight Board filed the First Amended Plan (as defined below), a disclosure statement in connection with the First Amended Plan (Docket Entry No. 11947) (the “2020 Disclosure Statement”), and a motion seeking approval of the 2020 Disclosure Statement (Docket Entry No. 11950). (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 34.)

20. On March 10, 2020, the Court entered an order scheduling a hearing to consider the adequacy of information contained in the 2020 Disclosure Statement and setting related deadlines. (Docket Entry No. 12187.) Shortly thereafter, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic and its effects on the people and economy of Puerto Rico, the Oversight Board filed a motion (Docket Entry No. 12485) seeking to adjourn the hearing to consider approval of the 2020 Disclosure Statement and related deadlines, which the Court granted on March 27, 2020 (Docket Entry No. 12549). (Skeel Decl. ¶ 23.)

21. Following the adjournment, the Oversight Board re-engaged with the parties to the 2020 PSA and entered into further mediation sessions with the assistance and guidance of the Mediation Team. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 36; Skeel Decl. ¶ 24; Zelin Decl. ¶ 17.) However, the parties were unable to reach a consensus and, on October 6, 2020, the PSA Creditors filed a motion (Docket Entry No. 14478) seeking to impose deadlines for confirmation of a plan of adjustment. On October 29, 2020, the Court entered the Order on Joint Motion of PSA Creditors Pursuant to Section 312 of

PROMESA and Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code to Impose Deadlines for Plan of Adjustment (Docket Entry No. 14987) (the “Plan Scheduling Order”) directing the Oversight Board to file, on or before February 10, 2021, the proposed terms of a plan of adjustment and a motion for approval of a proposed timetable for filing an amended plan and proposed disclosure statement, among other things. (Id.)

22. The Oversight Board continued to engage in discussions with the guidance of the Mediation Team and, on February 9, 2021, reached an agreement in principle with the parties to the 2020 PSA regarding the terms of an amended plan of adjustment, subject to execution of a plan support agreement. (Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 20, 22.) Accordingly, the Oversight Board requested an extension of the February 10, 2021 deadline set forth in the Plan Scheduling Order. (Docket Entry No. 15821.) On February 16, 2021, the Court entered the Order Granting Urgent Motion of the Financial Oversight and Management Board for Puerto Rico Requesting Extension of Deadlines for Submission of Plan of Adjustment or Term Sheet with Respect Thereto (Docket Entry No. 15849), extending the February 10, 2021 deadline to March 8, 2021.

23. On February 23, 2021, the Oversight Board announced the termination of the 2020 PSA and the execution of the Initial PSA, dated as of February 22, 2021, among the Oversight Board, as representative of the Debtors, and the Initial GO/PBA PSA Creditors. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 36; Skeel Decl. ¶ 24; Zelin Decl. ¶ 22; Debtors Ex. 16.) On March 8, 2021, in furtherance of the Initial PSA, the Oversight Board filed the Second Amended Plan (as defined below) and a disclosure statement in connection with the Second Amended Plan.

24. Following entry into the Initial PSA, the Oversight Board continued to work to develop additional consensual resolutions and engaged with objecting parties under the guidance of the Mediation Team. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 38; Zelin Decl. ¶ 26.) On March 9, 2021, the Oversight Board entered into the ERS Stipulation (amended on April 2, 2021) which, among other things, (i) provides a global resolution of disputes regarding the validity and related rights of ERS Bonds and the extent of the alleged liens supporting the obligations thereunder, (ii) resolves the administrative expense claims filed by certain ERS Bondholders, (iii) provides a resolution of disputes regarding certain legal challenges to the Commonwealth’s post-petition enactment of a “pay as you go” system for payment of pension benefits to retirees, (iv) provides for the payment of $373 million in cash to the holders of ERS Bonds, as well as the proceeds from the sale of certain ERS assets to the Commonwealth, and (v) provides for the disposition of the ERS Private Equity Portfolio. (Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 38-39; Skeel Decl. ¶¶ 26-27; Zelin Decl. ¶ 27; Debtors Ex. 19.)

25. On May 5, 2021, the Oversight Board entered into the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement with certain holders and insurers of bonds issued by HTA and CCDA which, among other things, (i) provides for a global resolution of disputes regarding the bondholders' rights and alleged property interests in certain allocable "clawed back" revenues of the Commonwealth, (ii) provides for the issuance of new bonds and CVIs, along with the payment of certain amounts in cash, resolving the bondholders' claims against the Commonwealth, (iii) resolves the outstanding disputes between the Commonwealth and the other parties to the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement, (iv) provides for the bondholders and insurers party thereto to support the Plan, and (v) provides an agreement regarding the structure of a potential plan of adjustment for HTA. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 40; Skeel Decl. ¶ 28; Zelin Decl. ¶ 34; Debtors Ex. 17.)

26. On May 11, 2021, in furtherance of the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement, the Debtors filed the Third Amended Plan (as defined below) and a disclosure statement in connection with the Third Amended Plan (Docket Entry No. 16741). On May 13, 2021, the Debtors filed a motion seeking approval of such disclosure statement (Docket Entry No. 16756). On June 29, 2021, the Debtors filed the Fourth Amended Plan (as defined below), reflecting additional terms negotiated with certain creditors, and a disclosure statement in connection with the Fourth Amended Plan (Docket Entry No. 17192.)

27. On July 12, 2021, the Oversight Board (i) entered into the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, which amended and restated the Initial PSA (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 122; Debtors Ex. 16) and (ii) reached an agreement in principle with the Creditors' Committee, which proposed recoveries for Classes of unsecured

claimholders and resolved the Creditors' Committee's objections to the Plan, subject to the terms of the Committee Agreement. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 41; Zelin Decl. ¶ 38; Debtors Ex. 23.) The GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, together with the restructuring of COFINA's debt, contemplates the reduction of the Commonwealth's debt (including principal and interest from restructured COFINA bonds) by approximately 62%, from $90.4 billion to $34.1 billion. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 37; Zelin Decl. ¶ 38.) The GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement also (i) provides for a proposed global resolution of disputes regarding the validity and related rights of GO Bonds that may have been issued in violation of the Puerto Rico Constitutional debt limit, (ii) provides for the issuance of new bonds and CVIs, along with the payment of certain amounts in cash, resolving the bondholders' claims against the Commonwealth, (iii) resolves the outstanding disputes between the Commonwealth and PBA, and (iv) provides for the resolution of disputes regarding the PRIFA BANs pursuant to a stipulation dated February 22, 2021 (the "PRIFA BANs Stipulation") (Debtors Ex. 22). (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 37.) Also on July 12, 2021, in furtherance of the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, the Debtors filed the Fifth Amended Plan (as defined below) and a disclosure statement in connection with the Fifth Amended Plan (Docket Entry No. 17308.)

28. On July 27, 2021, the Oversight Board entered into the PRIFA Plan Support Agreement, which, among other things, (i) provides for a global resolution of disputes regarding the bondholders' rights and alleged property interests in certain allocable “clawed back” revenues of the Commonwealth, (ii) provides for the issuance of new CVIs, along with the payment of certain amounts in cash, resolving the bondholders’ claims against the Commonwealth, (iii) resolves the outstanding disputes between the Commonwealth and the other parties to the PRIFA PSA, (iv) provides for the bondholders and insurers party thereto to support the Plan, and (v) presents the foundation for a restructuring of the PRIFA Bonds pursuant to Title VI of PROMESA. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 42; Skeel Decl. ¶ 30; Zelin Decl. ¶ 41; Debtors Ex. 18.) Also on July 27, 2021, in furtherance of the PRIFA Plan Support Agreement, the Debtors filed the Sixth Amended Plan (as defined below) and a disclosure statement in connection with the Sixth Amended Plan. (Docket Entry No. 17516.)

29. On July 30, 2021, the Debtors filed the Seventh Amended Plan and an updated disclosure statement in connection with the Seventh Amended Plan (Docket Entry No. 17628) (the “Disclosure Statement”). (Debtors Ex. 2.)

30. On August 2, 2021, the Court entered the Disclosure Statement Order which, among other things (a) approved the Disclosure Statement as containing adequate information within the meaning of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) established (1) October 19, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time) as the Confirmation Objection Deadline, (2) October 4, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time) as the deadline by which (i) ballots to accept or reject the Plan were required to be received by the Solicitation Agent (the “Voting Deadline”) and (ii) elections regarding the form of distributions were required to be effectuated through the Automated Tender Offer Program (“ATOP”) (the “Election Deadline”), and (c) scheduled a hearing on November 8-10, 12, 15-18, and 22-23, 2021, to consider confirmation of the Plan. (Docket Entry No. 17639.) On September 27, 2021, the Court entered an order (Docket Entry No. 18258) extending the Voting Deadline to October 18, 2021, at 5:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time) and, on October 1, 2021, the Court entered an order (Docket Entry No. 18360) extending the Election Deadline to October 18, 2021, at 5:00 p.m. (Atlantic Standard Time).

31. Consistent with the Disclosure Statement Order, the Debtors caused the Solicitation Agent to distribute Solicitation Packages to all holders of Claims entitled to vote. (Mailing Affidavits; Pullo Decl. ¶ 4.) The Solicitation Packages contained, among other things: (a) the Confirmation Hearing Notice setting forth the time, date, and place of the Confirmation Hearing, (b) the Disclosure Statement Order (without the exhibits thereto) and the Disclosure Statement (together with all exhibits thereto, including the Plan), (c) the appropriate form of Ballot or Notice, if any, with instructions for voting and/or making any applicable election and, as applicable, a pre-addressed, pre-paid return envelope, (d) with respect to Class 51, the Retiree Committee Letter and Information Guide, and (e) with respect to Classes 54, 58, and 66, the Creditors’ Committee Letter. (Id. ¶ 4.) The Debtors also caused the Solicitation Agent to publish the Confirmation Hearing Notice and place radio advertisements providing, among other things, information regarding the solicitation of votes to accept or reject the Plan and deadlines associated therewith. (Publication Affidavit; Pullo Decl. ¶ 7.)

32. The Court now turns to a review of the legal and factual issues raised in connection with the motion to confirm the Plan, beginning with an objection to the constitutionality of PROMESA itself.

PROMESA’s Consistency with the Constitution of the United States¹⁵

33. Challenges to PROMESA itself, primarily by bondholder Peter Hein, assert, but fail as a matter of law to show, that PROMESA is unconstitutional.

¹⁵ The Court has received and reviewed the Notice of Appearance and Request for Service of Papers (Docket Entry No. 19647), as well as the Notice of Participation by the United States of America (Docket Entry No. 19710), filed by the United States Department of Justice, Civil Division, notifying the Court that the United States intends to “participate in the above-captioned proceeding for the purpose of defending the constitutionality of PROMESA as it applies to the proposed approval of the Plan of Adjustment.” (Docket Entry No. 19710 at 2.) The Court has also received and reviewed the Response of the United States of America to Order Regarding Plan Modification Necessary to the Entry of an Order Confirming Plan of Adjustment for the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Employees Retirement System of the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Puerto Rico Public Buildings Authority (Docket Entry No. 19774). The Court proceeds to enter its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law because Rule 5.1(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that “[b]efore the time to intervene expires, the court may reject the constitutional challenge, but may not enter a final judgment holding the statute unconstitutional.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.1(c). That is to say, “[t]he court may reject a constitutional challenge at any time[.]” Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.1 advisory committee’s note. The Court herein re-jects constitutional challenges to PROMESA.

34. The Bankruptcy Clause: Objections by pro se claimants Peter Hein (Docket Entry No. 18575) (the “Hein Objection”) and Arthur Samodovitz (Docket Entry No. 18433) (the “Samodovitz Objection”) assert that PROMESA violates the Bankruptcy Clause of the Constitution of the United States because it is not uniform with Chapter 9, which requires, as a predicate to filing a petition, a showing of insolvency. (Samodovitz Obj. at 11-12; Hein Obj. at 33-34 (discussing 11 U.S.C. § 109(c)(3)). See also Nov. 22, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 140:5-21 (“Chapter 9 . . . applies throughout the country, except for Puerto Rico, [and] Chapter 9 requires proof of insolvency. . . . But in this PROMESA proceeding, proof of insolvency is not being imposed as a requirement for a discharge.”).)

35. PROMESA does not violate the uniformity requirement of the Bankruptcy Clause of the Constitution of the United States, which empowers Congress to “establish . . . uniform Laws on the subject of Bankruptcies throughout the United States.” U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 4 (the “Bankruptcy Clause”). U.S. Const., Art. IV, § 3, cl. 2. The reason for this broad grant of authority to Congress is that our Constitution “envision[s] a federalist structure, with the National Government exercising limited federal power and other, local governments—usually state governments—exercising more expansive power.” Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R. v. Aurelius Inv., LLC, 140 S. Ct. 1649, 1658 (2020) (hereinafter, “Aurelius”). In legislating with respect to territories, however, Congress has authority to act like a state legislature, with sovereign authority unconstrained by certain of the restrictions that limit Congress's authority to enact laws for the United States "as a political body of states in union." Cincinnati Soap Co. v. United States, 301 U.S. 308, 323 (1937) ("In dealing with the territories, possessions and dependencies of the United States, this nation has all the powers of other sovereign nations, and Congress in legislating is not subject to the same restrictions which are imposed in respect of laws for the United States considered as a political body of states in union."); Palmore v. United States, 411 U.S. 389, 397 (1973) ("Not only may statutes of Congress of otherwise nationwide application be applied to the District of Columbia, but Congress may also exercise all the police and regulatory powers which a state legislature or municipal government would have in legislating for state or local purposes."). Congress's authority to govern territories is "general and plenary, arising from and incidental to the right to acquire the territory itself, and from the power given by the constitution to make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other, property belonging to the United States." Late Corp. of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints v. United States, 136 U.S. 1, 42 (1890); see Palmore, 411 U.S. at 398 (noting that Congress's authority to legislate with respect to the District of Columbia "permits it to legislate for the District in a manner with respect to subjects that would exceed its powers, or at least

would be very unusual, in the context of national legislation enacted under other powers delegated to it”).¹⁶

36. Congress unambiguously invoked its Article IV authority when it enacted PROMESA. See Aurelius, 140 S. Ct. 1649, 1664-65 (“Congress expressly invoked a constitutional provision allowing it to make local debt-related law (Article IV).”). The uniformity requirement is, by the Bankruptcy Clause’s plain text, a limitation on a specific enumerated power within Article I, not a generally applicable limitation that restricts the exercise of legislative power where it would otherwise be proper under Article IV. Accordingly, the Bankruptcy Clause-related objections of Mr. Samodovitz and Mr. Hein are overruled.

37. Substantive Due Process and the Ex Post Facto Clause: Mr. Hein argues that the retroactive application of PROMESA to pre-enactment debts violates substantive due process and that the Ex Post Facto Clause prohibits the retroactive application of a statute (such as PROMESA) to impair his prepetition bonds (Hein Obj. at 17). The Supreme Court opinion on which Mr. Hein relies, Eastern Enterprises v. Apfel, ¹⁶ Nor would a contrary holding necessarily prove fatal to PROMESA or to the Plan. Congress expressly provided in the legislation’s severability clause (section 3(b) of PROMESA) that the solution to any uniformity problem would not be to strike down PROMESA, but rather to extend it to any similarly situated territory, “provided that the legislature of that territory adopts a resolution signed by the territory’s governor requesting the establishment and organization of a Financial Oversight and Management Board pursuant to section 101.” 48 U.S.C.A. § 2102(b) (Westlaw through P.L. 117-80).

524 U.S. 498, 537-38 (1998), is inapposite because it does not support the theories Mr. Hein purports to derive from it. In deciding that the Coal Industry Retiree Health Benefit Act of 1992 imposed severe retroactive liability on a limited class of parties that could not have anticipated the liability (and that the liability was substantially disproportionate to the parties' past experience), thereby violating the Takings Clause of the Constitution of the United States, 524 U.S. at 528-29, the Supreme Court expressed reservations about applying the doctrine of substantive due process to economic legislation and, in light of its determination that a taking had occurred, did not base its decision on the doctrine of substantive due process, 524 U.S. at 537-38. It likewise declined to extend the Ex Post Facto Clause, which is "directed at the retroactivity of penal legislation," to legislation affecting property and for which the jurisprudence of the Takings Clause is more appropriate, 524 U.S. at 533-34. Accordingly, Mr. Hein fails to demonstrate that substantive due process analysis is appropriate, that the Ex Post Facto Clause of the Constitution is applicable to PROMESA, or that PROMESA violates such constitutional principles. See U.S. Const. art. I, § 9, cl. 3. The Court now turns to PROMESA's plan confirmation requirements.

Compliance with PROMESA
Sections 104(j) and 313

38. The Oversight Board must certify the submission or modification of a plan of adjustment on behalf of a debtor in a case under Title III of PROMESA before submitting or modifying such plan of adjustment. See PROMESA § 104(j)(1)-(2). The Oversight Board may certify a plan of adjustment only if it determines, in its sole discretion, that the Plan is consistent with the applicable certified fiscal plan. See id. § 104(j)(3). The Oversight Board, after the issuance of a certification pursuant to PROMESA Section 104(j), may modify the plan at any time before confirmation, but may not modify the plan so that the plan as modified fails to meet the requirements of PROMESA Title III. See id. § 313. After the Oversight Board files a modification, “the plan as modified becomes the plan.” Id.

described in the following paragraph in compliance with section 104(j) of PROMESA.

55. On January 14, 2022, the Oversight Board filed the Modified Eighth Amended Title III Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al. (Docket Entry No. 19784) (as already defined herein, the “Plan”). The Oversight Board submitted the Plan in accordance with section 313 of PROMESA. For the reasons explained herein, the Court confirms the Plan and holds that it meets the requirements of PROMESA and that the Oversight Board has complied with all provisions of PROMESA applicable to confirmation of the Plan.

Compliance with PROMESA Section 314(b)

A. PROMESA § 314(b)(1): The Plan Fully Complies with the Provisions of the Bankruptcy Code Made Applicable by PROMESA § 301.

56. As required by Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a), the Plan is dated and identifies the Debtors as the proponents. (Plan at 1.) In addition, as detailed below, the Plan satisfies the requirements of sections 1122, 1123(a)(1), 1123(a)(2), 1123(a)(3), 1123(a)(4), 1123(a)(5), 1123(b), and 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

i. Bankruptcy Code Section 1122(a)

57. With the exception of Administrative Expense Claims and Professional Claims, which need not be classified, Article IV of the Plan designates the classification of Claims. The Plan's classification of Claims complies with section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code because each Class contains only claims that are either all unsecured Claims or are all secured Claims secured by the same collateral, or are otherwise substantially similar to the other claims in the class. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 47.)

58. The classification of Claims set forth in the Plan is reasonable and was not done to control the outcome of voting to accept or reject the Plan, as the classification is based upon differences in the legal nature and/or priority of such Claims in accordance with applicable law. To the extent unsecured Claims are separately classified from the Commonwealth's general unsecured claims (Class 58),¹⁷ it is not to gerrymander an accepting Class, as proven by there being several impaired accepting Classes for each Debtor. Rather, separate classification is used for governmental or business reasons usually requiring different treatment of separate Classes' Claims. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 48.)

59. All holders of Claims in Classes 1-11 hold PBA Bonds and allege the same guarantee against the Commonwealth, but are separately classified based on three factors: the year in which the bonds were issued; whether the bonds are insured and, if so, the insurer; and whether the bondholder is a retail investor. Classification depending on year of issuance is based on differences in the risk profile associated with each issuance potentially having violated the debt service limit set forth in Article VI, section 2 of the Commonwealth Constitution, with the treatment of Classes varying based on how much risk of disallowance of the Claims existed for each Class. Holders of insured bonds issued the same year are separately classified because the insurance agreements provide bondholders different rights. Claims of Retail Investors are separately classified because such Claims are smaller in dollar amount and the holders' rights differ from those of holders of GO Bonds and PBA Bonds who are parties to the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, and holders of bonds insured by the Monolines. Thus, the holders of Claims in Classes 1-11 are classified by whether the PBA Bonds they hold: (a) were issued prior to 2011 and are (i) uninsured (Class 1), (ii) uninsured and held by a Retail Investor (Class 7), (iii) insured by Assured (Class 2), National (Class 3), Ambac (Class 4), FGIC (Class 5), or Syncora (Class 6); (b) were issued in 2011 and are (i) uninsured (Class 8), or (ii) uninsured and held by a Retail Investor (Class 9); or (c) were issued in 2012 and are (i) uninsured (Class 10), or (ii) uninsured and held by a Retail Investor (Class 11). (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 48.)

60. Bond Claims against the Commonwealth in Classes 15-50 are classified separately based on the date of bond issuance, whether the bonds are insured and, if so, the insurer, and whether the bondholder is a retail investor as follows: (a) whether the bonds were issued prior to March 2011 (Classes 15-29), March or later in 2011 (Classes 30-39), in 2012 (Classes 40-45), or 2014 (Classes 46-50), and (b) whether the bonds are (i) uninsured (Classes 15, 23, 30, 34, 36, 40, 44, 46, and 49) and held by Retail Investors (Classes 16, 31, 38, 41, and 47), or (ii) insured by Assured (Classes 17, 24, 32, and 42), National (Classes 18 and 25), Ambac (Classes 19 and 26), FGIC (Classes 20 and 27), or Syncora (Classes 21 and 28). (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 49.)

61. Based on the elections offered pursuant to the Plan, certain Vintage CW Bond Claims, Vintage CW Guarantee Bond Claims, 2011 CW Bond Claims, 2011 CW Guarantee Bond Claims, 2011 CW Series D/E/PIB Bond Claims, 2012 CW Bond Claims, 2014

CW Bond Claims, and 2014 CW Guarantee Bond Claims, to the extent elections were made, were shifted to other Classes (Classes 22, 29, 33, 35 39, 43, 48, and 50, respectively) to denote the election made by holders of such Claims to receive taxable distributions on account of their bonds, and the alternative form of distribution elected. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 49.) Only Puerto Rico Investors could elect to receive taxable bonds because, unlike mainland U.S. investors, Puerto Rico Investors are generally not subject to U.S. federal income taxation. (Brownstein Decl. ¶ 16.) When Puerto Rico Investors elect taxable treatment, it increases the likelihood that a greater amount of tax-exempt bonds will be available for mainland U.S. bondholders. (Id.) The taxable election for on-island bondholders benefits mainland U.S. bondholders because, as a result of on-island bondholders taking the taxable election, mainland investors receive a higher amount of tax-exempt bonds affording a greater after-tax gain.¹⁸ (See Nov. 12, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 112:5-15.)

¹⁸ On cross-examination, the Debtors’ witness, David M. Brownstein, Managing Director in the Municipal Finance Department at Citigroup Global Markets Inc., testified that an individual mainland bondholder in a 35 percent tax bracket would benefit by a 14 percent after-tax gain: “Clearly, if you’re a taxpayer who pays state and local taxes, you’re higher than that, but in a 35 percent tax bracket, you, as an U.S. holder, mainland holder of these bonds, for the 49 million in bonds that the local on-island holders took taxable instead of you, you have a 14 percent after-tax gain. That is what was provided to you by giving the on-island investors the right to elect taxable bonds, which meant that your portfolio would have a higher amount of tax[-]exempt bonds.” (Nov. 12, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 112:8-15.)

62. Active and retired employees holding pension Claims comprise Classes 51A-51L. The services that are and have been performed by these current and retired employees are integral to the basic provision of governmental services to the Commonwealth's residents and the Government could not function without them. Moreover, the best interests of the Commonwealth and all of its stakeholders are served by ensuring that pensioners receive monthly benefits to maintain the ability to support themselves without requiring additional future support from the Commonwealth. These pension Claims are further classified separately based on whether the pensioners (a) are retired (Classes 51A-F, K, and L) or active (Classes 51G-J), (b) are participants in ERS (Classes 51A, 51D, and 51G), JRS (Classes 51B, 51E, and 51H), TRS (Classes 51C, 51F, and 51I), System 2000 (51J), or participated in a voluntary termination program (Classes 51K and 51L), because each program had different funding sources as of the Commonwealth Petition Date, with different levels of underfunding, and (c) receive total monthly pension benefits above (Classes 51D-F and 51L) or below (Classes 51A-C and 51K) $1,500.¹⁹ (Jar-esko Decl. ¶¶ 50-51.)

63. The separate classification of Claims for retirement benefits from the claims of other creditors is justified. Unlike the Claims of commercial creditors, who contracted to be paid a fixed sum at a fixed time, retirees agreed to defer their compensation with the expectation that the deferred compensation, i.e., their pension, would be paid in periodic payments over the balance of their life (and that of any surviving spouse), based on formulas established when they worked for the Commonwealth or other governmental entities. Accordingly, the Plan proposes to make payments to retirees over the life of the retiree and any eligible spouse through the PayGo system and specified statutory rules established before the Commonwealth's Title III case began, as modified pursuant to the Plan, including through the "freeze" of TRS and JRS and elimination of cost of living adjustments ("COLAs").

64. Claims held by AFSCME, related to certain collective bargaining agreements between AFSCME affiliates and the Commonwealth that will occur pursuant to the Plan, are classified in Class 52, separately from general unsecured claims. The separate classification is necessary because the treatment of these claims is the result of the adoption of a new collective bargaining agreement. This treatment is inapplicable to other Classes of unsecured Claims and it is beneficial to the Commonwealth and all its stakeholders to provide such treatment as opposed to the potential litigation and treatment of any rejection damages Claims relating to these collective bargaining agreements. AFSCME and its local affiliates collectively constitute one of Puerto Rico's primary public employee unions and an important bargaining unit whose members provide the Commonwealth's public services. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 52.) Separate classification of these Claims is reasonable, justified, and supported by a governmental purpose. The Plan provides that all other collective bargaining agreements are neither being rejected nor assumed.

65. The Claims held by Suiza Dairy, Inc. and Vaqueria Tres Monjitas, Inc.—the Commonwealth's primary producers and sources of dairy for the population—are classified separately in Class 53, which rejected the Plan. The Plan may nonetheless be confirmed pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1129(b)(2)(B) because no Claims junior to the Claims in Class 53 receive or retain any property and there is no contention the Plan unfairly discriminates against Class 53. Moreover, if there were such a contention it would be overruled because the Allowed Claims in Class 53 receive more than CW General Unsecured Claims in Class 58. The separate classification of these unsecured claims is justified by the particular importance of the milk industry in Puerto Rico. It is very costly and difficult for Puerto Rico to consistently import dairy, which has a short shelf life—a fact underscoring the importance of the domestic dairy industry to the Commonwealth and its residents. Dairy production is one of the key issues of food security on the Island. The dairy industry also is one of the Commonwealth's largest agricultural industries and employs a significant number of Puerto Rico's residents. It is reasonable and justified to classify such dairy producers' Claims separately and provide such Class with a fifty percent (50%) recovery,²⁰ ensuring that such integral Claimants do not suffer further financial hardship and impair an industry that is vital to the health of the Commonwealth's citizens. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 53.) Further, the dairy producers' claims arose from the prepetition Dairy Producer Settlement (see Jaresko Decl. ¶ 53; Plan §§ 1.190, 1.191; Debtors Ex. 26 (the "Dairy Producer Settlement")), and the Commonwealth obligation to pay certain fees to protect consumers (see Debtors Ex. 26 ¶ 14). Accordingly, the separate classification of claims held by large dairy producers is reasonable, justified, and supported by a governmental purpose.

66. Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims (as that term is defined in section 1.212 of the Plan) are separately classified in Class 54 of the Plan. The holders of such Claims assert that they hold prepetition constitutional Claims based on seizures or the inverse condemnation of real property pursuant to the Commonwealth's eminent domain power. The Debtors allege that the Eminent Domain Claims are partially secured by funds deposited by the Commonwealth with the Clerk of the Court of First Instance in connection with condemnation proceedings underlying such Claims in accordance with Puerto Rico law, 32 L.P.R.A. § 2907. In accordance with applicable Puerto Rico law, upon commencement of a condemnation proceeding, title to a subject property is transferred to the Commonwealth and funds on deposit become available to the former title holder.²¹ 32 L.P.R.A. § 2907. The Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan filed with the Court on December 21, 2021 (Docket Entry No. 19568) treats the Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims as secured Claims to the extent the Claims are allowable and there is cash on deposit for them. It further provides that the Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims will be treated as Class 58 CW General Unsecured Claims entitled to the same treatment as other holders of CW General Unsecured Claims to the extent each allowable Claim exceeds the cash on deposit for it (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 54.) That proposed Plan further provides, however, that if the Court determines that such Claims must be paid in full to the extent they are Allowed Claims for just compensation, they will be so paid. (See Plan §§ 58.1, 77.1(e) (the “Full-Payment Proposal”).) The claimants, opposing the proposed treatment of their claims as partially secured and partially unsecured (or, in the case of Inverse Condemnation claimants, entirely unsecured), dispute the classification of any portion of their claims as general unsecured claims and argue that, even to the extent their claims are unsecured, they are nonetheless entitled to payment in full of their allowable unsecured

Claims because the Claims are based on the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. The issue presented by the Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan and the pertinent objections is whether the Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation claimants are entitled to have the unsecured portions of their Claims (i.e., those portions that the Debtors do not already propose to pay in full) designated as nondischargeable or otherwise required to be paid in full. The Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims are prepetition Claims arising from the Commonwealth's alleged taking of title to the claimants' real properties, or deprivation of the claimants of use of such properties, prior to commencement of the Commonwealth Title III case. It is undisputed that the Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan does not currently except the Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims from discharge. The Debtors and claimants disagree as to whether the Court can and should except them from discharge. Because the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution provides that "private property [shall not] be taken for public use, without just compensation," the claimants assert that Congress lacks power to legislate the discharge of the Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims for less than payment in full of just compensation. Conversely, the Debtors contend that article I, section 8, clause 4 of the U.S. Constitution, which grants Congress the power to pass uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies, empowers Congress to provide for the discharge of such claims for less than payment in full as Debtors have done in the Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan. As set forth more fully below, the Court concludes that the Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims identified in Class 54 are not subject to impairment and discharge. Accordingly, the Class 54 claimants' assertions that their Claims should be paid in full or deemed nondischargeable are sustained and such Allowed Claims must be paid in accordance with Debtors' Full-Payment Proposal in connection with Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims (as set forth in Plan §§ 58.1, 77.1(e)). The Court's January Order conditioned entry of this FFCL on the Debtors' revision of the Plan to incorporate the treatment of Allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims as set forth in the Full-Payment Proposal.

67. Claims in Class 55 arise from, or relate to, the Energy Incentive Act, which provides tax incentives for citizens who undertake certain clean-energy projects to reduce their household's energy use. Pursuant to the Plan, such Claims are not paid in cash or other monies in the Debtors' Title III Cases, but rather, are satisfied through reductions in tax revenue. (Jar-esko Decl. ¶ 55.) It is in the Commonwealth's best interests to promote the reasonable governmental purpose of supporting residents who are taking steps to address climate change and who took those steps in reliance upon the availability of such tax deductions under the Energy Incentive Act. Accordingly, separate classification of such Claims is reasonable and justified.

68. Class 56 consists of all Claims of certain federally qualified health centers arising from or relating to the Medicaid Act. Separate classification of such Claims is reasonable and justified because such Claims are held by entities that provide critical medical treatment to Commonwealth residents, particularly in a global pandemic, and are payable through Medicare/Medicaid funds from the federal government that are earmarked for the payment of such claims and not available to other general unsecured claimholders. Separate classification of such Class and enhanced treatment on account of its Claims through the receipt of a fifty percent (50%) recovery is reasonable and justified to support such critical services and ensure that medical providers on the Island are not underfunded. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 56.) 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(bb). Class 56 also exempts the litigation styled Rio Grande Cmty. Health Ctr. Inc., et al. v. Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., Case No. 03-1640 (GAG), currently pending in the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico, from dismissal under section 60.2 of the Plan, and provides separate treatment for the manner in which that litigation shall be pursued and resolved by the parties thereto. (Plan § 60.2.)

69. Class 57 consists of Claims (other than Energy Incentive Claims) relating to refunds or credits for the payment of personal income taxes, arising under the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 2011, or an economic incentive law, in each case resulting in income tax credits, deductions, or carryforwards. Such Tax Credit Claims were designed and implemented by the Government of the Commonwealth to incentivize certain behavior and to benefit the Commonwealth and support the economy as a whole. Pursuant to the Plan, such Claims are not paid in cash or other monies in the Debtors' Title III Cases, but rather, are satisfied through reductions in tax revenue. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 57.) Accordingly, it is reasonable and in the best interests of the Commonwealth and its economy to continue to honor such tax incentives upon which residents and local businesses have relied, and to separately classify such Claims.

70. Class 63 consists of Claims arising from or related to indebtedness only payable from appropriations of the Commonwealth Legislature. Such claimants, significantly, have fewer rights than holders of CW General Unsecured Claims, as they have no ability to compel payment of their Claims and hold only contingent rights to payment to the extent appropriated by the Government of the Commonwealth. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 58.) It is therefore reasonable and appropriate to separately classify such claims.

71. Class 64 consists of Claims determined pursuant to a Final Order to be subject to section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 59.) Section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code subordinates such Claims to other general unsecured claims, and provides that such Claims are only eligible to receive a recovery pursuant to the Plan once all other unsecured creditors have been paid in full. Because these Claims have a lower priority than general unsecured claims, they are sufficiently dissimilar to general unsecured claims to warrant separate classification and treatment.

72. As each Class contains Claims substantially similar to each other, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.²²

73. The Plan separately classifies Claims not similarly situated to other Claims based upon differences in the legal nature and/or priority of such Claims or because they are asserted against a different Debtor than other Claims with the same priority, including secured and unsecured Claims against PBA (Classes 12-14), CW/HTA Claims (Class 59), CW/Convention Center Claims (Class 60), CW/PRIFA Rum Tax Claims (Class 61), CW/MBA Claims (Class 62), ERS Bond Claims and ERS General Unsecured Claims (Classes 65 and 66), Gracia Gracia Claims (Class 67), and Federal Claims (Class 69).

ii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1122(b)

74. Class 68 consists of Convenience Claims, comprising Claims equal to or less than $20,000, or Claims which the holder elects to reduce to $20,000 pursuant to the Plan. (Plan § 1.162.) Any holder of multiple Claims in an aggregate amount of $40,000 or more may elect to reduce all such Claims to an aggregate amount of $40,000 and be treated within Class 68. (Plan §-1.163, art. LXXII.) The separate classification of Convenience Claims is reasonable and necessary to ease the administrative burden on the Debtors. (See Jaresko Decl. ¶ 60.)

75. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1122(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

iii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(a)(1)

76. Section 4.1 of the Plan designates sixty-nine (69) separate Classes of Claims for the Debtor's, other than Claims of the type described in section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

77. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

iv. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(a)(2)

78. Section 84.1 of the Plan specifies that Claims in Classes 1 through 50, 51B, 51E, 51G through 51I, 52 through 53, 56, 58 through 66 and 69 are impaired. Section 84.2 of the Plan specifies that Claims in Classes 51A, 51C, 51D, 51F, 51J through 51L, 54, 55, 57, 67, and 68 are unimpaired.

79. Since the Plan has been modified to exclude Class 54 from the list of impaired Classes and add it to the list of unimpaired Classes, the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

v. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(a)(3)

80. Articles V through LIV, sections 55.2, 55.5, 55.7 through 55.9, articles LVI through LVII, LX, LXII through LXX and LXXIII of the Plan identify the treatment of each Class of Claims impaired by the Plan. Sections 62.2 and 62.3 have been revised to remove any reference to Eminent Domain Claims from the category of CW General Unsecured Claims and treatment thereunder.

81. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

vi. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(a)(4)

82. Articles V through LXXIII of the Plan provide that the treatment of each Claim in each particular Class is the same as the treatment of each other Claim in such Class, except to the extent that a holder of an Allowed Claim has agreed to less favorable treatment of its Claim. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 65.)

83. Mr. Hein objects to the payment of certain costs and fees to some, but not all bondholders, arguing that such payments render the treatment of the bondholders' respective claims different, violating section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code (Hein Obj. at 17). Consummation Costs, Restriction Fees, or Retail Support Fees are being paid to certain parties pursuant to the Plan and in accordance with the plan support agreements negotiated by the Oversight Board. (See Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 80, 84, 85; Debtors Exs. 16, 17.) Hein's objection is unfounded because these costs are not awarded on account of the creditors' Claims but, rather, as consideration for the creditors' actions in facilitating the settlements embodied in the Plan. (See Nov. 10, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 63:24-64:5, 72:23-73:6; Zelin Decl. ¶ 78; Jaresko Decl. ¶ 66.) Commitments to pay Consummation Costs and Restriction Fees were essential to incentivize parties to engage in continued negotiations over an extended period of time, and to incentivize parties to the plan support agreements to support confirmation of the Plan. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 91.) Without such fees, building consensus and encouraging parties to engage in negotiations and ultimately document their agreements would have been significantly more difficult, and Plan confirmation would have been less likely or substantially prolonged. (Id. §§ 91-92.) The Oversight Board has determined that it is fair and reasonable for the PSA Creditors to be paid Consummation Costs as consideration for their efforts in assisting in the formulation of the Plan that has garnered significant creditor support, and to compensate the PSA Creditors for fees and expenses incurred in connection with the negotiation and execution of the GO/PBA PSA and HTA/CCDA PSA. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 216; Zelin Decl. §§ 80, 84, 88, 91-93; Debtors Exs. 16, 17.) During the lengthy and complex negotiation process led by the Mediation Team, PSA Creditors agreed to various conditions and covenants set forth in plan support agreements, including, among other things, a pledge to support the Plan, the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of their bonds, and a waiver of their right to seek reimbursement of expenses through other means. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 93, Debtors Exs. 16, 17.) The Consummation Costs are not paid on account of creditors' Claims. (See Jaresko Decl. ¶ 66.) Rather, the Consummation Costs are paid to reimburse expenses incurred in negotiating plan support agreements that enabled the Plan to move forward. (See Nov. 10, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 63:24-64:5; Zelin Decl. §§ 80, 84, 88, 92.) Thus, the Oversight Board has determined, and this Court finds that, the 1.5% Consummation Cost expense is reasonable. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 216; Zelin Decl. §§ 91-93; Nov. 10, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 91:17-25.)

84. Additionally, in exchange for agreeing to support the Plan and tender or "lock up," as applicable, the parties' bonds in accordance with each of the GO/PBA PSA and HTA/CCDA PSA, it is fair and reasonable to make PSA Restriction Fees available to holders of bonds issued by such entities. (Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 80, 84, 85, 89, 91-93; Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 127, 178.) Similarly, in exchange for executing the ERS Stipulation and agreeing to all of its terms and conditions, including agreeing to support the Plan and "lock up" their ERS Bonds in connection with the ERS Stipulation, it is fair and reasonable to make an ERS Restriction Fee available to each ERS bondholder party to the ERS Stipulation. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 216; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 83, 91-93; Debtors Ex. 19.)

85. As a product of the negotiations culminating in the GO/PBA PSA, a similar Retail Support Fee (i.e., a form of "restriction fee") will be available to Retail Investors who did not tender and exchange their bonds to join the GO/PBA PSA. (Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 81, 82; Debtors Ex. 16.) The Oversight Board determined that providing Retail Investors an opportunity to receive similar payments is fair and reasonable, and balances the interests of various creditor constituencies. (Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 128, 216.) Moreover, the Oversight Board has agreed to provide bondholders with an additional opportunity to certify that they are Retail Investors and receive their Pro Rata Share of the GO/PBA Restriction Fee Percentage. (See Nov. 22, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 44:1-45:4.) The Retail Support Fee payments are reasonable and appropriate, and will not be paid on account of Claims.

86. The provisions for payment of Consummation Costs, Restriction Fees, and Retail Support Fees are critical components of the plan support agreements that made development of the Plan possible. (See Jar-esko Decl. ¶ 66.) The payment of Consummation Costs, Restriction Fees, and Retail Support Fees to certain parties does not violate section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, which mandates that “a plan shall . . . provide the same treatment for each claim or interest of a particular class. . . .” 11 U.S.C.A. § 1123(a)(4) (Westlaw through P.L. 117-80). While it is true that all claims must be treated equally, the same is not true for all claimants. See 7 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1123.01 (16th ed. 2021) (“The equality addressed by section 1123(a)(4) extends only to the treatment of members of the same class of claims and interests, and not to the plan’s overall treatment of the creditors holding such claims or interests. . . . Creditors should not confuse ‘equal treatment of claims with equal treatment of claimants.’”); see also Ad Hoc Comm. of Non-Consenting Creditors v. Peabody Energy Corp. (In re Peabody Energy Corp.), 582 B.R. 771, 781 (E.D. Mo. 2017) (same); In re Adelphia Commc’ns Corp., 368 B.R. 140, 249-50 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (“[C]ourts have held that the statute does not require identical treatment for all class members in all respects under a plan, and that the requirements of section 1123(a)(4) apply only to a plan’s treatment on account of particular claims or interests in a specific class—not the treatment that members of the class may separately receive under a plan on account of the class members’ other rights or contributions.”) (emphasis in original). Accordingly, the payment of these fees is consistent with section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Hein Objection and the Samodovitz Objection on this ground are overruled.²³

vii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(a)(5)

87. Various provisions of the Plan provide adequate and proper means for its implementation:

- Article III provides for the payment of Administrative Expense Claims required to be paid on the Effective Date;
- Section 74.1 provides for the issuance and distribution of the New GO Bonds;
- Section 74.2 provides for the issuance and distribution of the CVIs;
- Section 74.5 ensures the feasibility of the Plan by providing for the adoption and maintenance of a debt management policy “designed ²³ Mr. Hein and Mr. Samodovitz further contend that Retail Investor bondholders should also be entitled to the 1.5% Consummation Cost in addition to a Retail Support Fee. While Mr. Hein and Mr. Samodovitz assert that they should be accorded a larger payment under the plan support agreements, they do not argue that their Claims have been treated differently (or impaired) as a result of the payment of a Consummation Cost to certain PSA creditors, and the Court finds that there is no such prohibited differential treatment by reason of the payment of Consummation Costs. Rather, as explained above, Consummation Costs are not awarded on account of the individual creditors’ Claims. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 78; Jaresko Decl. ¶ 66.) As noted above, section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require identical treatment of all claimants.

to ensure that certain past Debt issuance practices of the Commonwealth are not repeated”;

- Section 76.1 provides, subject to Sections 76.5, 76.7, and 76.10 of the Plan, that “all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that exist between the Debtors and any Entity, and which have not expired by their own terms on or prior to the Effective Date, shall be rejected by the Debtors as of the Effective Date, except for any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease (a) that has been assumed and assigned or rejected pursuant to an order of the Title III Court entered prior to the Effective Date, (b) that is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed on the schedules to the Plan Supplement, (c) that has been registered with the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico, (d) that has been exempt from registration with the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico pursuant to 2 L.P.R.A. § 97 and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, (e) that has been approved by the Oversight Board or authorized by the Title III Court, unless specifically designated a contract to be rejected in the Plan Supplement, (f) with the United States, or any of its agencies, departments or agents or pursuant to any federal program, (g) that is an incentive agreement between the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and rum producers with respect to rum excise tax “Cover Over” revenues, or (h) by or between any Commonwealth of Puerto Rico agencies, departments, municipalities, public corporations, or instrumentalities (other than leases to which PBA is a party). . . .”;

- Article LXXVII provides for distributions to be made to holders of all Allowed Claims under the Plan;
- Article LXXVIII provides for the Avoidance Actions Trust Assets to vest in the Avoidance Actions Trust, to be administered by the Avoidance Actions Trustee, and provides for the semi-annual distribution of liquidated Avoidance Actions Trust Assets to the beneficiaries thereof;
- Section 81.2 vests in the Disbursing Agent, among other things, the power and authority to make distributions contemplated by the Plan;
- Article LXXXII provides for the Debtors to reconcile, and to the extent ultimately allowed, pay, any and all Disputed Claims;
- Article LXXXIII provides for the funding and administration of the Pension Reserve Trust under the Plan;
- Article LXXXVIII provides that, “[o]n the Effective Date, all matters provided for under the Plan that would otherwise require approval of the directors of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, including, without limitation, to the extent applicable, the authorization to issue or cause to be issued the New GO Bonds, the CVIs, the authorization to enter into the Definitive Documents, the adoption of Reorganized Debtors By-Laws, and the election or appointment, as the case may be, of directors and officers of Reorganized Debtors pursuant to the Plan, as applicable, shall be authorized and approved in all respects, in each case, in accordance with the New GO Bonds Legislation, the CVI Legislation, and the new corporate governance documents, as applicable, and without further action by any Entity under any other applicable law, regulation, order, or rule”;

- Section 92.1 provides for the re-vesting of assets: “Except as provided in the Confirmation Order, on the Effective Date, title to all Assets and properties of the Debtors encompassed by the Plan shall vest in Reorganized Debtors, free and clear of all Liens (except the Liens granted pursuant to the Plan and Confirmation Order)”;
- Articles II and LXIX provide for the sale of all ERS assets to the Commonwealth in exchange for $373 million in cash and the option to purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio; and
- Articles VI through XV provide for approximately $1.1 billion to be paid by the Commonwealth to holders of PBA Bond Claims in satisfaction of their claims.

(See Jaresko Decl. ¶ 67; Shah Decl. ¶ 59; see generally Plan.)

88. The Plan Supplement contains, among other things, the forms of (a) the New GO Bond Trust Agreement, (b) the CVI Trust Agreement, (c) the Avoidance

Actions Trust Agreement, (d) the ERS Trust Agreement, (e) the Schedule of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be Assumed, (f) the Supplemental Ambac Election Notice, (g) the Assured Custodial Trust Documents, (h) the FGIC Custodial Trust Agreement, (i) Act 53-2021, and (j) the Pension Reserve Trust Guidelines (each as defined in the Plan Supplement). (See generally Plan Sup.) The Plan, together with the documents and arrangements set forth in the Plan Supplement, provides adequate means for its implementation.

89. The Confirmation Order further provides adequate means for the Plan's implementation including, but not limited to, paragraph 62 thereof which provides: "Before the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including, without limitation, by any Entity or Person acting for or on behalf thereof, shall not (a) implement existing legislation or enact new legislation to create or increase any defined benefit pension payment or obligation to current or future retirees from or related to any defined benefit plans over the benefits provided by the Plan, regardless of funding source, or (b) undo (in whole or part) the Plan's eliminations of defined benefit plan accruals and cost of living adjustments for government employees; provided, however, that the Governor and Legislature, subsequent to termination of the Oversight Board, may apply to the Title III Court for relief from this provision upon showing (i) the need therefor, (ii) the affordability of the requested changes, (iii) the reasons why the requested changes will not create a risk of the financial distress caused by the Commonwealth's prior defined benefit plans, under which the Commonwealth and other governmental employers accrued nearly $55 billion of unfunded pension obligations, (iv) the means of funding the requested changes and reasons why there is little risk of such funding not being carried out, (v) the reasons why the requested changes will not create a material risk of defaults on any of the then outstanding obligations pursuant to the Plan, and (vi) the reasons why the defined contribution plans are insufficient and defined benefit plans are both prudent and required; and, provided, however, that, prior to the termination of the Oversight Board, the Oversight Board shall not reduce any defined benefit pension payment or obligation to current or future retirees from the benefits provided by the Plan." (Confirmation Ord. ¶ 62.) This provision is appropriate and necessary for the implementation and feasibility of the Plan.²⁴

90. The Court's conclusion under Bankruptcy Code section 1123(a)(5), made applicable by PROMESA section 301(a), that there are adequate means to

to enforce the intent and specific provisions of the plan"). The Debtors have proffered evidence that the Commonwealth's pension obligations have been and, absent modification, would continue to be a significant source of debt for Puerto Rico (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 15), and that provisions that conflict with the treatment of retirees put forth in the Plan may undermine the goals of PROMESA and the feasibility of the Plan. (See Jaresko Decl. ¶ 235; see also Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 13 (discussing similar need to ensure consistency between treatment of retirees in Plan with respect to the Freeze and COLAs to protect Plan's feasibility).) The record adequately demonstrates that the "freeze" of certain defined benefit obligations is essential to the Plan's feasibility, and the prohibition of the re-creation or enhancement of existing defined benefit plans is therefore a necessary and appropriate means to ensure the viability of the Plan and implement the discharge of the Commonwealth's prepetition pension obligations. (See Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 16-21.)

Although early versions of the Plan and proposed confirmation order did not include the provision restricting the re-creation or enhancement of existing defined benefit plans (the "DB Increase Restriction"), parties in interest have been given adequate notice of the relief sought with respect to pension programs, including Plan provisions affecting future rights under existing pension plans (in particular, the defined benefit "freeze" and the restriction on cost of living adjustments), and of this request for a restriction on the government's power to restore defined benefit arrangements. The DB Increase Restriction is a restriction on the exercise of governmental powers, not an impairment of existing vested rights held by any person. Accordingly, the notice provided is sufficient under the circumstances. The inclusion of the provision in the proposed confirmation order thus will not violate the due process rights of retirement plan participants who did not receive individualized notice of the Debtors' intention to request that the provision be included in the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

implement the Plan rests on, among other things, Act 53 (Debtors Ex. 134), which authorizes the new debt to be issued pursuant to the Plan with the support of the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth, as long as the Plan does not include Monthly Benefit Modifications to pension payments. (See generally id.) The freezes in the accruals of pension benefits and the elimination of cost of living adjustments do not affect the authorization of the new debt. The plain and unambiguous terms of the statute provide that the debt authorization in Act 53 is conditioned only on the Plan's removal of the Monthly Benefit Modification provision that was included in the proposed Seventh Amended Plan, and Act 53 does not require satisfaction of any other conditions to the authorization of new debt, such as removal of Plan provisions concerning (a) the elimination of cost of living adjustments and/or (b) the freeze or termination of accrual of defined benefits under TRS or JRS from and after the Effective Date.²⁵

²⁵ Courts "interpret a Puerto Rico statute according to its plain meaning." Santiago-Ramos v. Centennial P.R. Wireless Corp., 217 F.3d 46, 59 (1st Cir. 2000). "We first determine whether the statutory language is unambiguous. In the absence of ambiguity, we generally do not look beyond the plain meaning of the statutory language." Herman v. Hector I. Nieves Transp., Inc., 244 F.3d 32, 34 (1st Cir. 2001) (citations omitted). Here, article 104 of Act 53 declares that it is the public policy of Puerto Rico "to protect the accrued pensions of its public servants." Article 104 provides that, "Wherefore, with regard to the accrued pensions of government employees, it is hereby provided as follows: The Legislative Assembly authorizes the issuance of the General Obligation Bonds and CVIs subject to the FOMB filing an amended Plan for confirmation by the Title III Court that eliminates the Monthly Benefit Modification." Article 605 of Act 53

The Plan cancels and eliminates the Monthly Benefit Modification previously included in the proposed Seventh Amended Plan, thereby satisfying the condition in Act 53 for authorization of the new debt to be issued pursuant to the Plan. (See, e.g., Plan § 55.7(a).) Accordingly, Act 53 provides adequate means for implementation of the Plan. In this connection, the Court also concludes that PROMESA's preemption provisions and Title III's debt adjustment and plan confirmation provisions are sufficient to enable the Commonwealth further provides that “[t]he effectiveness of [Act 53] is conditioned to the FOMB filing an amended Plan for confirmation by the Title III Court that eliminates the Monthly Benefit Modification as defined in the Plan.” These operative provisions establish that the conditions put in place by Act 53 concern the protection of accrued pension rights and, in particular, the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification from the Plan. No language in Act 53 indicates a legislative intent to preclude the defined benefit accrual “freeze” or the elimination of COLAs, each of which operates prospectively and does not affect accrued pension rights. Notwithstanding arguments to the contrary that were raised, in certain objections, Article 104's references to protecting “accrued pensions of . . . public servants” and “the pensions of all of our retirees” confirm that Act 53's conditions are met by a Plan that affects only the accrual of future pension benefits rather than those already earned. Article 605's references to “reductions to . . . pensions” and “[z]ero cuts to pensions” arise in the context of a provision that expressly provides “clarity” to prior provisions and does not establish additional conditions. Like the reference to “avoid[ing] any cut of pensions” in Article 603, those phrases are merely restatements of the policy of protecting accrued pension rights announced in Article 104 of Act 53, and they are consistent with the sufficiency of a plan that eliminates a cut to accrued current monthly pension payments and precludes further defined benefit accruals and cost of living increases to those monthly benefits.

to implement the defined benefit and COLA freeze provisions of the Plan without further legislative action. The Court's Confirmation Order, which provides detailed terms for the implementation of the defined benefit and COLA freeze aspects of the Plan, approves the freezes, which are economic measures consistent with the fiscal plan and within the scope of the Oversight Board's powers under PROMESA. The Plan and Confirmation Order are enforceable against the Commonwealth, its officials and other interested parties, and any Commonwealth law provisions contrary to their terms are preempted.

91. The Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.²⁶

viii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(1)

92. Article LXXXIV of the Plan identifies which Classes of Claims are impaired and which Classes of Claims are left unimpaired. Article LXXXIV has been ²⁶ The Asociación de Maestros Puerto Rico and the Asociación de Maestros de Puerto Rico-Local Sindical (together, "AMPR") contend that the accrual of post-Effective Date benefits and cost of living adjustments cannot be preempted by the Plan or rejected by the Debtors. AMPR does not, however, dispute that the Supreme Court of Puerto Rico has characterized such obligations as contractual in nature. (See, e.g., AMPR Obj. ¶¶ 2, 21 (citing Asociación de Maestros de P.R. v. Sistema de Retiro para Maestros de P.R., 190 DPR 854 (P.R. 2014)).) Such rights are therefore ultimately subject to impairment and discharge like other general unsecured obligations.

modified to reflect that Class 54 is unimpaired rather than impaired.

93. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

ix. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(2)

94. Subject to section 76.10 of the Plan, section 76.1 of the Plan provides that, as of the Effective Date, all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to which any Debtor is a party are rejected, “except for any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease (a) that has been assumed and assigned or rejected pursuant to an order of the Title III Court entered prior to the Effective Date, (b) that is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed on the schedules to the Plan Supplement, (c) that has been registered with the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico, (d) that has been exempt from registration with the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico pursuant to 2 L.P.R.A. § 97 and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, (e) that has been approved by the Oversight Board or authorized by the Title III Court unless specifically designated a contract to be rejected in the Plan Supplement, (f) with the United States, or any of its agencies, departments or agents or pursuant to any federal program, (g) that is an incentive agreement between the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and rum producers with respect to rum excise tax “Cover Over” revenues, or (h) by or between any Commonwealth of Puerto Rico agencies, departments, municipalities, public corporations, or instrumentalities (other than leases to which PBA is a party); provided, however, that the Debtors reserve the right to amend, on or prior to the Effective Date, such schedules to delete any Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease therefrom or add any Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease thereto, in which event such Executory Contract(s) and Unexpired Lease(s) shall be deemed to be, as the case may be, either rejected, assumed, or assumed and assigned as of the Effective Date.” (Plan § 76.1; see also Plan Sup. Ex. E.)

95. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

x. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(3)(A)

96. The Plan incorporates, among other things, the settlements and compromises set forth in the AF-SCME Plan Support Agreement (Debtors Ex. 21), the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement (Debtors Ex. 16), the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement (Debtors Ex. 17), the PRIFA Plan Support Agreement (Debtors Ex. 18), the Retiree Committee Plan Support Agreement (Debtors Ex. 20), the Committee Agreement (Debtors Ex. 23), the ERS Stipulation (Debtors Ex. 19), the PRIFA BANs Stipulation (Debtors Ex. 22), and the Stipulation in Connection with DRA Related Disputes (Docket Entry No. 19100 Ex. A) (Debtors Ex. 146). Further, the Plan sets forth the terms and conditions for a global compromise and integrated settlement of, among other issues, asserted and unasserted disputes

concerning the rights of holders of CW Bond Claims, CW Guarantee Bond Claims, ERS Bond Claims, PBA Bond Claims, CW/Convention Center Claims, CW/HTA Claims, CW/MBA Claims, CW/PRIFA Rum Tax Claims, and PRIFA BANs, including the disputes: (a) set forth in the Debt Related Objections challenging, among other things, the validity, priority, secured status and related rights of the 2011 CW Bond Claims, the 2011 CW Series D/E/PIB Bond Claims, the 2012 CW Bond Claims, the 2014 CW Bond Claims, the 2014 CW Guarantee Bond Claims, the 2011 PBA Bond Claims, the 2012 PBA Bond Claims, and the PRIFA BANs, (b) set forth in the Invalidity Actions, (c) set forth in the Lien Challenge Actions, (d) raised by certain holders of CW Bond Claims, CW Guarantee Bond Claims, and GDB HTA Loans asserting rights to receive revenues historically conditionally appropriated to CCDA, HTA, MBA, and PRIFA, as applicable, and “clawed back” by the Commonwealth pursuant to the provisions of the Commonwealth Constitution, (e) relating to the validity, priority, secured status and related rights attendant to the GDB HTA Loans, (f) set forth in the ERS Litigation, the ERS Recovery Actions, and the ERS Takings Action, (g) between the Commonwealth and PBA, including, without limitation, the resolution of (i) the claims and Causes of Action currently being litigated in the PBA Litigation (ii) the amount, if any, of the PBA Administrative Expense Claim, and (iii) the ownership of the PBA Property, between the Commonwealth and PBA and the claims that PBA may assert against the Commonwealth under leases, agreements and applicable law, (h) set forth in the Lift Stay

Motions and the Clawback Actions relating to the CW/Convention Center Claims, the CW/HTA Claims, and the CW/PRIFA Rum Tax Claims, and (i) set forth in the PRIFA BANs Litigation. (Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 71, 114-87.) The Plan also incorporates the terms of a global settlement and compromise of all pending disputes involving the DRA Parties. (See Docket Entry No. 19100, ¶¶ 9-12.) As explained in the paragraphs that follow, such settlements and compromises are in the best interests of the Debtors and their creditors, and within the range of reasonableness. (Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶¶ 119-36; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 13, 24, 29, 36, 43; Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 201-16; Skeel Decl. ¶¶ 32-46.)

97. Each of the plan support agreements was reached following months of negotiations directed by the Mediation Team and/or other informal discussions that included party representatives, legal and financial advisors, and involved vigorous debate and discussion on both sides. (Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 18-20, 21-22, 26-28, 32-33, 38, 40-41; Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 202-16.) Those negotiations were conducted at arms' length and in good faith. (Id.; Skeel Decl. ¶ 33; Jaresko Decl. ¶ 202.) The litigation resolved by the plan support agreements involves extraordinarily complex, high-stake disputes and, because these are the first Title III cases litigated under PROMESA, novel legal issues. Collectively, billions of dollars were at stake. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 203.) The consequence of the GO Bondholders prevailing on their priority argument, or the HTA, PRIFA, or CCDA bondholders prevailing on their property interest contentions, would have inflicted grave harm on the Commonwealth and its residents because the Commonwealth, in either situation, would have lost control of billions of dollars of revenues needed to sustain the Commonwealth. This would have prevented the Oversight Board from developing fiscal plans and budgets necessary to carry out its statutory mission. A small risk of a negative and grave outcome was imprudent to undertake once settlement was possible on the terms in the Plan. (Skeel Decl. ¶ 34; Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 203-13.) The settlements embodied in the Plan also avoid the uncertainty, delay, and significant expense that would result from continued litigation. (Skeel Decl. ¶ 44; Jaresko Decl. ¶ 214.)

98. The Plan is the result of extensive arms' length negotiations among the Government Parties and significant creditor constituencies, including the PSA Creditors, each of which was represented by sophisticated counsel, and the compromises and settlements among the Government Parties and various PSA Creditors form the very foundation of the Plan. In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the Debtors' emergence from Title III would likely be significantly delayed by further litigation and burdened by additional expense, which could impair the Debtors' ability to successfully adjust their debts, thereby prejudicing recovery for all creditors and raising further uncertainties regarding the Debtors' financial condition. (See Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 81-82, 201-04, 214-215; Skeel Decl. ¶¶ 43-46.)

99. Each of the compromises and settlements incorporated into the Plan (a) is made in good faith, further the policies and purposes of PROMESA, and is fair, equitable, and reasonable; (b) is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, and all other affected Persons with respect to the Claims, Causes of Action, and other matters resolved by such compromises and settlements; (c) is within the range of reasonable results if the issues were litigated; (d) falls above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness; and (e) meets the standards for approval under sections 105(a) and 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), and other applicable law. Further, the Plan will fairly and consensually resolve numerous pending adversary proceedings and appeals, each of which raises difficult and complex issues. The Plan thus incorporates a complex series of compromises and settlements that resolve the most significant potential obstacles to confirmation of a plan of adjustment. (See Skeel Decl. ¶¶ 33-34; Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 201-05.) The settlements resolve billions of dollars of claims against the Debtors. (Skeel Decl. ¶ 46.) Each of the settlements is consistent with what would be expected as a result of negotiations in a complex debt restructuring and is reasonable. In addition, the ability to achieve consensus from at least 15 major parties is evidence the settlements are reasonable. (Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶¶ 115-37; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 24, 29, 36, 43.) For these reasons, the negotiated settlements provide an appropriate and reasonable basis for the adjustment of all affected Claims, including those of dissenting Creditors in the accepting Classes, as well as claims and interests belonging to the Debtors.

100. Accordingly, the Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xi. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(3)(B)

101. Article LXXVIII of the Plan provides for, among other things, the transfer of the Avoidance Actions to the Avoidance Actions Trust. Section 79.1 of the Plan provides: “Except as settled and released herein, from and after the Effective Date, the Avoidance Actions Trustee shall have the exclusive right and power to (a) litigate any and all of the Avoidance Actions and (b) compromise and settle such Avoidance Actions, upon approval of the Title III Court.” (Plan § 79.1.)

102. Further, Section 82.1(a) of the Plan states: “[e]xcept with respect to Allowed Claims, and subject to the terms and conditions of the ADR Procedures and the ADR Order, Reorganized Debtors, by and through the Oversight Board, and in consultation with AAFAF, shall object to, and shall assume any pending objection filed by the Debtors to, the allowance of Claims filed with the Title III Court with respect to which it disputes liability, priority or amount, including, without limitation, objections to Claims that have been assigned and the assertion of the doctrine of equitable subordination with respect thereto. All objections, affirmative defenses and counterclaims shall be litigated to Final Order; provided, however, that Reorganized Debtors, by and through the Oversight Board, and in consultation with AAFAF, shall have the authority to file, settle, compromise, or withdraw any objections to Claims, without approval of the Title III Court.” For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing is subject to the rights of the two (2) Creditors’ Committee appointees to the Avoidance Action Trust Board pursuant to section 82.1(b) of the Plan. (Plan § 82.1(a).)

103. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(4)

104. Article LXIX of the Plan provides for the sale of all ERS assets to the Commonwealth in exchange for $373 million in cash and the option to purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio, subject to certain conditions. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 76.) Specifically, section 69.2 of the Plan provides that the Commonwealth, up to and including April 10, 2023, “shall have the option to purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio for the ERS Portfolio Price. . . . In the event that the Commonwealth declines to exercise the option or fails to provide notice of its exercise of the Commonwealth Election by April 10, 2023, any holder(s) of Allowed ERS Bond Claims shall have the option to exercise the Bondholder Election and purchase all of the interests in the ERS Trust for the ERS Portfolio Price plus such amount as may be necessary to reimburse the Commonwealth for any funded shortfall amounts in connection with the ERS Private Equity Portfolio during the period from April 2, 2021 up to and including the purchase thereof pursuant to the Bondholder Election that have not been previously reimbursed to the Commonwealth, by providing written notice thereof to the Commonwealth on or prior to April 15, 2023.” However, “[i]n the event that neither the Commonwealth Election nor the Bondholder Election shall have been exercised, on April 25, 2023, (i) the Commonwealth shall purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio for the ERS Portfolio Price. . . .” Pursuant to section 69.1 of the Plan, in either scenario, the proceeds of the purchase of the ERS Private Equity Portfolio, along with the $373 million in cash, shall be distributed to holders of Allowed ERS Bond Claims. (Plan § 69.1.)

105. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xiii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(5)

106. Articles V through LIV, sections 55.2, 55.5, 55.7 through 55.9, articles LVI through LVII, LX, LXII through LXX, and LXXIII of the Plan modify the rights of holders of Claims in the impaired Classes. Sections 55.1, 55.3, 55.4, 55.6, 55.10 through 55.12, articles LVIII through LIX, LXI, LXXI, and LXXII of the Plan leave the rights of holders of unimpaired Claims unaffected. Sections 62.2 and 62.3 have been revised to remove any reference to Eminent Domain Claims from the category of CW General Unsecured Claims and treatment thereunder.

107. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xiv. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(b)(6)

108. Article XCII of the Plan provides for, among other things, (a) certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations described below in paragraphs 233-242 and (b) an exemption from registration pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 1145 for the issuance and distribution of New GO Bonds and CVIs. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 78; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 94, 96, 97, 99, 107-10.)

109. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xv. Bankruptcy Code Section 1123(d)

110. Section 76.4 of the Plan provides for the payment of cure amounts required to be paid to the counterparties of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases assumed, or assumed and assigned, pursuant to the Plan. All cure amounts will be determined in accordance with the underlying agreements and applicable nonbankruptcy law, and pursuant to the procedures established by the Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 79.) On November 23, 2021, the Oversight Board filed and caused to be served the Notice of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to be Assumed Pursuant to Title III Plan of Adjustment (Docket Entry No. 19353), (i) setting forth the cure amounts for each assumed Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease based on a review of the Debtors' books and records, and (ii) establishing a deadline for parties to object to the proposed cure amounts for an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to which they are a party or to the assumption of such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Within ten (10) Business Days of entry of a Final Order setting forth the cure amount as to each Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assumed and assigned, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, shall pay or otherwise satisfy such cure amount.

111. The Plan is consistent with section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xvi. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(a)(2)

112. The Debtors have (i) complied with provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and PROMESA applicable to confirmation of the Plan, except as otherwise provided or permitted by orders of this Court, and (ii) complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, PROMESA, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and the Disclosure Statement Order in transmitting the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, the Ballots, the Election Notices, and related documents, and in soliciting and tabulating votes on the Plan.

113. The Oversight Board, with the assistance of its professionals, and in coordination with AAFAF, expended significant time and effort preparing the Disclosure Statement (Debtors Ex. 2), and sought and received input and comment thereon from other parties in interest. This Court approved the Disclosure Statement as containing adequate information and meeting the requirements of sections 1125 and 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 80.) The

Debtors have properly solicited and tabulated votes on the Plan. (Jaresko Decl ¶ 80; see generally Pullo Decl.; see generally Pullo Sup. Decl.)

114. The Oversight Board, as proponent of the Plan, is the duly-appointed representative of the Debtors in their Title III Cases as provided pursuant to PROMESA and has acted in accordance with applicable law in proposing the Plan.

115. The Debtors have complied with section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xvii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(a)(3)

116. The Plan was proposed in good faith with the legitimate purpose to provide a means for the Debtors to achieve fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets, consistent with the purposes of PROMESA. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 81.) In determining that the Plan has been proposed in good faith, the Court has examined the totality of the circumstances surrounding the filing of the Title III Cases, the Plan itself, the lengthy process leading to the Plan's formulation (including the compromises, settlements, and releases incorporated therein), and the process associated with the Plan's prosecution. The Debtors' good faith is evident from the facts and records of the Title III Cases, the Disclosure Statement and the hearing thereon, and the record of the Confirmation Hearing and other proceedings held in the Title III Cases, including related adversary proceedings. The Plan (including the settlements and compromises contained therein) is the result of extensive arm's length negotiations among the parties, including through mediation led by former Chief Bankruptcy Judge Barbara Houser.

117. The Oversight Board has worked to develop consensus with creditors and to evaluate the Commonwealth's and its instrumentalities' current and future financial circumstances. These circumstances have been subject to constant change as the Oversight Board, the Commonwealth, creditors, and the people of Puerto Rico have fought to address the Island's needs and develop a path to fiscal responsibility in the midst of multiple major hurricanes, earthquakes, and other natural disasters, as well as the impact of the global COVID-19 pandemic. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 82.) The Plan and Disclosure Statement represent the culmination of those efforts and the substantial input of each key stakeholder.

118. The Plan (including all other agreements, documents, and instruments necessary to effectuate the Plan) achieves a rational adjustment of the Debtors' debts, and properly distributes value to creditors, including through the implementation of (a) parties' elections with respect to distributions and/or (b) the settlements pursuant to the Plan. The Plan was proposed with the legitimate and honest purpose of implementing the settlements and compromises of numerous risky and costly disputes, while avoiding protracted litigation that could delay distributions to creditors. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 83.)

119. The Plan complies with section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xviii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(a)(6)

120. The Plan does not provide for any rate changes by the Debtors and, accordingly, section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code does not apply.

xix. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(a)(8)

121. Pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order, the Title III Court approved the Disclosure Statement (Debtors Ex. 2) and found, among other things, that the Disclosure Statement contained “adequate information” within the meaning of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and directed the Debtors to solicit acceptances and rejections of the Plan, as well as certain elections with respect thereto. (Disclosure Statement Ord. ¶¶ B, 7-19.) Prior to the transmission of the Disclosure Statement, the Debtors did not solicit acceptances of the Plan from any holders of Claims.²⁷

122. The Solicitation Packages were served in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and the Disclosure Statement Order. (See generally Mailing Affidavits.)

123. The (a) service of the Solicitation Packages, (b) publication of the Confirmation Hearing Notice, and (c) airing of radio advertisements regarding the approval of the Disclosure Statement, Confirmation Hearing dates, Confirmation Objection Deadline, Voting Deadline, and Election Deadline: (i) were adequate and sufficient under the circumstances of the Title III Cases; (ii) provided adequate and sufficient notice of such deadlines, the method of voting or making an election of distribution pursuant to the Plan; and the date, time, and location of the Confirmation Hearing; (iii) provided holders of Claims with a reasonable period of time to make an informed decision to accept or reject the Plan and to make any election provided thereunder; (iv) were in compliance with PROMESA, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Disclosure Statement Order, and any other applicable orders and rulings of the Court; and (v) provided due process to all parties in interest in the Title III Cases. (See Service Affidavits; see also generally Pullo Decl.)

124. No other or further notice with respect to the Plan or the Confirmation Hearing is required. Based upon the foregoing, the Debtors and their successors, predecessors, control persons, representatives, officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, financial advisors, investment bankers, accountants, and other retained professionals, and any and all affiliates, managers, employees, attorneys, and advisors of the foregoing (i) have acted in “good faith” within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and in compliance with the applicable provisions of PROMESA, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any applicable nonbankruptcy law, rule, or regulation governing the adequacy of disclosure in connection with all their activities relating to the solicitation of acceptances of the Plan or elections thereunder and their participation in the activities described in section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) shall be deemed to have participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable provisions of PROMESA and the Bankruptcy Code in the offer and issuance of securities pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such offer, issuance, and solicitation will not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or elections thereunder or the offer and issuance of securities pursuant to the Plan, and are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and, to the extent such parties are listed therein, the exculpation provisions set forth in section 92.7 of the Plan.

125. Votes to accept or reject the Plan were solicited and tabulated fairly, in good faith, and in a manner consistent with the Disclosure Statement Order, PROMESA, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Bankruptcy Rules. (See Pullo Decl. ¶ 8.)

126. Certain Classes either voted to reject, or were deemed to reject, the Plan (the “Rejecting Classes”). (See Pullo Decl. Ex. A; Pullo Sup. Decl. Ex. A.)²⁸

²⁸ Classes 51D, 51F, and 51L voted to reject the Plan, but subsequently were rendered unimpaired and deemed to have

Notwithstanding such rejection and deemed rejection, the Plan (which has been revised in compliance with the Court's order rejecting the unsecured claim treatment of Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims and directing the Debtors to incorporate their Full-Payment Proposal for the payment of Allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims (see Docket Entry No. 19517 at 6-15, 17-18)) satisfies sections 1129(b)(2)(A) and 1129(b)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Rejecting Classes.

xx. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(a)(10)

127. At least one Class of each of the Commonwealth creditors' impaired Claims, PBA creditors' impaired Claims, and ERS creditors' impaired Claims has accepted the Plan. (See Pullo Decl. Ex. A.) Accordingly, the Plan complies with section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xxi. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(b)(1)

128. The Plan's treatment of Claims in the Rejecting Classes is proper because, as is described further below, the Plan does not discriminate unfairly and is fair and equitable with respect to such Claims.

accepted the Plan by the modifications made in the Eighth Amended Plan. Accordingly, such classes are not Rejecting Classes. See Pullo Sup. Decl. Ex. A. Moreover, because holders of Allowed Claims under Class 54 are entitled to payment in full under the Full-Payment Proposal, Allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims are unimpaired.

(Jaresko Decl. ¶ 87.) Unfair discrimination applies only to rejecting classes of creditors, not individual creditors within a class. See Bankruptcy Code §§ 1129(b)(1), 1123(a)(4). “Thus, a disapproving creditor within a class that approves a plan cannot claim unfair discrimination.” In re Nuverra Envtl. Sols., Inc., 834 F. App’x 729, 734-35 (3d Cir. 2021). As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that no Rejecting Class has objected to confirmation of the Plan on the basis that the Plan discriminates unfairly.

129. The treatment afforded to retirees classified in Classes 51A through 51F, 51K, and 51L, and active employees classified in Classes 51G through 51J pursuant to the Plan is fair and equitable and does not discriminate unfairly against other creditors in the Title III cases. Any cut to pensions of retired government employees would have a negative impact on Puerto Rico’s economy because retirees comprise a significant component of local demand in Puerto Rico. (Amended Declaration of Simon Johnson (Docket Entry No. 19014-1) (the “Johnson Decl.”) ¶ 6; Retiree Committee Ex. A § 2.17.) Cutting pensions actually could destabilize Puerto Rico’s economic prospects, lead to greater out-migration, and make it harder for Puerto Rico to obtain credit in the future, and the savings from pension cuts do not justify the damage those cuts would cause to the economy. (Johnson Decl. ¶ 6; Retiree Committee Ex. A §§ 2.6; 2.13; 2.22.) Roughly half of the retirees have pensions that place them below the federal poverty level of $11,880 per year for a single person household. (Retiree Committee Ex. A § 4.5.) Further, retirees have also already experienced substantial reductions in pensions, and, except for judges, government retirees have not received cost of living increases since 2008. (Retiree Committee Ex. A §§ 4.11; 4.12.) Many retirees, such as retired police, teachers, and judges, do not receive federal social security payments. (Retiree Committee Ex. A §§ 4.3; 4.16.) The gross income of the approximately 167,000 government retirees represents 6.4% of the total household expenditures on the Island and 5.8% of Puerto Rico's gross national income. (Retiree Committee Ex. A §§ 4.1, 4.4.)

130. The macroeconomic impact of reducing the pensions of retirees on the overall Puerto Rican economy is significant. (Retiree Committee Ex. A § 5.) Because each dollar that is not spent by a retiree has a ripple effect throughout the economy, the loss of $1.00 of retiree income impacts overall spending at a higher rate, known as the fiscal multiplier. (Retiree Committee Ex. A § 5.2.) Applying the Oversight Board's fiscal multiplier, reducing the monthly benefits would result in the loss of 1,600 jobs on the island and a 0.2% reduction in GNP in the near term. (Retiree Committee Ex. A § 2.9.) A higher fiscal multiplier would indicate a greater negative impact on the economy of a loss of 6,300 jobs on the island and a reduction in GNP of 0.6%. (Retiree Committee Ex. A §§ 2.9, 5.) Given Puerto Rico's high level of out-migration, including the increase in out-migration of retirees since 2016, pension cuts may force many more retirees to move to the states to be with family members if they can no longer support themselves living in Puerto Rico. Increased outmigration will have a further negative impact on the economy as pension dollars are then spent outside of Puerto Rico. (Retiree Committee Ex. A §§ 5.21-5.28.)

131. The Plan, which eliminates any reductions in accrued pensions and certain other retiree benefits for retired and active employees and provides for the creation of the Pension Reserve Trust, is better than further pension and benefit cuts for Puerto Rico's economy and for other creditors and justifies the treatment that Claimants for retirement benefits are receiving pursuant to the Plan. See, e.g., In re Creekstone Apartments Assocs., L.P., 168 B.R. 639, 644 (Bankr. M.D. Tenn. 1994) (disparate treatment between classes is not unfair if it "protect[s] a relationship with specific creditors that the debtor need[s] to reorganize successfully."). The treatment of Classes 51A through 51L does not unfairly discriminate in favor of holders of Claims for retirement benefits and is fair and equitable.

132. The Plan does not unfairly discriminate against holders of Claims in Class 58 (CW General Unsecured Claims), Class 66 (ERS General Unsecured Claims), or Class 13 (PBA General Unsecured Claims). For the reasons set forth above in paragraphs 62–70, certain Classes of unsecured Claims have been separately classified to ensure that the Commonwealth is best able to provide critical government services to its residents, and that certain claimants are able to continue providing such services in an efficient, reliable, and sustainable manner. For these reasons, it is important that certain Classes of unsecured Claims receive superior treatment to Claims in Classes 58, 66, and 13. Further, for the reasons set forth above in paragraph 66, separate classification and treatment of Claims in Class 54 (Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims) is necessary because such claimants assert Fifth Amendment rights, and the Plan does not discriminate unfairly with respect to that Class. Separate classification and treatment of such Claims is reasonable and justified by a governmental purpose, and does not constitute unfair discrimination.

133. Accordingly, the Plan complies with section 1129(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

xxii. Bankruptcy Code Section 1129(b)(2)

134. The Plan's treatment of Claims in the Rejecting Classes is proper because the Plan provides all holders of Claims in the Rejecting Classes with what they can reasonably expect to receive under the circumstances of the Title III Cases. Because there are no equity holders in chapter 9 cases, the requirement under Bankruptcy Code section 1129(b)(2)(B) (incorporated by PROMESA section 301(a)) that a plan be "fair and equitable" requires that, where a debtor seeks nonconsensual confirmation of a plan over one or more rejecting classes, no claim junior to any of the claims in the rejecting classes of the relevant debtor may receive any property. Under the Plan, the Class holding Claims junior to the unsecured Rejecting Classes (Section 510(b) Subordinated Claims) receives no property.

The commencement of the Title III Cases was precipitated by the Debtors' untenable debt burden, a severe cash shortage, and the economic decline and out-migration eroding the Debtors' revenues. The creditor recoveries in the Plan were calculated or negotiated to reasonably compensate holders of Claims while enabling the Debtors to avoid a recurrence of these financial difficulties and to institute necessary reforms to ensure the Debtors' fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets. (See Jaresko Decl. ¶ 81; Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶¶ 20, 139.)

135. Class 54 is the only Rejecting Class of Claims characterized as secured in the Plan, and section 1129(b)(2)(A) is satisfied with respect to such Class. Consistent with these Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, holders of Claims in Class 54 will receive payment in full to the extent they are Allowed Claims. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 88.)

136. Accordingly, the Plan complies with section 1129(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to Claims in the Rejecting Classes.

B. PROMESA § 314(b)(2): The Plan Fully Complies with the Applicable Provisions of Title III of PROMESA.

137. Except as otherwise provided for or permitted by orders of the Title III Court, the Oversight Board has complied with Section 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Section 314(b)(2) of PROMESA, including the solicitation and tabulation of votes consistent with the Disclosure Statement Order. (See generally Jaresko Decl. and Pullo Decl.)

138. The Disclosure Statement Order established the procedures for the solicitation of votes on the Plan. The Solicitation Agent complied with the procedures established in the Disclosure Statement Order. (Mailing Affidavits; Pullo Decl. ¶ 4.) Specifically, the Solicitation Agent determined which creditors were entitled to vote on the Plan by following the instructions in the Disclosure Statement Order, by Class, and by applying the Voting Record Dates set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order. The Solicitation Agent then coordinated the distribution of solicitation materials to holders of Claims entitled to vote. (Pullo Decl. ¶¶ 5-6.) The Solicitation Agent coordinated publication of the confirmation hearing notices as set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order. (Id. ¶ 7; see also Publication Affidavit.) The solicitation materials were properly distributed to the appropriate parties, including brokers and nominees. (See Mailing Affidavits.)

139. The Solicitation Agent received, reviewed, determined the validity of, and tabulated the Ballots submitted. (Pullo Decl. ¶ 8.) The Solicitation Agent also worked with the Depository Trust Company (“DTC”) to count votes from the Bond Classes tendered through DTC’s ATOP. (Id. ¶ 9.)

Plan Support Agreements

140. Section 1125(b) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that “[a]n acceptance or rejection of a plan may not be solicited after the commencement of the case under this title from a holder of a claim or interest with respect to such claim or interest, unless, at the time of or before such solicitation, there is transmitted to such holder the plan or a summary of the plan, and a written disclosure statement approved, after notice and a hearing, by the court as containing adequate information.” 11 U.S.C. § 1125(b). Congress intended debtors and creditors be afforded flexibility to resolve disputes, and where possible, reach a consensual resolution of issues in contemplation of the development of a plan of adjustment. See In re Indianapolis Downs, LLC, 486 B.R. 286, 295 (Bankr. D. Del. 2013) (“[A] narrow construction of ‘solicitation’ affords [] parties the opportunity to memorialize their agreements in a way that allows a [. . .] case to move forward.”)

141. Here, the Plan was made possible by the Debtors’ extensive negotiations with numerous claimholder constituencies and the Plan Support Agreements that resulted from the negotiations. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 14.) These agreements include the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, ERS Stipulation, HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement, PRIFA Plan Support Agreement, and agreement with the UCC. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 13.) The process of negotiation and solicitation of assent to the plan support agreements prior to the approval and distribution of the disclosure statement did not constitute improper solicitation of votes with respect to the Plan. “An agreement to accept the Debtor’s plan, made post-petition but before approval of the disclosure statement, remained executory until [the creditor] actually filed its accepting ballot . . . Neither the recitation in the disclosure statement, nor the parties' execution of the written memorandum, constituted an acceptance of the plan as such." In re Heritage Org., L.L.C., 376 B.R. 783, 793 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2007).

Debtors' "Notice to Holders of Uninsured Bonds" dated July 27, 2021

142. On or about July 27, 2021, the Debtors published a Notice to Holders of Uninsured Bonds²⁹ that provided an exchange opportunity to all beneficial owners of Uninsured Bonds to become party to the amended plan support agreement. Acceptance of the opportunity would render the bondholder a party to the GO/PBA PSA, entitle the bondholder to a Restriction Fee pursuant to the PSA, and constitute consent to the change of the CUSIP number assigned to the existing bondholding. (See Docket Entry No. 18761-8) (the "Exchange Offer") (Hein Ex. FFF at 2.)³⁰ The Exchange Offer was open to "all beneficial owners of Uninsured Bonds, including retail beneficial holders." (Id. at 4.) Importantly, the bondholders' right to the PSA Restriction Fee Claim "travels" with the Uninsured Bond. (Id.) Thus, "in order to separately identify the Uninsured Bonds that fall into this category, the PSA provides for the assignment of alternative

²⁹ The term "Uninsured Bonds" is designated the meaning provided in the Exchange Offer.

³⁰ An "Amended Notice to Holders of Uninsured Bonds" was published on or about July 30, 2021 (Docket Entry No. 18761-9) (the "Amended Exchange Offer"). (Hein Ex. GGG.)

identifying CUSIPs to track beneficial interests in Uninsured Bonds that become subject to the PSA [. . .].” (Id.; see also GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement § 2.2.) (Debtors Ex. 16.)

143. Mr. Hein and Mr. Samodovitz argue that the Exchange Offer was an improper solicitation designed to procure votes in favor of the Plan. (Hein Obj. at 23). In response, the Debtors explain that the Exchange Offer provided a procedural mechanism for all uninsured bondholders to “deal with the tender and exchange [of bonds]” through the creation of alternative CUSIPS. (Nov. 15, 2021, Hr’g. Tr. 140:1-2.) Mr. Hein further argues that the August 13, 2021 participation deadline (the “Participation Deadline”) for retail bondholders to join to the PSA was unreasonable because the participation deadline only permitted 17 days to consider the offer (and review the accompanying material) before electing to participate. (Hein Obj. at 23.) However, the Exchange Offer did not require retail bondholders to take immediate action before the Participation Deadline to become entitled to a support fee. All beneficial owners who tendered their Uninsured Bonds by the Participation Deadline were entitled to receive a PSA Restriction Fee. (Hein Ex. FFF at 3.) The Exchange Offer also disclosed that, after August 13, 2021, retail bondholders who did not tender their bonds by the Participation Deadline remain entitled to a Retail Support Fee (in the same amount as the PSA Restriction Fee), so long as their Class of retail bondholders approves the Plan and the retail bondholder certifies their retail investor status. (Id. at 5.) The ballots were not distributed by the Solicitation Agent until August 30, 2021, after the Participation Deadline had passed. (Debtors Ex. 138.) The Court finds that the Exchange Offer was not a solicitation of votes and that the Participation Deadline was reasonable. The Debtors have proffered a good faith basis for the development of a procedural mechanism to track all retail bondholders' entitlement to the PSA Restriction Fee and Retail Support Fee. Thus, the objections are overruled.

Entitlement to the Retail Support Fee

144. The Plan provides “in the event that a Class of Retail Investors [. . .] votes to accept the Plan, the members of such Class shall be entitled to receive their Pro Rata Share of such Class’s allocable share of the aggregate Retail Support Fee [. . .].” (Plan § 3.6.) The Retail Support Fee will thus be available to each member of a class of Retail Investors that votes, as a class, to accept the Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 128.) Additionally, the Debtors represent that a retail bondholder who voted and certified his status as a retail investor would be entitled to receive the Retail Support Fee, so long as the class voted to accept the Plan, whether or not the bondholder voted in favor of the Plan. (Nov. 15, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 139:9-15, 166:16-20.)

145. The Retail Support Fee was designed to deliver the same amount of fee consideration, as a percentage of claim amount held, to Retail Investors as to recipients of the GO/PBA Restriction Fee. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 81.) Thus, the Retail Support Fee was designed to achieve economic parity for Retail Investors vis-à-vis the recipients of the GO/PBA Restriction Fee without requiring Retail Investors to sign the GO/PBA PSA and agree to its terms and conditions, including the obligation to support the Plan and the “lock up” provisions. (Id.)

146. Retail bondholders were provided the option to either (i) participate in the Exchange Offer with all other bondholders, thereby receiving the same PSA fee as other Restriction Fee parties, or (ii) as originally contemplated, receive the Retail Support Fee if the creditor identifies as a retail investor and the retail class votes to accept the Plan. (Id. ¶ 82.)

147. The Debtors have represented that “all retail investor classes voted to accept the Plan [. . .], and all members of the retail classes shall receive the restriction fee.” (Nov. 15, 2021, Hr’g. Tr. 142: 20-21; 23-24.) The tabulation summary shows that the retail classes voted to accept the Plan. (See Pullo Decl. Ex. A; see also Pullo Sup. Decl. Ex. A.)

Voting on the Plan of Adjustment

148. Pursuant to the Disclosure Statement Order, the Debtors, or their Solicitation Agent, distributed materials needed for voting on the Plan or making elections on distributions thereunder (the “Solicitation Package”) to bondholders in various voting classes. (See Disclosure Statement Ord. ¶¶ 9, 14, 32.) The Court approved the procedures for voting to accept or reject the Plan, including the use of DTC’s ATOP process for bondholder votes, in the Disclosure Statement Order. (See id. at ¶¶ 9, 14, 32.) The Solicitation Agent distributed the Solicitation Package to appropriate parties, including brokers and nominees. (See Mailing Affidavits.) (See also Debtors Ex. 138.)

149. Mr. Hein and Mr. Samodovitz argue that the complexity of the voting process may have impaired retail bondholders' ability to cast timely ballots and/or certify themselves as retail investors for purposes of establishing entitlement to a Retail Support Fee if a class voted to accept the Plan. (Nov. 15, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 149:1-14; id. at 159: 19-25.) To vote to accept or reject the Plan, GO/PBA PSA Creditors were required to instruct their nominee or broker to tender their bonds utilizing ATOP before the voting deadline under the Disclosure Statement Order. (Disclosure Statement Ord. ¶ 32, Sched. 2.) Mr. Hein and Mr. Samodovitz have not proffered credible evidence that retail bondholders, as a whole, were unable to vote on the Plan. Rather, the voting summary includes a tabulation of all votes cast in support of and opposition to the Plan and indicates that retail bondholders from each retail class successfully voted. (See Pullo Decl. Ex. A; see also Pullo Sup. Decl. Ex. A.) To the extent the objections are challenges to the Disclosure Statement Order and the voting process outlined therein, the objections are overruled.

150. The Plan complies with PROMESA Section 314(b)(2).

C. PROMESA § 314(b)(3): The Debtors Are Not Prohibited by Law from Taking any Action Necessary to Carry Out the Plan.

151. The Plan contains no provisions which would require the Debtors to violate the law, including Commonwealth law that is not preempted.

152. Act 53, enacted on October 26, 2021, authorizes the issuance of CVIs and New GO Bonds, consistent with the terms set forth in the Plan and the plan support agreements. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 92; Debtors Ex. 134.) Act 53's effectiveness is conditioned only on the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification (as defined in the Seventh Amended Plan) from the Plan. The Monthly Benefit Modification is not included in the Plan, and accordingly Act 53 is effective and the Commonwealth's issuance of the CVIs and New GO Bonds is consistent with applicable Commonwealth law. Furthermore, by reason of the Plan's provisions freezing defined benefit accruals and future costs of living adjustments, upon the Plan's Effective Date, PROMESA preempts Acts 91-2004 (establishing TRS) and 12-1954 (establishing JRS), each as amended, providing for the future accrual of defined benefits and future cost of living adjustments, to the extent set forth in Exhibit A hereto. Absent preemption, the amount of Commonwealth revenues that would need to be spent on TRS and JRS pension benefits in fiscal year 2022 is $984 million. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 65.) Absent preemption, these inconsistent statutes would undermine the restructuring contemplated by the Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 235.)

153. Enabling legislation is not required to establish the freeze of defined benefits or the elimination of COLAs. Obligations arising from Commonwealth statutes, including statutes providing employees the right to accrue pension or other retirement benefits, give rise to claims which can be impaired and discharged pursuant to the Plan. See 11 U.S.C. § 101(5)(A) (defining claim as “right to payment, whether or not such right is . . . contingent, matured, [or] unmatured”); Rederford v. U.S. Airways, Inc., 589 F.3d 30, 35-36 (1st Cir. 2009) (“The definition of claim . . . defines what is discharged by the proceeding. In enacting this language, Congress gave the term ‘claim’ the ‘broadest available definition.’”) (quoting Johnson v. Home State Bank, 501 U.S. 78, 83 (1991)); In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., Case No. 17 BK-3283-LTS, 2021 WL 5024287, at *8-9 (D.P.R. Oct. 29, 2021). The discharge of prepetition obligations does not need to be approved pursuant to, or consistent with, Commonwealth law. See, e.g., Order Confirming Debtor’s Sixth Amended Plan of Adjustment of Debts Pursuant to Chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code, In re City of Prichard, No. 09-15000, at 7 (Bankr. S.D. Ala. July 8, 2014) (“The Court . . . finds and concludes that the City’s actions under the Plan are not prohibited by law, and the treatment of the Classes who formerly had an interest in the City’s pension plan is lawful under the Bankruptcy Code.”); In re Sanitary & Improvement Dist. No. 7, 98 B.R. 970, 974 (Bankr. D. Neb. 1989) (“If a municipality were required to pay prepetition bondholders the full amount of their claim with interest as contained on the face of the bonds and the [municipality] had no ability to impair the bondholder claims over objection, the whole purpose and structure of chapter 9 would be of little value. . . . To create a federal statute [chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code] based upon the theory that federal intervention was necessary to permit adjustment of a municipality's debts and then to prohibit the municipality from adjusting such debts is not, in the point of view of this Court, a logical or necessary result.”).

154. The Debtors have sufficiently demonstrated that express recognition of the preemptive effect of section 4 of PROMESA is crucial to accomplishing the Plan's goals and ensuring its feasibility. However, as set forth in the Court's Order Regarding Certain Aspects of Motion for Confirmation of Modified Eighth Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al. (Docket Entry No. 19517) (the “Clarification Order”), the broad language of the preemption provisions of the Plan as previously proposed by the Debtors were overly broad and vague. Accordingly, the Court memorializes its conclusions concerning preemption here and, in light of the Debtors' modification of the preemption provisions, will enter an order confirming the Plan.

155. Provisions of Commonwealth laws that are inconsistent with PROMESA are preempted for the reasons, and to the extent, set forth in Exhibit A hereto.³¹ Such preempted provisions include, without limitation: (i) pursuant to section 4 of PROMESA, all laws, rules, and regulations, to the extent they give rise to obligations of the Debtors discharged by the Plan and the Confirmation Order pursuant to PROMESA, and such discharge shall prevail over any general or specific provisions of territory laws, rules, and regulations and (ii) laws enacted prior to June 30, 2016, to the extent they provide for transfers or other appropriations after the enactment of PROMESA, including transfers from the Commonwealth or one of its instrumentalities to any agency or instrumentality, whether to enable such agency or instrumentality to pay or satisfy indebtedness or for any other purpose, are preempted to the extent inconsistent with the Plan's discharge of the Debtors' obligations. Through modifications to the proposed Plan and related documents, the Oversight Board previously requested judicial acknowledgement that Act 80-2020, Act 81-2020, and Act 82-2020 are preempted by PROMESA. That request has been mooted by the Court's approval of the Stipulation and Order Resolving Oversight Board

"Teachers' Associations") contend that the scope of preemption set forth in the Plan is overly broad because certain sections and subsections of Act 106-2017 and Act 160-2013 govern all Commonwealth public retirement systems, not just TRS and JRS, and include provisions essential to the functioning of the government's retirement systems. (See Teachers' Associations Sup. Obj. ¶¶ 5-72.) Exhibit A, however, does not contemplate the preemption of the entirety of every statutory section or subsection set forth in the "Specific Provisions Preempted" column; rather, any such section or subsection is preempted only to the extent its operative provisions are both described in the "Specific Provisions Preempted" column and a basis for the preemption thereof is listed in the "Basis for Preemption" column.

Complaint Dated December 20, 2021 Concerning Acts 80-2020, 81-2020, and 82-2020 and Joint Resolution 33-2021 (Docket Entry No. 6 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00119), pursuant to which the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Honorable Pedro Pierluisi Urrutia, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, resolved litigation concerning the validity of Acts 80-2020, 81-2020, and 82-2020 and Joint Resolution 33-2021 and agreed that they are significantly inconsistent with the relevant certified fiscal plan.³²

³² Asociación Puertorriqueña de la Judicatura, Inc. and Asociación de Jubilados de la Judicatura de Puerto Rico object to the impairment of any obligations to the Judicial Retirement System and contend that any such impairment would be inconsistent with rights under the Puerto Rico Constitution and principles of separation of powers and judicial independence that are embedded in that document. However, PROMESA permits the impairment and discharge of prepetition debts where, as here, the requirements for confirmation of a plan of adjustment are satisfied. See 11 U.S.C. § 944(b). To the extent that Commonwealth law is inconsistent with such impairment and discharge, it is preempted by PROMESA. See Commonwealth of Mass. Div. of Employment and Training v. Bos. Reg'l Med. Ctr., Inc. (In re Bos. Reg'l Med. Ctr., Inc.), 291 F.3d 111, 126 (1st Cir. 2002) (“[T]o the extent that we were to read the Employment and Training Law to require that the Division receive administrative expense priority for a claim that the Bankruptcy Code would assign general unsecured status, the state law would then be inconsistent with federal law and so preempted. The application of the doctrine of preemption is often complex, but in such a case would be clear-cut.” (citations omitted)); In re Sanitary & Imp. Dist., No. 7, 98 B.R. at 974.

156. Many of the preempted statutes would require the Commonwealth to use its revenues to repay its general obligation and guaranteed debt in full. The amount of debt service necessary for fiscal year 2022 would be $1.7 billion. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 63.) These statutes are inconsistent with PROMESA to the extent they are inconsistent with the discharge of outstanding claims and the treatment provided for such claims by the Plan under Title III of PROMESA and would undermine the restructuring contemplated by the Plan and Puerto Rico's return to fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets. (Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 230-33.) Further, certain preempted statutes require the appropriation of Commonwealth revenues and would require more than $3 billion in Commonwealth revenues to be transferred in fiscal year 2022. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 64.) In addition, certain preempted statutes require the Commonwealth to provide pension and other benefits or payments to retirees who participated in the ERS, TRS, or JRS retirement systems at statutorily specified rates; the amount of Commonwealth revenues that would need to be spent on TRS and JRS benefits or payments in fiscal year 2022 pursuant to these statutes would be $984 million. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 65.) Such statutes are inconsistent with PROMESA to the extent they are inconsistent with the discharge of claims and treatment provided for pension benefits and payments by the Plan under Title III of PROMESA and would undermine the restructuring contemplated by the Plan and the Plan's contemplated repayment of claims from such revenues. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 234.) For the avoidance of doubt, the non-inclusion of a payment obligation arising from a valid law in a certified fiscal plan or budget is not a basis for disallowance and discharge of such obligation to the extent the claim arising therefrom otherwise satisfies the requirements for allowance of a claim under the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.³³

³³ Mr. Hein objects to the scope of the preemption provisions of the Plan and this analysis and contends that the statutes authorizing the bonds that he holds, which commit the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth to repayment of the bonds, cannot be preempted. His argument is contrary to the provisions of PROMESA, which permit the impairment and discharge of prepetition debts such as Mr. Hein's. To the extent that Commonwealth law requires the payment of such debts in full, it is inconsistent with the discharge of such debts and therefore subject to preemption. To the extent that Mr. Hein's objection is that other creditors are being treated favorably notwithstanding Commonwealth law that provides his claims with an entitlement to certain streams of revenues or priority treatment over other debts, such arguments are precluded by the acceptance of the Plan by each class of bonds, including the bondholder classes of which Mr. Hein is a member. The Bankruptcy Code's requirements that a plan "not discriminate unfairly, and [be] fair and equitable" are applicable only as "to each class of claims or interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the plan." 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(1); see 7 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 1129.03 (16th 2021) ("[S]ection 1129(b)(1) requires that the plan proponent prove, as to the dissenting class, that the plan is both fair and equitable and not unfairly discriminatory.") (emphasis added). Those requirements of section 1129(b) are applied on a class-wide basis, not on a creditor-by-creditor basis, and "a disapproving creditor within a class that approves a plan [therefore] cannot claim unfair discrimination" or a lack of fair and equitable treatment. In re Nuverra Env'tl. Sols., Inc., 834 F. App'x 729, 735 (3d Cir. 2021), as amended (Feb. 2, 2021), cert. denied, No. 21-17, 2021 WL 4733333 (U.S. Oct. 12, 2021); In re W.R. Grace & Co., 475 B.R. 34, 175 (D. Del. 2012) ("It is a well-known legal rule in Chapter 11 reorganization litigation that '[u]nder § 1129(b), a

Constitutional Challenges to the Plan

157. Several creditors, including Mr. Hein, object to the Plan on the grounds that it allegedly violates the Contracts Clause or the Takings Clause of the Constitution of the United States. Having considered carefully the parties' submissions and arguments on these issues, the objections are overruled, with the exception of the objections concerning Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims. The objections concerning Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims are sustained, and such Allowed Claims must be paid in accordance with Debtors' Full-Payment Proposal (as set forth in Plan §§ 58.1, 77.1(e)).

Contracts Clause

158. The Plan contains no provision that would constitute or create a violation of the Contracts Clause of the Constitution of the United States. The Contracts Clause provides that no state shall pass any law impairing the obligation of contracts. U.S. Const. art. I, § 10, cl. 1. Although the Constitution prohibits a state or territory from impairing contractual obligations through legislative action, it imposes no such prohibition on Congress and, indeed, empowers Congress to finding that a plan is 'fair and equitable' is required only in the context of a cramdown.'") (quoting In re Dow Corning Corp., 244 B.R. 678, 693 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1999)), aff'd, 729 F.3d 332 (3d Cir. 2013). Finally, to the extent that Mr. Hein contends that the Plan fails to meet the "best interests" test due to such treatment, the Court will address his argument in connection with its discussion below of section 314(b)(6) of PROMESA.

impair contractual obligations through article I, section 8 of the Constitution, which provides that Congress shall have the power to establish uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States. U.S. Const. art. I, § 8, cl. 4. It has long been recognized that one of the fundamental goals of bankruptcy law is to adjust the debtor-creditor relationship, that is, to alter contract rights. See Ass’n of Retired Emps. of Stockton v. City of Stockton (In re City of Stockton), 478 B.R. 8, 14-15 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2012). “While bankruptcy law endeavors to provide a system of orderly, predictable rules for treatment of parties whose contracts are impaired, that does not change the starring role of contract impairment in bankruptcy.” Id. at 16. Congress is, therefore, “expressly vested with the power of passing [bankruptcy] laws, and is not prohibited from passing laws impairing the obligation of contracts. . . .” Id. at 15 (citing Sturges v. Crowninshield, 17 U.S. 122, 191 (1819)). Further, the Plan does not implicate the Contracts Clause because it is not a legislative action. A federal court’s confirmation of a reorganization plan under federal law cannot violate the Contracts Clause. See Pension Benefit Guar. Corp. v. R.A. Gray & Co., 467 U.S. 717, 732 n.9 (1984) (holding that the Contracts Clause does not apply to federal government actions). It follows that this Court may approve the Plan under PROMESA, a federal law enacted by Congress pursuant to the Territories Clause of the Constitution that incorporates key bankruptcy concepts and provisions,³⁴ with the express purpose of allowing Puerto Rico to achieve fiscal responsibility and access to the capital markets through, inter alia, adjustment of its debts and those of its instrumentalities, without violating the Contracts Clause.³⁵

159. Mr. Hein has also failed to demonstrate that the fiscal plans constitute territorial laws subject to the restrictions of the Contracts Clause, and his Contracts Clause objection with respect to the fiscal plans is therefore overruled. To the extent that Mr. Hein argues that the Commonwealth’s Act 53 (the “New Bond Legislation”) authorizing the issuance of new bonds and contemplating the cancellation of currently outstanding bonds is within the scope of the Contracts Clause, the Court concludes, as explained below, that such legislation does not violate the Contracts Clause because the record establishes that it is reasonable and necessary in light of the surrounding circumstances. Although the language of the Contracts Clause is “unequivocal,” it “‘does not make unlawful every state law that conflicts with any contract.’” United Auto., Aero., Agric. Impl. Workers of Am. Int’l Union v. Fortuño, 633 F.3d 37, 41 (1st Cir. 2011) (quoting Loc. Div. 589, Amalgamated Transit Union v. Massachusetts, 666 F.2d 618, 638 (1st Cir. 1981)). In considering claims brought under the Contracts

Clause, courts must “reconcile the strictures of the Contract[s] Clause with the essential attributes of sovereign power necessarily reserved by the States to safeguard the welfare of their citizens.” Id. (quoting Mercado-Boneta v. Administracion del Fondo de Compensacion al Paciente, 125 F.3d 9, 14 (1st Cir. 1997)). In doing so, courts apply a two-pronged test: they examine first “whether the state law has . . . operated as a substantial impairment of a contractual relationship,” id. (quoting Energy Rsrv. Grp., Inc. v. Kan, Power & Light Co., 459 U.S. 400, 411 (1983)), and then, if the law has, “whether the impairment was ‘reasonable and necessary’ to serve an important government purpose.” Id. (quoting U.S. Tr. Co. of N.Y. v. New Jersey, 431 U.S. 1, 20 (1977).) Assuming arguendo that New Bond Legislation will substantially impair contractual obligations, the Court examines its reasonableness and necessity. The First Circuit considers “the reasonableness inquiry” to “ask[] whether the law is ‘reasonable in light of the surrounding circumstances,’” while “the necessity inquiry focuses on ‘whether [Puerto Rico] ‘imposed a drastic impairment when an evident and more moderate course would serve its purposes equally well.’”” Id. at 45-46 (quoting Mercado-Boneta, 125 F. 3d at 15.) In analyzing these questions, courts may consider “whether the act (1) was an emergency measure; (2) was one to protect a basic societal interest, rather than particular individuals; (3) was tailored appropriately to its purpose; (4) imposed reasonable conditions; and (5) was limited to the duration of the emergency.” Id. at 46 (quoting Energy Rsrv. Grp., 459 U.S. at 410 n.11.)

160. The circumstances surrounding the enactment of the New Bond Legislation are clear: the Commonwealth Legislature enacted the New Bond Legislation in response to the Commonwealth's unprecedented fiscal and economic crisis, the need to resolve litigation concerning the Commonwealth's bond obligations, and the need to enable the Commonwealth to effectuate the Plan so that it can regain access to capital markets. The Legislature's decision is a reasonable one under the surrounding circumstances. The legislation, which provides for the cancellation of instruments representing restructured debts and eliminates potential disputes regarding the validity of the issuance of new bonds that could affect the marketability of those bonds, is also necessary in light of the ongoing fiscal emergency in Puerto Rico. The Court concludes that the Contracts Clause does not prohibit confirmation of the Plan, and Mr. Hein's objections invoking the Contracts Clause are therefore overruled.

Takings Clause

161. For the reasons that follow, confirmation objections invoking the Takings Clause of the Constitution of the United States are overruled, with the exception of certain objections to the Debtors' proposed treatment of Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims. With respect to those Claims, the Debtors' Full-Payment Proposal would provide sufficient treatment and payment in the event the Court finds their original proposal to pay only a portion of Allowed Eminent Domain Claims violative of the Takings Clause.

As explained below, the Court finds that the original proposal for such Claims does not comport with the requirements of the Takings Clause and the Court has directed the Debtors to revise the Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan, to ensure consistency and compliance with the treatment contemplated by the Debtors' Full-Payment Proposal. The Debtors have done so, and the Court finds that the further revised Plan (Docket Entry No. 19784) meets the requirements of section 314(b)(3) of PROMESA. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this FFCL are incorporated by reference in the Confirmation Order, and so the Debtors' position that their original proposal does not violate the Takings Clause is preserved for purposes of appeal.

162. Various claimants have objected to the Plan, arguing that the treatment of their claims violates the Fifth Amendment's Takings Clause. Generally, these objectors fall into three categories: (1) those asserting that they hold Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims that may not be impaired by the Plan; (2) bondholders who argue that the Plan takes their property interest in bonds—specifically, the alleged lien on revenues that they claim secures repayment of the bonds issued by the Commonwealth—without just compensation; and (3) Suiza Dairy, which argues that the Plan authorizes a regulatory taking without just compensation.³⁶

³⁶ The Court here does not address the objection filed by Ismael L. Purcell Soler and Alys Collazo Bougeois concerning

163. Federal statutes, such as the Bankruptcy Code and PROMESA, are subject to the strictures of the Constitution, including the Fifth Amendment’s their inverse condemnation claim. (See Docket Entry No. 18504.) The substance of the objection makes clear that Mr. Purcell Soler’s and Ms. Collazo Bougeois’ inverse condemnation claim concerns actions by PREPA. (See, e.g., id. at 4.) Mr. Purcell Soler and Ms. Collazo Bougeois are therefore creditors of PREPA, not of the Title III debtors currently before this Court. The Plan does not adjust PREPA’s debts or provide for any releases or exculpations of PREPA. Accordingly, Mr. Purcell Soler and Ms. Collazo Bougeois have no standing to challenge the Plan and their objection is overruled. See Bank of N.Y. Mellon v. P.R. Sales Tax Fin. Corp. (In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R.), 301 F. Supp. 3d 306, 312 (D.P.R. 2017) (finding that creditors of Commonwealth lacked standing in adversary proceeding concerning COFINA bonds).

Additionally, for the reasons set forth in this Court’s Memorandum Opinion Granting Defendants’ Motions to Dismiss Second Amended Complaint (Docket Entry No. 192 in Adv. Proc. No. 18-00028), the Court overrules the objection of Cooperativa de Ahorro y Crédito Abraham Rosa, Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito de Ciales, Cooperative de Ahorro y Credito de Rincon, Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito Vega Alta, Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito Dr. Manuel Zeno Gandia, and Cooperativa de Ahorro y Credito de Juana Diaz (the “Credit Unions”) to the extent it incorporates the allegations set forth in their adversary complaint, which has now been dismissed without leave to amend, alleging that their claims are protected by the Takings Clause. Because the Court has concluded that the Credit Unions have not stated a claim upon which relief could be granted under the Takings Clause, the Court finds that their claims for payment concerning that alleged taking are not protected by the Fifth Amendment and may be impaired and discharged by the Plan. Moreover, to the extent the Credit Unions have asserted a claim that approval of the Plan itself would constitute a taking, the Credit Unions’ objection is also overruled for the reasons discussed in connection with the objections of other bondholders (see infra ¶¶ 170-73).

requirement that government takings of property for public use be justly compensated. Indeed, the bankruptcy power conferred by article I, section 8 of the Constitution of the United States is itself subject to the Fifth Amendment. See Louisville Joint Stock Land Bank v. Radford, 295 U.S. 555, 589 (1935) (“The bankruptcy power, like the other great substantive powers of Congress, is subject to the Fifth Amendment.”). This principle was reaffirmed and extended by the Supreme Court in Security Industrial Bank, where the Court cautioned that, “however ‘rational’ the exercise of the bankruptcy power may be, that inquiry is quite separate from the question whether the enactment takes property within the prohibition of the Fifth Amendment.” United States v. Sec. Indus. Bank, 459 U.S. 70, 75 (1982). In keeping with traditional takings jurisprudence, the predicate inquiry must concern the nature of the property at issue and whether a taking occurred. See also id. at 76-77 (classifying secured interests in contract rights as properly analyzed under the factors set forth in Penn Cent. Transp. Co. v. City of New York, 438 U.S. 104, 124 (1978), as distinguished from jurisprudence governing fee simple interests in real property).

164. Throughout the confirmation process, the Debtors have argued that, while Supreme Court decisions have recognized that the Fifth Amendment restricts the Bankruptcy Code, it does so only to the extent that property interests are secured. See Sec. Indus. Bank, 459 U.S. at 75-76, 78; Wright v. Union Cent. Life Ins. Co., 311 U.S. 273, 278 (1940) (the constitution protects “the rights of secured creditors, throughout the proceedings, to the extent of the value” of the creditors’ collateral). See also Cobb v. City of Stockton (In re City of Stockton), 909 F.3d 1256 (2018); Poinsett Lumber Mfg. v. Drainage Dist. No. 7, 119 F.2d 270 (8th Cir. 1941). This conclusion is inconsistent with the Fifth Amendment, which is implicated by a governmental act—the taking of private property for public use—and whose just compensation requirement is not conditioned on whether the government gives security for a compensation obligation that is not satisfied immediately. While a security interest is a type of property that can be protected by both the Fifth Amendment and the Bankruptcy Code, its absence is not determinative of Fifth Amendment protection.

165. The Supreme Court’s takings jurisprudence requires evaluation of whether the real property was subject to a physical invasion (implicating per se takings analysis) or whether, for example, it was subjected to a use restriction (in which case the Penn Central factors are applied to determine whether a regulatory taking occurred). Cedar Point Nursery v. Hassid, 141 S. Ct. 2063, 2071-72 (2021).

166. Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Objections: With respect to the objections raised by holders of alleged Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims, the creditors assert, and the Debtors do not dispute, that their Claims arise from the physical invasion by the Commonwealth of privately owned real property. The objectors aptly rely on Supreme Court decisions for the propositions that a physical invasion of property constitutes a per se taking (Cedar Point Nursery, 141 S. Ct. at 2071), for which an irreducible entitlement to just compensation immediately ripens under the Takings Clause (Knick v. Twp. of Scott, 139 S. Ct. 2162, 2171 (2019); Blanchette v. Conn. Gen. Ins. Corp., 419 U.S. 102, 155 (1974) (“[A]ny deficiency of constitutional magnitude in the compensation [of seized property] . . . will indeed be a taking of private property for public use.”)), and that the Bankruptcy Code is subject to the Takings Clause (see Radford, 295 U.S. at 589, 601-02; Sec. Indus. Bank, 459 U.S. at 75, 78, 80, 82). See also In re City of Detroit, 524 B.R. 147, 204-07 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2014).³⁷ The Court

³⁷ The Debtors respond that, to the extent portions of these Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims are not “secured” by deposits of funds with a Clerk of Court, they are simply unsecured claims that are subject to impairment and discharge under the Bankruptcy Code and that, while Supreme Court decisions have recognized that the Fifth Amendment restricts the Bankruptcy Code, it does so only to the extent that property interests are secured. See Sec. Indus. Bank, 459 U.S. at 75-76, 78; Wright v. Union Cent. Life Ins. Co., 311 U.S. 273, 278 (1940) (the constitution protects “the rights of secured creditors, throughout the proceedings, to the extent of the value” of the creditors’ collateral). See also Cobb v. City of Stockton (In re City of Stockton), 909 F.3d 1256 (9th Cir. 2018); Poinsett Lumber Mfg. v. Drainage Dist. No. 7, 119 F.2d 270 (8th Cir. 1941). The Debtors’ application of the distinction, however, between secured and unsecured interests under the Bankruptcy Code to determine whether a Takings Clause-related obligation can be impaired is inconsistent with the Fifth Amendment, which requires first assessing the origin of the payment obligation: whether it arises from a government taking of private property for public use. As explained further below, while a security interest is a type of property that can be protected by both the Fifth Amendment and the Bankruptcy Code, a physical invasion (in this case, of real property) falls squarely within therefore confines its examination of these Claims to a per se takings analysis. “These sorts of physical appropriations constitute the ‘clearest sort of taking,’ and we assess them using a simple, per se rule: The government must pay for what it takes.” Cedar Point Nursery, at 2071 (emphasis in original) (internal citation omitted). The Court now turns to the question of just compensation and whether valid claims for just compensation can be impaired in bankruptcy. For the reasons set forth below, and for materially the same reasons set forth in this Court’s order of December 14, 2021 (Docket Entry No. 19517 at 6-15), the Court finds that such claims may not be impaired.

167. Unlike other constitutional prohibitions of government conduct, in connection with which the Framers did not specify remedies, the Takings Clause of the Constitution of the United States itself mandates the provision of “just compensation” in the event that “private property [is] taken for public use.” U.S. Const. am. V. The Supreme Court has recently and expressly recognized the unique status of cases involving the governmental takings of real property. In Knick, the Supreme Court stated that “[t]he Fifth Amendment right to full compensation arises at the time of the taking, regardless of post-taking remedies that may be available to the property owner,” a principle derived from Jacobs v. United States, 290 U.S. 13, 17 (1933), in which the Court stressed that the owner of a “valid takings claim is entitled to compensation as if it had been ‘paid contemporaneously with the taking’—that is, the compensation must generally consist of the total value of the property when taken, plus interest from that time.” Knick, 139 S. Ct. at 2170. See also Cedar Point Nursery, 141 S. Ct. at 2071-72 (“When the government physically acquires private property for a public use, the Takings Clause imposes a clear and categorical obligation to provide the owner with just compensation.”). Thus, unlike judgment creditors whose statutory remedies for violations of other constitutional provisions are dischargeable, holders of takings claims have a constitutional right to just compensation that is not subject to impairment or discharge under a plan of adjustment. See Blanchette, 419 U.S. at 155, 95 S.Ct. 335 (“[A]ny deficiency of constitutional magnitude in the compensation [of seized property] . . . will indeed be a taking of private property for public use.”); see also In re City of Detroit, 524 B.R. at 268-70. Put differently, “just compensation” is not a statutory damages remedy for a constitutional violation but is instead a necessary condition to the exercise of government power to take private property for public use.³⁸

the ambit of Fifth Amendment protection, whether or not the government entity has provided any security for its obligation to pay just compensation.

³⁸ The Oversight Board argues, without citation, that the only reason the Takings Clause specifies the need for “just compensation” is that, unlike in other constitutional provisions, the government action is permitted rather than prohibited, and that Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims are therefore not otherwise entitled to preferential treatment when damages for other constitutional violations are subject to impairment and discharge. (See Docket Entry No. 19574 ¶ 22.) Such an argument

168. The federal appellate cases cited by the Debtors are inapposite, both because they are materially distinguishable and because they do not support an alternative interpretation of the Supreme Court's clear jurisprudence distinguishing the Takings Clause from other constitutional provisions. First, the case of Poinsett Lumber does not purport to directly address the issue before this Court, and the Oversight Board places more weight on it than it will support. Unlike the instant matter, in which claimants have timely filed proofs of Claim and objected to the treatment of their Claims under the Plan, the claimant in Poinsett Lumber had failed to timely preserve its right to object to the readjustment until after the plan had been confirmed. Poinsett Lumber Mfg., 119 F.2d at 274 ("Appellant could not remain silent until the proceedings had advanced to the stage of a final decree and then, in a collateral attack, make the claim successfully that its cause of action is not included in the plan of composition, nor affected by it, nor dealt with therein."). Moreover, although the Eighth Circuit did reject the creditor's argument that the Takings Clause protected its claim from discharge, Poinsett Lumber concerned a challenge to the constitutionality of a federal bankruptcy statute, the validity of which apparently hinged on the determination that the drainage district was "not a governmental agency," making that case dissimilar from the instant dispute, which concerns whether itself acknowledges, however, that the Takings Clause is, in fact, unique in requiring just compensation as the condition for taking private property for public use. The conclusion is textually incapable, and accordingly inflexible.

a plan of adjustment is unconstitutional because it authorizes a government actor to withhold just compensation owed for the taking of private property for public use. 119 F.2d at 272 (citing Luehrmann v. Drainage Dist. No. 7 of Poinsett Cnty., 104 F.2d 696, 703 (8th Cir. 1939) (“the Act of August 16, 1937, is valid as applied to this drainage district, which is not a governmental agency.”)). Indeed, Poinsett Lumber’s narrow reliance on Luehrmann appears to be for the limited purpose of determining that the federal bankruptcy statute was valid. Poinsett Lumber, 119 F.2d at 272-73.³⁹ Here, by contrast, the question is whether government action under the Plan (rather than the proper interpretation of a federal statute) permits a taking in violation of the Fifth Amendment by impairing the constitutional right of just compensation. Id. at 272-73. Poinsett Lumber does not clearly support the Debtors' theory that a government debtor may impair and discharge a valid Takings Clause Claim for just compensation, let alone for the reason that the claim for just compensation is unsecured rather than secured.

169. The Debtors' reliance on In re City of Stockton is likewise unavailing. First, the creditor in that Ninth Circuit case had slept on his rights to oppose the discharge of his claim under the plan of adjustment. The majority determined that the creditor, a Mr. Cobb, had not sought any stay relief, that the plan had already been substantially consummated, that reversal of the confirmation order would have threatened the settlements underlying the plan to the prejudice of settlement participants, and that the relief sought required dismantling the plan, and so his claim was deemed equitably moot. In re City of Stockton, 909 F.3d at 1263-65. Such questions of equitable mootness are simply not present at this pre-confirmation stage in the instant proceeding. Second, and more importantly, the Debtors' reliance on the Ninth Circuit's alternate finding that Mr. Cobb's claim was dischargeable because his interest was unsecured rather than secured, not only lacks any clear basis in Supreme Court jurisprudence, but it appears to derive from a conflation of the constitutional guarantee of just compensation under the Takings Clause with statutory remedies for other constitutional violations. See id. at 1268 (“[O]ther constitutionally based lawsuits seeking money damages, such as § 1983 claims, are routinely adjusted in bankruptcy[.]”). See also id. at 1278 (Friedland, J. dissenting) (“[T]he Constitution’s mandate that ‘takings claims be excepted from discharge does not depend on whether those claims were initially classified in any bankruptcy proceeding as secured or unsecured; the whole point of nondischargeability is that nondischargeable claims pass through bankruptcy unaffected[.]”).⁴⁰ The Court declines any invitation to overlook the unique nature of the Takings Clause here by conditioning the Fifth Amendment requirement of just compensation on the existence of security for the obligation. To hold otherwise would be to make the Takings Clause subject to federal bankruptcy law, which is precisely the opposite of what the Supreme Court has done.⁴¹

⁴¹ The Oversight Board also contended, for the first time, at oral argument that the Court should allow the impairment and discharge of per se takings Claims because (i) Congress can otherwise bar Takings Clause claims through the operation of statutes of limitations, just like any other claim (see, e.g., Nov. 22, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 60:10-25 (discussing Block v. North Dakota, 461 U.S. 273, 292 (1983))), and (ii) “the bankruptcy power is not always subject to the Fifth Amendment when it comes to discharge and avoidance of property interests,” such that “if you can avoid a property interest under Bankruptcy Code section 544, surely you can discharge an unsecured claim to just compensation under section 944.” (Nov. 23, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 26:20-27:5. See also Docket Entry No. 19574 ¶¶ 35-36.) The first argument fails because (a) the cases cited by the Oversight Board (including Block) are distinguishable, because none of them directly involved any limitation periods for raising Takings Clause claims in federal district courts, nor does any of them provide an analytical basis for determining that Congress can statutorily limit a constitutional claim to which sovereign immunity is not a barrier (cf. Soriano v. United States, 352 U.S. 270, 273-77 (1957) (statute of limitations pertaining to claim for just compensation before Court of Federal Claims)); (b) statutes of limitations concern the procedural bounds of litigation decisions over which claimants have control, such as the timing of filing a claim, and therefore they do not support by analogy the Oversight Board’s argument that PROMESA or the Bankruptcy Code can substantively affect Takings Clause claims in a manner beyond the control of the claimants; and, relatedly, (c) whereas statutes of limitations serve as a procedural bar to claims and may therefore be harmonized with the Takings Clause without impairing the substance of a litigant’s right to just compensation, the Oversight Board’s theory would affect the substance of Takings Clause claims in a manner that appears to abridge litigants’ rights to just compensation itself, regardless of when their claims are brought. Ultimately, the Court need not, and does not, express any opinion here as to the application of statutes of limitation to Takings Clause claims.

170. Accordingly, the Court concludes that the per se claims asserted by the holders of alleged Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims, to the extent they are ultimately allowed, are not subject to impairment or discharge, and that such creditors' objections to confirmation are hereby sustained to the extent the provisions of the Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan (dated December 21, 2021) would treat such allowed claims as general unsecured claims. The Debtors have proffered the Full-Payment Proposal for the treatment of the Claims in the event the Court, as it has done here, rejects the proposal to treat unfunded

The Oversight Board's second argument fares no better: 11 U.S.C. § 544(b)(1) only allows for the avoidance of transfers that would be voidable under applicable law. Section 544(b)(1) is thus already restricted to transfers that are "voidable under applicable law," which accommodates restrictions imposed by non-bankruptcy law, including the Takings Clause. 11 U.S.C. § 544(b)(1). Further, the Takings Clause serves only as a narrow boundary to the Debtors' avoidance powers, particularly with respect to per se takings. In situations where regulatory takings are potentially at issue, the authority under section 544(b)(1) to avoid transfers may still be exercised in cases where the Penn Central analysis permits. See also 11 U.S.C. §§ 544(a), 547(b), 548(a). The Oversight Board essentially posits that, because it can conceive of a highly fact-specific hypothetical in which an attempt to avoid an unrecorded transfer of real property under section 544(a) might constitute a taking under this Court's analysis, the avoidance provisions of the Bankruptcy Code would be broadly endangered if the Takings Clause could preclude such avoidances. (See Docket Entry No. 19574 ¶ 26.) Not only does the Court decline to decide hypothetical cases not before it, but the Oversight Board's argument is self-defeating. It does not follow that, because the Takings Clause could conceivably preclude a debtor's exercise of avoidance powers in a highly specific set of circumstances, the Bankruptcy Code is endangered root and branch.

portions of Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims on parity with general unsecured claims. That Full-Payment Proposal provides for full satisfaction of Allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims when this decision and determinations allowing such Claims become final. The Court directed the Debtors to revise the Fifth Modified Eighth Amended Plan to provide solely for such treatment of the Claims (although the Debtors' original position that the Claims are dischargeable and may be treated as general unsecured claims to the extent they are unfunded is preserved for appeal) and the Debtors have done so.⁴² The Court, accordingly, finds that the Plan's treatment of Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims is not a barrier to confirmation.

171. Bondholders' Objections: With respect to the objectors who have raised Takings Clause arguments with respect to their status as bondholders (see Samodovitz Obj.; Hein Obj.), the proper analytical framework for addressing these claims is set forth in Penn Central, 438 U.S. at 124; see Patriot Portfolio, LLC v. Weinstein (In re Weinstein), 164 F.3d 677, 685 (1st Cir. 1999) (applying Penn Central analysis to constitutional challenge to lien avoidance pursuant to section 522(f) of the Bankruptcy Code). Pursuant to that test, courts consider three factors: “(1) the economic impact of the regulation on the claimant; (2) the extent to which the regulation interferes with the claimant’s reasonable investment-backed expectations; and (3) the character of the governmental action.” Patriot Portfolio, 164 F.3d at 685.

172. Considering the first factor, the Court notes that the actions challenged by the Bondholders will not result in the total destruction of the value of the liens allegedly securing the existing bonds. Pursuant to the terms of the Plan (see Plan §§ 1.199, 1.359, 74.1), bondholders will receive substantial value in new secured bonds and, in some cases, cash. (See also Disclosure Statement, Docket Entry No. 17628 at 61 (“The New GO Bonds will be secured by a statutory first lien and pledge of the amounts on deposit in the Debt Service Fund and a pledge of the Commonwealth’s full faith, credit and taxing power[.]”).)

173. Second, although the proposed treatment of bondholders’ claims may interfere with certain bondholders’ subjective investment expectations, a proper assessment of bondholders’ reasonable expectations must take account of the general risk that a government issuer may have higher payment priorities in the event of a reorganization or economic crisis, and the more specific risks of potential economic instability resulting from the indebtedness of the Commonwealth, at the time they made their bond investments. Cf. New Haven Inclusion Cases, 399 U.S. 392, 491-92 (1970) (noting that security holders “invested their capital in a public utility that does owe an obligation to the public . . . [and thereby] assumed the risk that in any depression or any reorganization the interests of the public would be considered as well as theirs”) (citation and quotation marks omitted)).

174. Third, the character of the governmental action strongly indicates that the Plan does not result in an unconstitutional taking. The challenged proposals are not physical invasions of property by the government. Rather, the restructuring of the relationships between the Commonwealth and its bondholders, using the powers established by Congress in PROMESA, is a quintessential example of a “public program adjusting the benefits and burdens of economic life to promote the common good.” Penn Cent. Transp. Co., 438 U.S. at 124. The Takings Claim aspect of the Bondholders’ objections is therefore overruled.

175. Suiza Dairy Objection: Unlike the objecting holders of Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims, Suiza Dairy (“Suiza”) has not demonstrated that it has a factual or legal basis for its assertion that it holds a valid Takings Clause Claim that is protected by the Fifth Amendment. Suiza objects to the Plan, asserting, on the basis of a preliminary injunction it had obtained prepetition in the District of Puerto Rico against the Milk Industry Regulatory Office of Puerto Rico, that it has an adjudicated regulatory taking claim against the Commonwealth (Docket Entry No. 18594) (the “Suiza Objection”). See Vaqueria Tres Monjitas, Inc. v. Laboy, Civil No. 04-1840 (DRD), 2007 WL 7733665 (D.P.R. July 13, 2007). The Plan’s impairment of Suiza’s claim does not violate the Takings Clause of the Constitution of the United States for the simple reason that, prior to receiving a final judgment on its Takings Clause claim, see Vaqueria Tres Monjitas, Inc. v. Irizarry, 587 F.3d 464, 484 (1st Cir. 2009), Suiza (and other plaintiffs) entered into a stipulation (Docket Entry No. 2322 in Civil Case No. 04-1840 and Docket Entry No. 19361-6 in Case No. 17-3283) (the “Dairy Producer Settlement”), under which the parties agreed to abide by certain regulatory accrual formulae set forth therein (Dairy Producer Settlement ¶ 14.) The Dairy Producer Settlement made no concession of the plaintiffs’ claims, made no concession of the validity of any of the prior district and circuit court determinations, and provided that entry of court approval would operate as a final and unappealable judgment dismissing the action with prejudice (Dairy Producer Settlement ¶¶ 1-2.) In assessing the nature of the regulatory accrual which the preliminary injunction required (and the Dairy Producer Settlement would thereafter incorporate), the First Circuit determined that it was not just compensation for a taking, but instead resembled an equitable remedy. See Irizarry, 587 F.3d at 479-80. The court’s judgment was thereafter entered on November 6, 2013, incorporating the terms of the Dairy Producer Settlement. (Docket Entry No. 2347 in Civil Case No. 04-1840 and Docket Entry No. 19361-7 in Case No. 17-3283.) Thus, there was no favorable adjudication of Suiza's Takings Clause claim, which was dismissed with prejudice by the order entered in 2013. See Irizarry, 587 F.3d at 479-80 ("[H]ere there has been no award of damages that the state must pay. That an equitable remedy results in the payment of monies to plaintiff does not, in itself, render the relief monetary compensation for a taking."), rh'g denied, 600 F.3d 1 (1st Cir. 2010). Accordingly, it follows that Suiza merely has a contract-based claim for payment pursuant to the Dairy Producer Settlement.

176. The Court looks to the three factors of Penn Central to determine whether the impairment of Suiza's property interest in its settlement agreement rises to the level of a taking. Concerning the first factor, the Plan's treatment of Suiza's claim will not result in the total destruction of the value of Suiza's interest in the Dairy Producer Settlement. Rather, to the extent the Plan's treatment of Class 53 affects Suiza's claim, the plan provides for the payment of 50% of the Allowed Dairy Producer Claim and preserves other rights under the Dairy Producer Settlement. (Plan § 57.1.)

177. Second, notwithstanding Suiza's subjective economic expectations at the time the Dairy Producer Settlement was executed, any assessment of its reasonable expectations must account for an awareness of the Commonwealth's indebtedness, as well as the general risk that the Commonwealth might have higher payment priorities in the event of a reorganization or economic crisis. See New Haven Inclusion Cases, 399 U.S. at 492.

178. Third, the character of the governmental action strongly supports the Court’s determination that the Plan’s treatment of Suiza’s claim does not result in an unconstitutional taking. Rather, the restructuring of the relationships between the Commonwealth and its creditors under the powers established by PROMESA is a prime example of a “public program adjusting the benefits and burdens of economic life to promote the common good.” Penn Cent. Transp. Co., 438 U.S. at 124. Accordingly, the Plan’s treatment of Suiza’s claim does not constitute a taking without just compensation in violation of the Takings Clause of the Constitution of the United States. Suiza’s objection is therefore overruled.

Discrimination Provisions: Due Process, Equal Protection, and Privileges and Immunities Clauses

179. Objector Peter Hein contends that the Plan’s different treatment of mainland investors from Puerto Rico-resident investors violates discrimination provisions of the Constitution of the United States, to the extent the Plan makes distinctions based on investors’ geographic location. (Hein Obj. at 26.)⁴³ Such discrimination, he argues, violates the Due Process, Equal Protection, and Privileges and Immunities Clauses of the Constitution of the United States. U.S. Const. art. IV, § 2, cl.1; am. V; am. XIV § 1. The Plan does not, however, violate any of these provisions of the Constitution.

⁴³ Specifically, Mr. Hein argues that all bondholders of a particular bond series, and not just Puerto Rico investors, should be given the option to elect to receive a single maturity of potentially

180. Regarding the Privileges and Immunities Clause, not only are the Court's decisions concerning the confirmability of the Plan not limited by the Clause, Hawes v. Club Ecuestre El Comandante, 535 F.2d 140, 145 (1st Cir. 1976) ("Article IV, s 2 is a limitation on powers of states and in no way affects the powers of a federal district court."), the Plan's taxable bond election provision does not fall within the purview of the Privileges and Immunities Clause because it does not burden an activity that is sufficiently basic to the "vitality of the nation as a single entity," Baldwin v. Fish & Game Comm'n of Mont., 436 U.S. 371, 383 (1978); see also id. at 388, and it is closely related to the advancement of a substantial state interest, namely, the reorganization of the Commonwealth's debts. Supreme Court of Va. v. Friedman, 487 U.S. 59, 65 (1988).

181. As for the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, Mr. Hein has exercised his right to challenge the differential treatment before this tribunal, he has cited no fundamental right as being impaired, and has not taxable higher coupon bonds, and that failure to do so causes discrimination based on place of residence. (Hein Obj. at 26.)

identified any discrimination based on any constitutionally protected class or status. His objections citing these constitutional amendments thus have no factual basis. Mr. Hein's argument that due process prevents the Court from merely deferring to the Oversight Board's determinations and certifications (see Hein Obj. at 18), is beside the point because the Court has indeed undertaken an independent review of the Plan, in accordance with the legal standards applicable under PROMESA, which do not authorize the Oversight Board to act as a judge in its own case, nor to discharge or impair claims unilaterally. See In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R. 583 B.R. 626, 632-33 (D.P.R. 2017). Moreover, the Plan's taxable election provision is supported by a rational basis because it seeks, by providing an opportunity to maximize the availability of non-taxable bonds for mainland investors who pay federal taxes, to enhance recoveries for mainland investors without harming local investors. See United States v. Kras, 409 U.S. 434, 446 (1973).

182. Mr. Hein's objections are therefore overruled.

183. The Plan complies with PROMESA section 314(b)(3).

D. PROMESA § 314(b)(4): The Plan Provides Each Holder of an Administrative Claim Cash, Equal to the Allowed Amount of Such Claim, on the Effective Date.

184. Section 3.1 of the Plan states: “On the later to occur of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date on which an Administrative Expense Claim shall become an Allowed Claim, the Reorganized Debtors shall (i) pay to each holder of an Allowed Administrative Expense Claim, in Cash, the full amount of such Administrative Expense Claim or (ii) satisfy and discharge such Allowed Administrative Expense Claim in accordance with such other terms no more favorable to the claimant than as may be agreed upon by and between the holder thereof and the Reorganized Debtors; provided, however, that Allowed Administrative Expense Claims representing indebtedness incurred in the ordinary course prior to the Effective Date by the Debtors shall be paid in full and performed by the Reorganized Debtors in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of any agreement governing, investment evidencing, or other document relating to such transactions; and, provided, further, that, if any such ordinary course expense is not billed, or a written request for payment is not made, within one hundred fifty (150) days after the Effective Date, such ordinary course expense shall be barred and the holder thereof shall not be entitled to, or receive, a distribution pursuant to the Plan.”

185. Consummation Costs, Restriction Fees, and Retail Support Fees will be paid in Cash on the Effective Date. All other Allowed Administrative Expense Claims, if any, will likewise be paid pursuant to section 3.1 of the Plan.

186. The Plan complies with section 314(b)(4) of PROMESA.

E. PROMESA § 314(b)(5): The Plan Has Obtained all Necessary Legislative, Regulatory, and Electoral Approvals.

187. The Plan has obtained all necessary legislative, regulatory, and electoral approvals. Further, by approving and certifying the Fiscal Plan, the Oversight Board provided approval for the issuance of securities contemplated by the Plan as required by section 207 of PROMESA. The debt authorization in Act 53 is conditioned only on the Plan's removal of the Monthly Benefit Modification that was provided for in the Seventh Amended Plan and does not require removal of the pension freezes or the elimination of COLAs from the Plan. Act 53 (Debtors Ex. 134), arts. 104, 605. Pursuant to Puerto Rico law, legislation of the Commonwealth is presumed to be valid if enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico and signed into law by the Governor. See, e.g., Brau v. ELA, 190 D.P.R. 315, 337 (P.R. 2014); Partido Socialista Puertorriqueño v. Puerto Rico, 107 D.P.R. 590, 609 n.11 (P.R. 1978), holding modified by Partido Independentista Puertorriqueño v. Comisión Estatal de Elecciones y Ostros, 120 D.P.R. 580 (P.R. 1988) ("To begin with, laws are presumed to be constitutional and the movant [objector] should place the courts in a position to decide by introducing evidence to sustain the facts alleged, and then stating the legal arguments on which its assignment of unconstitutionality is based, specifically mentioning the constitutional provisions involved and the legal precedents supporting its assignment.

F. PROMESA § 314(b)(6): The Plan Is Feasible and in the Best Interests of Creditors.

188. The Plan complies with section 314(b)(6) of PROMESA because it is feasible and in the best interests of creditors.

i. Feasibility

“[T]he Court has an independent duty to determine [feasibility] and to make specific findings of fact.” In re City of Detroit, 524 B.R. 147, 220 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2014). Under PROMESA, a plan of adjustment must be supported by financial projections that are “reasonable and demonstrate a probability that [the debtor] will be able to satisfy its obligations under the Plan.” In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 361 F. Supp. 3d 203, 246 (D.P.R. 2019). Additionally, as in chapter 9, a PROMESA debtor, as a government entity, must show that it is “probable that [the] debtor can both pay post-petition debt and provide future public services at the level necessary to its viability as a [territory].” In re Mount Carbon Metro. Dist., 242 B.R. 18, 35 (Bank. D. Colo. 1999). The core inquiry has been articulated as follows: “Is it likely that the [debtor], after the confirmation of the Plan of Adjustment, will be able to sustainably provide basic municipal services to the citizens of [the debtor] and to meet the obligations contemplated in the Plan without the significant probability of a default?” In re City of Detroit, 524 B.R. at 222.

a. The Plan is Feasible as to ERS

189. The Plan is feasible with respect to ERS. ERS no longer has pension and other obligations to beneficiaries, those obligations having been assumed by the Commonwealth upon the enactment of Act 106. Pursuant to the Plan, ERS’s assets are being sold and transferred to the Commonwealth in exchange for $373 million and the agreement to purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio for $70,750,000, subject to certain conditions. ERS’s obligations pursuant to the Plan include distributing the $373 million in cash received from the Commonwealth to the holders of Allowed ERS Bond Claims, as well as payments to holders of Allowed ERS General Unsecured Claims in a de minimis amount. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 98; Plan §§ 2.4, 69.2, 77.1(c).)

190. Pursuant to the Plan, ERS will place the ERS Private Equity Portfolio in the ERS Trust, which will then be purchased by either the Commonwealth or holder(s) of Allowed ERS Bond Claims on or before April 25, 2023 for no less than $70,750,000, which funds will be distributed to holders of Allowed ERS Bond Claims. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 99; Plan §§ 2.4, 69.2, 77.1(c).) Further, on the Effective Date, each holder of an ERS General Unsecured Claim will receive such holder's Pro Rata Share of the ERS GUC Pool, which is comprised of $500,000 plus the net recoveries by the Avoidance Actions Trust allocable to the Avoidance Actions ERS Interests, capped at $5 million. (Plan §§ 70.1, 1.223.) ERS will dissolve after the Effective Date of the Plan and all remaining assets of ERS will be deemed sold and transferred to the Commonwealth. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 99; Plan § 88.2.) Any excess amount in the ERS GUC Pool will be reallocated, on a pro rata basis, to holders of Allowed CW General Unsecured Claims. (Plan § 1.223.) ERS will therefore have no material obligations after the Effective Date. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 99.) Accordingly, the Plan is feasible with respect to ERS and is not likely to result in the need for a further restructuring of ERS.

b. The Plan is Feasible as to PBA

191. The Plan is feasible with respect to PBA, as PBA holds sufficient cash to pay its obligations to all of its creditors pursuant to the Plan, including any Allowed Claims on account of loans made by GDB to PBA. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 100.) Holders of PBA Bond Claims will receive their Pro Rata Share of the Vintage PBA Bond Recovery, 2011 PBA Bond Recovery, or 2012 PBA Bond Recovery, as applicable, in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.1 billion to be paid by the Commonwealth. (Shah Decl. ¶ 59; Plan arts. V-XV.) Holders of Claims in Classes 12 (PBA/DRA Secured Claims), 13 (PBA General Unsecured Claims), and 14 (PBA/DRA Unsecured Claims) will each receive Cash in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of such Claims. (Plan arts. XVI-XVIII.)

192. The Debtors seek an order providing that each of the Unexpired Leases to which PBA is a party (collectively, the “PBA Leases”) will be deemed rejected upon the earliest to occur of (a) June 30, 2022, (b) the date upon which such PBA Lease expires in accordance with its terms, (c) the date upon which PBA enters into a new or amended lease with respect to the leased property subject to such PBA Lease, (d) such other date of which PBA, as lessor, provides written notice to the counterparty to a PBA Lease, and (e) the date upon which AAFAF provides written notice to PBA that such PBA Lease is rejected; provided, however, that during the period from the Effective Date up to the date of such rejection, with respect to any PBA Lease between PBA as lessor and the Commonwealth or any Commonwealth agency, public corporation, or instrumentality, as lessee, monthly lease payments shall be limited to the lower of (y) the amount budgeted and approved pursuant to a certified fiscal plan and (z) the monthly costs and expenses associated with the applicable leased property; and provided, further, that any accruals on the books of PBA or any of the Commonwealth or an agency, public corporation, or instrumentality of the Commonwealth as counterparty to a PBA Lease for the unpaid debt service component of rent under any PBA Lease shall be deemed released, settled, and discharged as of the rejection date. (See Confirmation Ord. ¶ 84.) The treatment of PBA Leases has been consented to by the Oversight Board, on behalf of the Debtors. The Oversight Board represents, and AAFAF has not denied, that AAFAF, on behalf of the agencies, instrumentalities, and public corporations, has also consented to the treatment of the PBA Leases set forth in the Plan.

193. Accordingly, the Plan is feasible with respect to PBA and is not likely to result in the need for a further restructuring of PBA.

c. The Plan is Feasible as to the Commonwealth

194. The Plan is feasible with respect to the Commonwealth. The Plan provides for the following types of payments to financial creditors: (1) cash on the Effective Date, (2) new debt issued by the Commonwealth in the form of New GO Bonds, and (3) CVIs. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 47; Malhotra Decl. ¶ 9.) In addition, the Plan contemplates payments to retirees of pensions and other benefits, without adjustment for any Monthly Benefit Modification, as well as additional payments to Commonwealth employees. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 9.)

195. The Plan provides for the payment of Cash on the Effective Date and over time, in the aggregate amount of approximately $8 billion, plus up to $801 million in consummation costs, restriction fees, and retail support fees. (See Malhotra Decl. ¶ 10; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 48, 86.)

196. The Plan provides that the Reorganized Commonwealth will issue New GO Bonds on the Effective Date with different maturity dates, having an aggregate original principal amount of $7,414,063,543.25. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 11; Zelin Decl. ¶ 49; Plan art. LXXIV.) All holders of general obligation debt and general obligation guaranteed debt will receive New GO Bonds having thirteen (13) CUSIP numbers, which distribution was calculated to provide each holder with incremental value of 2.25% of their par claims, which increment exceeds any liquidity charge by approximately 1.75% of their par claims. (See Nov. 12, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 108:15-111:1.) Minimizing the number of CUSIPs would not be in the interest of bondholders as a whole; rather, the issuance pursuant to the Plan of thirteen (13) CUSIPs to each bondholder provides each holder with as significant a recovery as possible within the boundaries of the municipal bond market and the need to keep annual debt service sustainable, and a significantly greater total amount of value. (See Nov. 12, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 105:11-106:4; 108:18-111:4.) The aggregate amount owed, including all principal and interest over the life of the New GO Bonds from the Deemed Issuance Date of July 1, 2021 to the maturity of the final New GO Bond on July 1, 2046, is $10,914,969,303.20. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 12; Zelin Decl. ¶ 49.) The Plan provides for a Debt Service Fund to be established. On the first business day of each month after the Effective Date until the obligations of the applicable New GO Bonds are satisfied, the Commonwealth will deposit the portion of principal and accrued interest for that month into the Debt Service Fund.

(Malhotra Decl. ¶ 16; Plan § 74.1(f).) The Plan also provides that, on the Effective Date, the Reorganized Commonwealth shall deposit into the Debt Service Fund such additional amounts necessary to account for the New GO Bonds being issued as of the Deemed Issuance Date. (Plan § 74.1(f).)

197. The Plan provides for the issuance of (i) GO CVIs in the aggregate original notional amount of $3.5 billion, having a maturity date of July 1, 2043 and a final redemption payment date of November 1, 2043, and (ii) Clawback CVIs in the aggregate original notional amount of $5.239 billion, having a maturity date of July 1, 2051 and a final redemption payment date of November 1, 2051. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 19; Zelin Decl. ¶ 54; Plan § 74.2.) The Commonwealth's obligation to pay under the CVIs arises only if certain outperformance conditions specified in the Plan and the CVI indentures occur. Specifically, the Plan provides for the establishment of threshold metrics based on tax revenue projections contained in certified fiscal plans. Only if actual revenues exceed the established threshold at the end of a given fiscal year will an obligation to pay come into being, subject to certain caps. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 20; Zelin Decl. ¶ 55; Plan Ex. J.) Further, payments on the CVIs are triggered only when both cumulative and annual outperformance occurs, which protects the Commonwealth from making substantial CVI payouts when it experiences one year of outperformance after experiencing several years of underperformance. (Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 35-37; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 60-65.)

198. In addition, the Plan provides for (i) payments of pension and other post-employment benefits to retired Commonwealth employees, without adjustment for any Monthly Benefit Modification, (ii) the restoration of contributions made by Commonwealth employees to the System 2000 program, and (iii) payments to the Pension Reserve Trust. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 21; Plan art. LV.) Participants in System 2000 will not be subject to benefit reductions, but instead will receive the amount of their contributions to System 2000 from its enactment until June 30, 2017. (Plan § 55.1.) The aggregate sum of such contributions plus interest accrued thereon is approximately $1.2 billion. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 23.) The Pension Reserve Trust will receive an initial contribution of $5 million on the Effective Date and, for the next ten (10) fiscal years, the Commonwealth will make a contribution in an amount equal to (1) the Base Contribution, $175 million or, for any fiscal year in which the projected Fiscal Plan Surplus set forth in the Fiscal Plan is equal to or greater than $1.75 billion, an amount equal to fifty percent (50%) of that amount, plus (2) an additional amount calculated as (i) the lower of the actual primary surplus for such fiscal year and the projected Fiscal Plan surplus for such fiscal year, minus (ii) the sum of the Base Contribution, plus the Commonwealth's debt service obligations pursuant to the Plan for such fiscal year, plus $200 million. (Plan art. LXXXIII; Malhotra Decl. ¶ 24; Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 12-13; Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 10-11; Santambrogio Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 8-9.) The Commonwealth's contributions to the Pension Reserve Trust are estimated to total approximately $2.4

billion during the ten years of funding based on the Fiscal Plan, all of which will be paid during the time period in which the Fiscal Plan projects surpluses. The Pension Reserve Trust is projected to have a balance of $3.1 billion through the end of fiscal year 2031 based on the Fiscal Plan. (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 14; Santambrogio Sup. Decl. ¶ 10.) Further, the Pension Reserve Trust will be professionally and independently managed to insulate the funding available to pay pensions from political or economic influences. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 34.)⁴⁴

199. The Seventh Amended Plan contained a Monthly Benefit Modification pursuant to which reductions to monthly pension payments would be made. The New GO Bond Legislation and CVI Legislation, Act 53, is conditioned on the removal of the Monthly Benefit Modification from the Plan and so, consistent with Act 53, the Plan no longer contains a Monthly Benefit Modification provision. (See Plan art. LV.) The Plan nevertheless remains feasible, provided there are no other modifications to the Plan involving pensions. The elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification is estimated to add an average of approximately $87 million annually to the cost of the Commonwealth's PayGo obligations for the first ten years, which represents less than five percent (5%) of the Commonwealth's estimated PayGo expenses for this period, and less than one percent (1%) of the Commonwealth's overall budget for this period. The additional cost will be payable from the surpluses projected in the Fiscal Plan during this period. Over the thirty-year period of Fiscal Plan projections, the aggregate cost of eliminating the Monthly Benefit Modification is approximately $1.9 billion. (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 9, Ex. 1; Levy Sup. Decl. ¶ 10; Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 8.) The elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification does not materially affect the feasibility of the Plan. (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 10; Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 8-12.)

⁴⁴ AAFAF objects to portions of this finding, and to similar conclusions in ¶ 224 concerning the Pension Reserve Trust, arguing the factual evidence supporting the funding details is based on declarations that were submitted prior to changes made to the funding provisions during the Confirmation Hearing. (See Docket Entry No. 19402 at 12; see also Docket Entry No. 19173; Docket Entry No. 19320). The Debtors have, however, provided an explanation of the need for such changes and the factual support for the feasibility of the new provisions in the supplemental declarations of Ms. Jaresko, Mr. Malhotra, and Mr. Santambrogio. (See Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 9-11; Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 12-13; Santambrogio Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 8-9.) AAFAF's objection is therefore overruled.

200. If the Plan were modified to (i) eliminate the freeze of JRS and TRS pension benefit accruals and (ii) retain any future pension benefit cost of living adjustments, the Plan would be at risk of not being feasible. (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 8; Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 13.) Specifically, the PayGo impact of eliminating the pension freeze and reinstating COLAs relative to the Fiscal Plan is estimated to be approximately $5.6 billion over thirty (30) years, or approximately $4.7 billion after taking into account social security costs. (Levy Sup. Decl. ¶ 14.) By 2047, the incremental PayGo cost associated with eliminating the pension freeze and maintaining COLAs is estimated to increase the annual PayGo obligation by twenty-five percent (25%). Unlike the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification, the incremental cost of which decreases as the Commonwealth approaches the deficits projected by the Fiscal Plan, the incremental costs associated with eliminating the pension freeze and reinstating any COLAs are projected to grow larger as the Commonwealth approaches the deficits projected by the Fiscal Plan, thus presenting the risk that the Plan may not be feasible.⁴⁵ (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 17-18; Levy Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 9-17.) Absent the Pension Freeze, TRS and JRS pension liabilities will continue to increase relative to the Fiscal Plan. Eliminating the pension freeze would create an open-ended incremental defined ⁴⁵ AMPR objects that, even with the inclusion of the JRS and TRS benefit freeze, the Plan may not be feasible because the employees whose benefits are frozen will have a damages claim based on the loss of their future accruals that is not provided for in the Plan. (See Docket Entry No. 18585 at 16 n.12). AMPR does not proffer any evidence concerning the potential cost of such claims to the Commonwealth. The Debtors proffer that the Plan already provides for the treatment of these claims by ensuring the payment of any defined benefits accrued up to the Effective Date, providing a tax deferred defined contribution account, and providing matching contributions to Social Security for those who opt in. (Nov. 15, 2021, Hr’g Tr. 51:2-51:7.) To the extent AMPR would be able to assert a rejection damages claim, the Court finds that the Plan anticipates any such claim from the employees subject to the freeze of their benefits, (see Plan § 1.487 (defining “TRS Participant Claim” to include “any right to accrue additional retiree benefits in TRS from and after the Effective Date”)) and provides a treatment for such claims (see Plan §§ 55.3, 55.9) that is accounted for in the Debtors’ feasibility demonstration. AMPR has not provided any evidence showing that prospective claims from its members would render the Plan infeasible. AMPR’s feasibility objection is therefore overruled.

benefit liability because TRS and JRS participants would continue to accrue new benefits for as long as they continue to work for the Commonwealth. (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 18.) Moreover, not implementing the pension freeze and the reinstatement of COLAs would increase the likelihood of needing to rely on the Pension Reserve Trust for payment of the Commonwealth's PayGo obligations, and increase the risk of completely exhausting the Pension Reserve Trust during the Fiscal Plan projection period. (Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 18; Levy Sup. Decl. ¶ 16.)

201. Section 83.4 of the Plan ensures that pension-related provisions contained in the Plan will not be undone in the short term such that pension payments become unaffordable, providing that: "Before the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including, without limitation, by any Entity or Person acting for or on behalf thereof, shall not (a) implement existing legislation or enact new legislation to create or increase any defined benefit pension payment or obligation to current or future retirees from or related to any defined benefit plans over the benefits provided by the Plan, regardless of funding source, or (b) undo (in whole or part) the Plan's eliminations of defined benefit plan accruals and cost of living adjustments for government employees; provided, however, that the Governor and Legislature of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, subsequent to termination of the Oversight Board, may apply to the Title III Court for relief from this provision upon showing (i) the need therefor,

(ii) the affordability of the requested changes, (iii) the reasons why the requested changes will not create a risk of the financial distress caused by the Commonwealth's prior defined benefit plans under which the Commonwealth and other governmental employers accrued nearly $55 billion of unfunded pension obligations, (iv) the means of funding the requested changes and reasons why there is little risk of such funding not being carried out, (v) the reasons why the requested changes will not create a material risk of defaults on any of the then outstanding obligations pursuant to the Plan, and (vi) the reasons why the defined contribution plans are insufficient and defined benefit plans are both prudent and required; and, provided, however, that, prior to the termination of the Oversight Board, the Oversight Board shall not reduce any defined benefit pension payment or obligation to current or future retirees from the benefits provided by the Plan." (Plan § 83.4.) This prohibition on new defined benefits for a ten (10) year period is enforceable and is essential to the Plan's continued feasibility.⁴⁶ (See Nov. 15, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 181:16-182:14; see also Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 20 (explaining the costs of pension-related laws proposed by the government would increase the risk the Plan will not be feasible).)

202. The Plan also provides for additional payments to be made to current employees who are members of certain public employee unions affiliated with AFSCME and non-union rank and file employees.

⁴⁶ See supra n.23.

Pursuant to the Plan, the Commonwealth's monthly contribution for healthcare benefits to Commonwealth employees who are members of AFSCME-affiliated unions will increase from $125 per employee per month to $170 per employee per month. (See Santambrogio Decl. ¶ 31; Malhotra Decl. ¶ 26.) In addition, the Plan provides for $500 signing bonuses to each member of an AFSCME-affiliated union and, if the Commonwealth has an excess cash surplus after CVI payments that is greater than $100 million, 25% of that surplus will be allocated to a bonus pool for the benefit of members of the AFSCME-affiliated unions and other non-union rank and file employees. (Plan art. LVI; Plan Ex. G; Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 25-26, 29 & n.6; Santambrogio Decl. ¶¶ 22-23.) Subject to a minimum cash bonus of $2,000 per year per AFSCME-represented employee for the five-year term of the amended collective bargaining agreement, such employees only receive the cash surplus bonuses if the government outperforms the Fiscal Plan, so employees are incentivized to ensure that the government is operating efficiently. (Nov. 10, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 62:25-63:4; Santambrogio Sup. Decl. ¶ 11.)

203. The Plan also provides that the Debtors shall transfer ACR-eligible claims pursuant to the ACR Order, which claims shall be reconciled and paid in the ordinary course of business. The Commonwealth has reserved $229 million for payment of such claims. (Plan § 82.7; Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 27, 29.)

204. Further, the Plan provides ERS Bondholders a right to receive a future payment of $70.75 million from the purchase of the ERS Private Equity Portfolio. (Plan § 69.2; Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 27, 29.)

205. The Plan, including each of these provisions, is feasible with respect to the Commonwealth.⁴⁷ (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 29.) Confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by the need for further financial reorganization not contemplated in the Plan, and will enable the Commonwealth to provide future public services and remain a viable public entity. That is true notwithstanding the fact that, based on the 2021 Fiscal Plan (Debtors Ex. 10) projections, deficits after debt service are projected to reemerge in approximately FY 2035. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 29.) By the time deficits are projected to emerge, the amount of Commonwealth general obligation debt outstanding will only be $2.1 billion, as compared to pre-petition debt liabilities of $30.5 billion. (Id.) The Commonwealth will not likely need further reorganization notwithstanding projected deficits due to a number of factors, including the following: (i) the Plan reduces the Commonwealth's overall debt; (ii) the Plan includes multiple provisions designed to insulate the Commonwealth from downside risks; (iii) the Commonwealth can implement certain reforms the Oversight Board identified that could result in additional liquidity, which could eliminate the projected deficit;⁴⁸ and (iv) the Plan does not take into account potential upside factors which, if they materialize, would result in additional liquidity. (See id.)

⁴⁸ Mr. Hein argues that the Commonwealth has previously failed to implement structural reforms put forth by the Oversight Board and that there is no evidence that the Commonwealth government would now adopt such proposals, such that the Debtors' representation that the Plan is feasible is unpersuasive. (See, e.g., Docket Entry No. 19400 at 41-42.) The Commonwealth government's commitment to implementing proposed structural changes cannot be guaranteed, but the Plan provides incentives for the Commonwealth and interested parties to ensure that the government pursues policies to achieve strong fiscal performance. (See, e.g., Malhotra Decl. ¶ 26 (describing Upside Bonus Participation pool for certain public employees if the Commonwealth has an Excess Cash Surplus); Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 60-66 (explaining alignment of incentives between the Commonwealth and CVI holders to achieve outperformance).) Furthermore, as set forth supra, the proposed structural reforms are not the only protections the Plan offers to combat projected deficits starting in FY 2035. The Plan also provides mechanisms such as the Pension Reserve Trust, the CVI structure, and the Debt Management Policy to ensure obligations are met even if the Commonwealth begins to run deficits. (See Malhotra Decl. ¶ 33.) The projections underlying the Fiscal Plan and the Plan also do not account for potential upsides that could increase the Commonwealth's liquidity in the future. (Id. ¶¶ 41-51.) Thus, the uncertainty of the Commonwealth's support for proposed structural changes does not render the Plan infeasible.

206. The Plan also reduces the Debtors' debt significantly. After confirmation, the Commonwealth's general obligation and guaranteed debt will be approximately $7.4 billion, considerably lower than the $30.5 billion pre-restructuring total, and all ERS and PBA debt will be eliminated. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 31; Jaresko Decl. ¶¶ 98-100.) Prior to the commencement of the Title III Cases, annual Commonwealth debt service was approximately $2.1 billion, and post-Effective Date, the Commonwealth's average annual debt service during the first ten years will be approximately $666 million.⁴⁹ (Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 30-31.) Over 50% of the newly issued debt under the Plan will have amortized within 10 years of its issuance date. (Id. ¶ 32.) Debt levels will continuously decline and remain low until full repayment of the Commonwealth's general obligation and guaranteed debt, which is projected to occur in fiscal year 2046. (Id.) Thereafter, the only commitments that will remain outstanding will be the CVIs and COFINA debt. The CVIs are paid only if specific revenues outperform projections, and COFINA debt is serviced via a pledged portion of sales and use tax. (Id.) The Commonwealth will have the ability to pay debt service pursuant to the Plan through at least 2034, and the Plan proposes additional reforms and potential factors that could increase the Commonwealth's resources and create surpluses that could extend this projection. (Wolfe Decl. Ex. 1 ¶¶ 12, 13, 15-27.)

207. In addition, several Plan provisions—the Pension Reserve Trust, the CVI structures, the Debt Management Policy, and the Comprehensive Cap—mitigate the impact of potential financial underperformance and the effects of projected deficits. (See Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 33-40.) The Commonwealth will also establish an emergency reserve and a certain level of unrestricted cash, and the Oversight Board has agreed to fund a temporary disaster aid revolving line of credit, which mitigate against potential downside risks. (Id. ¶¶ 49-51; Chepenik Decl. ¶¶ 9, 28, 30, 36, 38.) The Commonwealth will retain an unrestricted cash balance of $1 billion to help maintain uninterrupted government operations when unforeseen fiscal challenges emerge. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 49; Chepenik Decl. ¶ 28; Nov. 12, 2021, Hr'g Tr. 50:21-51:5.) The emergency fund will be funded with $130 million annually for a period of ten years, until the reserve balance reaches $1.3 billion, or 2% of Puerto Rico's Fiscal Year 2018 Gross National Product, in line with International Monetary Fund guidance. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 51; Chepenik Decl. ¶ 38.)

208. The Plan is not dependent on new borrowings that would impede the Debtors' ability to achieve compliance with the Fiscal Plan. The Fiscal Plan (Debtors Ex. 10) does not show a need for incremental borrowing, and therefore the Plan's borrowing restrictions will not impede the Commonwealth's ability to implement the Fiscal Plan. (Murray Decl. Ex. 1 ¶¶ 99-102.) The Plan will leave the Debtors with a level of cash consistent with the cash necessary to implement the undertakings referenced in the Fiscal Plan. (Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶ 65.) In addition, the Plan imposes a comprehensive cap on net tax-supported debt equal to 7.94% of debt policy revenues, and the expected level of net tax supported debt service is projected to be 7.6% of debt policy revenues. (Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶¶ 100-01; Plan § 74.4.)

209. The Commonwealth has sufficient resources to pay debt service pursuant to the Plan until 2034, through annual surpluses. (Wolfe Decl. Ex. 1 ¶ 12.) Additional options for payment of debt service will become available in later years because the Commonwealth can implement structural reforms to increase the Commonwealth's resources and create surpluses. (Wolfe Decl. ¶¶ 13, 15-27.) Proactively implementing structural reforms would create a stream of fiscal surpluses sufficient to cover the Commonwealth's debt service obligations pursuant to the Plan and could build cumulative surpluses not incorporated into the Fiscal Plan totaling $32.4 billion for fiscal years 2022 through 2046, well above the cumulative debt service over that same period of $10.9 billion. (Wolfe Decl. Ex. 1 ¶¶ 13, 27.) There are additional potential upside factors not incorporated into the Plan which, if they occur, will produce additional revenues. These factors include a potential increase in federal Medicaid funding, and potential provision of Social Security Income to Puerto Rico residents that could increase economic activity. (See Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 44-48.)

210. Accordingly, the Plan is feasible with respect to the Commonwealth and is not likely to result in the need for a further restructuring of the Commonwealth.

ii. Best Interests Test

211. As in chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code, PROMESA's "best interests" test differs substantially from the chapter 11 "best interests" requirement. In chapter 11, the test requires a court to determine whether an individual creditor would receive more if the chapter 11 debtor were to liquidate its assets. In contrast, the chapter 9 test is not a liquidation test (because municipalities cannot be liquidated) and is focused on the collective recovery of creditors in the aggregate. Cf. In re City of Detroit, 524 B.R. at 212-13 (comparing the "best interests" tests in chapter 9 and chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code); see also In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R., 361 F. Supp. 3d 203, 250-51 (D.P.R. 2019). The PROMESA best interests test additionally modifies the chapter 9 best interests test, only requiring the Court “to consider whether available remedies under the non-bankruptcy laws and constitution of the territory would result in a greater recovery for the creditors than is provided by [the] plan.”⁵⁰ 48 U.S.C.A. § 2174(b)(6) (Westlaw through P.L. 117-80) (emphasis added). Thus, the PROMESA best interests test does not impose a litmus test or establish a floor for creditor recoveries. See id.

212. Accordingly, PROMESA’s best interests test requires the Court only to consider whether creditors of each Debtor in the aggregate receive an equal or greater recovery on their Claims pursuant to the Plan than they would outside of Title III if the Debtor’s Title III case were dismissed and creditors exercised their remedies. An analysis of creditor recoveries in such hypothetical circumstances requires the application of a number of assumptions, including (i) estimates of the resources that would be available for debt service, which requires an assessment of available cash, revenues, and operating expenses in the absence of a confirmed plan of adjustment; (ii) the outstanding creditor obligations due and payable that would exist outside of Title III; and (iii) the priority in which creditor claims would be paid outside of Title III, which in certain circumstances requires consideration of assumptions regarding the potential outcome of litigation matters. (Shah Decl. ¶ 8.)

213. The Debtors have met their burden of showing that recoveries for claimholders of each Debtor pursuant to the Plan, in the aggregate, are within the range or greater than the range of the projected recoveries for such claimholders in the aggregate if the Title III Cases were dismissed for each of the Debtors, as demonstrated by the best interest test reports attached to the Shah Declaration as Exhibits A, B, and C. (Shah Decl. ¶ 35, Exs. A, B, and C; Debtors Exs. 130, 131.) Additionally, the recovery pursuant to the Plan for holders of GO Bonds is within the range of the projected recoveries for such claimholders pursuant to the Oversight Board's best interest test analysis if the Commonwealth's Title III case were dismissed, assuming all GO Bonds were validly issued. (See Shah Decl. ¶ 45; Shah Decl. Ex. 7 to Ex. A.)

214. In the aggregate, excluding the payment of Restriction Fees or Consummation Costs (which are not being paid on account of Claims), and excluding Federal Claims,⁵¹ there are an estimated $22.8 billion in Claims asserted against the Commonwealth, which are projected to receive $15.7 billion pursuant to the Plan, for an aggregate recovery for all claimholders of 69%, exclusive of any payments to be made with respect to CVIs or payments from the Avoidance Actions Trust. (Id. ¶ 48.) This compares favorably to the projected range of recoveries pursuant to the Oversight Board's best interest test analysis if the Commonwealth's Title III case is dismissed: $9.3-15.3 billion (34%-62%). (Id. ¶ 35.) Realized Commonwealth creditor recoveries could be even higher pursuant to the Plan, as the 69% estimated recovery excludes any additional recoveries available on account of payments from the Avoidance Action Trust or CVIs. (Id. ¶ 48.)

215. Pursuant to the Plan, exclusive of the payment of the ERS Restriction Fee (which is not being paid on account of Claims), ERS Bondholders are projected to receive a recovery of approximately $444 million on $3,169 billion of Claims, and ERS General Unsecured Claims are projected to receive a recovery of 100% on approximately $300,000 of Claims, for an implied aggregate recovery of 14%. (Shah Decl. ¶ 54.) This is within the range of projected recoveries pursuant to the Oversight Board's best interest test analysis if ERS's Title III case is dismissed: $0.2-3.7 billion (5%-100%). (Id. ¶ 35.)⁵²

⁵² While it is theoretically possible there would be a 100% recovery on ERS Claims outside of Title III, that result is very unlikely because it would require a court to rule that ERS Bondholders hold liens on PayGo payments. Notably, the First Circuit has already determined that the ERS Bondholders' collateral, which consists of statutory employer contributions to ERS, was subject to material impairment by legislative action, stating: "Importantly, the Bond Resolution explicitly states that the legislature of the Commonwealth might reduce (or, by implication, eliminate) Employers' Contributions, and so 'adversely affect[]"

216. Pursuant to the Plan, PBA Bondholders are projected to receive a recovery of $1.1 billion against PBA. (Id. ¶ 59.) The Plan provides that the PBA/DRA Secured Claim, PBA General Unsecured Claims, and PBA/DRA Unsecured Claims, will receive recoveries of approximately $6.6 million, $41.0 million, and $13.4 million, respectively. (Id.) Accordingly, holders of Claims against PBA are projected to receive an implied aggregate recovery of $1.1 billion, or 21%. (Id.) This compares favorably to the projected recoveries pursuant to the Oversight Board’s best interest test analysis if PBA’s Title III case is dismissed: $0.3 billion (5%). (Id. ¶ 35.)

217. Accordingly, for each Debtor, creditors in the aggregate will receive a percentage recovery on their Claims pursuant to the Plan that is within the range of or greater than projected recoveries outside of Title III.⁵³ (Id. ¶ 13.)

the Bondholders.” Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R. v. Andalusian Global Designated Activity Co. (In re Fin. Oversight & Mgmt. Bd. for P.R.), 948 F.3d 457, 468-69 (1st Cir. 2020).

⁵³ Several creditors have argued that the Plan is not in their best interests because they would, individually, receive better recoveries under non-bankruptcy laws. (See Samodovitz Obj.; Docket Entry No. 18551 (Ahorro Objection); Docket Entry No. 18585 (AMPR Objection); Docket Entry No. 18566 (Finca Matilde Objection); Hein Obj.). These creditors do not appropriately apply the “best interest” standard under PROMESA. Under the PROMESA standard, as explained above, the Court does not assess each individual creditor’s recovery. Furthermore, these objectors have provided no alternative best interest analysis or evidence to suggest that the Plan as a whole is not in the best interests of creditors in the aggregate. Many of these objectors

218. These results are unsurprising. Absent a mechanism to restructure the Debtors’ outstanding debt and pension liabilities, the Commonwealth would face great uncertainty, financial and political instability, and significant lawsuits. In such an environment, the Government would face significant challenges to enact legislation and enforce cooperation among agencies to institute structural reforms. Without the benefit of the uptick in growth from such reforms, overall economic growth and tax revenue would be lower, reducing the amounts available to pay all creditors. (Id. ¶ 12.) Outside of Title III and without a confirmed plan of adjustment, creditors would race to the courthouse to recover on their claims. “Clearly, such a result is chaos. . . .” 6 Collier on Bankruptcy § 943.03 (16th ed. 2021).

219. Accordingly, the Court finds that the Plan is in the best interests of creditors within the meaning of Section 314(b)(6) of PROMESA.

G. PROMESA § 314(b)(7): Fiscal Plan Consistency.

220. Section 314(b)(7) of PROMESA requires that the Plan merely be consistent with, not identical to, the applicable certified fiscal plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 103; Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶ 62.) The Plan is consistent in all respects with the Fiscal Plan—nothing contained also assume in their analysis of their recovery under non-bankruptcy laws that they would prevail in litigation of hotly contested issues that will be settled by the Plan. Thus, such objections are overruled.

in the Plan would violate or otherwise interfere with the Fiscal Plan. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 103; see Debtors Ex. 10.)

221. The Fiscal Plan provides a blueprint for the Commonwealth to achieve, among other things, fiscal responsibility and access to capital markets, and contains a debt sustainability analysis (“DSA”), which creates a range established by the Oversight Board as the amount of debt and long-term capacity of the Government to pay debt service on its debt. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 57; Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 55-56; Debtors Ex. 10.) The aggregate principal and total debt service of the New GO Bonds falls within the bounds of the debt range implied by the DSA. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 57; Malhotra Decl. ¶¶ 58-59, 61.) The cash payments due on the Effective Date do not count as debt for purposes of the DSA because the cash payments do not create a debt obligation after the Effective Date. (Malhotra Decl. ¶ 60.) Any cash payments under the CVIs do not count as debt for purposes of the DSA because the CVIs are only payable out of outperformance. (Id.) The CVI payments are contingent in nature and are, by definition, paid from excess cash available relative to baseline Fiscal Plan projections. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 58; Malhotra Decl. ¶ 60.) The debt levels under the Plan are consistent with the debt levels set forth in the Fiscal Plan, and the debt proposed to be issued pursuant to the Plan is consistent with the DSA. (Skeel Decl. ¶ 52; Murray Decl. Ex. A ¶¶ 72, 78; Malhotra Decl. ¶ 61.)

222. The Plan is also consistent with the Fiscal Plan because it includes the freeze of accruing pension benefits and elimination of all COLAs under Act 91-2004, amended by 160-2013 for TRS, and under Act 12-1954, amended by 162-2013, for JRS. (See Plan §§ 55.8, 55.9, Exs. E, F.) The Fiscal Plan requires the pension freeze and the elimination of COLAs, and the failure to include the pension freeze and elimination of future COLAs in the Plan would cause it to be materially inconsistent with the Fiscal Plan due to the significant additional spending and unpredictable costs that would result from the exclusion of the pension freeze and COLA elimination provisions. (Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 13; see Debtors Ex. 10.) Moreover, the costs of removing the pension freeze and elimination of COLAs would increase over time and grow larger during periods in which deficits are projected by the Fiscal Plan. (Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 8, 13; Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 17.)

223. If Act 53 were interpreted to require the removal of the freeze and COLA elimination, and the Plan were modified to implement such changes, the Plan would not be consistent with the Fiscal Plan. (Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 13.) The Court's conclusion that the Plan is consistent with the Fiscal Plan is dependent on, among other things, the Plan's inclusion of the pension freeze and elimination of COLAs.

224. The Plan remains consistent with the Fiscal Plan notwithstanding the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification. The Fiscal Plan contemplates the possibility that pensioners would be restored to the full amount of their accrued pension benefits under certain circumstances. (Debtors Ex. 10 at 279.) Unlike the costs of removing the pension freeze and elimination of COLAs, the majority of the costs associated with removal of the Monthly Benefit Modification will be incurred during periods of budget surplus. (Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 12; Santambrogio Sup. Decl. ¶ 10; Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶ 9; Debtors Ex. 10 at 59.)

225. The Fiscal Plan explicitly provides for the establishment of the Pension Reserve Trust to ensure that the future pension benefits contemplated by the Plan will be supported regardless of the future economic or political circumstances of the Commonwealth. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 103.) To ensure adequate funding to cover the increased costs resulting from the elimination of the Monthly Benefit Modification, additional funds will be set aside in the Pension Reserve Trust during years in which the Fiscal Plan projects a surplus. (Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶ 9.) An increase to the funding amounts for the Pension Reserve Trust using a surplus-based funding mechanism does not render the Plan inconsistent with the Fiscal Plan because such increased funding levels come out of projected surpluses and do not impose additional obligations on the Commonwealth that would interfere with carrying out the Fiscal Plan. (See Jaresko Decl. ¶ 103; Jaresko Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 9-12.)

226. In addition, the Plan modifies the Seventh Amended Plan to provide that the Upside Participation Bonus pursuant to the AFSCME Plan Support Agreement (Debtors Ex. 21) will be a minimum of $2,000 for each AFSCME-represented employee during the five-year term of the new AFSCME collective bargaining agreement. (See Plan App'x II.) The additional cost of this modification is only an incremental cost of approximately $18.3 million per year for the five years beginning in fiscal year 2022 as compared to the lower Upside Participation Bonus contemplated in the Seventh Amended Plan. (Santambrogio Sup. Decl. ¶ 11.)

227. Accordingly, the Plan complies with PROMESA section 314(b)(7). The Court's determination sustaining objections that allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims are protected by the Fifth Amendment's Takings Clause and, accordingly, may not be impaired by the Plan, does not vitiate the Plan's compliance with PROMESA section 314(b)(7) because there are sufficient uncommitted funds to satisfy Takings Clause Claim obligations without requiring modification of the certified fiscal plan. (See supra ¶ 204 n.47.)

H. Bankruptcy Rule 3019: The Plan Does Not Adversely Change the Treatment of Claims of Creditors.

228. The Oversight Board filed the Eighth Amended Plan after the Voting Deadline had passed. The Eighth Amended Plan eliminated the Monthly Benefit Modification that was contained in the Seventh Amended Plan and makes minor revisions to address concerns raised by certain parties. None of the modifications adversely changes the treatment of the Claims of any Creditor that accepted the Seventh Amended Plan. To the contrary, the Plan was amended to enhance the treatment of the pension Claims in Classes 51A through 51I, 51K, and 51L through the removal of the Monthly Benefit Modification (see Malhotra Sup. Decl. ¶¶ 8-9). Treatment of Claims in other Classes is not affected in any way by this change.

229. In addition, following the passage of the Voting Deadline, the Oversight Board filed the First Modified Eighth Amended Plan, which separately classified the GDB/PET Claim in Class 58A. (See First Modified Eighth Amended Plan art. LXII.) The GDB/PET Claim was previously classified as a CW General Unsecured Claim in Class 58. Pursuant to section 62.4 of the Plan, the holder of the GDB/PET Claim will receive “payments from the Commonwealth equal to, and on the same timeframe, as the pro rata payments to be made to holders of Allowed CW General Unsecured Claims pursuant to the terms and provisions [governing treatment of CW General Unsecured Claims],” (Plan § 62.4), but Debtors represent that the GDB/PET Claim is not intended, nor shall it be construed, as a CW General Unsecured Claim pursuant to the Plan. The GDB/PET Claim is treated in the same manner as it would have been treated pursuant to the Seventh Amended Plan. (See id.) Accordingly, this modification does not adversely change the treatment of the Claims of any Creditor that accepted the Seventh Amended Plan.

230. The Oversight Board subsequently filed the Plan, which contains additional technical changes from intermediate amended versions that do not adversely affect the treatment of any Claims, as well as modifications to comply with this Court's determination regarding the proper treatment of Allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims and the proper scope of the preemption provision.

231. The modifications do not materially or adversely modify the treatment to be afforded to creditors pursuant to the Plan and do not require the resolicitation of acceptances or rejections thereof. Accordingly, the Plan can be confirmed without the filing of a new disclosure statement and resolicitation with respect to the Plan. See Bankr. R. 3019.

I. Nullification of Laws Conditioning Debt Authorization on Elimination of Freeze of Accruing Pension Benefits and Cost of Living Adjustments.

232. The Debtors represent that all parties in interest, including, without limitation, the Governor and the Legislature, know that the Plan's consistency with the Fiscal Plan, feasibility, and implementation are each dependent on the freezes in the accruals of future pension benefits under TRS and JRS and elimination of cost of living adjustments. (See supra n.23.) All objections that suggest that Act 53 or any other law causes the new debt issued under the Plan to be unauthorized by Act 53 due to the freezes in the accruals of future pension benefits under TRS and JRS and elimination of cost of living adjustments have been overruled as set forth in the Confirmation Order. To the extent any law is interpreted to mean such freezes and eliminations cause the new debt issuable under the Plan to be unauthorized, Act 53 and such other laws, if any, may not be enforced pursuant to section 108 of PROMESA to the limited extent of eliminating such impact on the debt's authorization. The Debtors have proven to the Court's satisfaction that the unambiguous language of Act 53 does not provide that such freezes and eliminations cause the new debt issuable under the Plan to be unauthorized. Notice of the request for such determination was adequately provided to all former and present governmental employees. (See Docket Entry No. 19182.)

The Releases, Exculpations, and Injunctions Pursuant to the Plan

233. The Plan includes certain discharge, release, exculpation, and injunction provisions, which are essential to the Debtors' restructuring, and without which a consensual restructuring could not be successfully accomplished. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 217; Zelin Decl. ¶ 95.)

234. A critical element of the Plan is the complete resolution of the Commonwealth Title III Case, the ERS Title III Case, and the PBA Title III Case. To achieve this, the Debtors and certain claimholders agreed to a mutual release of all Claims and Causes of Action arising, in whole or in part, prior to the Effective Date. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 218.) The Debtors' releases incentivized claimholders to support, and undertake actions to support, the Plan and its confirmation, without fear of lawsuits in the future. Certain creditors would not have supported the Plan absent its release provisions. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 219; Zelin Decl. ¶ 100.) Further, the releases of claims by the Debtors affect only those parties that made a significant contribution to the negotiation and development of the Plan and incurred cost and expense during their essential participation in negotiations. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 221; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 102, 106.) The Plan's discharges and releases likewise provide the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors with assurance that the restructuring balance struck by the Plan will not be upset by further claims against the Reorganized Debtors after the Effective Date. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 220; Zelin Decl. ¶ 106.)

A. Releases

235. The Plan's release provisions include, among other provisions, subject to certain exclusions as set forth in the Plan: (i) a release by the GO/PBA PSA Creditors (solely in their capacity as Creditors of the Debtors), which includes the Monolines, against certain government parties, including the Oversight Board, AAFAF, and the Debtors, of certain Claims and Causes of Action arising prior to the Plan Effective Date, including the Revenue Bond Claims litigation and the Lift Stay Motions, and (ii) a release by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors of Claims and Causes of Action related to the Debtors and their assets in the Title III Cases. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 96.)

236. The Plan's release of Claims or Causes of Action by the GO/PBA PSA Creditors against the Oversight Board, its committees and subcommittees, AAFAF, and the Debtors, of certain Claims and Causes of Action, including those related to the Revenue Bond Claims Litigation and Lift Stay Motions, is a key component of the Plan. (Id. ¶ 97.) Litigation over such Claims and Causes of Action was hard-fought and remained active as between the Commonwealth, on the one hand, and the Monolines (who would ultimately become GO/PBA PSA Creditors) on the other. (Id.) By agreeing to settle these disputes, the GO/PBA PSA Creditors provided a clear benefit to the Debtors by eliminating the need to incur additional costs for, and mitigating the substantial risk associated with, further litigation. (Id.) To create global peace upon the effectiveness of the Plan, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors agreed to release Claims and Causes of Action against, among other entities, the Government Parties, official committees, and PSA Creditors. (Id. ¶ 99.) The Plan's release provisions were essential to get the key stakeholders to engage in negotiations over a potential consensual release of claims against the Commonwealth. (Id. ¶ 100.)

237. The parties receiving releases all made significant contributions to the negotiation and development of the Plan and incurred costs and expenses during the course of their essential participation in the negotiations. (Id. ¶ 102.) The releases were a product of robust, mediator-supervised negotiations and the stakeholders had an opportunity to be heard as to the scope and content of the releases. (Id. ¶ 105.) To incentivize the PSA Creditors to grant the concessions outlined above, and in consideration of the substantial benefits provided by the Released Parties, the Debtors agreed that the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors would prosecute and pursue the releases, exculpation, and injunction provisions set forth in the Plan. The Oversight Board has determined that the releases are fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Debtors. (Id. ¶ 103.)

238. The Plan does not provide for non-consensual third-party releases; the Plan's releases are limited to those necessary to effectuate the Debtors' successful restructuring. Except as explicitly agreed to by the creditors in their respective plan support agreements, the Plan does not release any claims of a creditor of the Debtors, in its capacity as such, against a party that is not a Debtor. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 223; Zelin Decl. ¶ 107.) Specifically, section 92.2(a) of the Plan provides that "without prejudice to the exculpation rights set forth in Section 92.7 [of the Plan], nothing contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order is intended, nor shall it be construed, to be a grant of a non-consensual third-party release of the PSA Creditors, AFSCME, and of their respective Related Persons by Creditors of the Debtors." (Plan § 92.2(a).) Further, sections 92.2(d), (e), and (f) of the Plan carve out from the Released Claims certain claims, causes of action, or other rights or powers that are held by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the United States, and parties to certain Underwriter Actions. Likewise, as confirmed by the definitions of Related Persons (see id. § 1.420) and Released Claims (see id. § 1.421), claims against AFICA, CCDA, COFINA, COSSEC, HTA, MBA, MFA, PFC, PRASA, PRIDCO, PRIFA, UPR, and PREPA, which are or may be subject to their own restructuring proceedings, are not released pursuant to the Plan and such entities are not “Related Persons” of the Released Parties or Releasing Parties. Further, Avoidance Actions generally are not released under the Plan. (See id. § 1.421.) These carve-outs ensure that only those releases that are reasonable and necessary to Plan confirmation are being provided. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 224; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 108-09.)

239. For these reasons, the Court finds that the releases contemplated by the Plan are reasonable, necessary, and appropriate to implementation of the Plan and, therefore, the consensual releases are hereby approved.

B. Exculpation

240. Section 92.7 of the Plan provides for exculpation of the Government Parties, PSA Creditors, Retiree Committee, Creditors’ Committee, AFSCME, and the Monolines for, among other things, any acts taken consistent with the Plan or in connection with the formulation, preparation, dissemination, implementation, acceptance, confirmation or approval of the Plan and the settlements contained therein (including, but not limited to, the Plan Support Agreements). (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 225; Zelin Decl. ¶ 110.) The expectation that parties would be exculpated incentivized them to participate in the negotiations and support confirmation of the Plan without fear of future lawsuits. Without the Plan's exculpation provisions, parties would likely be exposed to litigation after extensive good-faith negotiations. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 111.) The Plan's exculpation provisions are narrowly tailored to the exculpated parties' efforts related to the formulation of the Plan. All of the parties being exculpated in the Plan played key roles in the negotiation of the Plan and the settlements that enabled the Plan, including through their participation in mediation. The Plan's exculpation provisions do not alter the liability of any entity that is determined to have acted or failed to act in a manner that constitutes intentional fraud or willful misconduct. (Jaresko Decl. ¶ 226; Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 110, 112.) In addition, decretal paragraph 61(g) of the Confirmation Order provides for exculpation of the DRA Parties, which is substantially the same as the exculpation provided pursuant to the Plan and is appropriate in light of the Stipulation in Connection with DRA Related Disputes, dated as of November 5, 2021, by and among the Oversight Board, as representative of the Debtors and HTA, and the DRA Parties. (See Confirmation Ord. ¶ 61(g); Debtors Ex. 146.) Exculpation provisions are appropriate for parties' acts or omissions in connection with or related to the "pursuit of confirmation of a plan." See In re Montreal Me. & Atl. Ry. Ltd., Bk. No. 13-10670, 2015 WL 7431192, at *9 (Bankr. D. Me. Oct. 9, 2015) (approving exculpation provisions "as appropriate under applicable law because it is part of a Plan proposed in good faith, was vital to the Plan formulation process and is appropriately limited in scope . . . , including its carve-out for gross negligence and willful misconduct”).⁵⁴

C. Injunction

241. The Plan’s injunction provisions (sections 92.3, 92.6, and 92.11) are necessary to the reorganization and are fair to those parties involved. The injunctions ensure that the releases and exculpations discussed above are preserved and enforced by prohibiting legal action concerning the Released Claims, avoiding the time, burden and expense that could be incurred if parties were permitted to pursue Released Claims. The Plan’s injunction provisions are narrowly tailored to serve that purpose. (Zelin Decl. ¶ 113; Jar-esko Decl. ¶ 227.)

242. The releases, exculpation provisions, and injunctions pursuant to the Plan are integral and critical parts of the Plan and the compromises and settlements implemented pursuant to the Plan. (Plan §§ 2.3, 92.4.) The approval of such releases is a condition to the occurrence of the Effective Date, and all Released

⁵⁴ Mr. Hein contends that the exculpation provision should not extend to acts or omissions by the PSA Creditors in connection with their role in negotiating plan support agreements. Exculpation provisions are, however, appropriate when narrowly tailored to the acts or omissions of a party in the pursuit of confirmation of a Plan. See In re Montreal Me. & Atl. Ry., Ltd., 2015 WL 7431192, at *9. Mr. Hein does not allege any facts suggesting willful misconduct or gross negligence of a PSA Creditor. Thus, the exculpation provision as crafted is appropriate and Mr. Hein’s objection thereto is overruled.

Parties have relied on the efficacy and conclusive effects of such releases and injunctions and on the Title III Court's retention of jurisdiction to enforce such releases and injunctions when making concessions pursuant to the Plan and by agreeing to, accepting, and supporting the settlement and treatment of their respective Claims, Causes of Action, and other rights pursuant to the Plan. (Zelin Decl. ¶¶ 96, 98, 100-04, 106, 110-12; Plan § 86.1.) Accordingly, such provisions are justified and warranted based upon the circumstances of the Title III Cases and the consideration being provided by all Released Parties in connection with the Plan.

243. To maintain and protect the integrity and feasibility of the Plan, while the Oversight Board is in existence, any and all governmental units and any officer or employee thereof shall neither recreate by statute, regulation, rule, policy, or executive order nor repay by any means, any debt discharged by the Plan without the Oversight Board's express prior written consent or except as may otherwise be provided by a certified fiscal plan or budget. Without limitation, the debt referred to herein includes any and all pension obligations frozen and cost of living adjustments in amount such that they shall not increase from their levels in existence on the Effective Date of the Plan.

Validity of Bonds and CVIs

244. Pursuant to section 4 of PROMESA, as well as sections 944⁵⁵ and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, and in accordance with the Confirmation Order and the Plan, the Court determines that the New GO Bonds and CVIs, and the covenants by the Commonwealth for the benefit of the holders of the New GO Bonds and CIVs, are legal, valid, binding, and enforceable obligations of the Reorganized Debtors benefitting from the following protections, each of which is legal, valid, binding, and enforceable against the Reorganized Debtors, the Commonwealth, and other persons and ⁵⁵ Section 944(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Court, as a condition to providing a discharge, to determine the validity of obligations imposed under a plan of the debtor and of any provision made to pay or secure payment of such obligations. ¶ U.S.C. § 944(b)(3). See generally In re City of Stockton, Cal., 526 B.R. 35, 49-50 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2015) (“The structure of the federal-state relationship . . . regarding restructuring of municipal debt is dictated by the U.S. Constitution. . . . [T]he Supremacy Clause operates to cause federal bankruptcy law to trump state laws, including state constitutional provisions, that are inconsistent with the exercise by Congress of its exclusive power to enact uniform bankruptcy laws” (citing Ass’n of Retired Emps. of the City of Stockton v. City of Stockton, Cal. (In re City of Stockton, Cal.), 478 B.R. 8, 14-16 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2012); U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2; Int’l Bhd. of Elec. Workers, Local 2376 v. City of Vallejo, Cal. (In re City of Vallejo, Cal.), 432 B.R. 262, 268-70 (E.D. Cal. 2010) (additional citations omitted)). As set forth in the leading bankruptcy treatise, “[t]he requirement of a court determination of validity is extra assurance for those who might be skittish about the nature of the bonds being issued. . . . It has the added feature of removing any doubt concerning the matter, because the determination of the court on that issue should be binding in the future.” 6 Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer, Collier on Bankruptcy § 944.03[1][b] (16th ed. 2013).

THE JUDGMENT AND CONFIRMA-

GDB Loan Priority Determination

245. The Plan provides for the issuance of the HTA Clawback CVI as consideration for the settlement of CW/HTA Claims under the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement. The CVI Indenture provides for four separate Sub-Subseries of such HTA Clawback CVI to be issued, and for payments on such Sub-Subseries of the HTA Clawback CVI to be made first, on account of CW/HTA Claims related to the HTA 68 Bonds; second, on account of CW/HTA Claims related to the HTA 98 Senior Bonds; third, on account of CW/HTA Claims related to the HTA 98 Sub Bonds; and fourth, subject to the GDB Loan Priority Determination, on account of either CW/HTA Claims related to the GDB HTA Loans or CW/HTA Claims related to the HTA Bonds. (CVI Indenture §§ 2.01(c)(i), 5.07(c); see also Plan at J-12, §§ 1.172, 63.2, Ex. J at Annex 6.)

246. Certain disbursements under the “CVI Payment Reserve” are dependent on the “GDB Loan Priority Determination,” (Plan § 1.172), which is defined as “[t]he determination, in either the Commonwealth Title III Case or the HTA Title III Case, (a) with respect to the relative rights of recovery and priority of payment of the [19]68 Bonds and the [19]98 Bonds to the rights of GDB with respect to the GDB HTA Loans, and/or (b) that the [DRA] does not possess an allowable claim or entitlement to recover with respect to the HTA Clawback CVI based upon such GDB HTA Loans.” (Plan § 1.259.)

247. On June 26, 2021, the DRA Parties filed a complaint initiating an adversary proceeding against the Defendants,⁵⁶ with the stated purpose of “provid[ing] a means to resolve the priority question with respect to the payments made by the Commonwealth on account of the clawback claims, and any payments that may be made on account of the Loan Claims and the HTA Bonds under a future plan for ⁵⁶ “Defendants” means Ambac Assurance Corporation, Assured Guaranty Corp., Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp., Financial Guaranty Insurance Company, National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation, Peaje Investments LLC, and The Bank of New York Mellon.

HTA.” (Docket Entry No. 1 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00068-LTS ¶ 101.)

248. The complaint sought declaratory relief on four counts: (i) Count 1, “that the DRA is the only party with (i) a valid, perfected, first-priority lien on the Act 30-31 Revenues and (ii) a right to collect from the Act 30-31 Revenues;” (ii) Count 2, “that the HTA Bondholders have limited collateral to secure the bonds, that the HTA Bonds are limited recourse obligations, and neither the collateral pledged to secure the bonds, nor the bond revenues to which the bondholders have recourse, includes the Act 30-31 Revenues;” (iii) Count 3, “that the DRA’s Loans are not subordinate to the bonds;” and (iv) Count 4, “that the DRA’s Loans are entitled to collect on the loan claims from the bond revenues not deposited in the bond revenue accounts.” (Docket Entry No. 1 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00068-LTS.)

249. On August 26, 2021, the Defendants moved to dismiss all four counts (Docket Entry No. 44 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00068-LTS ¶¶ 2-6) (the “Motion to Dismiss”). On September 23, 2021, the DRA Parties filed an opposition to the Motion to Dismiss and on October 8, 2021, Defendants filed their reply in support of the Motion to Dismiss, which concluded briefing on the motion.⁵⁷

⁵⁷ The Oversight Board and AAFAF were granted full intervention rights in Counts 1, 2, and 4 of Adversary Proceeding No. 21-00068-LTS and moved to dismiss those counts, but their motion was denied as moot in light of the order granting the Defendants’ Motion to Dismiss.

250. On October 29, 2021, the Court entered an opinion and order dismissing all four counts of the DRA Parties' complaint under Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for failure to state a claim upon which relief could be granted (Docket Entry No. 83 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00068-LTS at 27) (the "GDB Loan Priority Determination Opinion").

251. As to Count 1, the Court held that the plain language of Acts 30 and 31⁵⁸ and the Assignment and Security Agreement⁵⁹ make clear that the HTA Bonds are payable from Act 30-31 Revenues.⁶⁰ (GDB Loan Priority Determination Op. at 18-20.)

252. As to Count 3, the Court held that HTA Bondholders had standing to enforce the subordination provisions of the Assignment and Security Agreement and Loan Agreements⁶¹ under 3 L.P.R.A. § 2013(a)(3). The Court further held that the Assignment and Security Agreement unambiguously subordinates the GDB HTA Loans to the HTA Bonds (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the HTA 68 Bonds and the HTA 98 Bonds), a conclusion that was ⁵⁸ "Acts 30 and 31" means Commonwealth Act 30-2013 and Act 31-2013, both approved on June 25, 2013.

⁵⁹ "Assignment and Security Agreement" means the agreement between HTA and GDB executed on August 28, 2013.

⁶⁰ "Act 30-31 Revenues" means certain crude oil taxes, motor vehicle license fees, and other excise taxes levied pursuant to Acts 30 and 31.

reinforced by the GDB HTA Loan Agreement attached to the Complaint. (GDB Loan Priority Determination Op. at 21-23.)

253. The Court dismissed Counts 2 and 4 because they “logically depend[ed]” on the Court granting Counts 1 and 3, because the Assignment and Security Agreement “unambiguously compels the conclusion that, before any funds are paid toward the Loans, Bond payment obligations must first be satisfied.” (GDB Loan Priority Determination Op. at 25.)

254. In the GDB Loan Priority Determination Opinion, the Court directed the Clerk of Court to enter judgment consistent therewith, and a final judgment dismissing Counts 1, 2, 3, and 4 was entered thereafter. (GDB Loan Priority Determination Op. at 27; Docket Entry No. 86 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00068-LTS.)

255. The Court’s rulings in the GDB Loan Priority Determination Opinion are incorporated by reference herein.

256. The Court’s ruling that the GDB HTA Loans and any liens securing such GDB HTA Loans are subordinated to the HTA Bonds qualifies as the “GDB Loan Priority Determination” for purposes of the Plan.⁶²

⁶² Pursuant to section 1.172 of the Plan, Cash payable from the HTA Clawback CVI in the CVI Payment Reserve will be distributed upon entry of a Final Order with respect to the GDB Loan Priority Determination.

Miscellaneous Provisions

257. Plan Supplement. All materials contained in the Plan Supplement comply with the terms of the Plan, and the filing, notice, and service of such documents were done in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules, and no other or further notice is or shall be required. (See Service Affidavits; Plan Sup.)

258. Satisfaction of Confirmation Requirements. Based on the foregoing, the Plan satisfies the requirements for confirmation set forth in section 314 of PROMESA.

259. Oversight Board Certification. For purposes of section 209 of PROMESA, the discharge of debt to occur as of the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order is necessary for the Oversight Board to certify that expenditures do not exceed revenues for the Commonwealth, as determined in accordance with modified accrual accounting standards.

260. Implementation. All documents necessary to implement the Plan, including those contained in the Plan Supplement and all other relevant and necessary documents, have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and shall, upon completion of documentation and execution, be valid, binding, and enforceable agreements and not be in conflict with any federal or state law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Debtors, prior to the Effective Date, and Reorganized Debtors, from and after the Effective Date, are authorized to consummate the transactions contemplated in the Plan and Plan Supplement. The execution, delivery, or performance by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, of any documents in connection with the Plan Supplement, and compliance by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, with the terms thereof, is hereby authorized by, and will not conflict with, the terms of the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

261. Good Faith. The Debtors will be acting in good faith if they proceed to (i) consummate the Plan and the agreements, settlements, transactions, and transfers contemplated thereby and (ii) take the actions authorized and directed by the Confirmation Order.

262. Retention of Jurisdiction. This Court may properly and, upon the Effective Date shall, subject to the terms and provisions of article XCI of the Plan, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan or Confirmation Order, pursuant to sections 105, 945(a), and 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the time necessary for the successful implementation of the Plan, retain exclusive jurisdiction to the extent it has exclusive subject matter jurisdiction, and concurrent jurisdiction to the extent it has concurrent subject matter jurisdiction, over all matters arising under PROMESA, arising out of, and related to, the Title III Cases to the fullest extent legally permissible, including, but not limited to, subject matter jurisdiction over the matters set forth in article XCI of the Plan.

263. Without limiting the generality of any of the foregoing, the Court shall retain jurisdiction to (i) enter appropriate orders with respect to the payment, enforcement, and remedies of the bonds and any other instruments issued pursuant to the plan, (ii) enter and implement such orders as may be necessary or appropriate to execute, implement, or consummate the provisions of the Plan, (iii) adjudicate any and all controversies, suits, or issues that may arise regarding the validity of any action taken by any entity pursuant to or in furtherance of the Plan or the Confirmation Order including, without limitation, issuance of bonds, and (iv) to enforce prohibitions against any subsequent collateral attack on provisions contained in the Plan and the Confirmation Order.

264. Governing Law. Except to the extent that other federal law is applicable, or to the extent that an exhibit to the Plan or any document entered into in connection with the Plan or Plan Supplement provides otherwise, the rights, duties, and obligations arising pursuant to the Plan shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, PROMESA (including the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code made applicable pursuant to section 301 of PROMESA), and to the extent not inconsistent therewith, the laws of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico giving effect to principles of conflicts of laws.

265. Enforceability. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1123(a), 1123(b), and 944(a) as well as general principles of federal supremacy, the provisions of this Memorandum, the Confirmation Order, and the Plan shall apply and be enforceable notwithstanding any otherwise applicable nonbankruptcy law. The documents contained in the Plan Supplement (as such documents may be further modified and filed with the Court prior to the Effective Date) provide adequate means for implementation of the Plan pursuant to section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as of the occurrence of the Effective Date, shall constitute valid legal obligations of the Debtors and valid provisions to pay or secure payment of the bonds pursuant to section 944(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall be enforceable in accordance with their terms.

266. No Precedential Effect. The findings of fact and conclusions of law herein concerning the separate classification of certain Claims from Class 58 CW General Unsecured Claims, including the governmental or business reasons for such classifications, are made with respect to the Title III cases of the Commonwealth, ERS, and PBA, and shall not have any precedential effect for other Title III cases.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the Debtors' motion to confirm the Plan is granted and a Confirmation Order will be entered contemporaneously herewith.

SO ORDERED.

All withdrawn objections are deemed withdrawn with prejudice.

3. Findings/Conclusions. The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth in the Court's Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are incorporated herein as though set forth in full. Notwithstanding such incorporation, the following summarizes certain of the Court's determinations:

- (A) Pursuant to PROMESA, on May 3, 2017, May 21, 2017, and September 27, 2019, the Commonwealth, ERS, and PBA, respectively, each commenced a case before the Court in accordance with the requirements of Title III of PROMESA. The commencement of these cases vested the Court with [6] exclusive jurisdiction over the cases and all respective property of the Commonwealth, ERS, and PBA, wherever located. As a result of the consensual agreement among the Debtors and their respective creditor representatives, the Debtors formulated, duly solicited, and now seek confirmation of a plan of adjustment in accordance with federal law.
- (B) This Confirmation Order is a final order intended to be binding on all parties in interest, and shall not be subject to collateral attack or other challenge in any other court or other forum, except as permitted under applicable law. Confirmation of the Plan constitutes a judicial determination, pursuant to section 4 of PROMESA, that all laws, rules, and regulations giving rise to obligations of the Debtors discharged by the Plan and this Confirmation Order pursuant to PROMESA are preempted by PROMESA and such discharge shall prevail over any general or specific provisions of territory laws, rules, and regulations. Pursuant to section 4 of PROMESA, to the extent not previously ruled preempted pursuant to an order of the Title III Court, all laws (or such portions thereof) of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, other than budgets certified by the Oversight Board, inconsistent with PROMESA, have been preempted to the extent set forth in Exhibit A to the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Such preempted laws include, without limitation, laws enacted prior to June 30, 2016, that provide for transfers or other appropriations after the enactment of PROMESA, including transfers from the Commonwealth or one of its instrumentalities to any agency or instrumentality, whether to enable such agency or instrumentality to pay or satisfy indebtedness or for any other purpose, to the extent inconsistent with the Plan's discharge of the Debtors' obligations. Such laws shall not be enforceable to the extent they are inconsistent with the Plan's discharge of the Debtors' obligations. All laws enacted from and after the commencement of the Title III Cases to the extent they are inconsistent with the transactions contemplated by the Plan are also unenforceable. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, (a) the Commonwealth laws preempted by PROMESA include, without limitation, those listed on Exhibit C hereto for the reasons, and to the extent, set forth in Exhibit A to the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and (b) all litigation in which any Government Party is a defendant, over whether any Commonwealth law listed on Exhibit C hereto is preempted by PROMESA shall be dismissed, with prejudice, as of the Effective Date and the parties thereto shall provide the Oversight Board prompt notice of such dismissal. For the avoidance of doubt, the non-inclusion of a payment obligation arising from a valid law in a certified fiscal plan or budget is not a basis for disallowance of such obligation to the extent the claim arising therefrom otherwise satisfies the requirements for allowance of a claim under the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

- (C) The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms hereof and of the Plan, the New GO Bonds, the GO CVIs, and the Clawback CVIs in accordance with their terms to ensure compliance with the Plan and to adjudicate claims arising therefrom, including rights to specific performance.

- [7] (D) At the time of issuance and delivery of the New GO Bonds, the GO CVIs, and the Clawback CVIs, the Reorganized Commonwealth is hereby directed to cause to be stamped or written on each of the New GO Bonds, the GO CVIs, the Clawback CVIs, and the Rum Tax CVI a legend substantially as follows:

DETERMINED BY THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C.
§§ 944(b) AND 1123 TO BE VALID, LE-GALLY BINDING, AND ENFORCEABLE

PURSUANT TO THE JUDGMENT AND CONFIRMATION ORDER, ENTERED ON THE 18TH DAY OF JANUARY, 2022.

- (E) The New GO Bonds Legislation and the CVI Legislation are incorporated into Act No. 53-2021, which has been validly enacted by the Commonwealth and is valid and effective in accordance with its terms.
- (F) Pursuant to PROMESA, including section 4 thereof, as well as sections 944⁶ and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, and in accordance with the Confirmation Order and the Plan, the ⁶ Section 944(b)(3) requires the Court, as a condition to providing a discharge, to determine the validity of obligations imposed under a plan of the debtor and of any provision made to pay or secure payment of such obligations. 11 U.S.C. § 944(b)(3). See generally In re City of Stockton, Cal., 526 B.R. 35, 49-50 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2015) (“The structure of the federal-state relationship . . . regarding restructuring of municipal debt is dictated by the U.S. Constitution. . . . [T]he Supremacy Clause operates to cause federal bankruptcy law to trump state laws, including state constitutional provisions, that are inconsistent with the exercise by Congress of its exclusive power to enact uniform bankruptcy laws.”) (citing Ass’n of Retired Emps. of the City of Stockton v. City of Stockton, Cal. (In re City of Stockton, Cal.), 478 B.R. 8, 14-16 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2012); U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2; Int’l Bhd. of Elec. Workers, Local 2376 v. City of Vallejo, Cal. (In re City of Vallejo, Cal.), 432 B.R. 262, 268-70 (E.D. Cal. 2010)) (additional citations omitted). As set forth in the leading bankruptcy treatise, “[t]he requirement of a court determination of validity is extra assurance for those who might be skittish about the nature of the bonds being issued. . . . It has the added feature of removing any doubt concerning the matter, because the determination of the court on that issue should be binding in the future.” 6 Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer, Collier on Bankruptcy § 944.03[1][b] (16th ed. 2013).

Court determines that the New GO Bonds and the CVIs, and the covenants by the Commonwealth, for the benefit of the holders of the New GO Bonds, and the CVIs as provided in the New GO Bonds Legislation, the New GO Bonds Indenture, the CVI Legislation, the CVI Indenture or the Confirmation Order, as applicable, constitute valid, binding, legal and enforceable obligations of the Commonwealth, under Puerto Rico, New York, and federal law.

- [8] (G) The New GO Bonds and the CVIs are bonds or notes within the meaning of Section 2 of Article VI of the Commonwealth Constitution to which the Commonwealth may legally pledge its full faith, credit and taxing power under the Commonwealth Constitution and applicable Puerto Rico law for the payment of principal and interest.
- (H) Pursuant to the New GO Bonds Legislation and the CVI Legislation, the Commonwealth has validly pledged its full faith, credit and taxing power under the Commonwealth Constitution and applicable Puerto Rico law for the payment of principal and interest with respect to the New GO Bonds and payment with respect to the CVIs.
- (I) Subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and as of the date of issuance of the New GO Bonds and CVIs, the Commonwealth is in compliance with any applicable debt limits, including the Comprehensive Cap and any applicable debt limit (if any) contained in the Commonwealth Constitution.

- (J) Pursuant to the New GO Bonds Legislation and other applicable law, upon the issuance of the New GO Bonds, the New GO Bonds shall be secured by a first priority statutory lien (statutory lien being defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(53)) over the funds deposited in the Debt Service Fund, including any revenues generated therefrom, which statutory first lien shall occur automatically and shall automatically attach and be perfected, valid, and binding from and after the Effective Date, without any further act or agreement by any Person, and shall remain in full force and effect until the New GO Bonds have been paid or satisfied in full in accordance with their terms.
- (K) The statutory first lien on funds deposited into the Debt Service Fund, as provided for in the New GO Bonds Legislation, and all other provisions to pay the New GO Bonds are valid, binding, legal, and enforceable, including, without limitation, covenants not to impair such property, maintain available tax exemption and provide for the conditions regarding substitution of collateral (including, without limitation, the statutory lien thereon as adequate protection for the property rights in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order).
- (L) The statutory first lien on funds deposited into the Debt Service Fund, as provided for in the New GO Bonds Legislation, creates the valid pledge and the valid lien upon the right, title and interest of the Commonwealth in such funds in favor of the Trustee (for the benefit of the holders of the New GO Bonds) which it purports to create, subject only to the provisions of the New GO Bonds Indenture permitting the withdrawal, payment, setting apart or appropriation thereof for the purposes and on the terms and conditions set forth in the New GO Bonds Indenture and each applicable supplemental indenture.

- (M) The Commonwealth has waived, and shall be deemed to have waived, the automatic stay in any future insolvency proceeding commenced on behalf of [9] the Commonwealth (whether under Title III of PROMESA or otherwise) with respect to monies on deposit in the Debt Service Fund as of the commencement thereof.
- (N) In light of the enactment of the New GO Bonds Legislation and the CVI Legislation, upon execution by all parties thereto, the New GO Bonds Indenture and the CVI Indenture shall (i) have been duly and lawfully authorized by the Commonwealth, and (ii) be in full force and effect and valid and binding upon the Commonwealth and enforceable in accordance with their terms, except that enforceability of rights and remedies may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally or as to the availability of any particular remedy.
- (O) For purposes of section 209 of PROMESA, the discharge of debt to occur as of the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order is necessary for the Oversight Board to certify that expenditures do not exceed revenues for the Commonwealth, as determined in accordance with modified accrual accounting standards.

- (P) The Court's Opinion and Order Granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Complaint (Docket Entry No. 83 in Adv. Proc. No. 21-00068), including, without limitation, that the GDB HTA Loans are subject to subordination to the HTA 68 Bonds and the HTA 98 Bonds qualifies as the "GDB Loan Priority Determination" for purposes of the Plan.

4. Litigation Resolution. For the reasons stated herein and in the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the provisions of the Plan constitute a good faith, reasonable, fair, and equitable compromise and settlement of all Claims and controversies resolved pursuant to the Plan, including, without limitation, the compromise and settlement of asserted and unasserted disputes concerning the rights of holders of CW Bond Claims, CW Guarantee Bond Claims, ERS Bond Claims, PBA Bond Claims, CW/Convention Center Claims, CW/HTA Claims, CW/MBA Claims, CW/PRIFA Rum Tax Claims, and PRIFA BANs, and disputes (a) set forth in the Debt Related Objections challenging, among other things, the validity, priority, secured status, and related rights of the 2011 CW Bond Claims, the 2011 CW Series D/E/PIB Bond Claims, the 2012 CW Bond Claims, the 2014 CW Bond Claims, the 2014 CW Guarantee Bond Claims, the 2011 PBA Bond Claims, the 2012 PBA Bond Claims, and the PRIFA

BANs, (b) set forth in the [10] Invalidity Actions, (c) set forth in the Lien Challenge Actions, (d) raised by certain holders of CW Bond Claims, CW Guarantee Bond Claims, and GDB HTA Loans asserting rights to receive revenues historically conditionally appropriated to CCDA, HTA, the MBA, and PRIFA, as applicable, and subject to “clawback” by the Commonwealth pursuant to the provisions of the Commonwealth Constitution, (e) relating to the validity, priority, secured status, and related rights attendant to the GDB HTA Loans, (f) set forth in the ERS Litigation, the ERS Recovery Actions, and the ERS Takings Action, (g) between the Commonwealth and PBA, including, without limitation, the resolution of (i) the claims and Causes of Action currently being litigated in the PBA Litigation, (ii) the amount, if any, of the PBA Administrative Expense Claim, and (iii) the ownership of the PBA Property, between the Commonwealth and PBA and the claims that PBA may assert against the Commonwealth under leases, agreements, and applicable law, (h) set forth in the Lift Stay Motions and the Clawback Actions relating to the CW/Convention Center Claims, the CW/HTA Claims, and the CW/PRIFA Rum Tax Claims, and (i) set forth in the PRIFA BANs Litigation, each as incorporated into the Plan, and the entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes, if required, approval of all such compromises and settlements pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and sections 105(a) and 1123(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to this Confirmation Order, and to the extent provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date, such compromises and settlements shall be binding upon the Debtors, all

Creditors of the Debtors, and all other Entities and, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, shall not be subject to collateral attack or other challenge (other than appeals) in any other court or forum.

5. Plan Settlements Approved. The Court hereby approves the compromises and settlements embodied in the Plan as fair and reasonable and, as of the Effective Date of the Plan, authorizes and directs the consummation thereof.

[11] 6. Dismissal of Med Center Litigation. On the Effective Date, the Med Center Litigation, except the Med DC Action, shall be deemed dismissed, with prejudice, and each of the Commonwealth and the respective Med Centers shall take such action as is necessary to notify the applicable court of such dismissal, including, without limitation, within ten (10) Business Days of the Effective Date, filing notices with the clerk of such court setting forth the resolution of the Med Center Litigation and the dismissal thereof (except the Med DC Action), with prejudice; provided, however, that all appeals taken from the Med DC Action shall be dismissed, with prejudice, and each of the Commonwealth and the Med Centers party to such appeals shall take such action as is necessary to notify such appellate courts of appeal of such dismissal, with prejudice; and, provided, further, that the Commonwealth and the Med Centers shall file a notice with the clerk of the court in connection with the Med DC Action that (a) all actions in connection with the Med DC Action shall be stayed, and (b) in the event that, from and after July 1, 2022, the Commonwealth defaults on its obligations arising from or relating to the Medicaid Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1396a(bb), such stay shall be lifted and the Med Centers may pursue relief and the Commonwealth may present any and all defenses with respect to such alleged future defaults, with all existing defaults as of the date hereof having been waived by the Med Centers. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, from and after the earlier to occur of (y) July 1, 2022 and (z) the Effective Date (the “Med Center Outside Date”), and until otherwise ordered or agreed upon, the parties shall continue to adhere to and comply with the terms and provisions of that certain Stipulation Modifying the Automatic Stay Between the Commonwealth and Atlantic Medical Center, Inc., Camuy Health Services, Inc., Centro de Salud Familiar Dr. Julio Palmieri Ferri, Inc., Ciales Primary Health Care Services, Inc., Corp. De Serv. Medicos Primarios y Prevención de Hatillo, Inc., Costa Salud, Inc., Centro de Salud de Lares, Inc., [12] Centro de Servicios Primarios de Salud de Patillas, Inc., and Hospital General Castañer, Inc., dated July 12, 2019 (the “Med Center Stipulation”) (see Docket Entry Nos. 8499 and 12918-14), including, without limitation, the making of quarterly payments to certain Med Centers in accordance therewith. Payments made by the Commonwealth, either directly or indirectly through contractors or subcontractors, to any Med Center prior to modification of the Med Center Stipulation or such other agreement between the applicable Med Centers and the Commonwealth shall not be subject to setoff or recoupment on account of any claims or causes of action arising during the period up to and including the Effective Date;

provided, however, that, in the event that the Commonwealth or any Med Center determines that any payments made pursuant to the Med Center Stipulation from and after the Med Center Outside Date constitute an overpayment or an underpayment, as the case may be, based upon services provided by the Med Centers from and after the Med Center Outside Date, the Commonwealth or such Med Center shall submit such issue for a determination in connection with the Med DC Action, with all parties reserving all rights, defenses, and counterclaims with respect to such overpayments or underpayments, as the case may be, notwithstanding the imposition of any stay.

7. Dismissal of ERS Litigation. On the Effective Date, (a) the ERS Litigation and the ERS Recovery Actions shall be dismissed and/or denied, with prejudice, and (b) the Oversight Board, by itself or through its committees, the Creditors' Committee, and the ERS Bondholders (on their own account or on behalf of affiliates or related funds or accounts managed by affiliates) shall take any and all action reasonably necessary, including, without limitation, filing such notices, stipulations or other pleadings (i) in the Title III Court to effectuate such dismissal and/or denial of the ERS Litigation and the ERS Recovery Actions, [13] with prejudice, and (ii) in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit to effectuate the dismissal and/or denial of the ERS Takings Action, with prejudice.

8. Dismissal of GO/Clawback Litigation. On the Effective Date, (a) to the extent extant, the Debt

Related Objections, the Invalidity Actions, the Lien Challenge Actions, the Lift Stay Motions, the Claw-back Actions, and the Section 926 Motion shall be dismissed and/or denied, with prejudice, (b) the Oversight Board, by itself or through its committees, the Creditors' Committee, the Monolines and the PSA Creditors (on their own account or on behalf of affiliates or related funds or accounts managed by affiliates) shall take any and all action reasonably necessary, including, without limitation, filing such notices, stipulations or other pleadings in the Title III Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit and the courts of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, as applicable, to effectuate the dismissal of the aforementioned litigations and motions, with prejudice.

9. Dismissal of PRIFA BANs Litigation. On the Effective Date, (a) the PRIFA BANs Litigation and the PRIFA BANs Takings Litigation shall be dismissed and/or denied, with prejudice, and (b) the Oversight Board, by itself or through its committees, and the plaintiffs therein (on their own account or on behalf of affiliates or related funds or accounts managed by affiliates) shall take any and all action necessary, including, without limitation, filing such notices, stipulations or other pleadings (i) in the Title III Court to effectuate such dismissal and/or denial of the PRIFA BANs Litigation, with prejudice, and (ii) in the United States Court of Federal Claims to effectuate the dismissal and/or denial of the PRIFA BANs Takings Litigation, with prejudice.

10. Dismissal of the PBA Litigation. On the Effective Date, (a) the PBA Litigation shall be dismissed, with prejudice, and (b) the Oversight Board, by itself or through its [14] committees, and the plaintiffs therein (on their own account or on behalf of affiliates or related funds or accounts managed by affiliates) shall take any and all action necessary, including, without limitation, filing such notices, stipulations or other pleadings in the Title III Court to effectuate such dismissal and/or denial of the PBA Litigation, with prejudice.

11. Implementation of the Plan. On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and each of their respective authorized agents and representatives are authorized and directed to (a) execute, deliver, file, or record such documents, contracts, instruments, releases, and other agreements including, without limitation, those contained in the Plan Supplement, (b) make any and all distributions and transfers contemplated pursuant to, and as provided for in, the Plan and the Plan Supplement, (c) take such other actions as may be necessary to effectuate, implement, and further evidence the terms and conditions of the Plan, including, among other things, all such actions delineated in article LXXXIX of the Plan,⁷ and (d) direct or instruct The Depository Trust Company, or such other person or entity necessary to implement or effectuate the terms of (i) any custodial trust, escrow arrangement, or similar structure established pursuant to section 75.5(b) of the Plan and facilitated by Ambac (an “Ambac Trust”), (ii) the FGIC Trust, (iii) the Syncora Trust, (iv) any custodial trust, escrow arrangement, or similar structure established pursuant to section 75.1(b)(ii) of the Plan (an “Assured Trust”), and (v) the Avoidance Actions Trust (collectively, the “Trusts”), and (vi) the related Trust documentation. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, on the Effective Date, the appropriate officers or representatives of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, and members of the boards of directors of the same, as applicable, are authorized, [15] empowered, and directed to issue, execute, file, and deliver or record such documents, contracts, instruments, releases, and other agreements, including those contained in the Plan Supplement, contemplated by the Plan, and make, or cause to be made, any and all distributions and transfers contemplated pursuant to, and as provided for in, the Plan and the Plan Supplement, in the name of and on behalf of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, as applicable.

12. Enforceability of New Debt Instruments. Pursuant to each of Bankruptcy Code section 944(b)(3), the New GO Bonds Legislation, the CVI Legislation, and all debt instruments to be issued pursuant to the Plan will constitute, upon distribution thereof, valid legal obligations of the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor, as the case may be, that issues them, and any provision made to pay or secure payment of such obligation is valid.

13. Authorization of New GO Bonds and CVIs and Injunction. The debt authorization in Act 53-2021 is conditioned only on the Plan's cancellation of the Monthly Benefit Modification provided for in the proposed Seventh Amended Title III Joint Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al. (Docket Entry No. 17627) (the "Seventh Amended Plan"), and does not require satisfaction of any other conditions including cancellation of (a) the elimination of cost of living adjustments and/or (b) freeze or terminations of accrual of defined benefits under the Teachers Retirement System or the Judiciary Retirement System from and after the Effective Date. The Plan cancels and eliminates the Monthly Benefit Modification previously included in the proposed Seventh Amended Plan, thereby satisfying the condition in Act 53-2021 for its debt authorization. The Commonwealth government shall not repeal such debt authorization prior to all such indebtedness issued pursuant to the Plan being satisfied in accordance with the terms thereof. For avoidance of doubt, the Plan does not modify benefits [16] comprised of the "Monthly Base Pension," "Christmas Bonus," "Summer Bonus," "Medicine Bonus," and "Medical Insurance Benefit," each as defined in the Seventh Amended Plan.

14. Purchase and Sale of Certain ERS Assets. On the Effective Date, (a) the Commonwealth shall purchase, and ERS shall sell, assign, transfer, and convey to the Commonwealth, all of ERS's right, title and interest in ERS's Assets, including, without limitation, such Assets subject to a valid and perfected lien or security interest (other than liens or claims discharged pursuant to the Plan and this Confirmation Order) for an aggregate purchase price equal to the sum of Three Hundred Seventy-Three Million Dollars ($373,000,000.00), and (b) in accordance with the terms and provisions of section 69.2 of the Plan, (i) the Commonwealth shall be granted an option to purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio or the interests of the ERS Trust, (ii) in the event the Commonwealth declines to exercise such option, pursuant to the Bondholder Election, ERS bondholders shall have the option to purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio or the interests of the ERS Trust, as the case may be, for Seventy Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($70,750,000.00), plus such amount as may be necessary to reimburse the Commonwealth for any funded shortfall amounts in connection with the ERS Private Equity Portfolio, and (iii) in the event that the Bondholder Election is not exercised, the Commonwealth shall purchase the ERS Private Equity Portfolio for Seventy Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($70,750,000.00).

15. Monthly Deposits of Interest and Principal. Pursuant to the New GO Bonds Legislation and the New GO Bonds Indenture, from and after the Effective Date, until the New GO Bonds have been paid or satisfied in full in accordance with their terms, on the first (1st) Business Day of each calendar month, the Reorganized Commonwealth shall deposit Cash in the Debt Service Fund with the New GO Bonds Trustee in the aggregate amount equal to (i) one-[17]sixth (1/6) of the Reorganized Commonwealth's semi-annual obligation with respect to the payment of interest to accrue on the New GO Bonds through the next interest payment date, and (ii) one twelfth (1/12) of the Reorganized Commonwealth's then annual obligation with respect to the payment of principal (or accreted value) on the New GO Bonds. On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Commonwealth shall deposit into the Debt Service Fund such additional amounts as may be necessary to account for the New GO Bonds being issued as of the Deemed Issuance Date.

16. Comprehensive Cap on All Net Tax-Supported Debt. During the Debt Policy Period, pursuant to the Debt Responsibility Act and in accordance with the New GO Bonds Indenture and the CVI Indenture, the Commonwealth and the Reorganized Commonwealth, as applicable, shall adopt and maintain a Debt Management Policy that includes a Comprehensive Cap on all Net Tax-Supported Debt of article IV of the Debt Responsibility Act, which cap shall be set at seven and ninety-four one hundredths percent (7.94%) of Debt Policy Revenues as and when measured in accordance with the Debt Responsibility Act, including a secured and/or securitized debt sublimit of twenty-five one hundredths percent (0.25%) of Debt Policy Revenues above and beyond the percentage of Debt Policy Revenues required to pay the maximum annual debt service on the COFINA Bonds outstanding as of the Effective Date. Debt service payments on New GO CABs issued pursuant to the Plan to holders or insurers of GO Bonds and PBA Bonds, and payments on CVIs to be issued pursuant to the Plan or other contingent value instruments that may be issued pursuant to or in connection with a Commonwealth Instrumentality Plan, including a Commonwealth Instrumentality Plan for HTA, CCDA, or PRIFA, in satisfaction of claims asserted by (a) holders or insurers of bonds issued by such instrumentality or (b) other creditors of such instrumentality, will not apply towards the [18] Comprehensive Cap. For the avoidance of doubt, any capital appreciation general obligation bonds or similar tax supported debt obligations issued to anyone other than the holders or insurers of GO Bonds and PBA Bonds pursuant to the Plan, and any contingent value instruments or similar tax supported debt obligations issued other than pursuant to or in connection with the Plan or any Commonwealth Instrumentality Plan, shall count towards the Comprehensive Cap, irrespective of whether issued prior to or after the Effective Date. The Secretary of Treasury's certification of compliance with the Debt limit pursuant to section 74.4 of the Plan shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error; provided, however, that, in issuing such certification, with respect to the calculation of the revenues of public corporations included as Debt Policy Revenues, the Secretary of Treasury may rely on certifications from officers of such public corporations.

17. Adoption and Maintenance of a Debt Management Policy. During the Debt Policy Period, the Reorganized Commonwealth shall maintain and comply with a Debt Management Policy designed to ensure that certain past Debt issuance practices of the Commonwealth are not repeated. The Debt Management Policy shall, unless otherwise approved, in writing, by the Oversight Board (to the extent exercising authority in accordance with the provisions of PROMESA), at all times include the principles and limitations provided in section 74.5 of the Plan.

18. Creation of Avoidance Actions Trust. Upon the execution of the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement pursuant to section 78.1 of the Plan, the Avoidance Actions Trust shall be established and validly created pursuant to the terms of the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement, with no further authorization or legislative action being required, and the Avoidance Actions Trustee shall be selected in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Avoidance [19] Actions Trust Agreement. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms and provisions of the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement.

19. Avoidance Actions Trust Assets. The Avoidance Actions Trust shall consist of the Avoidance Actions Trust Assets. On the Effective Date, the Debtors shall transfer all of the Avoidance Actions Trust Assets to the Avoidance Actions Trust and, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Avoidance Actions Trust shall have the sole right, authority, and standing to prosecute, settle or otherwise dispose of all Avoidance Actions, including, without limitation, those set forth on Exhibits A and B to the Plan, as of the Effective Date. The Avoidance Actions Trust Assets may be transferred subject to certain liabilities, including, without limitation, all counter-claims and defenses to any such Avoidance Actions Trust Assets, as provided in the Plan or the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement. Such transfer shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar Tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Upon delivery of the Avoidance Actions Trust Assets to the Avoidance Actions Trust, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and their predecessors, successors and assigns, and each other Entity released pursuant to section 88.2 of the Plan shall be discharged and released from all liability with respect to the delivery of such distributions.

20. Funding, Costs, and Expenses of the Avoidance Actions Trust. On the Effective Date, the Avoidance Actions Trust shall be funded on a one-time basis in an amount up to Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000.00), as determined by the Creditors' Committee at or prior to the Confirmation Hearing. The reasonable costs and expenses of the Avoidance Actions Trust, including the fees and expenses of the Avoidance Actions Trustee and its retained professionals, shall be paid out of the Avoidance Actions Trust Assets. Fees and expenses [20] incurred in connection with the prosecution and settlement of any Claims shall be considered costs and expenses of the Avoidance Actions Trust.

21. Indemnification of Avoidance Actions Trustee and Board. The Avoidance Actions Trustee, the Trust Advisory Board (as defined in the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement), and their respective firms, companies, affiliates, partners, officers, directors, members, employees, professionals, advisors, attorneys, financial advisors, investment bankers, disbursing agents and agents, and any of such Person's successors and assigns (each, an "Indemnified Party"), shall not be liable to the Avoidance Actions Trust Beneficiaries (as defined in the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement) for actions taken or omitted in their capacity as, or on behalf of, the Avoidance Actions Trustee or the Trust Advisory Board, as applicable, except those acts arising from their own fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence, and each shall be entitled to indemnification and reimbursement by the Avoidance Actions Trust for fees and expenses in defending any and all actions or inactions in their capacity as, or on behalf of, the Avoidance Actions Trustee or the Trust Advisory Board, as applicable, except for any actions or inactions involving fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. Any indemnification claim of an Indemnified Party pursuant to section 7.5 of the Avoidance Actions Trust Agreement shall be satisfied solely from the Avoidance Actions Trust Assets and shall be entitled to a priority distribution therefrom. The Indemnified Parties shall be entitled to rely, in good faith, on the advice of their retained professionals. The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Indemnified Party from the capacity for which they are indemnified.

22. Creation of Pension Reserve Trust. Upon the execution of the Pension Reserve Deed of Trust pursuant to section 83.1 of the Plan, the Pension Reserve

Trust shall be established [21] and validly created pursuant to the terms of the Pension Reserve Deed of Trust, with no further authorization or legislative action being required, and shall not be subject to taxation by the Commonwealth. This Court's retention of jurisdiction includes jurisdiction over actions to enforce the terms and provisions of the Pension Reserve Deed of Trust.

23. Funding of the Pension Reserve Trust. On the Effective Date, the Commonwealth shall contribute, or cause to be contributed, to the Pension Reserve Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) to fund the initial administrative fees, costs and expenses of the Pension Reserve Trust, of which One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) shall be deposited into the Pension Reserve Board's general account, Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,500,000.00) shall be deposited into the Pension Benefits Council's administrative and operating account, and One Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,500,000.00) shall be deposited into the Pension Reserve Board's administrative and operating account. From and after the FY in which the Effective Date occurs up to and including the conclusion of the ninth (9th) FY following the FY in which the Effective Date occurs, the Reorganized Commonwealth shall make, or cause to be made, annual (but in no event later than October 1st following the conclusion of each FY) contributions to the Pension Reserve Trust in an amount equal to (a) the Base Contribution, (b) such additional amount calculated as the lower of the actual primary surplus for such FY and the projected Fiscal Plan primary surplus for such FY, minus the sum of (i) the Base Contribution for such FY, plus (ii) the Commonwealth debt service obligation pursuant to the Fiscal Plan for such FY, plus (iii) Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000.00); provided, however, that, in all instances, such additional amount cannot be lower than zero dollars ($0.00), and (c) subject to applicable laws, including, without limitation, Titles I and II of PROMESA, such additional amounts as the Reorganized Commonwealth may deposit into the Pension Reserve Trust. Except as provided in articles LV and LVI of the Plan, none of the Debtors' collective bargaining agreements shall be treated as Executory Contracts and none shall be assumed or rejected or otherwise treated pursuant to the Plan, but shall remain in effect subject, in all instances, to Puerto Rico law and articles LV and LVI of the Plan regarding the payment and ongoing treatment of pension and related claims obligations.

(a) Assured Insured Bonds: To the extent there are no outstanding payment defaults by Assured with respect to Assured Insured Bonds up to and including the Effective Date, the payment of the principal of the Assured Insured Bonds shall be accelerated from and after the Effective Date, and such Assured Insured Bonds shall be due and payable from and after the Effective Date at the Assured Acceleration Price of one hundred percent (100%) of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest thereon (or, in the case of any capital appreciation bonds, the compounded amount thereof) to the date of payment.

(b) National Insured Bonds: To the extent there are no outstanding payment defaults by National with respect to National Insured Bonds up to and including the Effective Date, the payment of the principal of the National Insured Bonds shall be accelerated as of the Effective Date, and the National Insured Bonds shall be due and payable from and after the Effective Date at an “acceleration price” of one hundred percent (100%) of the principal amount thereof plus interest accrued thereon (or, in the case of capital appreciation bonds, the compounded amount thereof) to the date of payment.

(c) Syncora Insured Bonds: To the extent pursuant to applicable definitive documents and not inconsistent with the respective rights provided in accordance with the applicable Syncora Insurance Policy, the payment of the principal of the Syncora Insured Bonds shall be deemed accelerated as of the Effective Date, and the Syncora Insured Bonds shall be deemed payable from and after the Effective Date at an acceleration price equal to the principal amount thereof as of the Effective Date plus accrued interest to the date of payment.

the Creditor Appointees and their advisors shall be entitled to be compensated, subject to an annual aggregate cap of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000.00), inclusive of reimbursement of their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in furtherance of discharging such obligations and responsibilities, which amounts shall be funded from the GUC Reserve. All such compensation and reimbursements shall be paid by the Entity selected pursuant to section 1.285 of the Plan to hold the GUC Reserve within thirty (30) days of such Entity's receipt of a request for such payment. To the extent the Oversight Board or, in the event the Oversight Board terminates, AAFAF, disputes the validity or amount of any reimbursement request, it shall inform such Entity and, in the event the parties are unable to resolve such dispute, the Title III Court shall retain jurisdiction to resolve any such dispute.

- (c) Without limiting the foregoing, (i) within sixty (60) days after the Effective Date, the Oversight Board or AAFAF, as the case may be, through its advisors, shall provide the Creditor Appointees with a report (the "Initial Claims Report") containing (1) a register setting forth all CW General Unsecured Claims, Eminent Domain Claims, ERS General Unsecured Claims, and Convenience Claims that have not been reconciled and which are being evaluated for possible objection, (2) the status of any pending objections to CW General Unsecured Claims, Eminent Domain Claims, ERS General Unsecured Claims, and

- (d) In connection with the foregoing, the Creditor Appointees, together with their counsel and advisors in such capacity, shall not be liable to any Person for actions taken or omitted in connection with the exercise of their rights hereunder except those acts arising out of their own willful misconduct or gross negligence, and each shall be entitled to indemnification and reimbursement from the GUC Reserve for fees and expenses in defending

The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Creditor Appointee shall survive and termination of such Creditor Appointee from the capacity for which they are indemnified.

40. Disputed Claims Holdback. From and after the Effective Date, and until such time as each Disputed Claim has been compromised and settled, estimated by the Title III Court in an amount constituting the allowed amount, or Allowed or Disallowed by Final Order of the Title III Court, Reorganized Debtors or the Disbursing Agent, as applicable, shall retain, for the benefit of each holder of a Disputed Claim, the distributions that would have been made to such holder if it were an Allowed Claim in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the liquidated amount set forth in the filed proof of Claim relating to such Disputed Claim, (ii) the amount in which the Disputed Claims have been estimated by the Title III Court pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code constitutes and represents the maximum amount in which such Claim may ultimately become an Allowed Claim, and (iii) such other amount as may be agreed upon by the [43] holder of such Disputed Claim and Reorganized Debtors; provided, however, that the recovery by any holder of a Disputed Claim shall not exceed the lesser of (i), (ii), and (iii) above. To the extent the Disbursing Agent or any of the Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, retains any New GO Bonds or CVIs on behalf of

41. National Action Claims. Notwithstanding anything contained herein, in the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, or the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement to the contrary, National may continue to litigate to final judgment or settlement all claims and causes of action asserted in the National Action; provided, however, that, in the event that notwithstanding the application and effectiveness of the Bar Date Orders, the Plan, and the Confirmation Order, the defendants and, to the extent named, third-party defendants in the National Action assert against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, PREPA, HTA or any other agency or instrumentality of the Commonwealth (collectively, the “CW Entities”) claims or counterclaims for indemnification, contribution, reimbursement, set-off or similar theories of recovery based on, arising from or related to the National Action (collectively, the “CW Entities’ Claims”), (i) the CW Entities agree (A) to vigorously defend against any such CW Entities’ Claims, including, without limitation, invoking the Bar Date Orders and discharge provisions set forth in article XCII of the Plan and this Confirmation Order, objecting to any proof of claim, and prosecuting available appeals, based upon, arising from, or related to the National Action, (B) to allow National, at its option, to participate in or undertake such defense to such action in its sole discretion, and (C) not to settle any CW Entities' Claims without National's written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, and (ii) National agrees to (A) indemnify and [44] hold the CW Entities harmless to the extent of the CW Entities' liability for the payment of monies or the delivery of property, pursuant to a Final Order or settlement as a result of the National Action, and (B) reimburse the relevant CW Entities for all documented fees and expenses incurred in connection with the defense against such CW Entities' Claims, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses incurred (amounts pursuant to clauses (ii)(A) and (B) collectively, the "Total Reimbursement"), but in no event may the Total Reimbursement exceed any recovery realized by National in connection with the National Action; provided, however, that National shall have no obligation pursuant to this Confirmation Order, the Plan or otherwise to indemnify and hold the CW Entities harmless for any claims based upon, arising from or related to the Underwriter Actions that are not based upon, arising from, or related to the National Action or in which National is not involved. For the avoidance of doubt, CW Entities' Claims shall not constitute CW General Unsecured Claims.

42. No Amendments to Proofs of Claim/Objections to Claims. As of the commencement of the Confirmation Hearing, a proof of Claim may not be amended without the approval of the Title III Court. With the exception of proofs of Claim timely filed hereafter in respect of executory contracts and unexpired leases

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 82.1 of the Plan, in the event that (a) a Claim that has been transferred pursuant to the terms and provisions of either the ACR Order or the ADR Order is subsequently transferred back to the claims registry for determination by the Title III Court, the period in which the Reorganized Debtors shall file and serve any objections to the Claim, by and through the [45] Oversight Board, or AAFAF, as the case may be, shall be extended up to and including one hundred eighty (180) days from and after the date of such notice transferring any such Claim back to the claims registry, and (b) within thirty (30) days of the date hereof, in accordance with section 204 of PROMESA, the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico shall deliver, or cause applicable agencies, instrumentalities, or Commonwealth of Puerto Rico public corporations to deliver, to the Oversight Board a copy of all files, documents, instruments and, to the extent applicable, pleadings requested by the Oversight Board in connection with the reconciliation of Claims, including, without limitation, Disputed Claims. Without in any way limiting the foregoing or the terms and provisions of the Plan or the ACR Order, to the extent a Claim subject to the terms and provisions of the ACR Order, including, without limitation, "grievance claims" subject to the provisions of collective bargaining agreements, remain subject to the ACR Order, upon resolution thereof, such Claims shall be satisfied by the Debtors in the ordinary course.

44. Administrative Claim Bar Date. The last day to file proof of Administrative Expense Claims shall be ninety (90) days after the Effective Date, after which date, any Administrative Expense Claim, proof of which has not been filed, shall be deemed forever barred, and the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors shall have no obligation with respect thereto; provided, however, that no proof of Administrative Expense Claim shall be required to be filed if such Administrative Expense Claim (a) shall have been incurred (i) in accordance with an order of the Court or (ii) with the written consent of the applicable Government Parties expressly [46] granting such Administrative Expense Claim, (b) is a Professional Claim, (c) is an intergovernmental Claim, (d) is an Administrative Expense Claim of the IRS for the payment of taxes incurred by any of the Debtors during the period from and after the Commonwealth Petition Date, the ERS Petition Date, or the PBA Petition Date, as applicable, (e) relates to actions occurring in the ordinary course during the period from and after the respective Debtor's petition date up to and including the Effective Date, (f) relates to a Claim that is subject to the provisions of the ACR

45. Professional Compensation and Reimbursement Claims. All Entities awarded compensation, including, without limitation, to the fullest extent provided in respective letters of engagement or similar instruments or agreements, or reimbursement of expenses by the Title III Court shall be paid in full, in Cash, in the amounts allowed by the Title III Court, including, without limitation, all amounts previously awarded subject to holdbacks pursuant to orders of the Title III Court, (a) no later than the tenth (10th) calendar day (or the first Business Day to occur thereafter) after the later to occur of (i) the Effective Date and (ii) the date upon which the Title III Court order allowing such Claims is deemed to be a Final Order, or (b) upon such other terms no more favorable to the claimant as may be mutually agreed upon between such claimant and the Government Parties; provided, however, that, except as provided herein or in the Plan, each [47] Professional must file its application for final allowance of compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses on or prior to the date that is one hundred twenty (120) days following the Effective Date. The Reorganized Debtors shall pay compensation for professional services extended and reimbursement of expenses incurred by their respective Professionals from and after the Effective Date in the ordinary course and without the need for Title III Court approval.

Plan and establish Defined Contribution Accounts for such individuals.

(b) Eligibility for and Enrollment in Federal Social Security. From and after the Effective Date, and notwithstanding any provision of Act 106 to the contrary (including, without limitation, section 3.4 thereof), every (i) Active JRS Participant, (ii) teacher who is an Active TRS Participant, and (iii) teacher and judge hired from and after the Effective Date shall mandatorily make contributions to his or her Defined Contribution Account at a minimum rate of two and three-tenths percent (2.3%) of his or her monthly compensation, up to the limit established in section 1081.01(d)(7) of Act 1-2011; provided, however, that each teacher and judge who is forty-five (45) years of age or older as of the Effective Date shall contribute to his or her Defined Contribution Account at a minimum rate of eight and one-half percent (8.5%) of his or her monthly compensation, up to the limited established in section 1081.01(d)(7) of Act No. 1-2011, as amended, known as the “Internal Revenue Code for a New Puerto Rico,” or any successor law thereof, and, therefore, fail to be eligible to contribute to the Federal Social Security system, unless any such teacher or judge shall have irrevocably elected within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date to reduce their contributions to a minimum of two and three-tenths percent (2.3%) and be enrolled in the Federal Social Security system. For teachers who are Active TRS Participants, Active JRS Participants, and teachers and judges first hired after the Effective Date who contribute two and three-tenths percent (2.3%) of their monthly compensation as set forth above, including those aged 45 and older who have elected to do so, the Employer, in coordination with the Retirement Board and/or Secretary of Treasury, shall withhold the minimum amount of six and two-tenths percent (6.2%) of their applicable monthly compensation and remit such amount to the appropriate authority as required by the applicable [56] provisions of the Federal Social Security Act and other applicable Federal law to enable the inclusion of the Participant in the Federal Social Security system. Teachers who are Active TRS Participants, Active JRS Participants, and teachers and judges first hired after the Effective Date may voluntarily contribute to their Defined Contribution Accounts additional amounts to those established as allowed under section 1081.01 of Act No. 1-2011, provided, however, that in no case may those increased contribution rates and additional amounts exceed the applicable limits to be eligible, and affect the eligibility of these Participants, for coverage under the Federal Social Security system, unless such Participants are aged 45 and older and do not participate in the Federal Social Security system. In accordance with the foregoing, the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including, without limitation, any Entity or Person acting for or on behalf thereof, shall implement all reasonably necessary or advisable policies, procedures, or mechanisms to provide for all payroll deduction or transmittal required by federal law to ensure eligibility for and enrollment of Participants in the Federal Social Security system and effectuating the Federal Insurance Contributions Act remittances.

56. Discharge and Release of Claims and Causes of Action.

(a) Except as expressly provided in the Plan or herein, all distributions and rights afforded under the Plan shall be, and shall be deemed to be, in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims or Causes of Action against the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors that arose, in whole or in part, prior to the Effective Date, relating to the Title III Cases, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors or any of their respective Assets, property, or interests of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on such Claims from and after the Petition Date, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of each of the Claims or Causes of Action; [57] provided, however, that, without prejudice to the exculpation rights set forth in section 92.7 of the Plan and decretal paragraph 61 hereof, nothing contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order is intended, nor shall it be construed, to be a grant of a non-consensual third-party release of the PSA Creditors, AFSCME, and each of their respective Related Persons by any Creditors of the Debtors. Upon the Effective Date and independent of the distributions provided for under the Plan, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors shall be discharged and released from any and all Claims, Causes of Action, and any other debts that arose, in whole or in part, prior to the Effective Date (including prior to the Petition Date), and Claims of the kind specified in sections 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code and section 407 of PROMESA, whether or not (a) a proof of claim based upon such Claim is filed or deemed filed under section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) such Claim is allowed under section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code and section 407 of PROMESA (or is otherwise resolved), or (c) the holder of a Claim based upon such debt voted to accept the Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing contained in the Plan or herein shall release, discharge, or enjoin any claims or causes of action against PREPA arising from or related to PREPA-issued bonds, including, without limitation, Monoline-issued insurance pertaining thereto, and PREPA is not releasing any claims or causes of action against any non-Debtor Entity. Claims and causes of action against PREPA arising from or related to PREPA-issued bonds, and releases against PREPA and its assets shall be addressed in PREPA's Title III case, including, without limitation, any plan of adjustment therein.

(b) Except as expressly provided in the Plan or herein, all Entities shall be precluded from asserting any and all Claims against the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, and each of their respective employees, officials, Assets, property, rights, remedies, Claims, or Causes of Action of any nature whatsoever, relating to the Title III Cases, the Debtors or Reorganized [58] Debtors or any of their respective Assets and property, including any and all interest accrued on such Claims, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of each of the Claims or other obligations, suits, judgments, damages, debts, rights, remedies, causes of action, or liabilities. In accordance with the foregoing, except as expressly provided in the Plan or herein, this Confirmation Order shall constitute a judicial determination, as of the Effective Date, of the discharge and release of all such Claims, Causes of Action or debt of or against the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to sections 524 and 944 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable to the Title III Case pursuant to section 301 of PROMESA, and such discharge shall void and extinguish any judgment obtained against the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors and their respective Assets, and property at any time, to the extent such judgment is related to a discharged Claim, debt, or liability. As of the Effective Date, and in consideration for the distributions or other value provided pursuant to the Plan, each holder of a Claim in any Class under the Plan shall be and hereby is deemed to release and forever waive and discharge as against the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, and their respective Assets and property, all such Claims.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of decretal paragraph 56 of this Confirmation Order or section 92.2 of the Plan, in accordance with the provisions of the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, each of the GO/PBA PSA Creditors and their respective Related Persons, solely in their capacity as Creditors of the Debtors, shall (i) be deemed to have released and covenanted not to sue or otherwise pursue or seek to recover damages or to seek any other type of relief against any of the Government Releasees based upon, arising from or relating to the Government Released Claims or any of the Claims or Causes of Action asserted or which could have been asserted, including, without limitation, in the Clawback Actions and the [59] Lift Stay Motions, and (ii) not directly or indirectly aid any person in taking any action with respect to the Government Released Claims that is prohibited by decretal paragraph 56 of this Confirmation Order and section 92.2 of the Plan.

(d) SEC Limitation. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the Plan to the contrary, no provision shall (i) preclude the SEC from enforcing its police or regulatory powers, or (ii) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceedings or investigations against any non-debtor person or non-debtor entity in any forum.

(e) United States Limitation. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the Plan to the contrary, no provision shall (i) impair the United States, its agencies, departments, or agents, or in any manner relieve the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, from compliance with federal laws or territorial laws and requirements implementing a federally authorized or federally delegated program protecting the health, safety, and environment of persons in such territory, (ii) expand the scope of any discharge, release, or injunction to which the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors are entitled under Title III, and (iii) discharge, release, enjoin, or otherwise bar (A)

any liability of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors to the United States arising from and after the Effective Date, (B) any liability to the United States that is not a Claim, (C) any affirmative defense or any right of setoff or recoupment of the United States, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, and such rights of setoff and recoupment of such parties are expressly preserved, (D) the continued validity of the obligations of the United States, the Debtors, or the Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, under any United States grant or cooperative assistance agreement, (E) the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' obligations arising under federal police or regulatory laws, including, but not limited to, [60] laws relating to the environment, public health or safety, or territorial laws implementing such federal legal provisions, including, but not limited to, compliance obligations, requirements under consent decrees or judicial orders, and obligations to pay associated administrative, civil, or other penalties, and (F) any liability to the United States on the part of any non-debtor. Without limiting the foregoing, nothing contained herein or in the Plan shall be deemed (i) to determine the tax liability of any Entity, including, but not limited to, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors and any obligation of the Debtors to pay post-petition interest on any such tax liability, (ii) to be binding on the IRS with regard to the federal tax liabilities, tax status, or tax filing and withholding obligations of any Entity, including, but not limited to, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, (iii) to release, satisfy, discharge, or enjoin the collection of any claim of the IRS against any Entity other than the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, and (iv) to grant any relief to any Entity that the Court is prohibited from granting by the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2201(a), or the Tax Anti-Injunction Act, 26 U.S.C. § 7421(a).

(f) Underwriter Actions. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the Plan to the contrary, including, without limitation, sections 92.2, 92.3, and 92.11 of the Plan, except as may be precluded pursuant to the provisions of PROMESA, nothing in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or any Plan-related document set forth in the Plan Supplement is intended, nor shall it be construed, to impair, alter, modify, diminish, prohibit, bar, restrain, enjoin, release, reduce, eliminate, or limit the rights of the plaintiffs and defendants, including, without limitation, the parties to the Underwriter Actions, from asserting their respective rights, claims, causes of action and defenses in the Underwriter Actions, including, but not limited to, any Claims, defenses, Causes of Action, and rights of setoff or recoupment (to the extent available), or any rights to allocate responsibility or liability or any other basis for the reduction of (or credit [61] against) any judgment in connection with the Underwriter Actions (collectively, the “Defensive Rights”); provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any Defensive Rights be used to obtain or result in the affirmative payment of money or the affirmative delivery of property to any plaintiff, defendant and, to the extent named, third-party defendant by any of the CW Entities in connection with an Underwriter Action;

and, provided, further, that, no party in the Underwriter Actions, including, without limitation, plaintiffs, defendants, and, to the extent named, third-party defendants, shall be permitted to assert: (i) against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors any Claim or Cause of Action for purposes of obtaining an affirmative monetary recovery that otherwise is barred or discharged pursuant to the Bar Date Orders, the Plan, and/or this Confirmation Order; and/or (ii) against any of the CW Entities any Claims or counterclaims for purposes of obtaining an affirmative monetary recovery, including, without limitation, for indemnification, contribution, reimbursement, setoff, or similar theories to the extent asserted for purposes of obtaining an affirmative monetary recovery, which Claims or counterclaims shall be deemed disallowed, barred, released, and discharged in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order; and provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this decretal paragraph 56(f) is intended, nor shall it be construed, to prohibit, preclude, bar, modify, or limit in any way the ability of any defendant in any Underwriter Action to assert Defensive Rights for the purpose of reducing, eliminating, or limiting the amount of any liability or judgment in any Underwriter Action. The parties in the Underwriter Actions shall be permanently barred, enjoined, and restrained from commencing, prosecuting, or asserting against any of the CW Entities any Claims or counterclaims for purposes of obtaining an affirmative monetary recovery, including, without limitation, indemnification, contribution, reimbursement, setoff or similar theories, to the extent asserted for [62] purposes of obtaining an affirmative monetary recovery, based upon, arising from, or related to the Underwriter Actions, whether or not such Claim or counterclaim is or can be asserted in a court, an arbitration, an administrative agency or forum, or in any other manner.

(g) Quest Litigation. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the Plan to the contrary, nothing in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or any Plan-related document set forth in the Plan Supplement is intended, nor shall it be construed, to impair, alter, modify, diminish, prohibit, bar, restrain, enjoin, release, reduce, eliminate or limit the right of the Quest Diagnostics of Puerto Rico, Inc. (“Quest”) (1) from asserting its respective rights, claims, causes of action and defenses in the avoidance action brought against it, including, but not limited to, any Claims, defenses, Causes of Action, and rights of setoff or recoupment, or any rights to allocate responsibility or liability or any other basis for the reduction of (or credit against) any judgment (the “Quest Rights”); provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall any Quest Rights be used to obtain or result in the affirmative payment of money or the affirmative delivery of property by any of the Debtors to Quest in connection with the merits of its avoidance action, and (2) to file and receive payment on any Claim it has pursuant to section 502(h) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3002(c)(3); provided, however, that any such Claims would constitute a CW General Unsecured Claim and be treated in accordance with the terms and provisions of article LXII of the Plan.

57. Releases by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, on the Effective Date, and for good and valuable consideration, each of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Disbursing Agent and each of the Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors' Related Persons shall be deemed to have and hereby does irrevocably and unconditionally, fully, finally, and forever waive, release, acquit, [63] and discharge the Released Parties from any and all Claims or Causes of Action that the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and the Disbursing Agent, or any of them, or anyone claiming through them, on their behalf or for their benefit, have or may have or claim to have, now or in the future, against any Released Party that are Released Claims.

58. Release and Exculpation Provisions. Except as otherwise provided in this Confirmation Order, all release and exculpation provisions, including, but not limited to, those contained in article XCII of the Plan, are approved and shall be effective and binding on all Entities, to the extent provided therein.

59. Injunction on Claims. Except as otherwise expressly provided in section 92.11 of the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or such other Final Order of the Title III Court that is applicable, all Entities who have held, hold, or in the future hold Claims or any other debt or liability that is discharged or released pursuant to section 92.2 of the Plan or who have held, hold, or in the future hold Claims or any other debt or liability discharged or released pursuant to section 92.2 of the Plan are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from (a) commencing or continuing, directly or indirectly, in any manner, any action or other proceeding (including, without limitation, any judicial, arbitral, administrative, or other proceeding) of any kind on any such Claim or other debt or liability discharged pursuant to the Plan against any of the Released Parties or any of their respective [64] assets or property, (b) the enforcement, attachment, collection or recovery by any manner or means of any judgment, award, decree, or order against any of the Released Parties or any of their respective assets or property on account of any Claim or other debt or liability discharged pursuant to the Plan, (c) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any encumbrance of any kind against any of the Released Parties or any of their respective assets or property on account of any Claim or other debt or liability discharged pursuant to the Plan, and (d) except to the extent provided, permitted or preserved by sections 553, 555, 556, 559, or 560 of the Bankruptcy Code or pursuant to the common law right of recoupment, asserting any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from any of the Released Parties or any of their respective assets or property, with respect to any such Claim or other debt or liability discharged pursuant to the Plan. Such injunction shall extend to all successors and assigns of the Released Parties and their respective assets and property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without prejudice to the exculpation rights set forth in section 92.7 of the Plan and decretal paragraph 61 hereof, nothing contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order is intended, nor shall it be construed, to be a non-consensual third-party release of the PSA Creditors, AF-SCME, and of their respective Related Persons by Creditors of the Debtors.

60. Injunction Related to Releases. As of the Effective Date, all Entities that hold, have held, or in the future hold a Released Claim released pursuant to section 92.5 of the Plan, are, and shall be, permanently, forever and completely stayed, restrained, prohibited, barred, and enjoined from taking any of the following actions, whether directly or indirectly, derivatively or otherwise, on account of or based on the subject matter of such discharged Released Claims: (i) commencing, conducting or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action, or other proceeding (including, without limitation, any judicial, arbitral, administrative or other proceeding) in any forum; (ii) enforcing, attaching (including, without limitation any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or in any way seeking to recover any judgment, award, decree, or other order; (iii) creating, perfecting or in any way enforcing in any matter, directly or indirectly, any [65] Lien; (iv) setting off, seeking reimbursement or contributions from, or subrogation against, or otherwise recouping in any manner, directly or indirectly, any amount against any liability or obligation owed to any Entity released under decretal paragraph 57 of this Confirmation Order and section 92.5 of the Plan; and (v) commencing or continuing in any manner, in any place or any judicial, arbitration, or administrative proceeding in any forum, that does not comply with or is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan or this Confirmation Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the following stipulations will terminate upon the entry of this Confirmation Order: the Fourth Amended Stipulation Between the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the Puerto Rico Highways and Transportation Authority Regarding the Tolling of Statute of Limitations and Consent Order (Docket Entry No. 15854), as amended; and the Fourth Amended Stipulation and Consent Order Between Title III Debtors (Other Than COFINA) and the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority Acting on Behalf of the Governmental Entities Listed on Exhibit "B" Regarding the Tolling of Statute of Limitations (Docket Entry No. 17394), as amended.

Nothing in this subparagraph (a) or section 92.7(a) of the Plan shall prejudice the right of any of the Government Parties, and the Government Parties' officers and directors serving at any time up to and including the Effective Date, and each of their respective professionals to assert reliance upon advice of counsel as a defense with respect to their duties and responsibilities under the Plan.

(b) PSA Creditors: Each of the PSA Creditors solely in its capacity as a party to the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, the PRIFA Plan Support

[67] (c) Retiree Committee: Each of the members of the Retiree Committee, solely in its capacity as a member of the Retiree Committee and a Creditor, as applicable, from the relevant Petition Date up to and including the Effective Date and each of the Retiree Committee's Related Persons shall not have or incur through the Effective Date any liability to any Entity

(d) Creditors' Committee: Each of the members of the Creditors' Committee, solely in its capacity as a member of the Creditors' Committee, and the Creditors' Committee, from the relevant Petition Date up to and including the Effective Date and each of the Creditors' Committee's Related Persons shall not have or incur any liability to any Entity for any act taken or omitted to be taken in connection with the Title III Cases, the formation, preparation, [68] dissemination, implementation, confirmation, or approval of the Plan or any compromises or settlements contained therein, the Disclosure Statement, or any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document provided for or contemplated in connection with the consummation of the transactions set forth in the Plan; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing exculpation, in the event that litigation is commenced against a member of the Creditors Committee with respect to the aforementioned actions, such member shall be reimbursed for reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in defense thereof and indemnified for any damages awarded, in each case, by the Commonwealth, pursuant to a Final Order; and, provided, however, that, the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (d) and section 92.7(d) of the Plan shall not affect the liability of any Entity that would otherwise result from any such act or omission to the extent such act or omission is determined in a Final Order to have constituted intentional fraud or willful misconduct.

(e) AFSCME: AFSCME, solely in its capacity as a party to the AFSCME Plan Support Agreement and a Creditor, as applicable, from the relevant Petition Date up to and including the Effective Date, and each of its respective Related Persons shall not have or incur through the Effective Date any liability to any Entity for any act taken or omitted to be taken in connection with the Title III Cases, the formation, preparation, dissemination, implementation, confirmation, or approval of the Plan or any compromises or settlements contained therein, the Disclosure Statement, the AFSCME Plan Support Agreement, or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document provided for or contemplated in connection with the consummation of the transaction set forth in the Plan and the AFSCME Plan Support Agreement; provided, however, that, the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (e) and section 92.7(e) of the Plan shall not affect the liability of any Entity that otherwise would result from any such act [69] or omission to the extent that such act or omission is determined in a Final Order to have constituted intentional fraud or willful misconduct.

(f) Monoline Insurers: Ambac, Assured, FGIC, National, Syncora, and their Related Persons shall not have or incur any liability to any Entity for any act taken or omitted to be taken consistent with the Plan or in connection with the formulation, preparation, dissemination, implementation, acceptance, confirmation, or approval of the Plan, including, without limitation, in connection with the treatment of Ambac Insured Bond Claims, Assured Insured Bond Claims, FGIC Insured Bond Claims, National Insured Bond Claims, or Syncora Insured Bond Claims, the voting procedures, the election procedures, and any release of obligations under the applicable Ambac Insurance Policies, Assured Insurance Policies, FGIC Insurance Policies, National Insurance Policies, or Syncora Insurance Policies: provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Confirmation Order or the Plan to the contrary, the terms and provisions of the Plan and this Confirmation Order shall not, and shall not be construed to, release or exculpate, with respect to any beneficial holder of Ambac Insured Bonds, Assured Insured Bonds, FGIC Insured Bonds, National Insured Bonds, or Syncora Insured Bonds any payment obligation under the applicable Ambac Insurance Policy, Assured Insurance Policy, FGIC Insurance Policy, National Insurance Policy, or Syncora Insurance Policy in accordance with its terms solely to the extent of any failure of such holder to receive the Ambac Commutation Treatment, Assured Treatment, FGIC Treatment, National Treatment, or Syncora Treatment, as applicable (or any claims that Ambac, Assured, FGIC, National, or Syncora may have against a beneficial holder of respective insured bonds with respect to Ambac's, Assured's, FGIC's, National's or Syncora's applicable obligations under the Ambac Insurance Policies, Assured Insurance Policies, National Insurance Policies, or Syncora Insurance Policies, as [70] applicable); provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (f) and section 92.7(f) of the Plan shall not affect the liability of any Entity that otherwise would result from any such act or omission to the extent that such act or omission is determined, pursuant to a Final Order, to have constituted intentional fraud or willful misconduct.

(g) The DRA Parties: Each of the GDB Debt Recovery Authority ("DRA"), Ameri-National Community

Services LLC (the “Servicer”), as servicer for the DRA, and Cantor-Katz Collateral Monitor LLC (the “Collateral Monitor”), as collateral monitor for Wilmington Trust N.A. (collectively, the “DRA Parties”), from the Petition Date up to and including the Effective Date and each of the DRA Parties, respective predecessors, successors and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise), and their respective financial advisors, attorneys, accountants, consultants, agents, and professionals, or other representatives, each acting in such capacity, and any Entity acting for or on behalf of any of them, in each case, solely to the extent acting in such capacity, shall not have or incur any liability to any Entity for any act taken or omitted to be taken in connection with the Title III Cases, mediation, the negotiation, formation, preparation, dissemination, implementation, confirmation or approval of the Plan or any compromises or settlements contained therein, the Disclosure Statement, the Stipulation in Connection with DRA Related Disputes, dated as of November 5, 2021, by and among the Oversight Board, as representative of the Debtors and HTA, the Servicer, and the Collateral Monitor (Docket Entry No. 19100 Ex. A), or any contract, instrument, release or other agreement or document provided for or contemplated in connection with the consummation of the transactions set forth in the Plan; provided, however, that, the foregoing provisions of this subparagraph (g) shall not affect the liability of any Entity that would otherwise result from any [71] such act or omission to the extent such act or omission is determined in a Final Order to have constituted intentional fraud or willful misconduct.

62. Maintenance of Pension System. Before the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including, without limitation, by any Entity or Person acting for or on behalf thereof, shall not (a) implement existing legislation or enact new legislation to create or increase any defined benefit pension payment or obligation to current or future retirees from or related to any defined benefit plans over the benefits provided by the Plan, regardless of funding source, or (b) undo (in whole or part) the Plan's eliminations of defined benefit plan accruals and cost of living adjustments for government employees; provided, however, that the Governor and Legislature, subsequent to termination of the Oversight Board, may apply to the Title III Court for relief from this provision upon showing (i) the need therefor, (ii) the affordability of the requested changes, (iii) the reasons why the requested changes will not create a risk of the financial distress caused by the Commonwealth's prior defined benefit plans under which the Commonwealth and other governmental employers accrued nearly $55 billion of unfunded pension obligations, (iv) the means of funding the requested changes and reasons why there is little risk of such funding not being carried out, (v) the reasons why the requested changes will not create a material risk of defaults on any of the then outstanding obligations pursuant to the Plan, and (vi) the reasons why the defined contribution plans are insufficient and defined benefit plans are both prudent and required; and, provided, however, that, prior to the termination of the Oversight Board, the Oversight Board shall not reduce any defined benefit pension payment or obligation to current or future retirees from the benefits provided by the Plan.

[72] 63. Appointments Related Litigation/Uniformity Litigation. Notwithstanding anything contained herein or the Plan to the contrary, in the event that a Final Order is entered in connection with the Appointments Related Litigation or the Uniformity Litigation subsequent to entry of this Confirmation Order, in consideration of the distributions made, to be made, or deemed to be made in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and documents and instruments related hereto, and all Creditors or such other Entities receiving, or deemed to have received, distributions pursuant to or as a result of the Plan or this Confirmation Order having consented and agreed, such Final Order shall not in any way or manner reverse, affect or otherwise modify the transactions contemplated in the Plan and this Confirmation Order, including, without limitation, the releases, exculpations and injunctions provided pursuant to article XCII of the Plan and herein; provided, however, that, to the extent that a plaintiff in the Appointments Related Litigation or the Uniformity Litigation is a party to any of the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, the HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement, the PRIFA Plan Support Agreement, or the ERS Stipulation, within five (5) Business Days of the Effective Date, such plaintiff shall take any and all actions to dismiss, with prejudice or, in the event other plaintiffs are party to such litigations, withdraw from, with prejudice, such Appointments Related Litigation or Uniformity Litigation, as the case may be, including, without limitation, filing notices with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction thereof.

64. Bar Order. To the limited extent provided in the Plan, each and every Entity is permanently enjoined, barred and restrained from instituting, prosecuting, pursuing, or litigating in any manner any and all Claims, demands, rights, liabilities, or causes of action of any and every kind, character or nature whatsoever, in law or in equity, known or unknown, direct or derivative, whether asserted or unasserted, against any of the Released [73] Parties, based upon, related to, or arising out of or in connection with any of the Released Claims, confirmation and consummation of the Plan, the negotiation and consummation of the GO/PBA Plan Support Agreement, HTA/CCDA Plan Support Agreement, PRIFA Plan Support Agreement, AFSCME Plan Support Agreement, the Retiree Committee Plan Support Agreement, or any claim, act, fact, transaction, occurrence, statement, or omission in connection with or alleged or that could have been alleged in the Title III Cases, including, without limitation, any such claim, demand, right, liability, or cause of action for indemnification, contribution, or any other basis in law or equity for damages, costs, or fees incurred arising directly or indirectly from or otherwise relating to the Title III Cases, either directly or indirectly by any Person for the direct or indirect benefit of any Released Party arising from or related to the claims, acts, facts, transactions, occurrences, statements, or omissions that are, could have been or may be alleged in the related actions or any other action brought or that might be brought by, through, on behalf of, or for the benefit of any of the Released Parties (whether arising under federal, state, or foreign law, and regardless of where asserted); provided, however, that, without prejudice to the exculpation rights set forth in section 92.7 of the Plan and decretal paragraph 61 hereof, nothing contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order is intended, nor shall it be construed, to be a nonconsensual third-party release of the PSA Creditors, AFSCME, and of their respective Related Persons by Creditors of the Debtors.

65. Supplemental Injunction. (e) Enacting or adopting any statute, law, rule, resolution, or policy to cause, directly or indirectly, any Released Party to have liability for any Released Claims; and

(f) Taking any act, in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to, or comply with, the provisions of the Plan or this Confirmation Order; provided, however, that the Debtors' compliance with the formal requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3016 shall not constitute an admission that the Plan provides for any injunction against conduct not otherwise enjoined under the Bankruptcy Code; [75] provided, however, that, without prejudice to the exculpation rights set forth in section 92.7 of the Plan and decretal paragraph 61 hereof, nothing contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order is intended, nor shall it be construed, to be a non-consensual third-party release of the PSA Creditors, AFSCME, and of their respective Related Persons by Creditors of the Debtors.

66. Term of Existing Injunctions or Stays. Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Title III Cases (pursuant to sections 105, 362, or 922 of the Bankruptcy Code or any order of the Title III Court) and existing on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order) shall remain in full force and effect through the Effective Date, except that each injunction imposed by a Court order shall remain in effect permanently unless the order specifies a termination date or event, in which case, the specification set forth in such order shall govern. All injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or this Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

67. Prosecution of Claims. Except as settled and released herein, from and after the Effective Date, the Avoidance Actions Trustee shall have the exclusive right and power to (a) litigate any and all of the Avoidance Actions and (b) compromise and settle such Avoidance Actions, upon approval of the Title III Court. 69. Compliance with Tax Requirements. Any party issuing any instrument or making any distribution under the Plan shall comply with all applicable withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any United States federal, state, or local tax law or Tax Authority, and all distributions under the Plan shall be subject to any such withholding or reporting requirements; provided, however, that payments or redemptions made with respect to the CVIs shall not be subject to any Commonwealth tax or withholding obligation imposed by the Commonwealth now or in the future regardless of whether such payments or redemptions with respect to the CVIs may be exempt from the payment of federal or state taxes, including, without limitation, the twenty-nine percent (29%) Puerto Rico income tax withholding at source that may otherwise be applicable to such payments or redemptions. Except as provided above, each holder of an Allowed Claim that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any Taxes imposed on such holder by any governmental unit, including income, withholding and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. Any party issuing any instrument or making any distribution under the Plan has the right, but not the obligation, to not make a distribution until such holder has made arrangements satisfactory to such issuing or disbursing party for payment of any such withholding tax obligations and, if any party issuing any instrument or making any distribution under the Plan fails to withhold with respect to any such holder's distribution, and is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, the holder shall reimburse such party. The Disbursing [77] Agent or the trustee of the applicable trust may require, as a condition to the receipt of a distribution (including the applicable trust certificates), that the holder complete the appropriate Form W-8 or Form W-9, as applicable to each holder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that (x) the Oversight Board appeals from the Confirmation Order and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law regarding the Title III Court's ruling that Allowed Eminent Domain/Inverse Condemnation Claims must be paid in full or otherwise be rendered unimpaired pursuant to the [80] Plan, (y) such appeal is successful, and (z) a Final

Until termination of the Oversight Board pursuant to section 209 of PROMESA, the Oversight Board may enforce the Plan. At all times, each party in interest may enforce Plan provisions directly affecting the party in interest.

78. Post-Confirmation Fiscal Plans and Budgets Remain Subject to Oversight Board's Sole Discretion. Nothing in the Plan and nothing in this Confirmation Order (a) alters the powers of the Oversight Board granted by Titles I and II of PROMESA, including its rights in its sole discretion, to amend the certified

Fiscal Plan and budget in effect on the Effective Date and to develop and certify new fiscal plans and budgets at any times, (b) grants the government of Puerto Rico any entitlement to any provisions in certified fiscal plans and budgets, and (c) grants the government of Puerto Rico any rights and powers barred by section 108(a) of PROMESA.

[81] 79. Government Post-Confirmation Powers and Duties. Upon termination of the Oversight Board pursuant to section 209 of PROMESA, the Governor shall enforce the Plan. If the Governor fails to enforce a Plan provision directly or indirectly impacting a party in interest after being requested to do so by a party in interest, each party in interest that would reasonably be prejudiced or injured by lack of enforcement may enforce the Plan provision. At no time prior or subsequent to the termination of the Oversight Board shall the Governor or Legislature enact, implement, or enforce any statute, resolution, policy, or rule reasonably likely, directly or indirectly, to impair the carrying out of the Plan's payment provisions, covenants, and other obligations. Pursuant to section 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Governor shall cause the executive branch of the Commonwealth government to take all acts necessary for the consummation of the Plan.

80. Legislation Authorizing Plan Debt Shall Not Be Repealed, Changed, Or Negated. The Government of Puerto Rico, including without limitation, any Entity or Person acting for or on behalf thereof, shall not enact any statute, resolution, policy, or rule that would repeal, change, or negate any law currently existing that authorizes debt issued pursuant to the Plan or any law pledging the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the Commonwealth to secure debt issued pursuant to the Plan.

Until all obligations with respect to the CVIs have been paid or otherwise satisfied in accordance with their terms, the Commonwealth, or any Entity or Person acting for or on behalf thereof, shall take no action that would: (a) limit or alter the rights vested in the Commonwealth in accordance with the Plan and this Confirmation Order to fulfill the terms of any agreements with the holders of CVIs; (b) impair the rights and remedies of the holders of the CVIs; or (c) impair the ability of the holders of the CVIs to track [82] performance of the Measured SUT and the Commonwealth Rum Tax Revenues available for the payment of the CVIs in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan and as set forth in the CVI Indenture; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not preclude the Commonwealth from exercising its power, through a valid change in law, to eliminate the Measured SUT, or replace the Measured SUT with a Substitute Measured Tax, each in accordance with the CVI Indenture.

82. Reversal/Stay/Modification/Vacatur of Order. Except as otherwise provided in this Confirmation Order or a subsequent order issued by this Court or a higher court having jurisdiction over an appeal of this Confirmation Order or over a certiorari proceeding in respect of this Confirmation Order, if any or all of the provisions of this Confirmation Order are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated, or stayed by subsequent order of this Court, or any other court, such reversal, stay, modification, or vacatur shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any act, obligation, indebtedness, liability, priority, or lien incurred or undertaken by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, prior to the effective date of such reversal, stay, modification, or vacatur. Notwithstanding any such reversal, stay, modification, or vacatur of this Confirmation Order, any such act or obligation incurred or undertaken pursuant to, or in reliance on, this Confirmation Order prior to the effective date of such reversal, stay, modification, or vacatur shall be governed in all respect by the provisions of this Confirmation Order and the Plan. To the extent not specifically reversed, modified, vacated, or stayed by an order of this Court or an appellate court, all existing orders entered in the Title III Cases remain in full force and effect.

83. Retention of Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the entry of this Confirmation Order or the occurrence of the Effective Date, subject to the terms and provisions of article XCI of the [83] Plan, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan or herein, pursuant to sections 105, 945(a), and 1142(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the time necessary for the successful implementation of the Plan,' this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to the extent it has exclusive subject matter jurisdiction, and concurrent jurisdiction to the extent it has concurrent subject matter jurisdiction, over all matters arising under PROMESA, arising out of, and related to, the Title III Cases to the fullest extent legally permissible, including, but not limited to, subject matter jurisdiction over the matters set forth in article XCI of the Plan.

84. Conflicts Among Documents. The provisions of the Plan and this Confirmation Order shall be construed in a manner consistent with each other so as to effect the purpose of each; provided, however, that, in the event of any inconsistency between (a) the Plan or this Confirmation Order and (b) the New GO Bond Legislation, the CVI Legislation, or any other legislation implementing the Plan or otherwise in any manner, the terms and provisions of the Plan or this Confirmation Order, as applicable, shall prevail; and, provided, further, that, in the event of any irreconcilable inconsistency between the Plan and this Confirmation Order, the documents shall control in the following order of priority: (i) this Confirmation Order, and (ii) the Plan; and, provided, further, that, in the event of any inconsistency between this Confirmation Order and any other order in the Commonwealth Title III Case, the ERS Title III Case, the PBA Title III Case, the terms and provisions of this Confirmation Order shall control; and, provided, further, that nothing contained herein is intended, nor shall be construed, to modify the economic terms of the Plan.

leased property subject to such PBA Lease, (d) such other date of which PBA, as lessor, provides written notice to the counterparty to a PBA Lease, and (e) the date upon which AAFAF, on behalf of the Commonwealth or any Commonwealth agency, public corporation or instrumentality, that is a counterparty, as lessee, with respect to a PBA Lease, provides written notice to PBA that such PBA Lease is rejected (in each case, the earliest of (a) through (e), the “PBA Rejection Date”); provided, however, that, during the period from the Effective Date up to, but not including, the applicable PBA Rejection Date, with respect to any PBA Lease between PBA, as lessor, and the Commonwealth or any Commonwealth agency, public corporation or instrumentality, as lessee, monthly lease payments shall be limited to the lower of (y) the amount budgeted and approved pursuant to a certified Fiscal Plan and (z) the monthly costs and expenses associated with the applicable leased property; and, provided, further, that any accruals on the books of PBA or any of the Commonwealth or an agency, public corporation, or instrumentality of the Commonwealth as counterparty to a PBA Lease for the unpaid debt service component of rent under any PBA Lease shall be deemed released, settled, and discharged as of the PBA Rejection Date.

86. Modifications. The modifications to the Seventh Amended Plan, as set forth in the Plan, do not adversely change the treatment of the Claim of any Creditor that accepted the Seventh Amended Plan and all such Creditors shall be deemed to have accepted the Plan. Before substantial consummation of the Plan, the Oversight Board may modify the Plan at any time after entry of this Confirmation Order, subject to any limitations set forth in the Plan (including consent rights) and any stipulation approved by this Court in connection with the Plan; provided, however, that the circumstances warrant such modification and the Court, after notice and a [85] hearing, confirms such modified plan under the applicable legal requirements. For the avoidance of doubt, the Plan shall not be modified except in accordance with Bankruptcy Code section 942 and the terms of this Confirmation Order.

87. Asserted Surety Claims. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, to the extent that the Claim of a surety against any of the Debtors is determined to be a secured claim and allowed in whole or in part, by Final Order, or by operation of section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code following the expiration of the period to object to any such Claim in accordance with the provisions of section 82.1 of the Plan, such Claim shall be paid in full, in Cash; provided, however, that, in the event some or all of any such Claim is determined to be an unsecured claim and allowed in whole or in part, by Final Order, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of section 17.1, 62.1 or 70.1 of the Plan, as the case may be.

- c. If it is a Nominee’s (or such Nominee’s agent’s) customary and accepted business practice to forward the Certification Notice to (and collect Certifications from) Beneficial Owners by information form, email, telephone, or other customary means of communications, as applicable, the Nominee (or such Nominee's agent) shall employ such method of communication in lieu of sending a paper copy of the Certification Notice to Beneficial Owners; provided, however, that if the Nominee's (or such Nominee's agent's) customary internal practice is to provide to Beneficial Owners an electronic link to the Certification Notice, the Nominee (or such Nominee's agent) may follow such customary practice in lieu of forwarding paper copies of the Certification Notice to Beneficial Owners.

MODIFICATIONS TO TRS PENSION BENEFITS (WITHOUT AMPR PSA)

MODIFICATIONS FOR FREEZE OF TRS BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS¹

The following is a summary of modifications with respect to a freeze of pension benefits accrued under the TRS. The modifications listed herein modify the benefits provided by TRS as established in Act 218-1951 and all subsequent amendments through the Plan Effective Date (including but not limited to Act 91-2004, Act 160-2013, and Act 106-2017) and are to be adhered to in the administration of TRS benefits by the Retirement Board. Administrative procedures not addressed below (such as rounding procedures in determining ages and service of participants) should be consistent with past practices.

TRS members hired prior to August 1, 2014, are currently accruing benefits under a defined benefit (“DB”) formula. To avoid creating future pension liabilities and to stabilize the system for the benefit of both taxpayers and future retirees, the TRS plan benefit accrual shall be frozen as of the Effective Date of the Plan (the “Freeze Date”) Such freeze shall apply to all members of TRS, regardless of title or job classification. TRS members will retain the benefits they have accrued to date, provided that any future cost of living adjustments, which are not accrued benefits and will not be accrued benefits as of the Effective Date, shall be eliminated as of the Effective Date. Future benefits shall be based on contributions and earnings in new segregated defined contribution (“DC”) retirement accounts funded by employee contributions. As a result, employees will have the certainty that their contributions and investment returns will be safeguarded for the future, ensuring retirement security.

Creditors - Appellees,

UNITED STATES,

Respondent - Appellee.

Before

Judge Barron,* Chief Judge,
Judge Lynch,* Judge Thompson, Judge Howard,
Judge Kayatta, and Judge Gelpí,*
Circuit Judges.

ORDER OF COURT

Entered: May 13, 2022

As there is no quorum of circuit judges in regular active service who are not recused and might vote on appellants' request for rehearing en banc, the request for rehearing en banc is denied. See 1st Cir. R. 35.0(a)(1). Pursuant to First Circuit Internal Operating Procedure X(C), the petition for rehearing en banc is also treated as a petition for rehearing before the original panel (which happens to include all circuit judges in regular active service who are not recused).

The petition for rehearing en banc rests primarily on contentions that the Title III court and this court

* Chief Judge Barron, Judge Lynch and Judge Gelpí are recused and did not participate in the determination of this matter.

relied on and expanded the holdings of the Insular Cases. Petitioners never attempted to develop any such contentions in the Title III court. Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen & Helpers Union, Loc. No. 59 v. Superline Transp. Co., 953 F.2d 17, 21 (1st Cir. 1992) (“[L]egal theories not raised squarely in the lower court cannot be broached for the first time on appeal.”). And on appeal, their opening brief did not cite to or reference the Insular Cases even once in its argument section, much less develop any argument such as is now attempted. Cf. Britto v. Prospect Chartercare SJHSRI, LLC, 909 F.3d 506, 514 (1st Cir. 2018) (deeming waived an argument touched on only very briefly and not at all in the briefs argument section); United States v. Zannino, 895 F.2d 1, 17 (1st Cir. 1990) (“[I]ssues adverted to in a perfunctory manner, unaccompanied by some effort at developed argumentation, are deemed waived.”). Nor did petitioners argue that PROMESA is itself unconstitutional. Finally, to the limited extent that the petition tries to elaborate on arguments already addressed in the panel opinion, the panel finds no reason to alter its holding. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.
