INTRODUCTION

I have a mental disability. I have a language barrier. I asked for help from the Montana Human Rights Bureau, several attorneys (over 40), the State Bar, Human Rights Network, American Civil Liberties Union, Disability Rights Montana, North Central Independent Living Services, U.S. Ambassador in South Korea, Korean Ambassador in Washington, D.C., Montana Legal Services Association, Great Falls Police Department, the Congressmen (Greg Gianforte, Matt Rosendale), Montana Human Rights Commission, the Senators (Jon Tester, Steve Daines), the Attorney Generals (Tim Fox, Austin Knudsen), the Governors (Steve Bullock, Greg Gianforte), the Mayors (Bob Kelly, Wilmot Collins), Cascade County Law Clinic, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Cascade County Self Help Law Center, Office of Public Instruction, U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, and my former counselors. None of them helped me.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I gave my mental health information to my teacher, Mrs. Marandino, in January 2017. My teacher, Mrs. Marandino, shared my information with Ms. Griffith, without my permission at the Adult Education Center, in the Great Falls College Montana State University School building.

The above staff shared my information with the staff of Great Falls College Montana State University School, including Ms. Chelsea, (She was an employee for the Great Falls College Montana State University School in 2019, and she also was an employee for the Great Falls Public Library in 2019.) Ms. Chelsea shared my information with the staff (Ms. Susie McIntyre and Ms. Rae McFadden) of the Great Falls Public Library. Ms. Susie McIntyre shared my information with all of the staff of the Great Falls Public Library, without my permission in 2019.

The staff of the Great Falls Public Library intimidated, harassed, humiliated and discriminated against me because of my mental disability.

I asked the Montana Eighth Judicial District Court, Cascade County/ the Montana Supreme Court for accommodation for an attorney, advocate, interpreter to represent my case, and these courts didn't accommodate me.
