Re: Carnahan v. Maloney, No. 22-425

Dear Mr. Bickell:

I am counsel for respondents in the above-referenced case. On November 4, 2022, a certiorari petition was filed in this case. Unless extended by the Court, the response is due on December 7, 2022. For the reasons that follow, and pursuant to Rule 30.4, I respectfully request an extension of 30 days, to and including January 6, 2023.

I have several pressing obligations during these upcoming weeks, including grading over one hundred civil procedure exams, filing a substantial brief with the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and consulting with my clients, who are all Members of the House of Representatives. An extension will allow me to meet these obligations and also to file a response that adequately addresses the points raised in the petition.

For these reasons, I ask that a 30-day extension be granted. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

David C. Vladeck
