CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS INVOLVED

INTRODUCTION

I have a mental disability. I have a language barrier. I asked for help from the Montana Human Rights Bureau, several attorneys (over 40), the State Bar, Human Rights Network, American Civil Liberties Union, Disability Rights Montana, North Central Independent Living Services, U.S. Ambassador in South Korea, Korean Ambassador in Washington, D.C., Montana Legal Services Association, Great Falls Police Department, the Congressmen (Greg Gianforte, Matt Rosendale), Montana Human Rights Commission, the Senators (Jon Tester, Steve Daines), the Attorney Generals (Tim Fox, Austin Knudsen), the Governors (Steve Bullock, Greg Gianforte), the Mayors (Bob Kelly, Wilmot Collins), Cascade County Law Clinic, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Cascade County Self Help Law Center, Office of Public Instruction, U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, and my former counselors. None of them helped me.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I gave my hospital mental health information to my teacher, Mrs. Marandino, in January 2017. My teacher, Mrs. Marandino, shared my information with Ms. Griffith, without my permission at the Adult Education Center, in the Great Falls College Montana State University School building. After I gave my information to my teacher, Mrs. Marandino, she and the staff of the Great Falls Public Schools intimidated, harassed, humiliated and discriminated against me because of my mental disability.

I asked the Montana Eighth Judicial District Court, Cascade County/the Montana Supreme Court for accommodation for an attorney, advocater, interpreter to represent my case and these courts didn't accommodate me.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

The staff of the Great Falls Public Schools shared my mental health information that I gave to my teacher, Mrs. Marandino, in January 2017.

The staff of the Great Falls Public Schools intimidated, harassed, humiliated and discriminated against me because of my mental disability.

I have a mental disability. I have a language barrier. I asked for help from the Montana Human Rights Bureau, several attorneys (over 40), the State Bar, Human Rights Network, American Civil Liberties Union, Disability Rights Montana, North Central Independent Living Services, U.S. Ambassador in South Korea, Korean Ambassador in Washington, D.C., Montana Legal Services Association, Great Falls Police Department, the Congressmen (Greg Gianforte, Matt Rosendale), Montana Human Rights Commission, the Senators (Jon Tester, Steve Daines), the Attorney Generals (Tim Fox, Austin Knudsen), the Governors (Steve Bullock, Greg Gianforte), the Mayors (Bob Kelly, Wilmot Collins), Cascade County Law Clinic, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Cascade County Self Help Law Center, Office of Public Instruction, U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, and my former counselors. None of them helped me.

The courts (The Supreme Court of the State of Montana /The Montana Eighth Judicial District Court, Cascade County) denied to accommodate me by appointing me an attorney, advocator, and an interpreter to represent my case when I requested.
