

Certification of Counsel pursuant to Supreme Rule 44.2

I come before the court in a attempt to comply with Supreme court 44.2.

I state to the court that I am presenting this motion for rehearing in good faith. I am not presenting this motion in a frivolous attempt to harass the defendant or clog the courts dockets. I believe I have a legitimate issue that warrants review by the court.

this motion is not in order to cause delay. After this petition there is no order or execution that is scheduled after this motion. After this motion my petition would reach its finality.

so I stated to the court that my motion for rehearing is being presented in good faith and not to cause delay.

Respectfully,
