

NO. 21A629

In the Supreme Court of the United States

---

JESSE JAMES PALATO

PETITIONER, IN PRO PER

V

DWAYNE HAMILTON, PAROLE AGENT,

JERRY POWERS, PAROLE DIRECTOR,

RESPONDENTS,

---

APPLICATION TO HON. ELENA KAGAN FOR A 60 DAY EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO FILE A PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT.

---

Pursuant to Rule 13.5 of the rules of this Court, applicant Jesse J Palato moves for an extension of time of 60 days, up to and including June 29th, 2022 within which to file a petition of writ of certiorari.

1. Applicant will seek review of the judgment in Palato v Hamilton, No. 20-56043 ( Jan 31, 2022 ).

A copy of the decision is attached as exhibit 1 and a copy of the denial of reconsideration as exhibit 2.

This application is filed more than 10 days before the date the petition is due. See Sup CT. R. 13.5. The jurisdiction of this court is based on 28 U.S.C. SECTION 12254(1).

2. Good cause exists for an extension.

Applicant, because of my current financial situation, is filing this as a pro per and need additional time to conduct research of related case law and the proper format of the writ of certiorari. Also I am utilizing the public library system to fill out and print my petition and at the present time there is only limited use of 1 hour per day to use the computers.

I have the utmost respect for post conviction attorneys in their responsibilities of the totality of presenting a full and fair research of cases they are assisting in.

3. In addition, an extension is warranted because this case presents a substantial question of constitutional law and rights violation.

An extension of time will help me to ensure that my petition clearly and thoroughly presents the viatally important and complicated issues to be presented to this court. .

4. For the foregoing reasons, applicant hereby requests an extension of time, up to and including June 29th, 2022, within which to file a petition of writ of certiorari.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jesse Palato', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
