APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO FILE A PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

To the Honorable Sonia Sotomayor, as Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit:

Applicant Eric Kamahele respectfully requests an extension of 60 days in which to file his petition for writ of certiorari, seeking review of the Tenth Circuit's decision in United States v. Kamahele, Case No. 17-4154 (10th Cir. April 5, 2022), a copy of which is attached to this application.

In support of this application, Applicant provides the following information:

1. The Tenth Circuit issued its decision on January 31, 2022, and it denied Mr. Kamahele's petition for rehearing on April 5, 2022. Accordingly, the petition for certiorari is currently due July 5, 2022. Granting this extension would make it due on September 5, 2022.

2. The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 28 U.S.C. 1254(1).

3. As the attached decision shows, the Tenth Circuit held that Mr. Kamahele's conviction for Hobbs Act robbery was properly categorized as a "crime of violence" under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). This decision, however, conflicts with the Tenth Circuit's pattern jury instructions, which were used at trial in this case. And it also conflicts with the pattern jury instructions adopted by other circuits as well.

Based on the ruling in his case, and the division among the circuits with respect to the elements of Hobbs Act robbery, Mr. Kamahele has determined he will seek review via a petition of certiorari.

Additionally, Mr. Kamahale believes the decision below conflicts with this court's recent decision in United States v. Taylor, 20-1459 (U.S. Jun. 21, 2022), which held that attempted Hobbs Act robbery is not a crime of violence under § 924(c). As this case was decided just a few days ago, additional time is needed to fully analyze and brief the issues in light of Taylor.

4. This application is not sought for purposes of delay. Undersigned counsel is the lead attorney on more than 100 pending appeals, original prosecutions, and post-conviction petitions.

There are currently no other attorneys in the Federal Public Defender office who are familiar enough with the record in Mr. Kamahale's case to be capable of preparing a petition by the current due date.

For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Kamahale requests a 60-day extension of time in which to file a petition for a writ of certiorari.

Respectfully submitted,

/S/ Benjamin C. McMurray
