Order

Defendant Geoffrie Dill asks the Court to appoint counsel to review his case and determine whether he has a viable claim for relief based on the Seventh Circuit case United States v. De La Torre, 940 F.3d 938 (2019). That motion, dkt. [217], is granted. The Indiana Federal Community Defender is appointed to represent the petitioner for the purpose of advising him regarding whether he has a claim under De La Torre. This appointment is made pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3006A. The duration of the appointment is until further order. The defendant's contention that the Amended Judgment in this case is incorrect is being addressed in his motion for relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Dill v. United States, 1:13-cv-1900-TWP-TAB.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
