

Certificate

The petition is not subject to oral argument and is presented in good faith and not for delay.

But its grounds shall be limited to intervening circumstances of a substantial or controlling effect or to other substantial grounds not previously presented.