ph: 574-315-4219*

Argument:

- o I was sexually assaulted by the supervisors and managers of this employer in 2018. When I reported the assaults to this employer I was terminated. R[41](@[22]Section #8 Statement Of Case 10) This Court, counsel of record for the Defendant, and the state courts have all determined that I am ineligible to receive justice because I can not afford to pay the required court costs and fees.
- o I am requesting a rehearing of my case based on this issue extrordinary circumstance becuase I believe it is a violation of my Fourteenth Amendment Rights to equal protection of the laws. I am a disabled, indigent, African American woman and my family and I have suffered greatly at the hands of this employer and their staff. Please reconsider the judgment made by this Court and grant me the opportunity to be heard and receive justice for the crimes committed against me pursuant to the United States Constitution.

14 Amendment Section 1:

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.

No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States;

nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law;
nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.
