UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

LONNIE CHARLES WILLIAMS,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
USDC No. 3:20-CR-213-1

Before WIENER, ELROD, and ENGELHARDT, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Appealing his sentence for possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, Lonnie Charles Williams objects to a four-level guidelines enhancement he received for possessing the firearm with intent to use it in connection with the Texas offense of aggravated assault with a deadly

* Pursuant to 5TH CIRCUIT RULE 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5TH CIRCUIT RULE 47.5.4.

No. 22-10312

weapon. According to Williams, the district court misapplied Texas law by determining that merely carrying a rifle in public satisfies the threat element of the statute. A person commits the offense if he “intentionally or knowingly threatens another with imminent bodily injury,” TEX. PENAL CODE § 22.01(a)(2), while “exhibit[ing] a deadly weapon,” TEX. PENAL CODE § 22.02(a)(2). Williams acknowledges that pointing a firearm at someone would satisfy the threat element but notes that a surveillance video showed he did not point the rifle at anyone. He further contends that to apply the Texas statute in such a way that criminalizes the mere act of carrying a firearm in public would violate the Second Amendment. We review a district court’s application of the Sentencing Guidelines de novo. United States v. Luyten, 966 F.3d 329, 332 (5th Cir. 2020).

Williams misconstrues the district court’s ruling. The court did not determine that merely carrying a firearm in public satisfies the threat element of the aggravated assault statute. Instead, a witness testified that Williams left a small social gathering with strangers in an apartment complex common room after they questioned his combat experience and returned armed with a rifle and a machete. The court found that his specific conduct of “leaving and returning” to the pool room with the firearm was sufficient to constitute a threat to the three men playing pool, where there was no other explanation for the conduct. Williams does not challenge the sufficiency of that evidence and misapprehends the district court’s ruling by focusing solely on the mere act of carrying a firearm. Because the district court did not rely on the reasoning that merely carrying a firearm violates the Texas law, Williams fails to show any error by the district court.

AFFIRMED.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of:

THIRTY-SEVEN (37) MONTHS.

Pursuant to United States Sentencing Commission, Guidelines Manual, §5G1.3(c) (Nov. 2018), it is the Court's intent for the sentence to run concurrently with any sentence imposed in the defendant's pending State cases: F-2035692, F-2035693, F-2035624, and F-2035699, pending in the 203rd Judicial District Court of Dallas County, and for the defendant to receive a sentence adjustment to account for any time spent in custody beginning on January 4, 2020 that the Bureau of Prisons will not credit under 18 U.S.C. §3585(b). If the Court could order the sentences to run concurrently, it would, so it is the Court's intention that the effect be the same as if the federal sentence ran concurrently from the date service of the state sentence began.

This sentence shall run consecutive to any sentence imposed in Case Nos. 1543031 and 1543035, pending in the 432nd Judicial District Court of Tarrant County; and Case Nos. 1543037 and 1546147, pending in the Tarrant County Criminal Court No. 1, as these offenses are not related to the instant federal offense.

☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
The Court recommends the Defendant serve his sentence in the Dallas/Fort Worth area.

☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:

☐ at ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m. on

☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.

☐ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
☐ before 2 p.m. on
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: THREE (3) YEARS.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
8. You must pay the assessment imposed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3013.
9. If this judgment imposes a fine, you must pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: LONNIE CHARLES WILLIAMS
CASE NUMBER: 3:20-CR-00213-M(1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions.
