12. Defendants in this case had stolen dozens of my german shepherds that have been my the only business inventory. Furthermore, in bogus attempt to justify possession of the stolen dogs and refusal to return them to me on demand of sheriffs, animal control officers, my attorneys and myself, Defendants conspired with Bryan Pease, who created a public smear campaign on myself and my business. I had to close the business and cannot run any business, nor can find employment because my name falsely slandered as "convicted animal abuser", while I was not even arrested but detained only, no charges ever filed, no case opened against me and San Bernardino County compensated me and Olivia Jeong substantial amount about 2 years ago, which I have spent mostly on legal defense trying to restore my name and life. Defamation case against Pease is still in courts now, I won defamation and libel causes in intermediate ruling and Pease appeals now for the second year, while my name , business and life is still totally destroyed.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
