QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

1.) The Supreme Court of the State of Kansas erroneously denied the Petitioner's previously filed Petition for a writ of Habeas Corpus under K.S.A. § 60-1501; For not liberally construing the previous Petition (same) as a claim on its face that the petitioner's liberty is being unlawfully restrained for a Double Jeopardy violation of both State and Federal Constitution for the use of multiplicitous evidence; thus convicting the petitioner of two separate crimes using the same pseudoephedrine.

2.) The Supreme Court of the State of Kansas erred in not granting the Petitioner a Hearing.

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

There are Constitutional provisions involved in the previously filed petition For Habeas Corpus (Same), however, None for the purposes of the questions in this Review.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The petitioner filed a Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus under U.S.A. § 2241 directly to the Supreme Court of the State of Kansas sometime around July of 2022. The petitioner has claimed that his rights were being violated by an unlawful restraint of liberty for the use of multiplicitous evidence in using the same pseudoephedrine to convict him of two separate crimes, which invokes Double Jeopardy pursuant to both State and Federal Constitution.

The petitioner sought relief in reversing one of those two convictions. The Supreme Court of Kansas denied the petitioner's previous petition (same) on 9-16-22. There was no hearing. The petitioner believes that invokes this Court's review in lieu of a rehearing and timely files this petition.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

The petitioner believes this petition should be granted because the judgment rendered was from a State Court of last ~~resort~~ and such judgment was rendered erroneously. There are no other adequate remedies to pursue. This is the petitioner's only opportunity to have his Habeas Corpus petition (same) heard and allowed his day in court. The Kansas Supreme Court is the only court involved and so which is their judgment under review. The Supreme Court of Kansas's decision was erroneous because the court is liberally construed to understanding the petitioner's reasons and filings. On its face a Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus under U.S.A. § 60-1501 must be liberally construed as a claim that the petitioner's liberty is unlawfully restrained for a violation of U.S. laws. Therefore this petition should be granted.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

John Holland
