SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: Life, on Counts 1-4 of the Indictment

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse.
4. You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable) To be addressed by separate order
5. You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
6. You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense.
7. You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Bradley, Curtis
CASE NUMBER: 3:21-CR-18-1-BJB

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

DEFENDANT: Bradley, Curtis
CASE NUMBER: 3:21-CR-18-1-BJB

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

14. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Officer with access to any requested financial information.
15. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers [as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)], other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office to a search conducted by the United States Probation Officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of their release and that the areas to be searched may contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
16. The defendant shall submit to the USPO conducting an initial computer inspection/search of the defendant's computer system(s), which are subject to examination and monitoring, which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system(s) for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. An officer may conduct a subsequent search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant is in violation of the court's computer monitoring condition, or is in possession of child pornography, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(8). Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
17. The defendant will consent to having installed on computer(s) which are subject to examination and monitoring at the defendant's expense, any hardware/software to monitor the defendant's computer use or prevent access to particular materials. The defendant hereby consents to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to ensure it is functioning properly. The defendant shall warn any other third parties who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
18. The defendant shall participate in and abide by the rules of the Computer Restriction & Monitoring Program.
19. The defendant shall cease any use or activity on any computer subject to examination and monitoring until the computer can be processed by the Special Offender Specialist or designee, to comply with the monitoring ordered by the Court.
20. Unless required for employment, the defendant is prohibited from using any computer other than the one monitored by the U.S. Probation Office.
21. The defendant shall provide the USPO with accurate information about the defendant's entire computer system (hardware/software), all passwords used by the defendant, and the defendant's Internet Service Provider(s).
22. The defendant shall have no direct contact with any children under the age of 18 unless accompanied by and supervised by an adult who has been approved in advance by the sex offender treatment counselor and the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall immediately report any unauthorized contact with children to the sex offender treatment counselor and to the probation officer.
23. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity that may cause the defendant to come in direct contact with children under the age of 18, except under circumstances approved in advance by the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause the defendant to come into direct contact with children under the age of 18, except under circumstances approved in advance by the defendant's probation officer.
24. The defendant shall not rent or use a post office box or storage facility without authorization from the USPO.
25. The defendant shall not view, purchase, possess or distribute any form of pornography depicting sexually explicit conduct defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2), or frequent any place where such material is the primary product for sale or entertainment is available.
26. The defendant shall be subject to Polygraph, Computer Voice Stress Analysis, or other similar device to obtain information necessary for supervision, case monitoring, and treatment at the discretion and direction of the U.S. Probation Officer. The defendant shall be subjected to maintenance exams thereafter. No violation proceedings will arise solely on a defendant's failure to pass an examination. No violation proceeding will arise on a defendant's refusal on valid Fifth Amendment grounds to answer questions. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of services rendered based upon his/her ability to pay as reflected in his/her monthly cash flow as it relates to the court-approved sliding fee scale.
27. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender counseling program approved by the U.S. Probation Office and shall abide by the policies of the program. The defendant shall contribute to the Probation Office's cost of services rendered based upon his/her ability to pay as reflected in his/her monthly cash flow as it relates to the court-approved sliding fee scale.
28. The defendant shall comply with any sex offender registration laws of any state in which he/she resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student.
29. The defendant shall have no contact with the victim, including correspondence, telephone contact to include text messaging, or communication through third party, except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment provider.

CASE NUMBER: 3:21-CR-18-1-BJB

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

30. The defendant shall consent to third party disclosure to any employer or potential employer, concerning any computer-related restrictions that are imposed.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the Court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties in accordance with the schedule of payments set forth on Sheet 5, Part B.

	Assessment	Fine	Restitution
Totals:	$ 400.00		$ 3,000.00

The fine and the costs of investigation, prosecution, incarceration and supervision are waived due to the defendant's inability to pay.

The determination of restitution is deferred until . An Amended Judgment in a Criminal Case (AO 245C) will be entered after such determination.

Restitution is not an issue in this case.

The defendant shall make restitution (including community restitution) to the following payees in the amount listed below. To be addressed by separate order

Criminal debt may be paid by check or money order or may be paid online at www.kywd.uscourts.gov (See Online Payments for Criminal Debt). If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive an approximately proportioned payment, unless specified otherwise in the priority order or percentage payment column below. However, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(I), all nonfederal victims must be paid in full prior to the United States receiving payment.

	 Total Amount of Loss	Amount of Restitution Ordered	Priority Order Or Percentage Of Payment
Name of Payee

If applicable, restitution amount ordered pursuant to plea agreement. $

The defendant shall pay interest on any fine of more than $2,500, unless the fine is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3612(f). All of the payment options on Sheet 5, Part B may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3612(g).

The court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest and it is ordered that:

The interest requirement is waived for the Fine and/or Restitution

The interest requirement for the Fine and/or Restitution is modified as follows:

* Findings for the total amount of losses are required under Chapters 109A, 110, 110A, and 113A of Title 18, United States Code, for offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994 but before April 23, 1996.
