UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

DEC 13 2022

MOLLY C. DWYER, CLERK
U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

ARNOLDO ANTONIO GARCIA,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

v.

AFOD VALDEZ, ICE Director, Adelanto
Detention Facility, individual capacity; et al.,

Defendants-Appellees.

No. 21-56017

D.C. No. 5:14-cv-02533-MWF-AS Central District of California,
Riverside

ORDER

Before: WALLACE, TALLMAN, and BYBEE, Circuit Judges.

The district court has certified that this appeal is not taken in good faith and has denied appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). On December 8, 2021, this court ordered appellant to explain in writing why this appeal should not be dismissed as frivolous. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) (court shall dismiss case at any time, if court determines it is frivolous or malicious).

Upon a review of the record, the response to the court's December 8, 2021 order, and the opening brief filed on October 20, 2021, we conclude this appeal is frivolous. We therefore deny appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis (Docket Entry No. 3) and dismiss this appeal as frivolous, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2).

No further filings will be entertained in this closed case.

DISMISSED.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA - EASTERN DIVISION

11 ARNOLDO ANTONIO GARCIA,
12 Plaintiff,
13 v.
14 AFOD VALDEZ, et al.,
15 Defendants.

Case No. EDCV 14-02533-MWF (AS)

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

17 This Report and Recommendation is submitted to the Honorable 18 Michael W. Fitzgerald, United States District Judge, pursuant to 19 28 U.S.C. § 636 and General Order 05-07 of the United States 20 District Court for the Central District of California.

22 I. INTRODUCTION

24 On December 10, 2014, Arnoldo Antonio Garcia ("Plaintiff"), 25 proceeding pro se, filed a Civil Rights Complaint pursuant to 26 Bivens v. Six Unknown Fed. Narcotics Agents, 403 U.S. 388 (1971).
27 (Dkt. No. 1). Plaintiff also filed a Request To Proceed Without 28 Prepayment of Filing Fees, or in forma pauperis ("IFP"). (Dkt.

1 No. 3). At that time, Plaintiff was in the custody of the Bureau
2 of Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") at the Adelanto
3 Detention Center ("Adelanto").<sup>1</sup> On December 16, 2014, Plaintiff
4 filed a First Amended Complaint in which he named as defendants 5 Jeh Johnson, then Secretary of Homeland Security; Thomas Winkowski, 6 then Acting Director of ICE; and Afod Valdez, then ICE Director at 7 Adelanto. (Dkt. No. 5 at 1- 2). The District Court screened the 8 First Amended Complaint, as prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2), 9 and dismissed it without leave to amend for lack of subject matter 10 jurisdiction. The Court also found that the action was frivolous 11 or malicious and failed to state any claim. (Dkt. Nos. 6, 11).

13 Plaintiff appealed the dismissal to the Ninth Circuit. (Dkt.
14 Nos. 7-10, 12). On March 18, 2021, the Ninth Circuit issued a 15 Memorandum Opinion reversing and remanding the action, finding 16 that, while the First Amended Complaint did fail to state a claim 17 for relief, this Court had improperly dismissed the action for lack 18

20 <sup>1</sup> A few months earlier, on September 15, 2014, Plaintiff 21 filed a petition for writ of habeas corpus in this Court, pursuant 22 to 28 U.S.C. § 2241. (See Garcia v. Clark, C.D. Cal. Case No. EDCV 23 14-1915-MWF (AS)). The Petition contended that his request for 24 release on bond had been improperly denied and ICE officials were 25 refusing to transport him to hearings in State Court. (Id., Dkt.
26 No. 1). The Court dismissed the 2014 Petition on November 25, 27 2014, because the Court lacked jurisdiction over the challenge to 28 the bond determination and Plaintiff's claim regarding transportation by ICE was improperly pled under § 2241. (Id., Dkt.
Nos. 3-4). On July 5, 2016, Plaintiff filed a habeas petition in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, in which he challenged his State Court guilty plea. (See Garcia v. Lucero, C.D. Cal. Case No. EDCV 16-1449-MWF (AS)). The Court dismissed the 2016 Petition on March 9, 2017. (Id., Dkt. Nos. 12, 14-15).

1 of jurisdiction, and Plaintiff should have been given leave to 2 amend his claims. (Dkt. No. 13 at 2-4).

4 In accordance with the Ninth Circuit's Memorandum Opinion, 5 the Court again screened the First Amended Complaint pursuant to 6 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) and dismissed it with leave to amend on 7 April 2, 2021. (Dkt. No. 15).<sup>2</sup> On May 10, 2021, Plaintiff filed 8 a Second Amended Complaint ("SAC") in which he named as defendants 9 Alejandro Mayorkas, Secretary of Homeland Security; Johnson, Acting 10 Director of ICE; Valdez, then ICE Director at Adelanto; and "Does" 11 1-10. Plaintiff appeared to name the defendants in their 12 individual and official capacities. (See Dkt. No. 26 at 2-4). The 13 Court then screened the SAC, finding that (1) Plaintiff continued 14 to name defendants in both their official and individual 15 capacities, even though he had been admonished about proceeding 16 with any civil rights claim against federal officials in their 17 official capacities; (2) the SAC failed to allege any 18 constitutional violation by Defendants Mayorkas and Johnson; (3) 19 Plaintiff failed to provide sufficient factual allegations against 20 any "Doe" Defendant; (4) Plaintiff could not raise a claim pursuant 21 to a state statute or the Fourteenth Amendment against any federal 22 official; (5) Plaintiff's allegations failed to plausibly allege a 23 claim for violation of his right of access to the courts; and (6) 24 even if Plaintiff were to add factual allegations to an amended 25 pleading, it appeared that no remedy would be available for his

<sup>2</sup> Magistrate judges may dismiss a pleading with leave to amend without approval from the district judge. McKeever v. Block, 932 F.2d 795, 798 (9th Cir. 1991).
28

1 alleged constitutional violations under Bivens. For these reasons, 2 the Court dismissed Plaintiff's SAC with leave to amend on June 3 14, 2021. (See Dkt. No. 27). Plaintiff was admonished that, if 4 he wished to pursue this action and file an amended pleading, his 5 Third Amended Complaint must cure the pleading defects discussed 6 in the Court's Order and must "identify the nature of each separate 7 legal claim." (Id. at 14-15).

9 Plaintiff filed a Third Amended Complaint ("TAC") on July 15, 10 2021, (dkt. No. 28), which the Court has screened pursuant to 28
11 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). For the reasons discussed below, the Court 12 finds that Plaintiff has failed to cure the defects of his three 13 earlier pleadings, and that the TAC violates Federal Rules of Civil 14 Procedure 8(a) ("Rule 8"), and fails to allege "enough facts to 15 state a claim for relief that is plausible on its face" against 16 any Defendant. Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570
17 (2007). Accordingly, it is recommended that Plaintiff's TAC be 18 dismissed without leave to amend.

II. PLAINTIFF'S ALLEGATIONS

22 The TAC appears to name as defendants Afod Valdez, then ICE 23 Director at Adelanto; Officer "J.I." at Adelanto; and Does 1-10, 24 and indicates that these Defendants are being sued in their 25 individual capacities. (Dkt. No. 28 at 1-2). However, the TAC 26 alleges that "Defendants Mayorkas, Johnson, and any Defendant in 27 his/her official and/or individual capacity" is "legally 28 responsible[e] for all of the injuries and/or damages sustained by

1 Plaintiff. (Id. at 3). It is not clear if this allegation pertains 2 to the defendants named in the TAC who differ somewhat from those 3 listed in Plaintiff's three prior pleadings.<sup>3</sup> The TAC also names 4 one individual officer, identified only as "J.I.," who is alleged 5 to be the "ICE Officer" at Adelanto. The sole factual allegation 6 raised against this individual is that J.I. denied a written 7 request for transportation to Superior Court that Plaintiff 8 submitted in August 2014. (Id. at 2, 5). Plaintiff seeks only 9 monetary damages in the TAC. (Id. at 8).

10

11 The only "Cause of Action" that Plaintiff raises in the TAC 12 is essentially identical to the one "Cause of Action" that 13 Plaintiff raised in each of his earlier pleadings, albeit against 14 different defendants. (See Dkt. No. 1 at 1; Dkt. No. 5 at 1; Dkt.
15 No. 26 at 2; Dkt. No. 28 at 2). This single "Cause of Action"
16 references Bivens; Monell v. New York City Dep't of Soc. Servs., 17 436 U.S. 658 (1978); an administrative grievance that was denied 18 by Director Valdez; Plaintiff's right of access to the courts; the 19 First Amendment; his Fifth Amendment "Due Process rights to request 20 the Superior Court to withdraw his Plea"; Cal. Penal Code § 1381.5; 21 the Fourteenth Amendment's "right to substantive due process"; his 22 "right to appear" in Superior Court; a deprivation of liberty and 23 "freedom from personal harm"; and a conspiracy by "the individual 24 Defendants." (Dkt. No. 28 at 2, 4-8). In the TAC, Plaintiff has 25 added allegations concerning his former public defender, but that 26

27 <sup>3</sup> Plaintiff has named Director Valdez as a defendant in 28 each of his pleadings.

1 individual is not named as a defendant and the new facts are not 2 material to any claim Plaintiff appears to be raising in the TAC
3 against any named defendant. (Id. at 4). Plaintiff has also added 4 a paragraph speculating as to the reasons why he "was denied 5 transportation to all his Court Hearings" by the defendants, as 6 well as the actions that would have occurred in his "Superior Court 7 case" had Plaintiff been "allowed to appear" for such hearings.
8 (Id. at 7). These speculative allegations are unsupported by any 9 facts.

11 The factual allegations set forth in Plaintiff's pleadings
12 pertain to a guilty plea that he entered in November 2012 in a case 13 in the County of San Bernardino Superior Court. Plaintiff alleges 14 that his then public defender "mislead" him into entering the plea 15 to a violation of state law. In 2013, when Plaintiff was 16 represented by a different public defender, the Superior Court 17 granted a motion to withdraw Plaintiff's guilty plea. However, 18 Plaintiff was not transported to attend the relevant hearing or on 19 the following day during which the Superior Court rescinded its 20 order withdrawing Plaintiff's plea and reinstated his guilty plea.
21 Plaintiff alleges that the plea was reinstated because the Superior 22 Court incorrectly believed that Plaintiff was a "fugitive," and 23 Defendants had refused to allow Plaintiff to be transported to 24 Superior Court. (Id. at 4, 7).

26 Plaintiff additionally alleges that, on August 6, 2014, when 27 he submitted an ICE Detainee Request to be transported to the 28 Superior Court for a hearing, Officer J.I. denied the request and

1 stated, "We do not facilitate transport to court hearings." (Id.
2 at 5 (capitalization altered from original)). On August 8, 2014, 3 Plaintiff submitted a grievance regarding the failure to transport 4 him, but Defendant Valdez denied the grievance, stating that 5 Plaintiff would not be transported until his appeal was denied - 6 apparently in reference to Plaintiff's immigration appeal that was 7 then pending in the Ninth Circuit. Plaintiff characterizes the 8 written statement as "fascist" and alleges that the refusal to 9 transport him to Superior Court violated California law. (Id.).
10

11 Plaintiff also alleges that, in September 2014, he was told 12 by his attorney at the time that the Superior Court would not 13 consider his petition for dismissal unless Plaintiff was present.
14 Plaintiff, however, could not appear because "Defendants refused 15 to allow Plaintiff to be transported in Superior Court." (Id. at 16 6). Plaintiff claims that "Defendants' conduct" deprived Plaintiff 17 of "rights, privileges, and immunities secured to him by the 18 Constitution" and violated the First and Fourteenth Amendments.
19 (Id. at 7). Finally, Plaintiff states the conclusory allegation 20 that the "acts of the individual Defendants in conspiring to 21 deprive Plaintiff of his constitutionally protected rights were 22 done with evil motive or intent, or with reckless or callous 23 indifference to said Plaintiffs [sic] rights." (Id. at 8).
24

25 III. STANDARD OF REVIEW
26

27 Congress mandates that District Courts screen civil complaints 28 filed by plaintiffs who are proceeding in forma pauperis. See 28

1 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). A court may dismiss such a complaint if 2 the court concludes that the complaint: (1) is frivolous or 3 malicious, (2) fails to state a claim upon which relief may be 4 granted, or (3) seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is 5 immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2); accord Lopez v.
6 Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1126-27 & n.7 (9th Cir. 2000) (en banc)
7 (noting that § 1915(e) applies to all IFP complaints); Calhoun v.
8 Stahl, 254 F.3d 845 (9th Cir. 2001) ("the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 9 1915(e)(2)(B) are not limited to prisoners").

11 Dismissal for failure to state a claim is appropriate if a 12 complaint fails to proffer "enough facts to state a claim for 13 relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 14 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). "A claim has facial plausibility when 15 the plaintiff pleads factual content that allows the court to draw 16 the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the 17 misconduct alleged." Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); 18 accord Hartmann v. Cal. Dep't of Corr. & Rehab., 707 F.3d 1114, 19 1122 (9th Cir. 2013). A plaintiff must provide "more than labels 20 and conclusions" or a "formulaic recitation of the elements" of 21 his claim. Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555. However, "[s]pecific facts 22 are not necessary; the [complaint] need only give the defendant 23 fair notice of what the claim is and the grounds upon which it 24 rests." Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 93 (2007) (per curiam) 25 (citation and alterations omitted). In addition, dismissal may be 26 appropriate if a complaint violates Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of 27 Civil Procedure. See, e.g., McHenry v. Renne, 84 F.3d 1172, 1179 28

1 (9th Cir. 1996); Nevijel v. N. Coast Life Ins. Co., 651 F.2d 671, 2 673 (9th Cir. 1981).

4 In considering whether to dismiss a complaint, a court is 5 generally limited to the pleadings and must construe "[a]ll factual 6 allegations set forth in the complaint . . . as true and . . . in 7 the light most favorable" to the plaintiff. Lee v. City of Los 8 Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 688 (9th Cir. 2001). Moreover, pro se 9 pleadings are "to be liberally construed" and "held to less 10 stringent standards" than those drafted by a lawyer. Erickson, 11 551 U.S. at 94 (citation omitted). However, the "tenet that a 12 court must accept as true all of the allegations contained in a 13 complaint is inapplicable to legal conclusions." Iqbal, 556 U.S.
14 at 678. Rather, a court first "discount[s] conclusory statements, 15 which are not entitled to the presumption of truth, before 16 determining whether a claim is plausible." Salameh v. Tarsadia 17 Hotel, 726 F.3d 1124, 1129 (9th Cir. 2013); see also Chavez v.
18 United States, 683 F.3d 1102, 1108 (9th Cir. 2012). Dismissal of 19 a pleading for failure to state a claim may be warranted based on 20 either the lack of a cognizable legal theory or the absence of 21 factual support for a cognizable legal theory. Mendiondo v.
22 Centinela Hosp. Med. Ctr., 521 F.3d 1097, 1104 (9th Cir. 2008).

23

24 IV. DISCUSSION

25

26 Plaintiff's Third Amended Complaint warrants dismissal
27 without further leave to amend because it violates Rule 8 and once 28

1 again fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, 2 despite Plaintiff's three attempts at amendment.

4 A. Official-Capacity Claims Are Not Permitted Under Bivens

6 As Plaintiff previously has been admonished, he may not 7 proceed with any Bivens claims against federal officials in their 8 official capacities. Here, it is not clear if Plaintiff is 9 purporting to sue defendants in both their individual and official 10 capacities. While Plaintiff indicates, in the caption of his TAC 11 and the paragraphs naming Valdez and J.I. as defendants, that these 12 defendants are named in their individual capacities (Dkt. No. 28 13 at 1-2), he then references Defendants Mayorkas, Johnson, and other 14 Defendants in "his/her official" capacity. (Id. at 3).

16 A claim against a federal official in his or her official 17 capacity is effectively a claim against the United States.
18 Kentucky v. Graham, 473 U.S. 159, 165 (1985) (official-capacity 19 suits "generally represent only another way of pleading an action 20 against an entity of which an officer is an agent"); Community 21 House, Inc. v. City of Boise, Idaho, 623 F.3d 945, 966-67 (9th Cir.
22 2010) (an official capacity suit is treated as a suit against the 23 entity). Absent an unequivocal waiver, the doctrine of sovereign 24 immunity bars suits against the United States and its agencies.
25 See FDIC v. Meyer, 510 U.S. 471, 475 (1994); Gilbert v. DaGrossa, 26 756 F.2d 1455, 1458-59 (9th Cir. 1985) (suits against officers and 27 employees of the United States in their official capacities are 28 barred by sovereign immunity absent an explicit waiver). The 1       United States has not waived its sovereign immunity for 2       constitutional torts or actions. See, e.g., Jachetta v. United 3       States, 653 F.3d 898, 904 (9th Cir. 2011) (citing Meyer, 510 U.S.

4       at 478). Accordingly, Plaintiff may not raise any claims against 5       federal officials in their official capacities pursuant to Bivens.
6       See Ministerio Roca Solida v. McKelvey, 820 F.3d 1090, 1094 (9th 7       Cir. 2016) ("By definition, Bivens suits are individual capacity 8       suits and thus cannot enjoin official government action.").

10      B. Plaintiff's TAC Violates Rule 8

11

12       Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure governs how a 13       plaintiff must plead claims in a complaint. Specifically, Rule 14       8(a) requires that a pleading contain "'a short and plain statement 15       of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief,' in 16       order to 'give the defendant fair notice of what the . . . claim 17       is and the grounds upon which it rests.'" Twombly, 550 U.S. at 18       555 (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a); omission in original). Further, 19       "[e]ach allegation must be simple, concise, and direct." Fed. R.
20       Civ. P. 8(d)(1). Conclusory allegations are insufficient. See 21       Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678, 686. Accordingly, a pleading violates 22       Rule 8 if "one cannot determine from the complaint who is being 23       sued, for what relief, and on what theory." McHenry, 84 F.3d at 24       1178.

25

26       Plaintiff has previously been admonished that his pleadings 27       violate Rule 8 because he does not set forth factual allegations 28       against each named Defendant alleging "simply, concisely, and

1 directly [the] events" that entitle him to damages from such 2 Defendant. Johnson v. City of Shelby, 574 U.S. 10, 12 (2014). The 3 various amended complaints that Plaintiff has filed in this action 4 allege that unspecified "Defendants" at unspecified times "refused 5 to allow Plaintiff to be transported from [Adelanto] to Superior 6 Court for any reason," or that Valdez and the "Doe" Defendants 7 "consistently refused to allow Plaintiff to be transported" at 8 unspecified times. (See, e.g., Dkt. No. 5 at 4; Dkt. No. 28 at 4, 9 6). Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant Valdez rejected a 10 grievance that Plaintiff filed in August 2014 regarding a refusal 11 by ICE to transport Plaintiff to Superior Court (Dkt. No 28 at 5), 12 but Plaintiff does not set forth any factual allegations showing 13 simply and directly how the rejection of this one grievance caused 14 Plaintiff to be unable to proceed with his criminal matter in 15 Superior Court. Plaintiff also alleges that the "wrongful acts" 16 or "conduct" of unspecified "Defendants" caused Plaintiff to be 17 "deprived of his liberty," and he references the "Fifth and 18 Fourteenth Amendments." (Id. at 7). However, the TAC does not 19 clearly allege any facts showing how the actions of a specific 20 named defendant are alleged to have caused a violation of 21 plaintiff's rights pursuant to the Fifth Amendment. Further, as 22 set forth below, federal officials are not subject to the 23 Fourteenth Amendment.

24

25 After being provided with multiple opportunities to amend his 26 pleading to correct these defects, Plaintiff still fails to clearly 27 allege what claim he wishes to raise against which defendant 28 arising from what factual allegations. Plaintiff continues to 1       allege a single "Cause of Action" in each of his pleadings that 2       refers generally to "Defendants" and references numerous legal 3       theories. Plaintiff has failed to cure the deficiencies in his 4       pleadings as set forth in the Court's Order Dismissing First 5       Amended Complaint With Leave to Amend (Dkt. No. 15) and Order 6       Dismissing Second Amended Complaint With Leave to Amend (Dkt. No.

7       27). Instead, Plaintiff filed nearly identical pleadings following 8       each Order, merely changing or omitting some defendants, omitting 9       his request for injunctive relief (which is not available in a 10       Bivens action), adding factual allegations concerning individuals 11       who are not named as defendants in this action, and adding 12       speculative and unsupported allegations regarding the reasons for 13       the alleged refusal by defendants to transport Plaintiff to 14       Superior Court. These conclusory allegations are not entitled to 15       a presumption of truth, and the Court discounts them in determining 16       whether Plaintiff's TAC raises any claim that is plausible. See, 17       e.g., Salameh, 726 F.3d at 1129.

18

19       In the TAC, plaintiff continues to raise only one cause of 20       action in which he appears to be attempting to assert multiple 21       claims. Plaintiff alleges facts within this single cause of action 22       that concern individuals not named as defendants and fails to 23       clearly allege how the actions of any named defendant caused 24       Plaintiff to suffer a federal constitutional violation.
25       Accordingly, the Court finds that the fails to meet the basic 26       requirement of Rule 8 that a pleading set forth a minimal factual 27       and legal basis for each claim sufficient to allow each defendant 28       to discern what he or she is being sued for. See McHenry, 84 F.3d

1 at 1177; see also Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555 ("[f]actual allegations 2 must be enough to raise a right to relief above the speculative 3 level").

5 Because Plaintiff's TAC does not provide the named defendants 6 with fair notice of the specific claims being raised against each 7 of them or the grounds upon which any claim rests, Plaintiff's TAC 8 violates Rule 8.

10 C. Plaintiff May Not Raise Claims Under Cal. Penal Code § 1381.5
11 or the Fourteenth Amendment Against Federal Defendants

12

13 Plaintiff's TAC once again alleges that the refusal by 14 defendants in general to transport Plaintiff to Superior Court 15 violated Cal. Penal Code § 1381.5. (Dkt. No. 28 at 5). Plaintiff 16 argues that this provision of state law required "the Federal 17 correctional institution" to bring Plaintiff to state court.
18 (Id.). However, this state statute does not - and indeed cannot - 19 require conduct by federal officials which are the only named 20 defendants. The statute instead requires the district attorney of 21 the respective county (who is a state official) to request that 22 federal custodial officials release a defendant to attend a state 23 criminal proceeding if that defendant has first made such an 24 inquiry to the respective district attorney.<sup>4</sup> Cal. Penal Code

25

---

26 <sup>4</sup> The statute also pertains only to the transport of a 27 defendant who "has been convicted of a crime and has entered upon 28 a term of imprisonment therefore in a federal correctional institution." Cal. Penal Code § 1381.5. Plaintiff, on the other hand, was in federal immigration custody at the relevant time.

1       § 1381.5. Plaintiff has previously been admonished that he may 2       not raise any claims pursuant to this statute against any defendant 3       named in this action. See Dkt. No. 27 at 10.

5           In addition, Plaintiff cites the Fourteenth Amendment. (Dkt.
6       No. 28 at 7). The provisions of the Fourteenth Amendment, however, 7       are applicable only to states and state actors. See, e.g., District 8       of Columbia v. Carter, 409 U.S. 418, 424 (1973) ("actions of the 9       Federal Government and its officers are beyond the purview of the 10       [Fourteenth] Amendment"). The Court has previously warned 11       Plaintiff that federal officials are not subject to the Fourteenth 12       Amendment. (Dkt. No. 27 at 11). Instead, the Fifth Amendment's 13       Due Process Clause applies to federal government actors. See, 14       e.g., Castillo v. McFadden, 399 F.3d 993, 1002 n.5 (9th Cir. 2005) 15       (noting that the "Fifth Amendment prohibits the federal government 16       from depriving persons of due process, while the Fourteenth 17       Amendment explicitly prohibits deprivations without due process by 18       the several States"). Plaintiff's factual allegations in the TAC 19       are insufficient to state any plausible claim against a named 20       defendant pursuant to the Fifth Amendment.

21

22       D. The TAC Fails to Plausibly Allege an Actual Injury

23

24           To establish a violation of his constitutional right of access 25       to the courts, Plaintiff must show an "actual injury," defined as 26       "actual prejudice with respect to contemplated or existing 27       litigation, such as inability to meet a filing deadline or present 28       a claim." Lewis v. Casey, 518 U.S. 343, 348 (1996) (citation and

1 internal quotations omitted). In the TAC, Plaintiff appears to 2 allege that defendants violated his right of access to the courts 3 by refusing to transport him to the state Superior Court for some 4 hearings. (See Dkt. No. 28 at 5-7). Plaintiff generally does not 5 specify what the hearings he alleges he missed were about or how 6 he was harmed or prejudiced by failing to appear at them. The one 7 hearing that Plaintiff alleges defendants caused him to miss for 8 which he alleges an "injury" concerns the criminal proceeding on 9 July 17, 2013. (Id. at 4). On that date, according to Plaintiff, 10 Defendants' refusal to transport him to the San Bernardino County 11 Superior Court caused the Superior Court to rescind a prior order 12 withdrawing Plaintiff's guilty plea, thus reinstating the guilty 13 plea, on the false grounds that Plaintiff was a "fugitive." (Id.).
14

15 However, these allegations appear to contradict court orders 16 from Plaintiff's 2015 state habeas proceedings, which were also 17 previously lodged in Plaintiff's 2016 habeas action in this Court.<sup>5</sup> 18 (See Garcia v. Lucero, C.D. Cal. Case No. EDCV 16-1449-MWF(AS), 19 Dkt. No. 7). Specifically, according to an order issued by the 20 San Bernardino County Superior Court on November 19, 2015, the 21 Superior Court had reinstated Plaintiff's guilty plea on July 17, 22 2013, not because Plaintiff was a "fugitive," but rather because 23 the court's prior decision to vacate the guilty plea (on July 16, 24

25 _____
26 <sup>5</sup> The Court may take judicial notice of state court orders.
27 See Fed.R.Evid.201©; Harris v. Cnty of Orange, 682 F.3d 1126, 1132 28 (9th Cir. 2012) ("We may take judicial notice of undisputed matters of public record, including documents on file in federal or state courts.") (citation omitted).

1 2013) was made in error.<sup>6</sup> (See id., Dkt. No. 7-15 (Lodgment 14)).
2 Therefore, contrary to Plaintiff's allegations in his pleadings in 3 this action, the state court's decisions apparently had nothing to 4 do with Plaintiff's failure to appear at his hearings in Superior 5 Court because he was in ICE custody at the time.<sup>7</sup> This Court "need 6 not [] accept as true allegations that contradict matters properly 7 subject to judicial notice or by exhibit," Sprewell v. Golden State 8 Warriors, 266 F.3d 979, 988 (9th Cir.), amended on denial of reh'g, 9 275 F.3d 1187 (9th Cir. 2001) (citation omitted). As such, even 10 assuming that any defendant in this action refused to provide 11 Plaintiff with transportation to one or more of his State Court 12 hearings, the documents the Court has taken judicial notice of show

13 _____
14 <sup>6</sup> More specifically, the Superior Court's November 2015 15 order rejected plaintiff's state habeas claim that his trial 16 counsel had mislead Plaintiff to plead guilty by failing to 17 properly advise him of the immigration consequences of the plea.
18 (Garcia v. Lucero, C.D. Cal. Case No. EDCV 16-1449-MWF(AS), Dkt.
19 No. 7-15 (Lodgment 14)). The court determined that Plaintiff had 20 been properly informed of the consequences of his plea. (Id. at 21 6-7). Regarding the court's initial decision, on July 16, 2013, 22 to vacate the guilty plea, the Superior Court observed that the court had done so improperly based on an attorney's stipulation.
23 (Id. at 3 & n.3, 8). According to the Superior Court, it was error 24 to have permitted the withdrawal of Plaintiff's guilty plea absent any "legal or factual basis," and the court subsequently corrected 25 its own error by reinstating the guilty plea the next day, July 26 17, 2013, after conferring with Plaintiff's counsel. (Id. at 3, 27 8).

28 <sup>7</sup> Partly for this reason, this Court dismissed Plaintiff's 2016 petition for federal habeas relief under to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, in which Plaintiff claimed, in part, that state officials should have "either had ICE transport [him] to [his] Motion Hearings or dismiss [his] charges," on the grounds that the Superior Court had "illegally" vacated the order withdrawing his guilty plea because Plaintiff was a "fugitive," despite that immigration authorities refused to permit him to be transported. (Garcia v. Lucero, C.D. Cal. Case No. EDCV 16-1449-MWF(AS), Dkt. Nos. 1, 12).

1 that Plaintiff did not suffer any actual injury as a result of such 2 refusal.

4 Accordingly, following Plaintiff's multiple attempts at 5 amendment, it has become clear to the Court that Plaintiff will 6 not be able to raise any claim against any defendant in this action 7 for an alleged violation of his right of access to the courts.

9 E. The TAC Should be Dismissed Without Further Leave to Amend

10

11 The Court is mindful that, because plaintiff is appearing pro
12 se, the Court must construe the allegations of the TAC liberally 13 and must afford plaintiff the benefit of any doubt. Further, leave 14 to amend should be freely given "when justice so requires." Fed.
15 R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2). "[T]his policy is to be applied with extreme 16 liberality." Desertrain v. City of Los Angeles, 754 F.3d 1147, 17 1154 (9th Cir. 2014) (citation omitted). When dismissing a 18 complaint for failure to state a claim, the Court should grant 19 leave to amend "unless it determines that the pleading could not 20 possibly be cured by the allegation of other facts." Lopez, 203 21 F.3d at 1127 (citation omitted). Nevertheless, a court "may 22 exercise its discretion to deny leave to amend due to 'undue delay, 23 bad faith or dilatory motive on part of the movant, repeated failure 24 to cure deficiencies by amendments previously allowed, undue 25 prejudice to the opposing party and futility of amendment.'" Carvalho v. Equifax Info. Servs., LLC, 629 F.3d 876, 892 (9th Cir.
26 2010) (quoting Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962)) 27 (alterations omitted); see also Gonzalez v. Planned Parenthood of

1       L.A., 759 F.3d 1112, 1116 (9th Cir. 2014) (a "district court's 2 discretion in denying amendment is particularly broad when it has 3 previously given leave to amend" (internal quotation marks 4 omitted)). Additionally, if amendment would be futile, then the 5 court may dismiss the pleading with prejudice. Mujica v. AirScan 6 Inc., 771 F.3d 580, 593 & n.8 (9th Cir. 2014).

8       Here, Plaintiff has already been provided with multiple 9 opportunities to file an amended pleading. Although the Court 10 provided Plaintiff with clear instructions about the defects of 11 his First Amended Complaint and his Second Amended Complaint as 12 well as how he should proceed to correct those defects, Plaintiff 13 instead elected to file essentially the same pleading with minor 14 non-substantive changes. The TAC, which is Plaintiff's fourth 15 attempt at alleging sufficient facts to state a claim for relief 16 that is plausible on its face, still violates Rule 8, and it fails 17 to allege "simply, concisely, and directly [the] events" that 18 plaintiff alleges entitle him to damages from any Defendant.
19 Johnson, 574 U.S. at 12. Plaintiff continues to allege claims 20 under a state statute and the Fourteenth Amendment, which are not 21 cognizable against the federal officials that he names as 22 defendants in this action.

23

24       Moreover, even if Plaintiff was provided with another 25 opportunity for amendment, additional factual allegations are 26 unlikely to be sufficient to raise a claim upon which relief may 27 be granted. As Plaintiff has previously been admonished, it 28 remains unclear whether any remedy under Bivens is available for

1 the constitutional deprivations that he appears to be alleging in 2 his pleadings. Although Plaintiff's factual allegations are not 3 specific enough to determine if a Bivens action would potentially 4 lie, the Court notes that the United States Supreme Court has made 5 clear that expanding the Bivens remedy is a "disfavored" judicial 6 activity. See, e.g., Hernandez v. Mesa, 140 S. Ct. 735, 742 (2020) 7 (citing Ziglar v. Abbasi, 137 S. Ct. 1843, 1857 (2017)). The 8 Supreme Court has never recognized a Bivens remedy for a First 9 Amendment claim arising from denial of access to the courts. See 10 Reichle v. Howards, 566 U.S. 658, 663 n.4 (2012) ("We have never 11 held that Bivens extends to First Amendment claims."); Iqbal, 556 12 U.S. at 675 ("we have declined to extend Bivens to a claim sounding 13 in the First Amendment"); see also Buenrostro v. Fajardo, 770 Fed.
14 Appx. 807, 808 (9th Cir. May 22, 2019) (declining to extend Bivens 15 to a First Amendment claim for retaliation raised by a prisoner); 16 Schwarz v. Meinberg, 761 Fed. Appx. 732, 734-35 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 17 2019) (declining to extend a Bivens remedy to a prisoner's claim 18 of denial of access to the courts) (cases now citable for their 19 persuasive value pursuant to Ninth Circuit Rule 36-3).

20

21 The Court has accepted Plaintiff's factual allegations as 22 true, liberally construed the claims that he appears to be raising, 23 and given Plaintiff the benefit of any doubt. However, Plaintiff's 24 TAC once again fails to raise "more than a sheer possibility" that 25 any defendant violated Plaintiff's federal Constitutional rights.
26 See, Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678 (the "plausibility standard" requires 27 "more than a sheer possibility that a defendant has acted 28 unlawfully"). The Court therefore recommends that the TAC be

1 dismissed without further leave to amend because it has become 2 clear that providing Plaintiff with additional opportunities for 3 amendment would be futile. See, e.g., Cervantes v. Countrywide
4 Home Loans, Inc., 656 F.3d 1034, 1041 (9th Cir. 2011) (dismissal 5 without leave to amend is proper when amendment would be futile); 6 Chaset v. Fleer/Skybox Int'l, LP, 300 F.3d 1083, 1088 (9th Cir.
7 2002) (denial of leave to amend is not an abuse of discretion if 8 the "basic flaw" in the underlying facts cannot be cured by 9 amendment).

10

11 V. RECOMMENDATION

12

13 Consistent with the foregoing, IT IS RECOMMENDED that the 14 District Court issue an Order: (1) approving and accepting this 15 Report and Recommendation, (2) dismissing Plaintiff's Third Amended 16 Complaint without leave to amend for failure to state a claim, and 17 (3) entering Judgment dismissing this action with prejudice.

FOR THE COURT:

MOLLY C. DWYER
CLERK OF COURT

By: Matthew Narensky
Deputy Clerk
Ninth Circuit Rule 27-7

(1) Subject to subsection (b), any court of the United States may authorize the commencement, prosecution or defense of any suit, action or proceeding, civil or criminal, or appeal therein, without prepayment of fees or security therefor, by a person who submits an affidavit that includes a statement of all assets such prisoner possesses that the person is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor. Such affidavit shall state the nature of the action, defense or appeal and affiant's belief that the person is entitled to redress.

(2) A prisoner seeking to bring a civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action or proceeding without prepayment of fees or security therefor, in addition to filing the affidavit filed under paragraph (1), shall submit a certified copy of the trust fund account statement (or institutional equivalent) for the prisoner for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint or notice of appeal, obtained from the appropriate official of each prison at which the prisoner is or was confined.

(3) An appeal may not be taken in forma pauperis if the trial court certifies in writing that it is not taken in good faith.

(1) Notwithstanding subsection (a), if a prisoner brings a civil action or files an appeal in forma pauperis, the prisoner shall be required to pay the full amount of a filing fee. The court shall assess and, when funds exist, collect, as a partial payment of any court fees required by law, an initial partial filing fee of 20 percent of the greater of-

(A) the average monthly deposits to the prisoner's account; or

(B) the average monthly balance in the prisoner's account for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint or notice of appeal.

(2) After payment of the initial partial filing fee, the prisoner shall be required to make monthly payments of 20 percent of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account. The agency having custody of the prisoner shall forward payments from the prisoner's account to the clerk of the court each time the amount in the account exceeds $10 until the filing fees are paid.

(3) In no event shall the filing fee collected exceed the amount of fees permitted by statute for the commencement of a civil action or an appeal of a civil action or criminal judgment.

(4) In no event shall a prisoner be prohibited from bringing a civil action or appealing a civil or criminal judgment for the reason that the prisoner has no assets and no means by which to pay the initial partial filing fee.
