QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

Based upon "information, belief, and personal experience," Petitioner (respectfully) submits the following:

I.

In NC DEPT. OF REV v. KIM RICE KAESTNER 1992 TRUST, 139 S. Ct. 2213 (2019), this Court held the following (verbatim, with emphasis added):

In its simplest form, a trust is created when one person (a "settlor" or "grantor") transfers property to a third party (a "trustee") to administer for the benefit of another (a "beneficiary"). A. Hess, G. Bogert, & G. Bogert, Law of Trusts and Trustees § 1, pp. 8-10 (3d ed. 2007). As traditionally understood, the arrangement that results is not a "distinct legal entity, but a 'fiduciary relationship' between multiple people." Americold Realty Trust v. Conagra Foods, Inc., 577 U. S. ___, ___, 136 S.Ct. 1012, 1016, 194 L.Ed.2d 71 (2016). The trust comprises the separate interests of the beneficiary, who has an "equitable interest" in the trust property, and the trustee, who has a "legal interest" in that property. Greenough v. Tax Assessors of Newport, 331 U.S. 486, 494, 67 S.Ct. 1400, 91 L.Ed. 1621 (1947). In some contexts, however, trusts can be treated as if the trust itself has "a separate existence" from its constituent parts. Id., at 493, 67 S.Ct. 1400.<sup>[1]</sup>

Id. at 2218.

II.

Question 1: Since In re Marriage of Guinn, 93 P.3d 568 (Colo. App. 2004) was/is (strictly) a “division of marital property” case (governed by “Title 14. Domestic Matters (§§ 14-1-101 to 14-15-119), Colorado Revised Statutes (C.R.S.) (2022)”) -- and this case is a “testamentary trust” case (governed by “Title 15. Probate, Trusts, and Fiduciaries ((§§ 15-1-101 — 15-23-122), C.R.S. (2022))”) -- did the Colorado Court of Appeals commit “reversible error” when it applied “division of marital property” law (under Title 14, C.R.S. (2022)) to this case?

Question 2: Based upon the holdings in NC DEPT. OF REV v. KIM RICE KAESTNER 1992 TRUST [KAESTNER] case, did the Colorado Court of Appeals commit “reversible error” when it applied “division of marital property” law (under Title 14, C.R.S. (2022)) to this case and ruled that “...Cole hasn’t established any constitutional deprivation. He doesn’t have a property interest in the undistributed funds from the trust”?

Question 3: Based upon the holdings in KAESTNER, what “constitutional rights” do “trust beneficiaries” have in their “equitable interests” in (inherited) “monies” – from (“probated”) “Last Wills and Testaments” – which are held in “testamentary trusts” for the “benefit” of “trust beneficiaries”?

Question 4: If the Colorado Court of Appeals did not commit “reversible error” in this case, do “trust beneficiaries” have (“legal” and/or “equitable”) “standing” to “protect” their “equitable interests” in (inherited) “monies” – from (“probated”) “Last Wills and Testaments” – which are held in “testamentary trusts” for their “benefit(s)” as “trust beneficiaries”?

The order will direct that the certified transcript of record on file be treated as though sent up in response to a formal writ. A formal writ will not issue unless specially directed.

No petition for rehearing may be filed after the issuance of an order denying a petition for writ of certiorari.

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

United States Constitution, Amendment XIV .....5,

ARTICLE II [Bill of Rights], Colorado Constitution (2022)
[<https://advance.lexis.com/>]: .....5,

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner -- on “information, belief, and personal experience” – (respectfully) “asserts” the following:

I.

Fundamentally, this case is the “result” of what happens when peoples’ (“fundamental”) “constitutional rights” – to “Due Process” and “Equal Protection” under both the United States Constitution, Amendment XIV and ARTICLE II [Bill of Rights], Colorado Constitution (2022) – are “violated” in estate, probate, and trust cases in the United States.

II.

Generally, this case is the “result” of what happens when judicial officers” (and courts) are allowed to “violate” their “Oaths-of-Office” and “duties” to “uphold” both the U.S. Constitution and the Constitutions of all 50 States.

III.

Specifically, this case is the “result” of what happens when peoples’ (“fundamental”) “constitutional rights” – to “Due Process” and “Equal Protection” under both the United States Constitution, Amendment XIV and ARTICLE II [Bill of Rights], Colorado Constitution (2022) – are “violated” in estate, probate, and trust cases in Colorado.

IV.

Due to the fact that, in its Opinion of February 10, 2022 (Appendix A (“The Opinion on Appeal”)), the Colorado Court of Appeals, Div. III, asserted that it “lacked jurisdiction” – (allegedly) because Petitioner failed to file a timely) NOTICE OF APPEAL -- Petitioner is “compelled” to submit the following timeline of court orders:

March 13, 2020: The date the Denver Probate Court Order issued (“APPENDIX B”), the trial court order which Petitioner appealed to the Court of Appeals in this case.

May 1, 2020: The date Plaintiff, by (mailed) extension motion, appealed APPENDIX B to the Colorado Court of Appeals.

V.

In his PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI, filed on June 23, 2022, Petitioner “apprised” the Colorado Supreme Court of the following “(Advisory) Issues” (quoted verbatim below):

- ¶ 1 Since In re Marriage of Guinn, 93 P.3d 568 (Colo. App. 2004) was/is (strictly) a “division of marital property” case (“governed” by “§ 14-10-113, C.R.S. 2003”), and this case is a “testamentary trust” case (“governed” by Title 15 [“PROBATE, TRUSTS, AND FIDUCIARIES”], Colorado Revised Statutes (2022)), did the Court of Appeals commit “error” – by “mixing apples (i.e., “§ 14-10-113, C.R.S. 2003”) and oranges (i.e., Title 15 [“PROBATE, TRUSTS, AND FIDUCIARIES”], Colorado Revised Statutes (2022))” – when it “ruled” that “... Cole hasn’t established any constitutional deprivation. He doesn’t have a property interest in the undistributed funds from the trust”? (Opinion, ¶ 20)

- ¶ 2 Does Colorado law not hold that the “property interests of a trust beneficiary “vest” – immediately -- upon the death of the “testator”?
- ¶ 3 For the future, how do Coloradans – who, like Petitioner, are the “beneficiaries” of “testamentary trusts” – “protect” themselves from the “error(s)” made by the Court of Appeals in this case?
- ¶ 4 For “posterity,” how do Coloradans – who, like Petitioner, are the “beneficiaries” of “testamentary trusts” – “prevent” Colorado’s courts from “committing” the same (“mixing apples with oranges”) “errors” in future cases?
- ¶ 5 If the Court of Appeals’ (“no property interest”) “position” – “espoused” in this case (Opinion, ¶ 20) – is the “law,” do (“similarly-situated”) Coloradans have any “property rights” – under Colorado law -- which give them “standing” to “protect” their “interests in their “testamentary trusts”?
- ¶ 6 If the Court of Appeals’ (“no property interest”) “position” – “espoused” in this case (Opinion, ¶ 20) – is the “law,” are “interests” of Colorado’s “testamentary trust beneficiaries” (still) “protected” by (both) the U.S. and Colorado Constitutions?
- ¶ 7 Did the Court of Appeals commit “error” when it “ruled” that Petitioner’s Notice of Appeal was “untimely” (Opinion, ¶¶ 14, 15, 16), on “June 5, 2020,” when “June 5, 2020” was the (precise) “due date” the Court of Appeals gave Petitioner – in its Order dated “May 22,” 2020” – for Petitioner to file his Notice of Appeal? (See: 2020COA842, Order dated “May 22, 2020”).

- ¶ 8 Did the Court of Appeals commit “error” when it “ruled” that it “lack[ed] jurisdiction” (Opinion, ¶¶ 12, 13) to consider – even as a matter of “judicial notice” when conducting an “abuse of discretion” review and analysis – Probate Judge Leith’s (“historical” and “documented”) “pattern and practice” of “mistreating” Petitioner, and (systematically) denying him of his (“constitutional”) “rights” to “due process” and “equal protection”?
- ¶ 9 Did the Court of Appeals commit “error” by not attempting to conduct – whatsoever -- an “abuse of discretion” review and analysis into Probate Judge Leith’s (“historical” and “documented”) “pattern and practice” of “mistreating” Petitioner, and (systematically) denying him of his (“constitutional”) “rights” to “due process” and “equal protection”? (Opinion, ¶¶ 14, 15, 16, 18, 19)
- ¶ 10 Did Probate Judge Leith “abuse her discretion” – during the Trust hearing on January 27, 2020 – by not granting a “continuance” (TR 1/27/20, pp. 20, 40) when Petitioner “objected” (TR 1/27/20, pp. 31, 42, 58) and/or “complained” (TR 1/27/20, pp. 1- 63), about being “forced” to continue without having yet received the (subject) “hearing documents,” which Respondent (falsely) reported, to the court, that she had mailed to Petitioner the previous week? (TR 1/27/20, pp. 1- 63)
- ¶ 11 Did Probate Judge Leith “abuse her discretion” – during the Trust hearing on January 27, 2020 – by not granting Petitioner’s (renewed) motion that she (again) “recuse” herself (TR 1/27/20, p. 15), for (again) “mistreating” Petitioner and (again) denying him his (“constitutional”) “rights” to “due process” and “equal protection”; based upon Probate Judge Leith’s (“historical” and “documented”) “pattern and practice” of “mistreating” Petitioner and (again) denying him of his (“constitutional”) “rights” to “due process” and “equal protection”? (TR 1/27/20, pp. 1- 63)

¶ 12 With respect to the Trust hearing on January 27, 2020, did Petitioner lose any of his (“constitutional”) “rights” to “due process” and “equal protection” when he entered Probate Judge Leith’s courtroom on January 27, 2020? (TR 1/27/20, pp. 1- 63)

¶ 13 When considered under a “totality of the circumstances” analysis, did Probate Judge Leith’s (“historical” and “documented”) “pattern and practice” of “mistreating” Petitioner – and (systematically) denying him of his (“constitutional”) “rights” to “due process” and “equal protection” – violate the (“impartiality”) “requirements” of Canon 2 and Canon 3 Colorado Code of Judicial Conduct? (TR 1/27/20, pp. 1- 63)

VI.

In his (PETITIONER’S) C.A.R. 53(d) REPLY BRIEF, filed on July 29, 2022, Petitioner “apprised” the Colorado Supreme Court of the following (additional) “issues” for the Court’s consideration (quoted verbatim below):

I. “COMPLAINT(S)” ABOUT JUDGE LEITH AND RESPONDENT

¶ 2 [Note: Due to the “sensitivities” and “confidentialities” involved, Petitioner requests this (Honorable) Court to contact the both the Colorado Commission on Judicial Discipline (CCJD) and the Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel (OARC) for further information about what Petitioner has done. In particular, Petitioner requests that “judicial notice” be taken as to the number of REPORT OF PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT – under Colo. RPC 8.3 [Reporting Professional Misconduct] – Petitioner has sent to OARC about Respondent and her law firm.]

II. THE (“PRECEDENTIAL”) “FUNCTION(S),” IN COLORADO, OF THE “COMMON LAW” WRIT OF CERTIORARI

¶ 3 According to the “holding(s),” in the case of Sutterfield v. District Court in and For Arapahoe County, 438 P.2d 236, 239 (1968), this (Honorable) Court held the following -- with respect to the “function(s), in Colorado,” of the “...common law writ of certiorari...” [quoted verbatim, emphasis added.]:

While the issuance of a writ of certiorari is always discretionary, this Court has the power under Article VI, section 3, to issue such writs to review interlocutory orders of lower courts. The power has been exercised where the usual review by writ of error would not afford adequate protection to substantive rights of the petitioners. See Lucas v. District Court, 140 Colo. 510, 345 P.2d 1064; Potashnik v. Public Service Co., 126 Colo. 98, 247 P.2d 137; Swift v. Smith, 119 Colo. 126, 201 P.2d 609. In this case, it appears that all parties would be put to unnecessary delay and expense were we to require that one or both of these claims be fully tried before determining whether the claims should have remained joined in the first instance. It is also evident that, should plaintiffs obtain a favorable judgment in both lawsuits, none of the parties will be in a position to raise the important procedural question posed by this proceeding. It is the function of the common law writ of certiorari to correct substantial errors of law committed by an inferior tribunal which are not otherwise reviewable. 14 Am.Jur.2d Certiorari § 2. Sutterfield, at 239.

III. (ADDITIONAL) REASONS FOR GRANTING CERTIORARI

¶ 4 Since RESPONDENT’S OPPOSITION TO PETITION FOR CERTIORARI (falsely) “alleges” -- by stating: “1. Petitioner has not presented any special and important reasons as required by C.A.R. 49, for this Court to grant certiorari” -- that the PETITION FOR WRIT

OF CERTIORARI has not presented the “requisite” reasons, under C.A.R. 49, “...for this Court to grant certiorari,” Petitioner offers the following additional (“legal,” “ethical,” “equity,” “public policy,” “public interest,” and “interests of justice”) “reason(s)” why the PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI should be “Granted”:

a. Arguably, RESPONDENT’S OPPOSITION TO PETITION FOR CERTIORARI “implicates” and/or “evidences” (“systematic”) “violation(s)” of the “obligations” and/or “requirements” set forth in her “Oath of Admission”; administered to, and taken by, all attorneys – like (both) Respondent and Petitioner – in order to hold law licenses in Colorado [quoted below, verbatim, emphasis added.]:

OATH OF ADMISSION

I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR (OR AFFIRM) that:

I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Colorado; I will maintain the respect due to courts and judicial officers; I will employ such means as are consistent with truth and honor; I will treat all persons whom I encounter through my practice of law with fairness, courtesy, respect and honesty; I will use my knowledge of the law for the betterment of society and the improvement of the legal system; I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed; I will at all times faithfully and diligently adhere to the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct.

b. Arguably, RESPONDENT’S OPPOSITION TO PETITION FOR CERTIORARI “implicates” and/or “evidences” (“systematic”) “violation(s)” of the “obligations” and/or “requirements” set forth in her “Oath of Office”; administered to, and taken by, “Public Administrators” – like Respondent -- in Colorado [quoted below, verbatim, with emphasis added.]:

I, -----, in accepting the position of the public administrator in and for the ----- judicial district of the state of Colorado, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the constitution of the United States and of the state of Colorado, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of the office of public administrator as required by law.

[Source: C.R.S. § 15-12-619. “Public administrator - appointment - oath - bond - deputy”]

c. Arguably, what has been done to Petitioner -- in his family’s trust and estate cases -- “implicates” and/or “evidences” (“systematic”) “violation(s)”, by Judge Leith, of the “obligations” and/or “requirements” set forth in her “Oath of Office”; administered to, and taken by, all judges in Colorado (See: Petitioner’s Exhibit (2)).

d. Arguably, RESPONDENT’S OPPOSITION TO PETITION FOR CERTIORARI “implicates” and/or “evidences” (“systematic”) “violation(s)” – by Respondent -- of the “obligations” and/or “requirements” set forth in the Colorado’s Code of Professional Conduct (R.P.C.).

[<https://www.cobar.org/rulesofprofessionalconduct>]

e. Arguably, what has been done to Petitioner -- in his family’s trust and estate cases -- “implicates” and/or “evidences” (“systematic”) “violation(s)”, by Judge Leith, of Colorado’s Code of Judicial Conduct (C.C.J.C.).

[https://www.courts.state.co.us/userfiles/file/Code\_of\_Judicial\_Conduct.pdf]

f. Arguably, this case is “riddled” and “replete” with (“systematic,” “intolerable,” and “unacceptable”) – “constitutionally,” “judicially,” and “societally” -- “violation(s)” of (multiple) sections of “Colorado Revised Statutes Annotated, Title 15. Probate, Trusts, and Fiduciaries (§§ 15-1-101 — 15-23-122), Colorado Uniform Trust Code (Art. 5), Article 5. Colorado Uniform Trust Code (Pts. 1 — 14).”

g. Specifically -- due to all of her (“overt,” “systematic,” “continuous,” “adversarial,” “unethical,” and “unlawful”) “mistreatment” of Petitioner – Respondent has (“clearly,” if not “arguably”) “violated” her “fiduciary duty/duties,” under C.R.S. § 15-5-802 [“Duty of Loyalty”], to “...administer the trust solely in the interests of the beneficiaries.” [Emphasis added.]

h. Arguably, what has been done to Petitioner -- in his family’s trust and estate cases -- “implicates” and/or “evidences” an (“untenable”) “departure,” by (both) the Denver Probate Court and the Colorado Court of Appeals, from the “law” set forth in the U.S. Supreme Court opinions cited, by Petitioner, in his PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI.

i. Again, If this (Honorable) Supreme Court was to take “judicial notice” of the “findings, conclusions, and recommendations” of all of the following “Performance Audits” – “initiated” by the State Auditor pursuant to Section 2-3-103, C.R.S. -- it would (clearly) see that this case “suffers” from a multitude of the same “maladies,” “ethics problems,” “avarice,” “conflicts of interest,” and (“kleptocratic”) “injustices” which, for decades, have “plagued” this area of Colorado law; and which the following Performance Audits, in fact, “exposed” to the “light of day” [...]

VII.

Additionally, Petitioner asserts -- “on information, belief, and personal experience” – that the State of Colorado has “violated” his “rights” under the following federal Acts and U.S. Code sections:

- a. The Civil Rights Act of 1866;
- b. 18 U.S.C. 242 ["Deprivation of rights under color of law"];
- c. 42 U.S.C. 1983 ["Civil action for deprivation of rights"]; and

VIII.

Further, Petitioner asserts that the State of Colorado has “violated” his “rights” under the following Colorado Statutes and (well-established) “edicts” of “the common law”:

- a. (“Implicated”) “violation(s)” of: Title 15 [“PROBATE, TRUSTS, AND FIDUCIARIES”], C.R.S. (2022)); and

- b. The "common law" regarding: the "common law" of "testamentary interests"; the "common law" of "vesting" of "testamentary interests"; the "common law" of "trusts"; and the "common law" regarding the "fiduciary duties" trustees "owe" their "beneficiaries."

IX.

Finally, Petitioner that, effectively, the State of Colorado – when the Court of Appeals misapplied its own case law to Petitioner's case (to wit: "...Cole hasn't established any constitutional deprivation. He doesn't have a property interest in the undistributed funds from the trust. In re Marriage of Guinn, 93 P.3d 568 (Colo. App. 2004)") – has "eviscerated" Petitioner's "constitutional rights" to his own ("lawful" and "vested") "testamentary inheritance."

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

I.

Respondent is an attorney and, in her (“official”) “quasi-government” capacity, Respondent, Marcie R. McMinimee, is the “Assistant County Administrator” for the City & County of Denver, Colorado.

As NC DEPT. OF REV v. KIM RICE KAESTNER 1992 TRUST is one of this Court's (precedential) cases, it should prevail over the (numerous) "reversible errors" made by the Colorado Court of Appeals in this case.

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons forth herein and for “good cause” shown – and due to the fact that the State of Colorado has “eliminated” Petitioner’s “constitutional rights” to his own (“lawful” and “vested”) “testamentary inheritance” – Petitioner (respectfully) requests that this (Honorable) Court “GRANT” this PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI; if for no other reason(s) than to ensure that no other American, Coloradan, or veteran, is made to endure the same, or similar, “travesties of justice,” in contravention of both the U.S. and Colorado Constitutions, as have been “committed” in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
