THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS,) Appeal from the Plaintiff-Appellee,) Circuit Court of v.) Cook County.

) Judge, presiding.

JUSTICE Gordon delivered the judgment of the court.
Presiding Justice McBride and Justice Reyes concurred in the judgment.

SUMMARY ORDER

¶ 1 Defendant Donald McDonald appeals from the circuit court's order dismissing his petition for relief from judgment filed pursuant to section 2-1401 of the Code of Civil Procedure (Code) (735 ILCS 5/2-1401 (West Supp. 2019)).

¶ 2 Following a 1995 jury trial, defendant was convicted of criminal sexual assault and sentenced to life imprisonment as a habitual criminal. We affirmed on direct appeal. People v. McDonald, No. 1-95-2669 (1996) (unpublished order under Illinois Supreme Court Rule 23).

¶ 6 On October 27, 2020, defendant filed a motion for leave to file a late notice of appeal. The Office of the State Appellate Defender, which represents defendant on appeal, filed a motion for leave to withdraw as appellate counsel, citing Pennsylvania v. Finley, 481 U.S. 551 (1987). On December 22, 2021, we denied counsel's motion until counsel moved in our supreme court for a supervisory order for the filing of a late notice of appeal. On January 20, 2022, our supreme court granted defendant's motion for a supervisory order and directed this court to treat his October 27, 2020, motion for leave to file a late notice of appeal as a properly perfected appeal. McDonald v. Gordon, No. 128059 (Ill. Jan. 20, 2022) (supervisory order).

¶ 7 Counsel has now filed another motion for leave to withdraw as appellate counsel, pursuant to Finley. Counsel has submitted a memorandum in support of the motion, stating that counsel has reviewed the record and concluded that an appeal would be without arguable merit. Copies of the motion and memorandum were sent to defendant, who was advised that he may submit any points in support of his appeal.

¶ 8 On May 4, 2022, defendant filed a response. He reiterates the claims from his petition, challenges the circuit court's judgment on procedural grounds, and presents other theories of relief. He further disputes counsel's conclusions that his petition is untimely and his claims are not cognizable under section 2-1401. He contends that counsel is providing unreasonable assistance by not amending his petition and is moving to withdraw due to a heavy caseload, not because his case lacks merit.

¶ 9 After carefully reviewing the record in light of counsel's motion and memorandum, and defendant's response, we agree with counsel's conclusion. Thus, the motion of the Office of the
