CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

1. Warrantless Arrest
2. Blood extraction without warrant
3. Failure to follow Constitutional laws
4. No probable Cause to stop/Arrest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE
& RULE 20.4(A) STATEMENT

I was at the store shopping when the store clerk called the police. Then officer Gurbord answered the call who came in the store and directed me to finish shopping but then after talking to the clerk Steve Wiggins, I got pulled out of the store handcuffed, me and my car searched without my consent. Then the fire department came to take vitals without my consent. Then my arms were grabbed and I was slammed down and knocked unconscious for refusing to give my consent to a blood test and before I knew it I was carried off to a ambulance where I was kicked, punched violently and strapped to a gurney and my arm pulled out and blood withdrawn from my arm over my objections

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

1. Lacked insufficient cause to stop/arrest
2. Warrantless arrest
3. Motive was on officer hunch

The Reason why I have petition the Supreme Court in lieu of the district Court is because the district court stated I did not have a prima facia Showing and it state that I can not file a petition for ineffective assistance of Counsel. You don't receive a DUI for running a red light.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of habeas corpus should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Anthony Turner
