RE: Request for extension of time to file brief in opposition
Gricely Rosa v. Lawrence Housing Authority, et al.
S. Ct. No. 22-7304

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel to the respondents in this case. Petitioner's Petition for Writ of Certiorari was filed on January 21, 2023 and docketed on April 17, 2023. Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 15.3, a brief in opposition is due to be filed today. Pursuant to Rule 30.4, respondents respectfully request that the time for filing a brief in opposition be extended by 48 hours through May 19, 2023.

Good cause exists for this request. This will be my first case before the Supreme Court and my first request for an extension in this case. Although notice of the docketing of the subject Petition was emailed on April 19, 2023, I did not receive a copy of the actual Petition and formal Notice until May 2, 2023. According to the postmark on the envelope, the petitioner mailed the Petition to my office on May 1, 2023, which explains the delay in service. Accordingly, I have not had sufficient time to fully digest the petition and to prepare and file an opposition brief in accordance with the Supreme Court Rules. A brief extension of 48 hours should be ample time to allow me to complete these tasks. I emailed the petitioner earlier today to seek her assent to this request but have not received a response.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brian T. Corrigan
