SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

Twenty (20) Years on each of Counts 1s – 4s, to run concurrently, for a total term of

TWENTY (20) YEARS

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☒ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (Check, if applicable.)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check, if applicable.)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check, if applicable.)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check, if applicable.)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: Robert Christopher England
CASE NUMBER: 6:18-CR-056-S-CHB-01

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must participate in a program for treatment of mental health/sexual disorders; must undergo a sex offender risk assessment, psychosexual evaluation and/or other evaluation as needed; must be subject to periodic polygraph examinations and/or Computer Voice Stress Analysis (CVSA) testing, at the discretion and direction of the probation officer; and, must follow the rules and regulations of the sex offender treatment program as implemented by the probation office.
2. Your residence and employment must be pre-approved by the probation officer and in compliance with state and local law.
3. You must not frequent, volunteer, or work at places where children under the age of 18 congregate (e.g. playgrounds, parks, day-care centers, public swimming pools, youth centers, video arcade facilities) unless approved by the probation officer, and must have no contact with victims.
4. You must not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18 without the permission of the probation officer. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18 such as ticket vendors, cashiers, waiters, etc., with whom you must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
5. You must not possess, view, listen to, or go to locations where any form of pornography, sexually stimulating performances, or sexually oriented material, items, or services are available.
6. You must not possess or use a device capable of creating pictures or video, without the approval of the probation officer.
7. You must register as a sex offender as prescribed by state law.
8. You must not possess or use a computer or any device with access to any "on-line computer service" at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet Service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private network or e-mail system.
9. You must consent to the U.S. Probation Office conducting unannounced examinations of your computer system(s) and internal/external storage devices, which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system(s) for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection and will consent to having installed on your computer(s), any hardware/software to monitor your computer use or prevent access to particular materials, and to consent to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to insure it is functioning properly.
10. You must provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about your entire computer system (hardware/software) and internal/external storage devices; all passwords used by you; and will abide by all rules of the computer Restriction and Monitoring Program.

DEFENDANT: Robert Christopher England

ADDITIONAL SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

11. You must submit your person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office, to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of your supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.
12. You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information. This special condition for financial disclosure is recommended as a means to allow the U.S. Probation Office to monitor purchases of electronic and/or peripheral devices, as well as any internet service either subscribed to or accessed by you (e.g., amount paid for internet services exceeds amount approved by the Probation Office, you have purchased more electronic devices than you claim to possess).
