

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

CASE NUMBER: 22-6910

CAROLYN L FIELDS,
Petitioner,

vs.

HUNTER CONRAD, et al,
Respondents.

MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO PAY AND PRINT

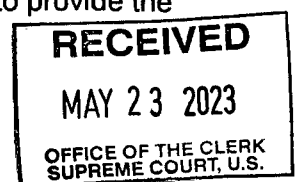

HERE Comes the petitioner, Carolyn L Fields, Hereby, respectfully moves the court to enter an Order giving her additional time to pay the filing fee and to get printed book form copies.

The petitioner, Carolyn L Fields, lost her job and she has been struggling since such time to make ends meet. With this lawsuit, the petitioner has spent many dollars to bring it to where it is. Since bringing this lawsuit to the Supreme Court level, she has paid for postage twice for twenty-eight (28) respondents, and binded printed copies, as well. In addition, she provided eleven (11) binded copies to the Court. These costs have primarily depleted her funds.

The petitioner, Carolyn L Fields, has no knowledge of what book form copies look like for the Supreme Court. I thought that book form was optional. So, I tried to provide clean and legal documents.

Since the denial of Petitioner's motion to proceed in forma pauperis, an indigent status was denied, I have had conversation with Cockle Legal Brief. This company told me that they could do the book form copies for a fee of $2,000.00 dollars (copy attached)

The petitioner, Carolyn L Fields, does not have these funds on hand today. Therefore, the petitioner respectfully requests that the Court give her a sixty (60) day extension to provide the Court with the filing fee and Cockle Legal Briefs with their two thousand (2,000.00) dollar print fee.

Thanks, in advance for your Honor's consideration. Respectfully, submitted. Dated: May 17, 2023.
