OFFICE OF THE CLERK

MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

COMES NOW, the Petitioner, Jeffrey T. Morris, pro se, requests this Honorable Court to issue an order extending the time to file his petition for writ of certiorari. For a period of ninety (90) days from the order granting this motion, and as reasons the Petitioner shows the Court the following:

1) The Petitioner's instant petition for writ of certiorari is due to be filed on the 12th day of September, 2022.

2) Petitioner has retained counsel and counsel failed to timely notify Petitioner of his denial from the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

3) The remaining time for filing this document is insufficient to ensure an adequate presentation of the Petitioner's argument on appeal.

4) Petitioner must process as pro se, he is untrained in the matters of law, and as a result has to seek help of other inmates or certified inmate law clerks at the facility where he is presently incarcerated.

5) This facility has only four certified inmate law clerks to assist a population of approximately 1900 inmates.

6) The Respondent will not be prejudiced in this delay as no other motions are before this Court with the exception of this instant motion.

7) The Respondent will be served a copy of the Petitioner's motion for enlargement of time as indicated in the incorporated certificate of service.

8) This motion is made in good faith without the intent to delay any actions of this Honorable Court or the Respondent.

WHEREFORE, the Petitioner requests this Court enter an order to grant and enlargement of time for ninety (90) days from the date of the order granting this instant motion.

UNNOTARIZED OATH

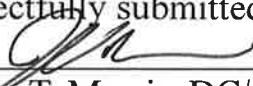

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing motion, I understand English, therefore I understand the contents of this motion and the facts stated within are true and correct.

Re: Jeffrey Morris v. Secretary, Florida Department of Corrections, docket no. 21-13692

Dear Mr. Morris:

I saw on the docket that you recently sent a document to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals requesting a status update on your pro se motion for reconsideration. The motion was denied by the Court on June 14, 2022. Although the Eleventh Circuit should have sent you a copy of the order, I am attaching a copy of the order to this letter. You still have time to seek certiorari review in the United States Supreme Court – you can file your petition within 90 days of the Eleventh Circuit's June 14, 2022, order.

Sincerely,

Michael Ufferman

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE ELEVENTH CIRCUIT

No. 21-13692-J

JEFFREY MORRIS,

Petitioner-Appellant,

versus

SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS STATE OF FLORIDA,

Respondent-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court
for the Northern District of Florida

Before: ROSENBAUM and GRANT, Circuit Judges.

BY THE COURT:

Jeffrey Morris has filed a motion for reconsideration, pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 22-1(c) and 27-2, of this Court's order dated April 21, 2022, denying his motion for a certificate of appealability, following the district court's denial of his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 federal habeas corpus petition. Because Morris has offered no new evidence or arguments of merit to warrant relief, his motion for reconsideration is DENIED.

IN THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE ELEVENTH CIRCUIT

No. 21-13692-J

JEFFREY MORRIS,

Petitioner-Appellant,

versus

SECRETARY, DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS STATE OF FLORIDA,

Respondent-Appellee.

Appeal from the United States District Court
for the Northern District of Florida

ORDER:

Jeffrey Morris moves for a certificate of appealability in order to appeal the district court's denial of his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 habeas corpus petition. Morris's motion for a certificate of appealability is DENIED because he has failed to make a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right. See 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2).

Case Style: Jeffrey Morris v. Secretary, Department of Corrections State of Flor
District Court Docket No: 3:19-cv-04819-LC-MJF

The enclosed copy of this Court's order denying the application for a Certificate of Appealability is issued as the mandate of this court. See 11th Cir. R. 41-4. Counsel and pro se parties are advised that pursuant to 11th Cir. R. 27-2, "a motion to reconsider, vacate, or modify an order must be filed within 21 days of the entry of such order. No additional time shall be allowed for mailing."

Any pending motions are now rendered moot in light of the attached order.

Sincerely,

DAVID J. SMITH, Clerk of Court
