Self-Represented

To the Honorable Circuit Justice for the United States Court of Appeals:

Pursuant to this Court's Rules 13.5, 30.2, and 30.3, Petitioner Kathryn Sorrentino, self-represented, respectfully requests that the time to file a Petition for Writ of Certiorari in this matter be extended for 60 up to and including September 17, 2022. The Court of Appeals denied a Petition for Certification to Appeal from the Appellate Court, (AC 45184) on April 19, 2022. (Appendix ("App.")A. Absent an extension of time, the Petition for Writ of Certiorari would be due on July 19, 2022. Petitioner is filing this Application more than ten days before that date. See S. Ct. R. 13.5. This Court would have jurisdiction over the judgment under 28 U.S.C. 1254(1).

Background

The facts and record shows that all judgments in the long history of this case are based on "void" judgments, most importantly the judgment of Strict Foreclosure. Upon appeal, the Appellate court remanded the case back to the Trial Court for "Law Days" without an explanation. The Trial Court is bound to obey the Appellate Court order even though the Trial Court admitted the Appellate Court order is wrong. The Respondent has made substantial errors and misrepresentations to both the Trial Court and the Appellate Court and covers them up with false allegations against the Petitioner. Most recently, they convinced the Appellate Court the Petitioner's Appeal is "frivolous." The Appellate Court denied hearing genuine issues of material fact as the Respondent claimed the issues were "frivolous."

Recently, the Appellate Court advised the Petitioner to file a Motion for Reconsideration.

Reasons For Granting An Extension Of Time

The time to file a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari should be extended for 60 days for good cause and for the following reasons:

1. Petitioner has recently been advised by the Appellate Court to file a “Motion for Reconsider” that will address the issue of the “void” judgments. This action will be a part of the Petitioner’s Writ of Certiorari.
2. This case presents issues of importance to litigants in foreclosure nationwide.
3. The Respondent has filed multiple actions that the Petitioner needs to litigate in the Trial Court that affect the Writ of Certiorari.
4. An extension will not cause prejudice to Respondent, as this Court would likely hear oral argument and issue its opinion in the October 2022 Term regardless of whether an extension is granted.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Petitioner respectfully requests that the time to file the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari in the matter be extended 60 days, up to and including September 17, 2022.

Respectfully submitted,

Kathryn Sorrentino
