Pursuant to Rule 23, of the Supreme Court, dated filed November 24, 2021, the United States of Appeals for the fourth Circuit, granted a stay of mandate until the court rule, under Fed.R.App.P.41(b) which was filed on 11/24/2021. The appellant has filed a Writ of Certiorari to the Supreme Court. For what it appears to be, due to the pandemic, the defendant submitted a coupon(s) for garnishment to the Plaintiff's employer since employed at December 2021, Amazon sub-contractor DSP (Delivery Services Provider), CEIBA Routes, of 2249 Hunters Run Dr. Reston Va. 20191-2833. Paperwork attached for review and record. The defendant(s) submitted document(s), with no supporting court order. Furthermore, the plaintiff have not received any of this paperwork to home address. The young adult has age out (emancipated-birthdate of 03-1999)and/or did not live in the state of Virginia. Both defendants are enforcing as if the plaintiff have/had one child in two different states. The amount to withhold, is from an employer in 2016 (Department of Homeland Security-Transportation Security Administration). There has not been any court appearance or court order after the young adult has age out, the case has been with U.S.court since 11/2020. Therefore, the employer email (attached for review), does not have any legal justification to enforce. My employer continues to speak to the defendants without my permission, and no current, to date court order, to support letterheads given to employer. The plaintiff is asking for Stay to be issue, until a decision is made.

I certify that the complainant's letterhead was sent by mail and/or electronic mail to the following; Ghostwriting Certification; Pursuant to local Civil Rule 83.1(m); No attorney assistance with filings.
