EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ORDER

Pro se litigant Theodore Luczak has filed at least 15 complaints in the Northern District of Illinois. On June 16, 2020, in case number 20 C 2987, Luczak v. State of Illinois, the Honorable Robert M. Dow, Jr. entered an order dismissing the matter and referring Mr. Luczak to the Executive Committee for consideration of the imposition of sanctions.

It is the judgment of the Executive Committee that reasonable and necessary restraints must be imposed upon Mr. Luczak's ability to file new Petitions for Release/Habeas Corpus Complaints in this District pro se. Cases in existence prior to the entry of this order are not affected by this order and shall proceed as usual.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that nothing in this order shall be construed

- a) to affect Mr. Luczak's ability to defend himself in any criminal action,
- b) to deny Mr. Luczak access to the United States Court of Appeals or the United States Supreme Court.
- c) to deny Mr. Luczak leave to file non-Habeas Corpus complaints in this District Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That any password issued to Theodore Luczak for access to the electronic filing system shall be disabled.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That any new Habeas Corpus complaints filed by Mr. Luczak and transferred to this Court from another jurisdiction shall be reviewed by the Executive Committee to determine whether they should be filed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the Clerk shall cause to be created and maintained a miscellaneous docket with the title "In Re: Theodore Luczak" and case number 20 CV 4164. The miscellaneous docket shall serve as the repository of this order and any order or minute order entered pursuant to this order. All orders will be entered on the docket following standard docketing procedures. A brief entry will be made on the docket indicating the receipt of any materials from Mr. Luczak.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the Clerk shall cause a copy of this order to be mailed to Mr. Luczak at Centralia Correctional Center, #B-00780, PO BOX 7711, Centralia, IL 62801, the address given by Mr. Luczak in documents filed on May 8, 2020. Such mailing shall be by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

3. Claim:

This complaint concerns the Political
Recalcitrance behavior of judge
Robert M. Dow, Jr., in the following
Unconstitutional and Non-Jurisdictional
Civil Complaint

4. Court:

United States Northern District Court
Case Number 20c 2987.

5. Statement:

On April 20, 2020, this complainant caused to be filed in the Supreme Court of the United States, a Writ of Right entitled In re Theodore Luczak v. State of Illinois. (See Exhibit #1)

That on May 1, 2020, the Office of the Clerk Supreme Court, U.S., stamped this complainant's letter 'Received' (See Exhibit #2) That as required by the U.S. Supreme Court Rules, this complainant served a copy on the Chief Judge of the U.S. Northern District Court.

That on May 4, 2020, the Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court, returned complainant's petition un-filed. (See Exhibit #3) did judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., without any kind of jurisdiction, filed only to dismiss complainant's petition in the U.S. Northern District court, and then referred complainant to the Executive Committee for consideration of the imposition of sanctions.

Only for Bias and Political reasons.

At No time, can judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., demonstrate to this committee, that this complainant requested to have the matter in question filed in the District Court, and it is Very Clear from Exhibit #1 that, the heading of the petition was referenced for the U.S. Supreme Court.

Judge Robert M. Dow, Jr., has No jurisdiction to enter a decision in a matter filed in the U.S. Supreme Court, and the Executive Committee has no jurisdiction to impose sanctions in a matter filed in the U.S. Supreme Court.

6 Standing For Review:

As complainant has demonstrated a cognizable misconduct complaint, under the Judicial Conduct Act that is based on the fact and identification of clear and convincing evidence, of Judge's Robert M. Dow, Jr., Political and Intentional actions to cause complainant to suffer sanctions of court access restrictions, despite his full knowledge that complainant never submitted any complaint for filing in the U.S. Northern District Court.

ORDER

For the reasons stated in the accompanying memorandum, this complaint is dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii).

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT
219 South Dearborn Street
Chicago, Illinois 60604

December 7, 2020

Chief Judge Diane S. Sykes

No. 07-20-90104

IN RE COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE:

MEMORANDUM

Complainant filed a frivolous misconduct complaint against a judge. It is dismissed.

The complainant filed similar misconduct complaints in the past several years, all of which were dismissed by Chief Judge Diane P. Wood, my predecessor in this position. In her last order, Chief Judge Wood advised the complainant that repetitive filing of insubstantial judicial-misconduct complaints is an abuse of the provisions of the Judicial Conduct and Disabilities Act of 1980, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364; see Rule 10(a) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings. She warned him that if he continued to abuse the provisions of the Act, she would ask the Judicial Council to require him to post a $1,000 bond before any future complaints are reviewed.

I issue that warning one last time: if the complainant files another insubstantial misconduct complaint, I will seek an order to show cause from the Judicial Council requiring him to post a $1,000 bond before any future complaints are reviewed. See Rule 10(a) of the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings.

The complaint is dismissed as frivolous pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(iii).
